December 13th in the pub! HATETHEDRAKE

Stage set for 'A Main Street Christmas'

When the snow is just starting to fall and winter is alsinging and playing music. most here, Schomberg gets all dressed up and invites everyone from near and far to come and enjoy a fun-filled family outing along the historic Main Street.

At Saturday's "A Main Street Christmas," there will be street performers, carolers, children's entertainers, fireside readings, holiday creations, an art and craft show, two parades, and, of course, Santa Claus and his reindeer.

The event starts with the craft show at 3 p.m., followed by the exciting Santa's Parade at 4, where local businesses and groups participate with creative floats and several bands march while playing rousing tunes. Between 5 and 8 you are invited to wander up and down Main Street to enjoy the sights and sounds of a bygone era with carolers

Stroll down Main Street, enjoy the festivities and be entertained by jugglers, musicians and singers. All the while you are tempted at every turn by refreshments such as hot apple cider, hot chocolate, roasted chestnuts, cookies and much, much more.

The evening is brought to a spectacular close with the Farmers' Parade of Lights brought to you by the local farming community with farm equipment driven down Main Street like you have never seen it before!

A Main Street Christmas has become a true community celebration in this lovely historic village.

AMSC is presented by the Schomberg Village Association, a non-profit organization, and sponsored in part by local businesses, individuals and groups. They offer particular thanks to the local farming community who spend countless hours preparing for the Farmers' Parade of Lights.

Part of the proceeds generated from the event is donated to one or more of the local community groups to benefit Schomberg and the surrounding area.

Cost for the day is $5 per adult, and children 12 and under are free. Admission to the craft show is included in the entry fee.

AMSC could not happen without the dozens of local residents which make up the team of volunteers who help to run the event each year. Thank you to each and every

King Township extends road work contracts into 2020

By Mark Pavilons

In keeping with its emphasis on road improvements, King council agree to extend 2019 contracts into the 2020 construction season.

King okayed the extension for asphalt resurfacing and gravel to asphalt conversion contracts to Lisbon Paving Ltd. for roughly $2.9 million. The company agreed to guarantee its current rates through the 2020 construction season.

Township staff noted that Lisbon has performed well this year and "demonstrated a commitment to working effectively with Township staff and affected residents."

Staff noted the 2020 paving program is centred around two strategies - maintaining assets and infrastructure and its governing financial pillar,

This will reduce maintenance costs and improve driveability over time. These strategies are in line with the Township's Transportation Master Plan.

While not finalized just yet, the local roads for paving include the 10th Concession, from the 15th Sideroad to the 17th Sideroad; the 16th Sideroad from Highway 27 to the 10th. Other roads include the 15th Sideroad, from the 8th

Above, by converting gravel to asphalt. Concession to Weston Road, and Miller Sideroad from Dufferin to Bathurst. The 11th Concession, from the 15th to the 16th, is also on the list.

Staff estimates the total work in 2020 at roughly $2.9 million.

Councillor Avia Eek called this a "brilliant move" and Councillor Jakob Schneider said he was pleased with the conversion projects.

Firefighters encourage donations head-on with a new planning tool. Municipalities in the GTA have been under pressure to grow since the term "urban sprawl" was coined in the 1950s. It was first used to describe the growth around London, England and traditionally referred to short, unplanned, incremental urban growth which is often regarded as unsustainable. The fast pace of that growth left a lot of towns and cities scrambling to catch up, move forward and innovate.

Intensification, a new catch phrase meaning dense, concentrated development, is an edict from the Province, something all municipalities must follow. It basically eliminates "sprawl" by per hectare, well below the regional and limiting growth to the village cores and surrounding residential areas. Council vote is 'ironic'

It's ironic that King Township proudly proclaims that "King loves its trees," yet by a vote of 6-1 council chose to not implement a proposed tree bylaw that would have prevented further random destruction of mature trees in its three settlement

Council's reasoning could be understood if the draft bylaw had been onerous and restrictive in nature but by current tree bylaw standards, this document was anything but. It was specifically designed to encourage landowners within the villages to have second thoughts if they were considering removing mature trees

If, after careful consideration, they chose to remove the tree(s), for each tree removed, there would be a requirement of three replacement trees measuring 5 to 7 centimetres diameter at breast height (DBH). This rule reflects current Township practice with its publicly owned trees.

The proposed bylaw was most liberal in that there was to be no permit fee and no charge for the services of a certified arborist to determine if a tree was ailing or dying and exempt from the three to one replacement rule. The aim was to protect healthy, mature trees from wanton destruction and to maintain and grow the overall canopy of Township trees.

I believe council made the decision they did because of a small, but very vocal group of residents who object to the by-law, not because they are opposed to the protection of trees but simply because they feel no one has the right to tell them what they can do on their own properties. They are obviously forgetting that there are existing bylaws covering other issues that dictate what they can do and what they cannot do. It's shocking that council allowed the greater good to be sacrificed simply to appease these short-sighted individuals.

Both Vaughan and Newmarket have new tree bylaws. These communities have belatedly recognized that trees are important to our wellbeing and are at least attempting to mitigate the damage caused by rampant development.

Unfortunately, King Township, which has become a centre of rampant development itself, has not. Instead of waiting like these communities to rectify the damage after the fact, King might have had the foresight to enact the legislation beforehand.

- The Township of King is commencing a traffic calming project.
- Our goal is a slower, safer King.
- King is seeking community input on traffic calming throughout the township
- The focus of this program is on school zones and residential streets at locations where excessive speeding is prevalent, particularly in neighbourhoods with high numbers of cyclists and/or pedestrians share the road. It is not about reducing congestion, reducing trucks or eliminating cut-through traffic.
- Traffic calming is creating a safer roadside environment by reducing speeds and encouraging responsible driver behavior.
- Council has prioritized traffic calming and we need your help to identify hotspots and to provide tangible solutions and feedback.
- The information you provide will help shape and guide a new traffic calming policy for King Township.
- We have created several opportunities for feedback and we welcome your input to help shape our community vision of a slower, safer KING.
- Visit speaking.king.ca to learn more about traffic calming, take a survey and use a map feature to place pins where you think traffic calming measures would be most effective. Mayor Steve Pellegrini once commented that volunteers aren't paid because their worth is priceless, not valueless. I wonder how these dedicated volunteers feel now. Under-valued, perhaps?

It is sad that King Township, whose council members make frequent claims about "sustainable development" based upon "green policies," will not take a definitive stand in favour of retaining mature trees and forested lands. Listen to Hans Martin who has a wealth of experience in atmospheric science! And consider only Councillor Schaefer voted in favour of the bylaw.

Meanwhile, mature trees continue to fall by the hundreds. Those trees produce the oxygen on which all life depends. They provide the shade to cool rivers and creeks to the benefit of

First, thanks go to Catherine Flear, cold-water fisheries. Only their living wood sequesters carbon dioxide (CO2). Their leaves help to filter the air where trees are retained in sufficient numbers. As forests, they provide countless ecological services to us, plus homes for native species.

Only the deep roots of trees absorb rainfall in direct proportion to their individual sizes and extent of their natural communities, thereby mitigating flood potential. While natural areas continue to disappear in the face of extensive rapid new developments, and roads become ever wider and more choked by growing traffic congestion, King council cannot find the internal fortitude to adopt a preliminary tree bylaw. Why not? Even Vaughan has a tree bylaw, which appears to have been adopted long after the landscape was bull-dozed and transformed into an unimaginative paved maze of concrete formwork structures. Is that how long King intends to wait?

Though the tree bylaw was shelved, we are assured, "as part of a 'comprehensive tree preservation work plan,' staff will be looking at tree protection, urban tree inventory, a study and forest master plan, its building permit process and a public tree by-law." This has been going on for 10 years already. How does continuing equivocation prevent unnecessary clearing right now? Last week? Next summer?

If the Township won't do this job, then who? The Local Appeals Planning Tribunal (LPAT)?

Let's look at the most recent exasperating example of an LPAT decision, regarding the Bushland Heights development application in a very sensitive natural forested area. The name for this development is downright ironic under the circumstances. Bushland? Not for long!

Right out of the starting gate, LPAT, the new politically-appointed and unelected provincial board with extensive power over municipal Official Plans, certainly showed itself to be the OMB's doppelganger in all but name.

Okay, there might be one difference: the LPAT appears weaker than the OMB, thanks to a new rule regarding the province's iron-fisted approach when it comes to steam-rolling any municipal plans. Remember Schedule 10 of Bill 66 (the Ford government's new Open for Business omnibus bill, unveiled shortly after the June election of 2018), which removed the requirement for public consultation when it came to the provincial demand that local municipalities kow-tow to developers?

There was a huge public backlash (in the form of close to 70,000 responses from irate citizens) against Schedule 10, so the province beat a hasty retreat and nixed it. In reality, Ontario simply transformed Schedule 10 into LPAT's Rule 8.3 for a Non-Appellant Party, which strips a hearing participant of legal standing, after that participant (in this case, the Kingscross Ratepayers Association – KRA) had hired legal counsel and expert testimony to defend their community and associated natural heritage. After two years of preparation, KRA was hobbled by a brand new two-month old retroactive rule.

Here's the content of Rule 8.3, the latest ruse to eliminate citizen participation in local decision making, born in September 2019: "A party, who is not an Appellant in a proceeding, but is conferred party status by the Tribunal, may not raise or introduce new issues in the proceeding. A non-Appellant party may only participate in the proceeding by sheltering under an issue raised in an appeal by an Appellant party and may participate fully in the proceeding to the extent that issue remains in dispute. A non-Appellant party has no independent status to continue an appeal that is withdrawn by an Appellant party, or is otherwise resolved or determined by the Tribunal."

If you read this definition in reverse, it sounds the same. Unintelligible, exactly the way it was intended. A new version of Kurt Vonegut's "Catch 22."

Government has missed the mark

The following letter, to the Liberal Party of Canada, was submitted to the Sentinel.

First, it is too bad that you are just starting now!

Further to the campaign slogan, "Starting strong" - In the Right Direc-

I am disappointed. During the election, the Liberal leader said he would get 2 billion trees planted.

This notion is idiotic. How did this get past your science advisors! Or do you have any?

Look up the growth profile for a tree, say a maple. How long does it take for it to really make a difference, really start vigorous CO2 sequestration? Give it 30 to 40 years! My children and I do not have this length of time. We are already late with our solutions.

You missed the mark.

Your clarion call should have been, at least, "save the trees!"

By the way, our council in King township also wants to plant trees, not save them.

Our children will hate us. This tendency is already showing here and there. They do not feel safe about their future, the future that we hold in our hands.

Shame!

Arthritis:

New Approach Delivers Remarkable Results

If you suffer from Arthritis you need to be aware of effective advancements that can eliminate years of pain, suffering, immobility and frustration.

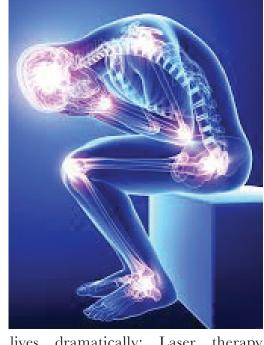

You may have told your doctor you suffer with one or more of the following: sore, stiff knees, painful achy hips, low back pain, mid back pain, neck stiffness or pain, hand stiffness, shoulder pain or elbow pain.

You may find that your pain affects your work, or stiffness housekeeping, leisure activities, exercise, sports or other activities. You go to the drug store or to your doctor and get pills to help relieve your pain. But you find the pain keeps returning. Alternatively, the doctor may refer you to a specialist who may tell you that surgery is needed or is an option for you.

However, many people are hesitant to have surgery given its invasive nature. It is important to know that although surgery is sometimes necessary, it is considered a last resort highly effective approach has helped in most cases.

Also, you may have heard that there are serious health risks associated with chronic use (or overuse) of pain pills or anti-inflammatory drugs that include damage to the liver, kidneys and gut.

There is a new, natural, safe and highly effective approach that has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically: Laser therapy uses light to favor and accelerate the body's natural healing processes. The innovative Multiwave Locked System (MLS) Laser produces a safe, efficient and simultaneous effect on pain, inflammation, swelling and water retention, exceeding the limits of traditional LLLT (Low power) and concerns of HP (High power) laser therapy.

What does this mean for you?

Our patients have reported a 90-95% relief of their symptoms, more mobility, increased flexibility and vastly improved function!

It is the very latest in medical technology, with years of clinical studies supporting its safety and efficacy and we are very proud to offer our patients effective solutions to their recent or chronic conditions.

Influential Women's group awards funding for VR at Seneca

By Julia Galt

The fear of public speaking is soon to become a much less formidable challenge for Seneca students.

The King Township Women of Influence Giving Circle came together for their 3rd annual meeting Nov. 26, awarding a $10,000 donation to the installation of an InStage Virtual Reality Tool at the college's King Campus. The event, which took place in Seneca's Magna Hall, involved a three-hour deliberation and debate as the four competing projects pitched their ideas to the judges in an effort to secure the $10,000 donation. Impact to students, benefits to the community, and total amount of affected individuals are all taken into account when deciding who will receive the grant.

The winning project, "Improving Public Speaking Skills Using VR", was presented by Sheila Bruce, Manager for Career Development at Seneca; Imran Mouna, co-founder of InStage; and Chris Dudley, Director of Entrepreneurship at HELIX, Seneca's entrepreneurship incubator. By installing an InStage Virtual Reality Unit at King Campus, the project aims to develop and critically improve public speaking skills through the recreation of scenarios like presentations, panel interviews, and elevator pitches. Not only will this benefit all students looking to increase their public speaking skills, it also has particular benefit to those in community-facing programs such as nursing, social work, and policing. The grant will be put towards the installation and maintenance of the InStage VR Unit.

"It was an incredible opportunity to start this journey at HELIX, and now see this expand across Seneca after the success of having career services implement some of these programs at the Newnham Campus. It's exciting to see now that King will have access to this, and hopefully soon Markham as well," said Mouna, referencing another Seneca campus that may soon benefit from the InStage technology.

"As a woman myself, I think it's an incredible opportunity to work with community champions to launch something at this campus that has clearly been a success at Newnham. I think The Giving Circle is a great initiative, a great project that these women are supporting here at this campus for the third year, and I'm really proud to be a part of it," Bruce stated.

The King Township Women of Influence Giving Circle is comprised of women across various backgrounds, careers, and experience, all with a special connection to the Township. Founded in 2016, the group holds regular meetings to discuss areas of change and growth within Seneca's King Campus. Funds for the Giving Circle are raised through a yearly $1,000 donation by each member.

"It always came down to where we would have the most impact to the broadest base of students, and also considering the community and the benefit from a community perspective," stated Daniela Gatti, District Vice President of GTA North Scotiabank, Toronto Region, and Giving Circle member. "It felt that our contribution was going to have the greatest impact to a greater number of students with that one particular project."

As has been done since their inaugural meeting in 2016, the King Township Women of Influence Giving Circle will meet a year later to see how their donation has made an impact to Seneca's community and students.

Kettleby home receives King's 2019 heritage award

Heritage buildings play a vital role in forming communities and building unique character. The stories that accompany these places give us sense of pride and sense of place.

The King Township Heritage Advisory Committee opened the nominations for the 2019 King Heritage Award earlier this year and the public was invited to nominate heritage properties they felt were worthy of recognition. The Heritage Advisory Committee received numerous nominations throughout the Township.

From the nominations, a property was selected to be awarded with the 2019 King Heritage Award. The selected property owner will receive a drawing of their property produced by local artist, Phyllis Vernon.

The property selected for 2019 is 456 Kettleby Road.

The home is a fine example of a 1 ½ storev Ontario Gothic Vernacular home. Gingerbread on all gables, the central front gable featuring a pendant and full width 3-bay verandah supported on original trelliage. The home was built by Robert Hale Smith a Merchant from Newmarket in 1868, the year of Confederation.

The home is believed to have been built on portions of an older home that was owned by Brooks Wakefield Walton, pre-1864. Walton ran a successful agricultural implement business from this property which employed blacksmiths and woodworkers. Walton patented the improved combined cultivator and seed drill and inscribed them with "Manufactured by Brooks W. Walton, Main St., Kettleby, Canada West."

The implement was later adopted by the Massy-Harris Company, one of the largest implement manufacturers at the time. The Walton family contributed greatly to Kettleby with their businesses. Brooks Walton's nephew, Jacob Walton, was postmaster in Kettleby and built the home now known as Brunswick Hall in 1875. Jacob's son, Jesse Walton, took over the family business as postmaster after his father retired in 1891. Jesse was also the treasurer for King Township for several years and later moved to Aurora to open a private bank, Walton and Co., Bankers.

The home was later owned by Sam Waldock in the early 1900s. Waldock was the miller who promoted the wellknown Lily White Flour of "The Kettleby Flour Mills."

The property is currently owned by Rick Sikorski and Wendy Cockburn who have lived in the home since 2000.

The Robert Hale house contributes to the cultural heritage value of the historic streetscape of Kettleby. Its unique character and history tell us of a time long ago when people settled in this form part of our great Township.

Local jazz artist marks first anniversary on Jazz FM

By Mark Pavilons

A King jazz artist has been dishing out jazz like home-made New Orleans delicacies for just over a year. And he can't be more pleased.

Ron Littlejohn of Snowball is the voice behind "The Gumbo Kitchen" on Jazz FM 91.

He admitted he came up with the idea almost a decade ago, and the idea was rekindled in 2018 and made it to air.

Listeners have enjoyed the show so much that the station moved Littlejohn from one hour to three hours on Friday nights.

He simply loves promoting and supporting local artists – "folks that otherwise would have a hell of a time getting their music on the radio."

makes Jazz FM 91 so special.

"A lot of stations look at Canadian content as a cross around their neck. We embrace it. It's a true community."

Littlejohn admitted he also loves hearing from the listeners.

"I get emails every week from people not only in Toronto but all over the globe telling me they love the show. They tell me their stories. They tell me where they are listening from. It's fantastic. Having a show on Jazz FM 91 is not like having a show on any other station. I have complete freedom and support to program the music I think people will enjoy. That is gold. You don't get that at other radio stations."

It seems Littlejohn has taken to the airwaves like a duck to water. He's had a love affair with radio since he was a kid. He recalls going to the CNE and instead of hitting the rides, he was fascinated by an announcer doing a remote broadcast.

Over the past year, Littlejohn has been doing what works.

"In the very beginning I had it in my mind that The Gumbo Kitchen was all New Orleans and nothing else. It's about 85 per cent New Orleans music. The beauty of the show being called 'Gumbo Kitchen' is you can throw in lots of different things, as long as it feels good and is righteous. That is the beauty of gumbo!"

Listeners seem glued to the radio. For announcers, it's sometimes difficult to guage your impact or level of enjoyment. But Littlejohn has heard from countless fans that they get wrapped up in the show.

"I don't get that many requests. It's That, he said, is another thing that mostly people writing in to comment on a song they had never heard before. They also comment on the interviews.

"Jazz FM 91 has given me the freedom to reach out to some incredible artists for interviews. Everyone I have reached out to has agreed to come on the show. People like George Porter Jr. of The Meters, Cyril Neville of The Neville brothers, Irma Thomas, Terence Blanchard, Preservation Hall Jazz Band, Five Blind Boys, Booker T Jones. of Booker T and the MGs."

Littlejohn observed that the thing about New Orleans music is that it is so "I would argue that the New Orleans music scene is stronger than it has ever been. There is something in the city musically for everyone - Trad Jazz, Funk. Soul, Second line brass bands, Mardi Gras Indians, zydeco, gospel, bounce.

It seems the destructive Hurricane Katrina in 2005 actually had a beneficial impact on music.

"After Katrina I remember thinking how will they ever recover from this. All these New Orleans artists were uprooted; displaced all over America after the storm. They had to make a living. So clubs in Houston and wherever folks ended up would hear that there was an artist in town from New Orleans and book him or her in their club or what-

"One thing about a lot of New Orleans musicians in that they are just fine with only being famous in their home- while you're at it.

town. Hurricane Katrina, however, forced them to get out of the city and many careers exploded. Allen Toussaint called Hurricane Katrina a 'baptism' rather than drowning because of what it did to bring attention to the city and it's musicians."

Like gumbo, Littlejohn just can't get enough of this type of music.

"To me New Orleans music has a fire that I have never heard anywhere else. I felt it the moment I arrived."

His listeners agree.

Tune in to hear Littlejohn on Friday nights, and grab some comfort food

King actor reflects on his role in 'A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood'

By Mark Pavilons

The story of kindness transcends generations.

What "A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood" does is remind us all of the beauty that is present, according to one of its stars, King's own Enrico Colantoni.

He plays Bill Iseler, long-time friend, producer and right-hand-man to the legendary Fred Rogers.

Colantoni said he had the chance to meet and become friends with Iseler during the production, which brought him closer to his character and the whole feeling around the Rogers phenomenon.

"It was hard not to think that Fred wasn't present the whole time." Colantoni said in a broadcast interview.

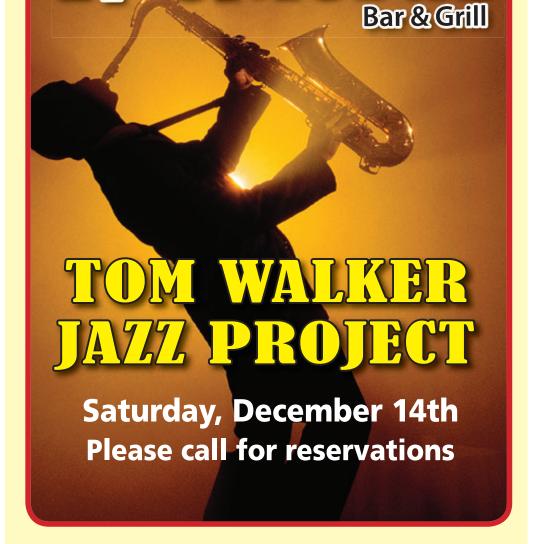

While he personally didn't grow up during the Rogers era, Colantoni said we appreciate him and understand the value in what he was doing at the time and how he approached life. Rogers was known for saying that what is mentionable is manageable, which means if we can talk about something, we can deal with it.

The film, Colantoni said, is a "mixed bag of gifts" and the message is simple, as it always has been – it's about forgiveness, friendship, respect and being heard. People can change the world with words.

Colantoni said the message to all is that we're all precious.

Two-time Oscar®-winner Tom Hanks portrays Mister Rogers in the film, currently in theatres. It's a story of kindness triumphing over cynicism, based on the true story of a real-life friendship between Fred Rogers and journalist Tom Junod. After a jaded magazine writer (Emmy winner Matthew Rhys) is assigned a profile of Fred Rogers, he overcomes his skepticism, learning about empathy, kindness, and decency from America's most beloved neighbor.

Fred Rogers (who died in 2003) was an American television personality, musician, puppeteer, writer, producer, and Presbyterian minister. He was known as the creator, showrunner and host of the preschool television series Mister Rogers' Neighborhood, which ran from 1968 to 2001. The program was critically acclaimed for focusing on children's emotional and physical concerns, such as death, sibling rivalry, school enrollment, and divorce.

Sharon Bentley retires after 37 years at King Public Library

By Rebecca Robinson

After 37 years of service to the King Township Public Library, Deputy CEO Sharon Bentley has retired. Her retirement celebration took place in early November, where she was honoured by colleagues, community members, family and friends at the King Heritage and Cultural Centre.

Beginning her career at the King Township Public Library (KTPL) in 1982 as a library technician, Sharon worked her way up to Deputy CEO within a couple of years, even acting as Interim CEO a couple of times. She represented KTPL on a few local boards including Arts Society King (ASK), the King Heritage and Cultural Centre and the King Historical Society.

She was involved in many integral projects, relying on new technological advancements to improve the services offered by the Library. Some of her achievements included overseeing the transition from the physical card catalogue to the computerized Integrated Library System used today, designing the library's current website, and advocating for the introduction and use of public wi-fi in the Library – King was one of the first libraries in the province to offer it!

Sharon had a particular affection and affinity for the local history collection. Her passion for local history and her knowledge and skills in technology have ensured that the stories of residents and the evolution of life in King Township have been recorded and preserved for people to access for years to come. She established, catalogued and indexed an extensive archival collection and was a founding member of the King Archives. Walter Rolling Online, which served to document the early African Canadian experience in the context of King Township, was another initiative she spearheaded. In addition, she worked on Timeless King Online, the online collection of historical photos, documents and audio clips.

One of Sharon's final local history projects focused on the contribution of soldiers from King Township during the World Wars. She was especially intrigued with World War I soldiers from King Township. Sharon digitized Earl Campbell's letters home, a soldier from King City who wrote home about his experiences during the war and his fellow King Township soldiers. She also researched all 338 World War I soldiers from King Township and created an online database for them.

Sharon's dedication and contribution to local history projects has been widely recognized and in 2014 she received the Ontario Library Association's (OLA) Archival and Preservation Achievement Award.

Sharon's dedication and hard work to the Library and the King Township community cannot be overstated. The King Township Public Library wishes Sharon all the best on her well-deserved retirement and we are looking forward to serving her as a patron!

York builds on reduction, diversion

The Regional Municipality of York remains at the forefront when it comes to sustainable ways to manage waste, achieving 94% diversion from landfill.

The 2018 Annual Solid Waste Diversion Report summarizes all waste tonnes collected through local city and town curbside collection programs and municipal public drop-off depots.

"York Region remains diligent in our efforts of tackling waste within our communities," said York Region chairman and CEO Wayne Emmerson. "By working with our partners, developing innovative solutions and encouraging everyday habits in the community, we continue to exceed our Regional Official Plan goal of diverting 90% from landfill."

Highlights of 2018 waste diversion efforts include collecting:

- 99,065 tonnes of green bin organics.
- 83,526 tonnes of blue box recyclables.
- 42,287 tonnes of yard waste.
- 1,219 tonnes of household hazardous waste.
- 1.124 tonnes of electronic waste.
- 123,229 tonnes of energy from waste converted.

Bureaucratic interference

The LPAT chair gets to decide upon whom it shall bestow party status at a hearing. If you are a citizen, or a citizens' group, who questions a development, forget it.

All I can say is developers will never have to stoop to the use of Strategic Lawsuits Against Public Participation again, since the Province went to all the trouble of designing this legal gag order. The developers' hands are clean since the LPAT issues the gag at the behest of the province. Would the province please stop selling face time with MPPs and the premier to developers? When do citizens get a "look inside the provincial legislative door?"

The KRA now has the dubious distinction of being the first "victim" of Rule 8.3 after paying for a lawyer and expert witnesses, who were not permitted to testify. Basically, this unelected board told KRA to submit their written comments and get out of the way.

You can familiarize yourself with the LPAT and read summaries about each board member at https://www.pas.gov. on.ca/Home/Agency/462

Even better, you can read about the generous remuneration packages for LPAT members and chairs at the same website. There's nothing more heart-warming than seeing your tax dollars used to fatten up yet another layer of impenetrable unresponsive bureaucracy. You may as well know what services are being bought with your tax

Will I ever accept that regional and municipal taxes must be paid by this one single level of taxpayers so those lower tiers of government can comply with the upper tier's mandate to prepare Official Plans (OPs)? Yet, even before those OPs are finalized and adopted, developers seize their favourite joy-stick in the form of the LPAT to intervene and shred those same OPs. I'd call it a waste of tax dollars in the interest of subverting local democracy while undermining any hope for conservation of dwindling natural heritage. What would you call it?

As far as the Bushland Heights application went, there was a smorgasbord of environmental concerns raised in reports prepared by Hunter and Associates, Environmental and Engineering Consultants (hired for its expertise by KRA), and the TRCA, regarding the need for heightened attention to land contours, wetlands, groundwater, and forests within this sensitive area.

When Chair Ballagh finally proposed moving forward in a non-adversarial "settlement hearing," between the developer and King Township only, thereby excluding KRA and its experts' testimony, I thought she might be on to something. If the LPAT chair believes the developer and the township ought to work together, why not stick to the original content of approved Official Plans? The developers and elected town council would still have to work together without all the added unnecessary costs and oversight of a superfluous unelected board. Citizens are happy to volunteer their time because they have to live with the consequences. LPAT members don't.

Time to go back to the legislative drawing board to remove this layer of unnecessary and costly bureaucratic interference.

I thought Premier Ford said he wanted to cut the costs of government. Well, start by eliminating the LPAT.

Schomberg's Main Street in the festive spirit

Just in time for A Main Street Christmas, Schomberg's Main Street has transformed itself into a winter wonderland.

The famous 45-foot-tall Main Street Christmas tree is adorned with lights, and was the centre of the annual tree lighting ceremony on Nov. 24.

Almost all of the businesses are decorated with festive bows, thanks to over 2,000 bows which were donated to the Schomberg Village Association by local business BTN, and were handed out to all of the businesses in late November.

Main Street homes and businesses have outdone themselves this year with beautiful festive décor up and down the street.

And right in the centre of it all, the entrance to Lions Park is adorned with an arch of greenery, birch and twinkling lights. Upon entering the park, residents see a horse drawn sleigh, filled with brightly wrapped gifts. The sleigh is decorated with bows and greenery and surrounded by brightly lit Christmas trees, provided by Darlene Rupke of Seasons Floral Studio. The scene makes the perfect setting for a Christmas card photo.

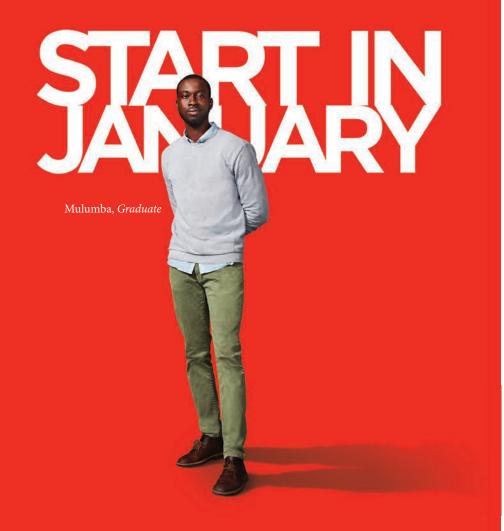

The display is part of the Schomberg Main Street Revitalization Strategy, which began in 2018 and is completing its second year. A cornerstone of the strategy is to give Schomberg residents even more reasons to visit Main Street, where they will also be charmed by the shops and dining choices.

And Schomberg's biggest one day event of the year, A Main Street Christmas, which brings visitors and practically every Schomberg resident out to Main Street, is just around the corner.

"We are in our final preparations for A Main Street Christmas," said Schomberg Village Association president Charles Cooper. "This is the event's 24th year, and it has become a mainstay in the community. We get thousands of attendees, and most of our community members host their own annual Christmas parties right after the event. We are also so fortunate to receive terrific support from our local businesses in terms of sponsorships and in-kind donations.'

A Main Street Christmas will take place on Saturday, Dec. 7 from 3 to 9 p.m. The Santa Claus parade takes place at 4pm, and the famous Farmers' Parade of Lights

Cougars streak snapped by rival Golden Hawks

By Jake Courtepatte

The Schomberg Cougars had their claws clipped in a pair of losses on the Provincial Junior Hockey League schedule last week, ending a threegame winning streak.

Thursday's hosting of the Caledon Golden Hawks marked the fourth meeting of the year between the longtime rivals, having played to within a one-goal separation in each contest so far this season.

Yet the Golden Hawks offense had no troubles getting past the Schomberg D in this game, who gave up their fourth highest goal total of the year in a 6-3 loss.

A back-and-forth effort from both sides had the game tied at twos midway through the second, with Schomberg's tallies coming off the sticks of Spencer Ripley and Rees Cameron, before Marc Bottero and Vito Sica put the Golden Hawks up for good.

Schomberg's Brandon Cohen sent the game back to a one-goal score late in the second to make it 4-3, though it was as close as they would get, before Ethan Lajeunesse restored Caledon's two-goal cushion with under five minutes to go.

The Cougars pulled Alex Surzycia in a push in the final minutes, though Sica was able to bury his second of the game into the empty cage.

Looking to bounce back in a meeting with the Alliston Hornets the following night, the Cougars got a taste of what the division-leading team could bring in a 4-1 loss.

Surzycia was back between the pipes in a stellar effort despite picking up the loss, stopping 39 pucks. Spencer Ripley provided Schomberg's only tally, an unassisted marker midway through the final period.

A week without a point failed to do much with the Cougars' standing in the PJHL's Carruthers division, sitting fourth in the eight-team division amongst a tightly contested middle of the pack.

Their record of 12-11-1-2 has them tied with the Orillia Terriers with 27 points each, twelve points back of the Hornets for tops in the division.

Next up for the Cougars is a hosting of the 8-16-0-0 Midland Flyers at the Trisan Centre on Thursday, with puck drop scheduled for 7:30p.m.

The following evening has the Cougars visiting the 10-12-0-1 Penetang Kings on the road.

MacLennan captures bronze in Tokyo

King native and Olympic gymnast Rosie MacLennan captured bronze in the women's individual trampoline event at 2019 Trampoline Gymnastics World Championships.

Team Canada emerged from the competition with three bronze medals, an Olympic qualification spot in women's trampoline, and four quota spots for the 2021 World Games in tumbling and double mini-trampoline.

MacLennan entered the competition as the defending world champion and she earned 54.820 points for the bronze medal. MacLennan won gold at the last Olympic Games in London and Rio.

Japanese gymnasts won the top spots, with Mori Hikaru taking gold with a score of 55.860, while Chisato Doihata won silver with 55.225.

Samantha Smith of Vancouver was seventh.

"I decided to go with a slightly easier routine today, and to just keep it high and clean, and I think it paid off," MacLennan was quoted as saying. "I was able to feel a little more stable on the trampoline and I was really happy with it.

"I came into this competition trying to focus on one day at a time, and to put out the best routines I could and I was able to do that. And to be able to come out with a medal is really unbelievable. I'm really excited to get back home and get back training and keep pushing for the World Cups next year.'

Rosie's mother Jane posted on social media: "Well now I can relax. Rosie earned a bronze. Super proud of her ability to rise above adversity and turn her journey into a success story."

Toronto's Jordyn Miller-Burko finished eighth in the women's double mini-trampoline final. Canada was fourth in the team all-around competition.

Yellow rocks held upper hand in curling action

By Shellee Morning

Does the colour of the rock make a difference in the performance of the game? Well, as the scoreboard revealed in a few of the King Curling Club's evening games, it certainly does. Yellow stones prevailed in 3 out of the 4 sheets played in several league schedules this past week.

In both the Wednesday evening Social league and the Thursday Mixed, the colour of the rock, its cutters and the lively ones must have all been in the selection of the Yellow stones. Scoreboard results indicated clearly that the rocks made the difference (obviously it couldn't be the player's performance ... lol).

Wednesday evening posted 2 tie games in the 8 team match-ups, while the rest of the outcomes played a heavily lop-sided conclusion. Broadhurst and Wasylkiw both concluded with a win of 7-2 and Robinson won by 9-4 in his game.

It was the game against Gerrits and Rhind that easily grabbed the interest of spectators as the competition collected an astonishing double digit score by both teams. The battle left no stone unturned (no pun intended) with multiple rocks in play, which is just the way Skip George Gerrits likes it. Teammates Brenda Clark, Cheryl Teasdale and John Caruso did what every player tries to do and execute just what the Skipper calls for, no questions asked. Skip Wayne Rhind and his lineup of Dean Teasdale (yes he's Cheryl's husband), Judy Tripp and Enrico Belper followed the same strategy and went rock for rock against the opposition. Of course the game brought on an extra desire for the win, with the Teasdale husband/wife battle for bragging rights.

The drama began with Gerrits jumping ahead with a 6-point lead after 3 ends. During the 4th, Team Gerrits chased a buried shot missing it 4 times while Team Rhind just kept piling their rocks into the rings resulting in a 6 point end to tie the game.

Cheryl Teasdale of Team Gerrits delivers her rock in a dramatic 12-10 win during the Wednesday evening Social League.

Rhind sitting with 4 counters by the time it was Gerrits shot. Gerrits left with a draw to the button to at least

The drama continued in the 5th with cut the count down, ticked off a guard and handed Rhind another 4 point end and the lead of 10-6. Gerrits managed to earn 3 in the 6th and stole another in the 7th to tie the game for a second time at 10-10.

Would you call it comedy or tragedy up to this point? The stage was set for a thrilling 8th end performance. Team Gerrits with the momentum lead his squad for a steal of 2 to win 12-10. Great curling by both teams was an understatement, and the game story was labelled a spectacular drama series.

Thursday mixed early draw also created a story line into what the losing teams would say was "top heavy or a wonky" scoring game. Again the yellow stones seemed to be in control and curling to that perfect spot. Teams Boynton, Robinson, Barber and Stronach were all on the right side of the broom with strong multiple scoring ends collecting the win. The rest of the field was quietly counting down the ends and looking forward to the social part of the evening. The late draw played into its own real life documentary again showcasing the yellow stones victorious with Davis. Broad. Clark. and Campbell sweeping to victory.

The theme through Advent is Narnia. A place found by walking through a closet of fur coats, coming out into a forest in the middle of winter, where it seems there is no life. Yet even in this forest, a shining lamp post stands, beckoning - and pointing – but where?

Throughout Advent, walk with four children - Peter, Susan, Edmund and Lucy - as they navigate a mythical world where animals live, and think, and have feelings - and even life - when two Sons of Adam, and two Daughters of Eve enter Narnia – the spell of the White Witch will be broken, Father Christmas will come again, and new life begins. Aslan, the Great Lion,

Through the weeks of Advent, travel through Narnia and reflect on how this set of stories supposedly for children is stories for all of us. Take a little time each day to read, and to reflect.

For many years, York Pines United Church has enjoyed door-to-door carolling in Pottageville and Kettleby, and your friendship and platters of Christmas cookies have been appreciated.

This year we would like to thank you for all the years of opening your doors to us, so we invite you and your family to join us for a Community Carol Sing, 2 to 3 p.m.

We look forward to welcoming you and singing with you, and enjoying some cider and cookies.

All welcome to attend Christmas Eve Family Service, Tuesday Dec. 24 at

King Bible Church

We invite you to join us on Sunday, Dec. 8 as Pastor Mark Nowell presents "God With Us."

Please take advantage of our excellent children's ministry. Our Sunday morning Celebration Zone provides age-appropriate programs for children aged 4 to Grade 8. Our children's program is staffed by screened volunteers who care about your kids! The children in Grades 1-8 will join their parents for the beginning of the service until they are invited to go downstairs. The children in kindergarten can go directly to their class at the start of the service.

If you have children aged 0-3 then we invite you to bring them to our beautiful and safe nursery facilities which are located on the lower level.

Caregivers will meet you there.

Our "Legacy" nights are our family Bible study nights. We will provide Nursery care for children 0-3.

Our children (JK-Grade 5), Junior High (Grades 6-8) & Senior High (Grades 9-12) classes will meet downstairs.

Our adults will meet upstairs. Our program runs from 6:45 to 8 p.m.

Gift making workshop is on Saturday, Dec. 14 from 11 to 3 p.m.

Join us to make homemade gifts for everyone on your list! A wide variety of options will be available from a baking mix to a wood project, as well as cards and gift bags. All simple to put together and the supplies will be ready for you along with guidance to prepare them. Lunch will be available for a nominal fee. Children must be supervised for the duration of your stay. Registration is vailable on our website.

You can find us at 1555 King Rd. King City (at King Rd.& Dufferin), 905-833-5104, visit www.kingbiblechurch.com or email info@kingbiblechurch.com

St. Andrew's By Kathy Patterson

St. Andrew's shares the love of Jesus in the Community and beyond.

Our worship service is at 10:30 a.m. with Sunday school for school-aged children up to age 12. All are welcome.

Alison Agnew will be with us this Sunday, the second Sunday in Advent.

December 1 was the beginning of Advent. Anne Campbell participated in the lighting of the Candle of Hope. "Come Lord Jesus and kindle hope in our hearts, strengthen our trust in you

The Rev. Konnie Vissers preached from Lamentations 3: 19-26 on "Hope" and presided over Holy Communion.

Alison Agnew continues to lead us on a "40 days of prayer program – Create, Renew, Restore" based on Psalm 51:10-12. Meet together for soup and prayer each Tuesday at the church from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Planning for Christmas Worship -With all the effort we all take to plan for giving and entertaining this season, we should make sure we have also planned to attend one of the several special services at All Saints where we celebrate the true Christmas of hope and rebirth. Our magical service of Lessons and Carols is on Friday, Dec. 13 at 7 p.m. On Sunday the 15th at the 10:30 service our youth group gives its annual different and often entertaining Christmas presentation. Christmas Eve Dec. 24, we offer two services, one at 5 p.m. and a sung Eucharist at 9 p.m. Christmas morning there is a service at 10 p.m. in our historic chapel. All are welcome. Bring some true meaning and spiritual depth to your Christmas season.

Words to live by – Last Sunday, the first Sunday of Advent, Rev. Dr. Elizabeth used "waiting" as the theme of her sermon. Admitting she had trouble waiting, she observed how the promises of modern technology was supposed to make our lives easier and faster, yet we still waited in line at the commuter checkout or for our text to send. In a lifetime we spend seven and a half years waiting!

Yet during Advent, our waiting has a purpose. She reminded us that the ancient prophets and patriarchs waited for generations for the Messiah and our waiting seems "insignificant" by comparison.

Their hope was finally realized hundreds of years later when a baby was born in Bethlehem - but Jesus was not the warrior King they expected. "The Messiah's eternal reign is still to come." She said. "We wait with Isaiah for a time when here is no more war, and all creation returns to health and wholeness. We cry our 'Maranantha' with Paul 'Come Lord'! When God became Christ the world was sanctified.

Human experience has been sanctified as well. Even waiting has become sanctified. We must wait for His coming patiently and prayerfully. 'Maranantha' Come Lord!"

Nobleton Notes

By Angie Maccarone 416-917-0406

This Sunday, Dec. 7, we welcome Jeff back from his sabbatical. Jeff will begin our Advent season this Sunday.

Advent in the dictionary is described as "the arrival of a notable person, thing, or event." As the stores are full to the brim of items to celebrate the coming of Christmas, so we too celebrate the coming of our risen Christ by preparing our hearts for the upcoming festivities - focusing on what Christmas really means. Don't hesitate to bring your kids; we're geared for younger ones, with opportunities for children aged 0 to 11 during worship (everybody else can enjoy the service!). Come and join us. You will be glad you did!

The Community Youth Group meets the second and fourth Friday of the month from 7 to 9 p.m. The youth group focuses on Grades 7 to 12. This program is aimed at providing a safe and caring environment where teens can have fun and learn about God. Our focus is on fun and developing a sense of camaraderie and care for each member of the group, while at the same time devoting some time each week to a Bible lesson or Bible life application.

We have a laser tag evening as well as a baking evening coming up. Regardless of the activity you are sure to find a welcoming community focused on living out our relationship with Jesus. Bring your friends along. Follow our Instagram account, "4:12.youth.group," to stay up to date on current events.

A2J (All to Jesus), our program for kids in Grades 3 to 6, meets the second and fourth Friday of the month at 7 p.m. If you have a child in this age group, come on and bring them out to hear the Bible stories, join in with songs, games, crafts and have lots of fun!

We have LifeConnect Groups (smaller groups meeting to encourage and deepen our faith in each one's life journey). A Men's LifeConnect Group meets on Thursday morning at 10 a.m. at the church in Room 3. If you are available on a Thursday morning, why not consider joining our study? We will be covering a wide variety of topics. A Women's LifeConnect Group meets on Tuesdays at 9:30 a.m. in Palgrave. The first and third Tuesday of the month we have a group of men and women that get together at 1 p.m. to do quilting. The second and fourth Tuesday of the month, the focus is on knitting. All handcrafted items are donated to various mission projects. Please join in if you enjoy handcrafts, or even would like to learn how!

We are blessed at St. Paul's to have diligent librarians that have worked for years on creating an amazing library, one that keeps expanding with new books, both fiction and non-fiction, as well as DVDs based on true life stories, and more. It is said that what goes into a mind comes out in a life. What you read, watch and listen to really matters! Please feel free to borrow from our church library which will certainly help stretch, grow and encourage you.

Jeff's messages are posted at www. passionatelyhis.com each week. They are also available for viewing on Facebook Live, on the church's Facebook page (@stpaulsnobleton) and its You-Tube page (search St. Paul's Church, Nobleton), and our website, stpaulsnobleton.ca. For more information about ANY of our activities or events, please contact the church office (905-859-0843) or visit stpaulsnobleton.ca.

Nobleton United Church By Nancy Hopkinson

Saturday, Dec. 7 from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. is our very popular Breakfast with Santa. The breakfast is pancakes, syrup, sausages and a beverage. For the children, these are arranged to look like a snowman with sausage arms, chocolate chip eyes, and covered with icing sugar. Santa always drops in and provides a lovely stuffed animal for each child. Pictures are taken of each child on Santa's knee and the pictures are given to the parent/adult with them. This event is fun for everyone. Do come and enjoy the breakfast and see the children with great big smiles. A "Good Will" offering will be donated to "Christmas in King."

Sunday, Dec. 8 at 11:15 a.m. is "Messy Church at Church." The theme is "Messy Christmas." Join us upstairs for about 20 minutes in the sanctuary for some songs, and stories. Collection will be taken. Then we go downstairs for cookie decorating (sheep and pigs to represent the stable where Jesus was born) and other fun activities and crafts related to the theme until about 12:30 p.m., when we will have lunch together. Messy Church is for everyone, especially the children, who must be accompanied by an adult.

Nobleton's tree lighting event is on Sunday, Dec. 8 at 4 p.m. near the Gazebo. Visit our Booth and Rev. Carol-Ann Chapman for some fun with a Christmas tree bean bag toss game. Dress warmly!

Rev. Carol-Ann Chapman is continuing a series of Advent Studies at St. Mary Magdalene Church. The last two are on Tuesday, Dec. 10 and 17 at 10 to 11 a.m. with coffee and refreshments.

The third and fourth Advent Sunday Services are on Dec. 15 (Joy) and Dec. 22 (Love) at 11:15 a.m.

At the Christmas Eve afternoon service, Dec. 24, there are light refreshments at 3:30 p.m. and a short family friendly service at 4 p.m.

We will not have a service on Sunday, Dec. 29.

For more info, visit nobletonunitedchurch.com, our Facebook page, or call 905-859-3976. The church office is normally open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings. Messages are picked up regularly.

Lions Christmas Party

The Nobleton Lions Club would once again like to invite our neighbourhood families to our annual kids meet Santa free skating party at the Nobleton Community Arena in Saturday, Dec. 7, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. We provide free hot dogs, drinks, and public skating. The younger children will be able to visit Santa and receive a free treat bag. The Nobleton Lions would like to take this opportunity to thank the community for their support this past year.

Anglican Parish By John Arnott

It was almost the 11th of November in 569 AD and for young novice monk, Stephen, the outlook was exceedingly bleak as the church season to become known as Advent was almost upon them. He and his fellow monks in the unheated stone monastery with its damp cells and drafty corridors where small braziers were set against the inclement weather. As if the chill wasn't bad enough the upcoming fast that followed the 11th's observance of St. Martin's Day and lasted until Christmas Eve was certainly nothing to look forward to. This Advent "novelty" as the abbot, the man in charge of the monastery, put it was a rule established by the Christian leaders at the Council of Tours (in France) held a couple of years earlier. The young monk thought at best monastery meals were meager and soon now they'd become even more meager!

The St. Alban's Anglican community in Nobleton notes that it's not known when the original observance of Advent began and why. But it was being marked in by the late 400s AD.

St Gregory, 6th century AD bishop of Tours, wrote that it was St. Perpeptuus, one of his predecessors, who directed that in the region around Tours (France) the observance we call Advent should run from St. Martin's Day until the Eve of Christmas and that people fast on 3 days of each week during this time. Soon this practice referred to as the Nativity Fast or (perhaps with tongue in cheek "St. Martin's Lent") spread through all of France and well beyond

Although Advent fasting began to fade out in the centuries that followed it was still being practised in the 9th century but by then it was limited to the days between November 30th (St. Andrew's Day) and Christmas.

By the time of the Renaissance fasting was all but abandoned. Today some fasting is still done by a few members of the Anglican, Lutheran and Roman Catholic churches while many in the Eastern Orthodox, Coptic (Egyptian) and Oriental Churches fast from dawn until dusk during Advent which retains for them the name Nativity Fast and begins the day following St. Philip's Day Nov. 15 and lasts 40 days ending Christmas Eve (Julian calendar).

The first mention of word advent (which means the coming) as the name of this observance possibly occurred in the mid 700s AD in a beautifully illuminated manuscript the Gelasian Sacramentary created in Paris. This contains the readings of collects, as well as Epistle and Gospel references to Yeshua's first coming that were to be used on the 4 Sundays before Christmas. During the weekdays in between, this same Sacramentary had the readings about his Second Coming that were to be used. In this day and age Advent is as much about preparing for Christ of the future as it is about looking back to Christ of the past.
