King man dies of COVID

Sadly, York Region Public Health is reporting one fatality due to COVID-19 in the Township of King. Staff offer condolences to the family and loved ones of the resident.The 67-year-old male died Feb. 15 at Mackenzie Health in Richmond Hill.He first had symptoms: Friday, Jan. 29, and received positive test results Jan. 31.The exposure was a workplace outbreak.