

COVID claims more lives at King Lodge

The toll from COVID-19 continues to grow. The virus claimed the lives of six more residents of King City Lodge. On Monday, a 90-year-old woman and 89-year-old man passed away. Two fatalities were reported by York Health on Friday. One was an 88-year-old female and the other was a 72-year-old male. A 91-year-old woman died Dec. 3 and an 84-year-old male died Nov. 22. Currently, York Region has 61 open outbreaks (23 institutional, 25 workplaces, 11 schools, 2 child care) and 362 closed outbreaks.