King ready to dig into community farm project

By Angela Gismondi
A community farm is coming to town.

King council received a report regarding the development of a community farm on public lands in Schomberg at the committee meeting Monday. The Schomberg Community Farm will be located at 6335 Highway 9. The property is six acres, with Main Street residences on the east side, the Schomberg River and Osin-Lions Park to the west, Highway 9 to the north and Western Ave. to the south.

The community farm, based on the community garden idea, would be used and run by community members and volunteers. According to the staff report, the Township has been working with the Schomberg Community Farm committee to develop the project since the spring. The idea was first presented to the public by the Schomberg Community Farm executive at this year's Schomberg Fair. More than 60 people responded to a short survey expressing their interest and support for the project.

The Community Farm executive developed a site plan for the lands which includes allotment gardens, demonstration gardens, orchard, bees, chickens, solar panels and possible farmers' market.

Garden shares would be rented out on a year-to-year basis. There is also a barn on the site. Lands to the south of the barn will remain open and could be used for community events such as the Schomberg Fair. The vision includes the delivery of education programs in organic gardening techniques, food preparation, beekeeping and ecology to schools, youth groups, community groups and individuals.

Administration and day-to-day operation will be done by the Community Farm members and executive.

A number of factors were taken into consideration when choosing a location for the farm including access to property, size of property, adjacent land use, proximity to users, walkability, sun exposure, soil quality, access to water and future proposed use. Currently there is no convenient access to the property and a bridge from Osin Lions Park is required to access the lands.

Local Councillor Bill Cober was anxious to get people working on the garden as soon as possible but Chris Fasciano, director of Parks, Recreation and Culture for the Township, said the project most likely won't be up and running until 2015. Two of the major challenges and the reason for the delay in developing the project, Fasciano explained, are access to the property and access to water and power. A bridge is proposed to be constructed from the parking lot in Osin Lions Park to just south of the barn on the farm property. The construction and design of the bridge has been discussed with the Township's fire department and the Lake Simcoe Region Conservation Authority. A building permit and a permit from the conservation authority are required to move ahead with the project.

"We know the community wants to see the shovels in the ground as soon as possible, but there are some hurdles we have to overcome on the site," said Fasciano. "There is an easement on the property and we have to get a bridge to improve access to the site."

Cober suggested that the Township negotiate access to the property with some of the landowners surrounding the proposed site so that the volunteers can begin some preliminary work.

"The community has a strong appetite and we want to give them something to dig into," said Cober. "Is it possible to get the volunteers on site in some capacity?"

Fasciano said he would reach out to the landowners and see what he could do to speed up the process.

Water will also be required as soon as the gardens go in. Two options are being considered. In the short term water can be pumped from the Schomberg River and stored in water tanks in the barn but the preferred option would be to hook up to the municipal water system.

The community farm executive is also hoping to install off-the-grid solar panels to provide the required electrical needs.

The community farm in Schomberg will be a model for future garden developments. Interest has already been expressed by residents in both Nobleton and King City for farms in those communities.

"This first example of a community farm will be an evolutionary process and it will be a learning experience," said Cober. "We have a lot of volunteers signed up already and I know that a mutual partnership will be fruitful with a volunteer labour force."

Councillor Avia Eek was pleased to see the project move forward.

"I'm really excited about this farm. I'm used to hearing about community gardens, not farms," said Eek adding she hopes the initiative will be volunteer-based and not require too much of Township staff's time. "Other than that I think it's a great idea."

Councillor Debbie Schaefer wanted to make sure that the farm would be efficient and sustainable.

"It's going to have a great impact on the community," Schaefer said. "Now what we've got to do is get the word out to people that these things exist."

Councillor Peter Grandilli was concerned about how much the project is going to cost and if a community farm is really needed in King.

"It looks like it's going to be very costly," said Grandilli. "Personally I don't think it's necessary in King because we already have big gardens."

Fasciano replied the cost of the garden has not been determined yet.

The Schomberg Community Farm executive is submitting grant applications for the capital works such as barn repair, access to water and the bridge construction. Township staff could potentially be responsible for items such as annual grass cutting, garden plot preparation (rototilling), supplying woodchips, straw mulch, and compost and building maintenance for the community farm.

"The anticipated contribution is expected to be fairly small in scale and any costs associated with the items would be brought forward for consideration as part of future budget deliberations," states the staff report.

The report was received and council supported the recommendations to authorize staff to discuss the terms of the proposal with the proponent prior to any evaluation or award. Staff are expected to report back to council on the matter by November.

MP Calandra named parliamentary secretary

One of the MPs representing King will have some interesting tasks on his plate.

Prime Minister Stephen Harper appointed Oak-Ridges-Markham MP Paul Calandra as Parliamentary Secretary to the Prime Minister and to the Minister of Intergovernmental Affairs.

Calandra has served as the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Canadian Heritage since being re-elected in 2011.

"This appointment is a great honour. I am proud and excited to serve my constituents in this new role," said Calandra. "I look forward to the challenges of this new position and thank the Prime Minister for his continued confidence."

Calandra was one of 12 new appointments announced last week.

"These new parliamentary secretaries will play an important role in helping our government deliver on its commitments to Canadian taxpayers," said Harper. "Our strengthened team is broad and experienced, and will provide strong, stable government in a time of continuing economic uncertainty."

Taking pride in your country and community

"We are tremendously proud of our cultures, heritage and achievements and we will continue to break new ground. I am proud to be a Canadian and I hope you are too."

- Philip K. Lee

What does it mean to be a Canadian?

The answer should come so easily, it would be a no-brainer.

But for some reason, that's simply not the case.

Time Magazine once wrote that "Canada is one of the planet's most comfortable, and caring, societies. The United Nations Human Development Index cited the country as the most desirable place in the world to live."

This tossed salad of a country is so delightful, everyone should live here.

King native Adele Reeves and her husband Leandro spent more than four months travelling coast to coast, to get a handle on this age-old question. The result is their documentary, "More than Maple Syrup."

For anyone who's travelled outside of Ontario, you know this country is as different and diverse as the geography itself. Even towns and cities across Ontario vary widely.

While each province has its unique characteristics and charm, we are all bound together by a sense of national pride.

But just what is it?

Reeves says from her experience it relates to our very geography. Canadians are tied to the great outdoors. We have this huge beautiful backyard that just beckons to be explored and enjoyed. People in remote areas of this country have "cabins" that are even farther afield. Just how far into the heart of nature can one get?

Who hasn't been camping? Who hasn't sat around a campfire and roasted marshmallows? And who hasn't jumped into chilly lake waters just because?

Our cultural diversity is another of our defining characteristics.

We all know about our aboriginal peoples, but we're still working on embracing this as our history. The first human beings, crossing over from the ice bridge that connected Asia to North America, came to Canada more than 15,000 years ago, and left their mark forever on our west coast.

From the very beginning, Canada has been about different cultures.

Reeves and her husband will be holding a public show this Friday (2-10 p.m.) and Saturday (noon-8 p.m.) at the Lions building on the King

Mark Pavilons

City arena grounds. Get a glimpse of your Canada and help them reach their fundraising goal to complete the documentary.

I've seen some of their photos of this country and its people and you know what they say... a photo is worth a thousand words.

I just love listening to those old, weathered craftsmen from across Canada, who can explain life and their passion in simple terms - missing teeth and all!

"We have it all. We have great diversity of people, we have a wonderful land, and we have great possibilities. So all those things combined there's nowhere else I'd rather be."

- Bob Rae

There are only three major races and 193 countries in the world. Yet, there are thousands of cultures and billions of opinions.

And I believe it's how one's culture and roots marry with Canada that defines us as Canadians.

Canada itself is a relatively young country and we're still evolving. Someone once wrote that Canada will be a great country when it's done!

In a few words, here's my take. A Canadian is someone who can carry two large coffees in one hand and still hold a door open for someone else. We understand why neighbour wears shorts in January, cooking on the BBQ in his garage. A Canadian is someone who feels compassion for the plight of others and weeps for total strangers. We'll help look for a lost dog in the snow, and help someone change a tire in the rain. For many Canadian males, beer, hockey and foam fingers are staples.

To expand on all of that, what does it mean to be a resident of King Township?

We don't stop being Canadian due to our residency. But can it take on a new flavour, influenced by our community?

Certainly. And it's proven time and again.

While I'm not a King resident, I do consider myself connected to the municipality's social fabric. I get it.

Like Canada itself, King is constantly evolving and changing.

Previous NIMBY attitudes delayed the inevitable, and development has arrived, in full force. Fortunately, large-scale growth is limited to the urban centres of Nobleton and King City, with some infilling left in Schomberg.

King is known for its million-dollar homes and affluent residents. But our Food Bank is busier than ever, and hard-working small business owners put their hearts into their work.

King is brimming with passionate artists, environmentalists and volunteers.

There is always something going on, in every corner of this place!

Being a large rural municipality with a relatively small population, King is a bit of an enigma - it definitely has the best of all worlds. It's becoming the go-to place for that perfect country retreat, farm or equine facility. It still retains that small-town Ontario atmosphere.

People here care. People get together to support their own. Citizens take up a cause if it's worth the fight.

For outsiders, visiting King is like exploring the attic at grandma's house - you don't pay much attention to it, but when you're there, you encounter all this great stuff!

In general, we Canadians may be a bit reserved and conservative by nature. But there's nothing wrong with being our own biggest cheerleader. After all, who better to sing our praises than us?

There are certain King residents - the mayor in particular - who go out of their way to promote King every chance they get. Join them if you can!

Maybe King is the epitome of what being a Canadian is all about!

"Canadian pride may not rest on our sleeves, but it resides deeply in our hearts."

- Steve Miller

Letter to the Editor

Thanks for Terry Fox Run support

On Sunday, Sept. 15, King City once again hosted the King Township Terry Fox Run for cancer research. This was the 33rd year the run has been held to continue Terry's Marathon of Hope which he began in 1980. Sunday's event saw 90 participants attend Wellesley Park in King City, in which they walked, ran or biked the 2-km, 5-km or 10-km routes. Together, these participants raised $3,760.

I would like to thank our participants for their continued dedication, our volunteers for their hours of hard work and our many sponsors, all whose contributions help make the Terry Fox Run and annual event in King City: Frank Micali, King City Lions, King City Marketplace, King City Soccer Association, King Township Public Library, King Weekly Sentinel, Pine Farms Orchard, Schomberg Quality Meats, TD Bank, Tim Hortons, Township of King, Township of King Fire Services, York Catholic District School Board, York Region District School Board and York Regional Police 4 District COR Unit.

If you are interested in volunteering at next year's event, please contact me at 905-833-2697. It is an excellent way to have some family fun or earn community service hours. Hope to see you next year!

Former King police chief honoured with Jubilee Medal

By Brock Weir

As a young man growing up in St. Thomas, Les Pengelly says he and his fellow youth simply did what they were told.

After hearing a broadcast of Hitler on the radio in 1941 promising his people "Europe today, tomorrow the world," they didn't necessarily have to be told anything more. They took this as a call to arms and swiftly volunteered to defend King and Country.

Joining the Royal Canadian Navy, his tour of duty eventually took him to serving in the English Channel when they got the call to head to Normandy on June 6, 1944.

As a veteran of D-Day, Pengelly, who turns 94 this Friday, was honoured by York Regional Police in a ceremony in Aurora on Thursday, receiving the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal from former police chief Julian Fantino, now Minister of Veterans' Affairs.

Now living in Innisfil with his granddaughter, Pengelly's attendance at Police Headquarters was indeed the result of doing what he was told, being brought to Aurora under false pretenses believing he simply had a meeting with Police Chief Eric Jolliffe. That was technically true, but they were joined by a crowded atrium of friends, family, and current and former officers.

"For the first time in my life, I was caught by surprise," said Pengelly. "When I was a young fella in 1941, when Adolf Hitler stood up in the Reichstag and said 'Europe Today, Tomorrow the World,' we young fellas working on farms said, 'We've got to go, or they are going to come here.' That is why we joined up. And we didn't know any different in those days.

"When I came home from service to my home in St. Thomas, I went to the employment office looking for a job every day for two weeks. Nothing. One day, I went down and the man said, 'How would you like to be a policeman?' I said, 'Well, I'll take any damned job!' He said, 'Go across the street to talk to the chief of police.' If you were a big guy who could handle yourself and look after things, you were a policeman."

Times certainly have changed, but going across that street at the employment office's suggestion sent him on the lengthy second phase of his life of public service. From St. Thomas, and after a stint in Ingersoll, he arrived in King Township in June of 1964, serving as chief of the department.

The King department was eventually merged into the York Regional Police in 1971 and he retired from the force in 1980.

That wasn't the end of his public service career. Looking for ways to keep busy after his wife's death in 1984, he answered the call for bylaw enforcement in Richmond Hill before eventually retiring in March of 2011 at the age of 91.

For Jolliffe, Pengelly's 70 years of public service is a prime example of the YRP's motto "Deeds Speak."

"It would be impossible to repay you for everything that you have done for our community, but today we hope to show you in some small way how much we appreciate what you have done," said Jolliffe, paying tribute to his service on D-Day and to the York Region community.

Assembled police gathered to illustrate how they have paid tribute to Pengelly over the last year. Thursday's ceremony was originally scheduled for June 6, the actual anniversary of the D-Day landings, but had to be postponed due to illness. Now back in good form, he listened intently and was visibly moved by how the YRP made the trip to Juno Beach to lay a wreath in his honour and install a commemorative brick in his name as a permanent reminder of his service.

It was then up to Julian Fantino to present the man of the hour with the Diamond Jubilee medal.

"I am amazed by your tireless dedication and your commitment to public service," he said. "Having been a part of your history through your role in the Royal Canadian Navy, you have continued to selflessly serve your community through your many decades with the York Regional Police and beyond. The fact that some of your colleagues travelled on their own time and money to ensure that an engraved marker with your name was at the Juno Beach Centre speaks volumes about your character but even more so about the esteem and respect in which you are held by your colleagues, friends, family, and even those who do not know you personally."

After receiving his medal, Pengelly had a presentation to make on his own. After thanking the police for the ceremony, he presented Jolliffe with the handbook presented to Pengelly himself upon being sworn in as an officer in King Township more than four decades ago.

"You might learn a few tips from that," he said to the chief with a laugh.

Arthritis: Back, Neck or Joint Pain Advancements in Finding Lasting Relief

If you suffer from Arthritis you need to be aware of effective advancements that can eliminate years of pain, suffering, immobility and frustration.

You may have told your doctor you suffer with one or more of the following: sore, stiff knees, painful achy hips, low back pain, mid back pain, neck stiffness or pain, hand stiffness, shoulder pain or elbow pain.

You may find that your pain or stiffness affects your work, housekeeping, leisure activities, exercise, sports or other activities. You go to the drug store or to your doctor and get pills to help relieve your pain. But you find the pain keeps coming back.

So you go back, again and again, and get the same or different drugs to make you feel better. Your doctor may eventually say... "I've done all I can do - use the drugs to cope with the pain". Alternatively, the doctor may refer you to a specialist who may tell you that surgery is needed or is an option for you.

However, many people are hesitant to have surgery given its invasive nature. It is important to know that although surgery is sometimes necessary, it is considered a last resort in most cases.

You are likely frustrated by having to suffer with the come and go pain but may also be concerned on your dependency on the pills and their possible side effects. You may have heard that there are serious health risks associated with chronic use (or overuse) of pain pills or anti-inflammatory drugs that include damage to the liver, kidneys and gut.

Although the pain killing or anti-inflammatory drugs are designed to numb the pain they do not correct the underlying root causes of the pain.

The most common underlying causes include nutritional problems, postural problems, infections, chemicals and immune system problems.

Medical doctors largely focus on medications to give relief but sufferers need to be aware that there are additional choices available for many cases of arthritis that are effective and safe. These natural approaches have helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically.

To help sufferers an upcoming workshop is being provided on Arthritis relief. This eye opening information has helped countless sufferers to feel better, have more mobility, increased flexibility and vastly improved function.

Many sufferers have found the information has led them to remarkable improvements in performing daily activities that include sports and athletics, leisure activities, housekeeping tasks, work duties and taking care of their kids.

"These natural approaches have helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically".

In many cases, sufferers have found that they have been able to avoid unnecessary surgery. As a community service this workshop is free. The workshop will be held on Wed Oct. 2, from 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm. at the King West Wellness Centre 141 King Rd., Unit 10, Richmond Hill. Seating is limited.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND PUBLIC MEETING CONCERNING A PROPOSED ZONING BY-LAW AMENDMENT

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Corporation of the Township of King will hold a public meeting on:

MONDAY, October 7th, 2013 AT 6:00 P.M.

at the Township of King Council Chambers at 2075 King Road, King City to consider a proposed Zoning By-law Amendment under Section 34 of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter P.13.

The application concerns two properties located at the north east corner of Highway 27 and Norman Avenue in the Village of Nobleton. The subject lands measure a total of 0.25 hectares (0.6 acres) and are municipally known as 13105 and 13113 Highway 27. Each property currently supports a single detached dwelling and a separate driveway access.

The owner proposes to amend the Township's Zoning By-law (74-53, as amended) to re-zone the lands from 'Residential Urban (R1)' to 'Commercial General (C1) - Exception' to provide for a mixed use development consisting of two buildings supporting a dental clinic and a pharmacy with two residential apartments on a second storey with connection to both the municipal water system and sanitary sewer system. The development would propose to retain the dwelling on #13105 Highway 27 and add a new single storey rear addition while the dwelling on #13113 Highway 27 would be removed and a new two-storey mixed-use building constructed.

IF A PERSON OR PUBLIC BODY does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the Township of King before the proposed zoning by-law amendment is adopted, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of Council of the Township of King to the Ontario Municipal Board.

IF A PERSON OR PUBLIC BODY does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the Township of King before the proposed zoning by-law amendment is adopted, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Municipal Board unless, in the opinion of the Board, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

ANY PERSON may attend the public meeting and/or make written or verbal representation either in support of or in opposition to the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION relating to the proposed Amendment is available for inspection at the Township Office between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., on our website at www.king.ca, or inquiries may be directed to the Planning Department quoting File Number Z-2013-08 at (905) 833-5321.

NOTICES

TOWNSHIP OF KING 11th CONCESSION PAVING

Please be advised that paving and reconstruction of the 11th Concession Road is scheduled to begin shortly. The paving and reconstruction of 11th Concession will occur between Highway 9 to 19th Sideroad; 19th Sideroad to 17th Sideroad; and 15th Sideroad to King Road. The scope of the work will include new paving, installation of guiderails, culvert replacement, and restoration of driveways and other affected areas. Any existing areas that are disturbed during construction will be reinstated.

The Contractor has advised the Township that the proposed works are expected to begin by the end of June of this year, subject to weather and final scheduling. The work is expected to be completed by the end of September of this year.

During the project, vehicle access will be maintained with a single lane through the work areas. Please expect delays if travelling through the work zone and obey flag persons at all times. Short term road closures will be required for some of the cross culvert replacements, however specific notice will be provided by the Contractor in advance of the proposed work. Project Information Signs will be posted at the limits of construction and detour signage will be set up for the local affected areas in advance of the construction.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this project, please contact Marty Zorgel (Construction Inspector, R.J. Burnside & Associates) at 519-217-2718, He will be able to deal with your questions or direct you to the appropriate person.

Contact Information:

ENGINEERING AND PUBLIC WORKS WATER METER REPLACEMENT PROGRAM

Over the next few years King Township will be replacing our old water meters. Notices will be going to affected residents for the work this year. The initial focus will be Nobleton. Your co-operation with our contractor will be greatly appreciated. This program will assist the Township in leak detection and water conservation. Improvements to Township infrastructure are a benefit to all King residents.

King Township has awarded the contract for this water meter upgrade program to WAMCO Municipal Products. As each phase is implemented, WAMCO licensed meter installers will canvas areas that have been identified for that phase and deliver a copy of the official King Township Notice to Property Owners. WAMCO employees will wear an identification tag and wear a hat & reflective vest with the WAMCO logo.

MUNICIPAL WATER FLUSHING

Ansnoeveldt, King City, Schomberg and Nobleton

In the Spring and Fall the Engineering & Public Works Department flushes all water mains and hydrants. As a result, residents over the course of the next few weeks may experience low pressure and/or discolouration. This process contributes to the safe, effective delivery of municipal water and does not affect the quality of your water in any way. Should you require further information please contact:

Nobleton Sanitary Sewer Project Update and Safety Reminder

The new school year has started and it's a good time to remind children to be careful around construction vehicles that are in the area for Nobleton's sanitary sewer construction.

We ask residents to remind their children, as they travel to and from school, to exercise caution around the heavy vehicles, and especially that they do not play or climb on construction equipment.

In addition, as everyone gets back to their regular work schedules and routines, there will be additional traffic. Please take extra care while driving.

Residents can expect road closures while sewer construction is underway in Contract Area 5 (Chinook, Hawman, Hazelbury, Henley, Wilsen); Contract Area 6 (Wilkie, Robinson); Contract Area 7A (Faris, Kinsley, Wellington, Parkview, Crestview); Contract Area 7B (Ellis), and Contract Area 7C (south of Hwy. 27 from Parkview). We apologize for any inconvenience and ask everyone to drive safely on the alternate routes. Anyone with special transportation or medical needs, such as those receiving home-based care, should notify the Township by calling our Project Phone Line at 905-833-4073.

If you have questions about the Nobleton Sanitary Sewer Project, please call the Project Phone Line or email us at nobletonsewers@king.ca.

Churches team up to offer youth drop-in

The United and Anglican Churches of King City are teaming up to offer a drop-in for high school youth on Wednesdays from 3-5 p.m.

Reverends Evelyn McLachlan and Nicola Skinner, in consultation with some of local teens, found that there is a need for a place for teens to simply hang out after school, particularly for those who don't skateboard.

All Saints Anglican Church, right next to the King City Skateboard Park, will be the location for the drop-in and all high schoolers are welcome. The drop-in will provide areas to sit and hang out, board games, indoor sports such as badminton, and free snacks and drinks.

The expectation is that the drop-in will adapt as the youth let organizers know what they would like. The churches are kicking off with an grand opening BBQ on Wednesday, Oct. 23 from 3-5 p.m. at All Saints. Everyone is invited.

King Bible Church invites community to join 50th celebration

By Mark Pavilonis

There's a lot of excitement emanating from King Bible Church.

And Pastor Mark Nowell and his enthusiastic congregation are inviting the community to share in a major milestone – the church's 50th anniversary.

The church is holding a Community Fun Fair Saturday, Sept. 28 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and it will be an inclusive, community celebration.

Pastor Nowell said the congregation wanted to celebrate with their neighbours and invite everyone in the area to spend some fun time together. The event also shows King Bible Church is evolving and changing with the times. It's "exciting" going to their services, and Nowell ensures he caters to the parishioners, made up largely of young families. Their slogan for their 50th is "For Such a Time as This."

The fun fair will be a chance to renew past ties and bring everyone together.

The special Sunday (Sept. 29) service will feature Pastor Paul Carter, music by Master's Four and a reception. Slated to attend are King Mayor Steve Pellegrini, members of council and MP Paul Calandra.

The congregation is thankful for its history and past, and yet it's moving forward to embrace the future.

Since he came to the church in 2009, Nowell has vowed to expand the church's involvement in the community and create partnerships. Church attendance has grown noticeably in the past few years and it continues to rise.

"We're definitely seeing movement," he said, adding parishioners have commented there's a renewed feeling of hope in the air.

While his regular Sunday services are far from quiet, Nowell simply loves the "pile of kids" in attendance.

There's something for everyone and the church has a strong youth program.

The first meeting of founding members was held in 1963 and some of the original members are still in the community. Of the original members, Tom Cober, Bev Miller, June Peck and Vivian Penner are all still active with the church.

It began as an evangelical church (they're part of the Associated Gospel Churches) and what sets them apart is the fact they're very Bible-centred and community oriented.

They began in the old United Church in King City (now the location of the Montessori school). The current church on King Road near Dufferin, was built in 1988 and the congregation had a permanent home. A major fire took place in June 1997 and that led to a renovation and expansion.

The congregation is resilient in the face of challenges.

The fun fair promises a full date for all ages. On tap is an 18-foot Screamer Slide, a 60-foot obstacle course, carnival games, bouncy castle, farm animals and pony rides, clowns and a magician, music by Anthem for Today, face-painting, balloon animals, a BBQ, treats and much more. The event is supported by the King City Lions, Township of King and Camp Widjiitiwin/MBC.

The growth in King City has led to more visitors to King Bible Church. Nowell said he senses people today are consumed with work, over-committed and simply not satisfied. More people are realizing there is much more than just "stuff."

The answer, he said, is not religion per se, but a personal relationship with God. Put simply, it's back to basics in every respect.

Sept. 28 is a chance to feel the excitement and spend some family time together.

Budding filmmakers explore Canadian identity

By Mark Pavilons

What does it mean to be Canadian?

Budding King Township filmmakers Adele Reeves and her husband Leandro Vilaca can now answer this question, thanks to a cross-Canada journey.

The result was "More than Maple Syrup," a documentary that explores our Canadian identity by going right to the source - typical Canadians.

The couple was in the process of moving from Vancouver to Toronto when they decided to fulfill their dream by driving across the country and documenting just what's in the hearts and minds of average citizens.

They hit the road, in a $900 Chev G20 cargo van, and travelled from March to July of 2012.

They returned home with thousands of photographic images, video and a van covered in signatures and graffiti from people in every province. But what's more, they returned with a newfound sense of just what it means to be Canadian.

And what is that?

Reeves said some of it has to do with our connection to the land. Canada is one huge backyard that we all enjoy and it seems that almost every single Canadian has sat around a bonfire and shared stories.

She also said they found residents in remote stretches of Newfoundland, who had cabins (cottages) that were even farther away. That's a love of nature, to be sure.

As well, Canada is known for its multicultural nature, something that is still evolving. Our country, Reeves pointed out, has been home to many different cultures, long before the French and English arrived to stake their claim. In fact, humans first stepped foot in Canada more than 15,000 years ago.

Canada has a very rich aboriginal cultures and we need to embrace them.

Reeves, who has travelled throughout the world, noted in many countries they have a defining national song or dance. Canada is a relatively young nation and we don't have those defining cultural features.

Operating on a tight budget, the duo often didn't think their van would make it, but they reached St. John's and returned to Ontario in time to share Canada Day with residents in Ottawa.

Their "makeshift RV," which served as their home on many occasions, has become a piece of art, a visual record of their journey.

Some of the documentary was filmed through the vehicle's windshield as they drove Highway 1.

The couple is sharing their experience with the public during a two-day exhibit Sept. 27 and 28. Their gallery exhibit of art pieces, videos, photography and the van itself will be at the Lions Club utility building on the area grounds. It runs 2-10 p.m. on Friday, and noon to 8 p.m. on Saturday. The public is welcome to hear and see their story and add their signatures to the van itself. Reeves said they want the public to be engaged and become part of their journey.

Part of the display is a collection of puzzle-like collages that stretch some 30 feet long. This is a somewhat stereotypical map of Canada containing tourism images, but when you move closer and look through embedded viewfinders, you will see the real Canada, as depicted by the couple in their documentary. As well, video images will be projected onto the vehicle's windshield for the show, to give people a feel for what inspired the film.

The King City show is also a means to support the couple complete Leandro Vilaca and Adele Reeves teamed up to create "More than Maple Syrup," a documentary about our national identity. They're joined by "Mr. Wired." Below is a scene from the Prairies.

the film with video and sound editing, along with musical accompaniment. They've spent a lot of their own money and would like to recoup the costs and do justice to the film.

To that end, they're using "Kickstarter," a successful crowd-funding website for independent artists that allows the artist to retain complete creative control over their work while providing personalized, creative and interesting rewards for donors.

To ensure the donations are put to good use, projects only get funded if they reach their fundraising goal and creators are required to set deadlines both to reach their goal and to deliver their rewards if the campaign is successful.

Reeves said they have set their goal at $17,500 and they are asking the public for support. The campaign runs until Oct. 10.

Donors will receive something of value for donations from as little as $10. For larger donations, as well as corporate contributions, you can actually become a co-producer on the project.

If they reach their goal, the funds will be used to hire an animator; pay post-production costs; purchase music rights and create a French language version.

Money aside, it's passion that drives them.

Everyone in the country deserves to see More than Maple Syrup.

Mayor urges partners to make King 'investment ready'

By Mark Pavilons
King Township is fast becoming one of the best places to live, work and play.

And the numbers back it up.

That was the message delivered by Mayor Steve Pellegrini, at the annual Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Mayor's Lunch, held at Cardinal last week.

Residents are in "good hands," he told local business representatives, adding all the pieces of the puzzle are coming together and the municipality is jelling in all respects.

The "word is out" that King is a welcoming municipality for businesses and residents.

The mayor stressed it's not just "lip service," on the Township's part. They are actively working with all those who are looking to invest in King.

He constantly reminds his peers not to think about political boundaries and that investment here will have far-reaching impacts.

The Township just recently hosted an informal round-table discussion with local developers, exchanging information. They urged developers to help them make King better and work together.

As well, there's a need to make the lands at the southwest corner of Jane and King Road ready for commercial and industrial uses. These are King's employment lands and the mayor said "everyone has to be ready."

King's economic development strategy is nearing completion and it's still evolving. That being said, staff and politicians are working on the "actionable items" to boost King's economy.

The Township is committed to a "culture of entrepreneurship" by cultivating partnerships. The mayor is one of King's biggest cheerleaders and he mentioned to the crowd he's managed to create ties with Chinese officials following a visit to China. He also hosted China's Consulate General in Toronto for a day touring King.

This area is already home to some large, international companies. King has a noticeable golf presence and the Township is eager to help businesses stay, expand and flourish here.

The mayor noted King is still home to a substantial equine industry and there are plans for two large-scale facilities that will provide spinoff benefits.

King has sought to improve its high tech Internet access and York Region did support the creation of a line through King. Unfortunately, federal funding fell through, but the push remains.

Pellegrini said King's post-secondary presence is expanding. Seneca College is planning a $100-million expansion. The University of Toronto makes good use of the Koffler Scientific Reserve at Jokers Hill. And the University of Guelph operates the Muck Crops Research Station at the Holland Marsh.

The Marsh itself, the mayor pointed out, is a "huge economic driver" and 60% of the Marsh is located in King.

In order to attract business to King, the villages have to be appealing.

To that end, King City and Nobleton will be undergoing some noticeable streetscaping and beautification. The mayor noted there is also a plan for some suitable development at the corner of King and Keele in King City.

The numbers that cross the mayor's desk look promising.

King Township has the distinction of having the most expensive homes - topping the Toronto Real Estate Board's list at $966,744 (average for August). King has outpaced perennial favourite Oakville ($707,000) and neighbouring Caledon ($563,000).

King's business tax rate sits at 22 in a list of 27 GTA municipalities, meaning it's low and appealing for investment. And King's residential property tax rate hovers in the middle of the pack of other municipalities.

Township staff "watches every penny," and that's a factor in King's continuing annual list of surpluses. Over the last year, King has managed to sock away a tidy $1.63 million in surplus funds.

King's financial debt continues to drop as well, going from $27 million to $12 million in the past three years.

King's accumulated surplus, including assets, has risen from $114 million in 2010 to $140 million in 2012.

Growth is helping to make the picture brighter. The Township issued 500

Mayor Steve Pellegrini provided a lot of food for thought at the lunch, sponsored by the King Chamber of Commerce.

building permits in 2012 for a total value of $191 million. There are 14 ongoing subdivisions and $89 million in new infrastructure has been created.

King has added 1,276 new residential units from 2008 to 2012, narrowing the gap to total build-out. Nobleton is slated to add another 3,000 residents and King City will grow by 6,500 to reach King's target of 35,000 in the next decade.

While still one of the smallest municipalities in the GTA, geographically, it's one of the largest.

"We're very happy with our finances," the mayor beamed.

While the welcome mat may be out, residential growth doesn't pay for itself and the Township has to keep an eye on, and prepare for, the future.

That's why Mayor Pellegrini has been so adamant about shoring up the reserves. King is unique in that it puts a substantial amount in its reserve fund on a regular basis.

The mayor pointed out while the municipality enjoys development charges and revenues from current growth, they have to have a sustainable strategy in place once it all stops.

The one thing King has going for it is that its infrastructure is relatively new, and won't need upgrading for many, many years.

He extended an open invitation to the Chamber, local businesses and residents to join forces so "we can be more effective."

As well, he personally invites any business in King to have breakfast on him and discuss topical issues.

Schomberg Farmer's Market finale

Well folks the final Schomberg Farmers' Market for the season is this Saturday, Sept 28, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the fairgrounds.

Most of the usual vendors will be there and they will have pumpkins for sale.

Organizers wish to give a big thank-you to the vendors, patrons and helpers over the summer.

They also wish to thank the members of the community who donated their time to make the Community Spirit and Bonfire Night on Saturday night a great success.

Local artist part of Aurora show

By Mark Pavilonis & Brock Weir

Filled with firsts, building on past successes, and responding to requests from the community, the fall season at the Aurora Cultural Centre offers something for everyone.

According to Jane Taylor, Program Coordinator for the Aurora Cultural Centre, the season showcases both vibrancy and what people want to see from the Church Street landmark.

"We want people to feel this shared space reflects their interest, but beyond that, that it feeds their curiosity," she said.

One of the visual highlights of the season is already installed in the Red and Blue Gallery. Abstract paintings from Miiiko are illuminated in the galleries by natural light tinted by the glass art of Schomberg's Greg Locke. The exhibition of glass art is a first for the Cultural Centre and a brainstorm of curator Clare Bolton that these two very different artists and their very different works would complement each other well.

Encaustic work is on display in the Great Hall Gallery featuring work from artists Michelle van Nie and Robin Burnett. They will be on hand to talk about their works this Thursday from 1-3 p.m., as well as on Oct 3 and 10.

"It is four artists working at a very high professional level," she said. It is having glass for the first time, and it is rare and unusual to have the opportunity to see a glass artist. To showcase a glass artist from York Region is truly a bonus for us. Greg's glassworks have really come together in a way that is really like an experience."

"You will find this show very bright, vibrant and highly stimulating. My work looks wonderful in this large, spacy venue. And Miiiko's abstract paintings do work very well in the same space," Locke said. The duo presented a special talk on the creative processes they use.

The piece used for the show poster is called "Inspired" and Locke chose it for the show because quite simply it is the most dramatic, experimental and abstract piece he has made to date.

"It is simple stunning and I get lost looking at it, particularly illuminated in a brightly lit window."

It was fired for no less than 15 times in his kiln to create the unique fissures, craters blending and maturation of colours as well as the unique slumping that give the piece its shape. It's also large: nearly 3 feet by 2 feet.

He called it "Inspired" because it's just that.

"I discovered with fellow King artist Ernestine Tahedl in a triptych sculpture we collaborated on two years ago (also on display at the show). In essence, we learned to purposefully stress the glass to accentuate and mold the resulting destruction of the work. This takes time and a lot of patience! I compare this process to growing bonsai in its demand of patience and thoughtful shaping."

The show is ongoing until Oct. 10.

Locke will be in attendance at the gallery's official reception on Saturday, Sept. 28 at 1 p.m.

For further information, including tickets, to any of these events, contact the Aurora Cultural Centre at 905-713-1818 or visit www.auroracultural-centre.ca.

Sustainability committee reaches out

By Barbara Shaw

York Pines United Church had the pleasure of being the first congregation to host LCol (ret'd) Susan Beharriell, of the Sustainability Committee of King Township, on Sunday, Sept. 22.

Beharriell spoke passionately about the King community, involvement in ongoing programs, new initiatives, and saving and securing our future and our environment. The four pillars of sustainability – economic development, environmental protection, social/cultural activities and financial resources – were discussed, with a question and answer period at the end of the presentation.

We are happy to share that, along with ongoing initiatives (recycling, electrical conservation, etc.). York Pines has worked diligently to reduce our carbon footprint by installing a state of the art insulated steel roof over the sanctuary; replacing and upgrading windows; installing a new propane furnace and maintaining a nature trail (Aileen MacDonald Trail) at the back of the church property.

Currently, York Pines is working toward full accessibility for all congregants that will include a new ramp, push operated doors, a wheelchair accessible washroom and an elevator.

York Pines United Church extends our sincere thanks to Susan for her time, effort and enthusiasm. Her ability to link faith with stewardship, and her intuition to plant enticing, do-able ideas for future thought and implementation.

Susan is hoping to make future presentations throughout the township's faith community. Her friendly, enjoyable and informative presentation is well worth your time and attention. Other members of the committee are also reaching out across King. Why not invite them to your group?

Creativity abounds at annual Scarecrow competition

Inspired by a small village scarecrow festival in rural England, where the whole village participated, Schomberg Scarecrows is growing each year in size and awareness.

The annual event took place Sept. 21 and 22, during Street Gallery.

There have been some amazing entries over the last few years and it has been exciting for all ages to see them. They don't have to be the stick and straw variety – they can be made with any medium, recycled or new, any style or size limited only by one's imagination.

Despite the rain, judging was done at the usual time Saturday.

Thanks are extended to judges Linda Baker, Schomberg Ambassador Morgan Baker and Mackenzie Bretschneider for braving the elements. Signage was installed to distinguish winning scarecrows on Saturday afternoon and awards were presented at the community bonfire. Voting for People's Choice continued all weekend and the winner was notified Monday this morning – "Duck Dynasty" by The Scruffy Duck.

Winner of the first place Family was "Despicable Me" by The Feddema Family.

Second place Family was "oGrandma" by Vienna and Domenic Sbergio.

"Emeraldalicious Garden," by Tracy Locke won 3rd place Family.

First place Business/Group went to "Brushing up on Skills by Two Brushes."

Second place Business/Group winner was the large spider, "Scare Crows then Eat Crows" by Piety Ridge.

Third place Business/Group winner "Crow-Ga" by Country Zen Yoga.

The Schomberg Cougars made up for a disappointing home loss by defeating Alliston and Fergus.

Cougars redeem themselves, rack up a pair of victories

By JEFF DONER

The Schomberg Cougars began the week on a rough note at home, but redeemed themselves by picking up a couple big wins on the road last weekend.

Starting with an uninspiring 8-2 home game loss against the Stayner Siskins on Thursday, the Cougars seemed to still be showing some nerves playing in their own building.

Coach Jim Egerton wasn't impressed with his club's performance on home ice.

"Stayner came in here with a short bench and I think they out-worked us, out-skated us and they scored some nice goals on some nice shots," he said after the game. "We weren't getting a lot of bounces around their net, but for the most part I think we just got outworked in our own arena, which is unacceptable."

The Cougars held an early lead when rookie Ryley Egerton scored just one minute into the game, with Cailean Thornton-Wilson and Chris Wilson drawing the assists.

Before the period was over, Stayner added two goals to take the lead heading into the second.

Just as in the first, the Cougars scored a quick goal to tie the game. JP Crescenzi hit the mesh, assisted by Christian Muenz.

But the Cougars seemed to implode at that point, as they fought the puck for the rest of the game.

The Siskins added six unanswered goals to fortify their lead and embarrass the Cougars in front of the home crowd.

Rookie goalie Garrett Taylor was relieved midway through the game in favour of veteran Taylor Ewart.

Egerton said Taylor was most likely feeling some nerves in his home building after coming off a big win against Midland last week.

"I think our young guys and our rookie goalie, who we started tonight, maybe he had some nerves too in his first home game, but it's early in the season and this is where you learn, from games like these," he said. "Hopefully next time we play these guys we'll be ready for them, because they definitely outplayed us tonight."

Egerton said he was hoping his team would be able to carry the momentum from Midland over to the Stayner game to help get ready for a big game against the Alliston Hornets the next night.

Cougars down Hornets in shootout

The Cougars must have listened to their coach well, as they took to the road to face the rival Hornets in a penalty filled matchup that would be decided in a shootout.

Ewart started in goal for Cougars and 21 saves on 25 shots and stopping six of seven Hornets in the shootout.

It was a classic come-from-behind win for Schomberg, who were spurred forward by a second period hat-trick rookie Nicholas Chaykowsky to help the Cougars dig themselves out of a hole.

Cailean Thornton-Wilson and Ryley Egerton scored in the shootout to deliver a redeeming 5-4 win for the Cougars, who were bested by the Hornets in their season opener.

Cougars dump Fergus

Seemingly flying high, the Cougars trotted into Fergus with a little bit of swagger in what would become another penalty filled affair.

Ewart once again got the start in goal turning away 17 of the 19 shots Fergus fired his way in a 6-2 Cougar win.

The offence was buoyed by some familiar players who have been on fire as of late, with Ryley Egerton getting his team on the board to tie the game.

Muenz and Blake Culley both connected for a goal and three assists and Thornton-Wilson netted a goal and an assist.

Earlier in the week, Culley said it has been a rough start for his team, but chalked it up to just early season jitters and correctly predicted his team would learn a lesson from the game against Stayner.

"It's been a rough start to the year, but we're a much younger team, but we're starting to come together now," he said. "It's early in the season, but near the end tonight (against Stayner) when guys we're getting hit from behind we were standing up for each other, so there are some positives."

The Cougars will try to get their first home win of the season when they welcome the Penetang Kings to the Trisan Centre on Thursday, Sept. 26 at 8:30.

King riders finish in top 10

Two King equestrians earned top-10 finishes at the $35,000 CSI2 RAM Equestrian Caledon Cup held at the Caledon Equestrian Park Sept. 21.

King City's Neil Badcock finished 6 atop Campino, while Schomberg's Beth Underhill finished 8th riding Viggo.

Marc Casullo is better than par

By Stuart Stanbury

Golf, like any other sport, requires hours upon hours of practice.

Marc Casullo, a student of Villanova College in King City, has not only worked on his game with the coaches and players but spends countless hours throughout the summer as a member of the Summit Golf Club in Richmond Hill.

Casullo is in his senior year at Villanova and he is the reason the school has had a golf team for the past three years.

When Casullo entered Villanova in 2009 his reputation as a golfer had already preceded him. He quickly made his way onto the varsity team and despite his small stature it was clear when you watched him play that he belonged with the big boys.

As well as practicing, Casullo has been travelling to the United States and across Canada to compete in various high-level golf tournaments.

Casullo was one of the youngest competitors invited to play in the Canadian Men's Amateur Championship this summer. In early August he travelled to Victoria, British Columbia to compete against golfers from all over the world. He posted an impressive four-day score of 300, which put him tied for 65th overall out of a field of over 320 golfers, with the majority of them not even making the cut.

Casullo is hoping to parlay his tournament experience from the summer in CISAA and provincial tournaments this fall. He is attempting to qualify and compete in his 3rd straight OFSAA Provincial Golf Championship, a feat that has yet to be accomplished by any Villanova student. At the 2012 Provincial tournament in St. Catherines, Casullo battled some extremely cold and windy conditions to place in a tie for 6th out of 120 golfers from across the province. He was the top CISAA competitor and with a score of 76 on day 2, which put him tied for the 3rd best round of the tournament.

With his senior year currently under way, Casullo is looking forward to graduating from Villanova and experiencing what is next for him in the world of golf.

He is currently exploring his options for post-secondary education and fully anticipates being a member of the golf team where ever he ends up. He has been in contact with golf coaches at Seton Hall, and Villanova University in Philadelphia.

The staff and students at Villanova College would like to wish Casullo good luck in the upcoming golf and school year.

Tom Marchese Trail Run a success

Almost two dozen participants braved the cold weather and rain on Saturday morning for the Tom Marchese Trail Run at the Cold Creek Conservation area in Nobleton to benefit the King Township Food Bank.

Runners who took part in the event conquered 6 kilometres of trails through Cold Creek, while walkers covered three kilometres with umbrellas in hand.

Organizer Tom Marchese said around $1,500 was raised for the food bank, which provides a great service to the community.

Marchese is hoping to hold the event annually and he was happy with the support the event received.

"We would not have been able to pull this off without the Township and everyone's help," he said.

For the run itself, 31 registered to walk or run and there were 11 volunteers. A total of 23 managed to do the course.

Amanda Young finished first with a time of 40 minutes, 19.2 seconds.

Franz Vubo was second in 41:19.1, followed by Alan Thwaites in 43:17.9.

The rest of the pack included Denise Bowles, 47:13.7; Debora Lamch, 47:13.7; Jake Djordjevic, 56:30; Guido Spinelli, 56:31; Nolan Mazzei, 63:33 and Vincenzo Mazzei, 63:38.

Marchese remarked that for some, this was their first visit to Cold Creek and they found the park a perfect spot for such an event.

708 DEATHS

CAMMAERT (Antheunis) Margaretha Sylvia: Mother, daughter, sister, grandmother, great grandmother, entrepreneur and all around class act. Born in 1915, Yzendyke, Holland, died September 18, 2013, Tottenham, Canada Eldest of 6 children of Rosalie and Leonard Antheunis, Mom was a source of strength to her mother in overseeing the operation of their farm during her father's illness. At the young age of 18, Mom opened her own millinery store "Maison Antheunis" in Rosendaal, Holland, where she was doted upon by the older merchants and admired for her business savvy, taste and creativity. She travelled frequently to France and Belgium in search of new styles and goods for her shop. In 1939 she met and married the handsome Johannes Cammaert and in quick succession, they had 5 children - Gus, Lia, Yvonne, Denise and Paul. Surviving WW2, Mom and Dad immigrated to Canada on the ship de Groote Bear, living first in Mitchell and then London, Ontario. Life was difficult in a new country, but together they forged a new life for their family, to which they added one more daughter, Dorothy. Dad died in 1984 and Mom moved to Toronto, and then in 1998 graced us with her presence in Dorothy's home in Tottenham. In 2006, Mom suffered renal failure and was given days to live. She decided to continue another 7 years before slipping away on her own terms. A woman of pride, Mom was recognizable everywhere for her stylish attire, always wearing a hat, gloves and heels. Mom set a high standard for all of us, and we know she is watching us still. Deepest thanks to family members and the many caregivers who took care of mom in her later years. Greatly missed and gratefully remembered by her children Gus Cammaert (Rosemary) of Eganville, Rosalia Strickland (Albert) of London, Yvonne Cammaert of Nassau, Denise Cammaert of Toronto, Paul Cammaert of Trenton, Dorothy Cammaert (Jon-Jo Douglas) of Tottenham and her grandchildren Kristin Fiebig (Kevin), Simone Howard (Hugh), Angelique Mori (Brian), Jason Cammaert (Lisa), Carly Gaston (Steve), Adrian Cammaert (Jayme), Rebecca Coulthart (Doug), Meghan Moss (Norman), Alexandra Douglas, Jana Douglas, Mackenzie Douglas and her great grandchildren Emma, Olivia, Abigail, Liam, Ryan, Aaron, Annalies, Maggie, Henry, Logan, Mason, Calum, Adelaide and by her sister Agnes Fasssaert of Rosendaal, the Netherlands, sister in law Cornelia Antheunis of Rosendaal, the Netherlands. Mass was celebrated at St. James Catholic Church, Colgan, Ontario at 12:00 noon, Saturday, September 21st, 2013. Interment at St. Peter's Cemetery, London, Monday, September 23, 2013, 12:00 noon. In lieu of floral tributes donations to the Alzheimer's Society of Greater Simcoe County P.O. Box #1414, Barrie, L4M 5R4 will be gratefully appreciated. Arrangements entrusted to Rod Abrams Funeral Home Tottenham, 905-936-3477. www.RodAbramsFuneralHome.com

708 DEATHS

FINES, Lynda Dale (nee Horne): February 11, 1943 – September 23, 2013. Passed peacefully at Southlake Regional Health Centre after a long and courageous battle with cancer. Greatly missed by her husband of 48 years William (Bill) Fines, daughters and son in laws, Stacey (Courtney) Cousins, Laura (John) Reilly and her twin granddaughters Grace and Gwendolyn, as well as her brother Doug (Yvonne) Horne, sister Donna Nelissen (John), brother in laws Doug Fines (Simone), Richard (Jean) Fines and many nieces and nephews. Much adored by all who knew her, she will be fondly remembered by all her family and friends for her grace, sense of humour and loving kindness. Friends may visit at MARSHALL FUNERAL HOME, 10366 Yonge Street Richmond Hill (4th traffic light north of Major Mackenzie Drive) on Thursday 7-9 pm, Friday 2-4 and 7-9 pm. Funeral service will be held on Saturday 11:30 am at All Saints Anglican Church, 12935 Keele Street King City. In lieu of flowers, donations to Southlake Regional Health Centre or All Saints Anglican Church would be appreciated. Much gratitude to the wonderfully caring staff at Southlake.

JARVIS: Huguette Monique. Passed away peacefully at Leisureworld in Barrie on Saturday, September 21st, 2013 in her 74th year. Loving wife of the late Victor. Dear mother of Denis Normandin (Sandra), Diane Normandin (Henry Sledz), Rick Normandin (Cathy) and Sharon Stachiw (Dave). Loving Nana of Derek (Jenny), Ryan (Cynthia), Jason, Caiden, Terrin, Liam and Joshua. 708 DEATHS

Bridgeman, Gregory John

With heavy hearts, we announce the peaceful passing of Gregory John Bridgeman, on Sunday, September 22, 2013 at his home in Egbert with his loving family by his side. At the age of 58 years he lost his courageous, brief struggle with cancer. Greg was the devoted and much loved husband of Janet Bridgeman (Bragg), and loving father of Geoffrey and Matthew. Beloved son of William and Annette Bridgeman of Windsor, and dear son in law of William and June Bragg of Bowmanville. Loving brother of Janis and Harry Schwab of St. Joachim, Robert Bridgeman of Kingston, and Paul and Beth Bridgeman of Belle River. Brother in law of Allen and Isabel Bragg of Kanata, and Barry Bragg and Jill Ramsay of Bowmanville. He will be greatly missed by his Aunt Mary McKrow, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and colleagues. Greg's love and devotion to his home and family was an inspiration to all who knew him. His integrity, compassion, humility, and patience as a teacher, coach, and mentor will be his everlasting legacy. You are always on our minds and forever in our hearts. We love you. A heartfelt thank you goes out to all family, friends, neighbours, colleagues, and medical personnel for all their love and support throughout this difficult time. Visitation and fellowship will be held at the W. John Thomas Funeral Home, 244 Victoria Street East, Alliston, Ontario on Friday September 27th, from 2pm to 5pm and 7pm to 9pm. A private service will be held at a later date. If desired, memorial donations made to the Royal Victoria Cancer Centre would be appreciated. Condolences and memories may be shared through www.thomasfuneralhome.ca • 705 435 5101

Donate soccer uniforms to children in Guatemala and Haiti

Silent Children's Mission, previously known as Legacy of Love, is a local charitable organization run out of Schomberg, which endeavors to relieve poverty in developing countries, more specifically in Africa and Latin America.

It assists various organizations that are providing direct assistance to abused children and women (physically and otherwise) through the provision of shelter, counseling and educational programs. Silent Children's Mission is now able to work through approximately 35 active missionaries in about 12 different countries. Help is provided to all people, especially women and children, regardless of race or religion.

Silent Children's Mission is currently preparing a shipping container to leave for Guatemala later this month and also is affiliated with a group which makes regular trips to Haiti to provide aid and medical relief there. Silent Children's Mission hopes to be able to send several sets of soccer uniforms and equipment to both of these counties, with the help of the King United Soccer Club membership and community.

"Because we at Silent Children's Mission believe that children everywhere should have the right to play as well as eat, we have decided to appeal to the King United Soccer Club membership and community to consider donating gently used soccer uniforms, now that the season has ended. It is our vision to be able to send over several full sets of uniforms, so that as many children as possible will have the opportunity to play," said Beth Antonic, Silent Children's Mission coordinator.

Drop boxes for uniforms will be located in all three of the King Township arenas until Monday, Sept. 30.

On Sept. 28, the first batch will be taken to the warehouse and packed up for shipping directly to Guatemala. Later in the year, more will be carried to Haiti. Just think - in a couple of short months all of those lovely King United jerseys will arrive to be given to some wonderful children who will truly appreciate them!

Food, education, and play are basic rights that we take for granted for our own children, but they are sadly not universal. Let's help to see that children everywhere have a chance to share in these fundamentals. It's such an easy thing for us to do!

If you have any questions about the uniform drive, please feel free to contact Antonic at 905-859-7652 or bethantonicyahoo.ca.

6th annual Headwaters Horse Country Stable Tour

Experience all things equine at the 6th annual Headwaters Horse Country Stable Tour.

Equine enthusiasts will have a chance to experience first-hand the basic and advanced aspects of equine sport when area facilities open their doors.

Admission is free for the opportunity to enjoy some of the country's premiere equine enterprises such as breeding farms, coaching and training facilities, riding schools, boarding stables, ranches, and suppliers (including farriers, veterinarians, feed, bedding and tack shops). The event will see facilities across the Town of Caledon, Dufferin County, Town of Erin and King Township open their doors to the public for a behind-the-scenes experience visiting horses of all breeds working across a range of disciplines and meet the people who love, train and care for them.

The tour takes place Saturday, Oct. 5.

On the schedule is Schomberg area's Harmony

Ranch.

Located on 50 acres of pristine and peaceful forests and fields, Harmony Ranch is exactly that, "harmony." This is a special place for horses and the people who love them. They pride themselves on their solid reputation for delivering the finest care for the horses entrusted to our boarding services, and competent, caring Western Riding instruction. Western and English riders, retired show horses and lay ups from the track; all enjoy our professional, peaceful, adults only facility.

Riding demonstrations and lessons ongoing during the day. Visit them and experience this "boutique style" farm, their happy horses and tour the facility. Watch a lesson and see why the adults-only programs and services are the best! Coffee is always on along with home baked goodies!

WaterStone Equestrian Centre on Dufferin Street, is located on 100 acres of beautiful rolling hills with a large, bright riding arena, qualified and supportive instructors, well-trained school horses, a cross country course and extensive hacking.

They offer year-round lessons to all levels of riders including beginner adults. They have summer, winter, and March break camps. WaterStone maintains a friendly, positive environment in which to have a fun and safe experience with their horses.

Free riding assessments will take place from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, Oct.

4. Riding demonstrations will take place all day on the cross country course. Come and sit on the hill and enjoy the horses and beautiful view.

Gimcrack Equestrian Centre, located on 16th Sideroad near Nobleton, is a premier boarding, training, and sales facility located on 40 gently rolling acres of King Township.

Hortons Smile Cookie campaign in full swing

By Jeff Doner

The Tim Hortons Smile Cookie campaign is back in full swing this year, with local Tim Hortons locations selling plenty of the happy treats.

This year the campaign will benefit the local chapter of Reach for the Rainbow.

“Reach for Rainbow integrates kids and youth with disabilities into recreational summer camp programs,” said Maggie Patten, logistics and event coordinator for Reach for the Rainbow. “We work with programs like the YMCA and we develop integrated opportunities so that children with disabilities have an opportunity to be involved in recreational programs.”

Cookies are sold for $1 each throughout this week, with 100 per cent of the proceeds from the Tim Hortons locations in Schomberg, Tottenham, Palgrave and Mono Mills all going to Reach for the Rainbow.

“At the end of the week we’ll hopefully see about $5,000 raised in the Smile Cookie fund for Reach for Rainbow,” Patten added.

Sandy Kendell, supervisor at the Schomberg location, said the cookies are popular every year and that her restaurant has set a goal for itself.

“We have already sold lots of cookies,” she said. “Sales are great and we’ve had all of our staff selling them to try to help the organization. We also have a little promotion going on right now for our staff that if we can sell more than we did last year, they can get a reward for that.”

Kendell said the Schomberg restaurant sold about 1,600 last year and the hope is to crack 2,000 this year.

“People love the smile cookies,” she said. “They look forward to them every year and they always like to know who the money is going to.”

Rebecca Eden, Lilly Rohner and Sandy Kendell joined by Maggie Patten.

King City United Church gears up for its 50th

King's Corners

King City United By Eleanor Fry

On a crisp "fall is here" morning, Reverend Evelyn's Reflection was "In God We Trust ... or Do We?"

We heard many stories based on the scripture readings. She confessed she had struggled with these all week. With several different stories, the message was that we tend to hold up the money, the things, and not the gift of relationships, the gift of faith, the gift of caring, the gift of love. We can have everything, but if we worship the things, we become faithless.

A father and son were out jogging, sharing their stories. A homeless man approached, asking for spare change. The father reached in his pockets and pulled out a handful of coins. Hardly believing his good luck, the homeless man scooped up every one. The father and son had decided before this to order a pizza. Suddenly the father remembered he had no coins left for the pay phone (an older story). He called out "Excuse me. Can you spare some of that change?" The homeless man turned back, saying "Take what you need."

Money was not the idol. It was about building relationships and experiencing faith.

Our weekly events continue Mondays, United Men practise in the parlour 7 p.m. This is for the men's chorus that entertains us for "The Dinner" in November.

Wednesdays, Bible study at 10 a.m. in the chapel. Thursdays, bell choir at 6:45, vocal choir 8 p.m. in the sanctuary. Rosemary's vocal choir is in need of some alto voices. Come to a practise and try it out.

Tuesday, Oct. 1 at 10:30 in the parlour will be a meeting for all callers of membership and pastoral care. Bring your list along.

Sunday, Oct. 27 we will be joined in our worship by the Metropolitan Silver Band. There will also be an afternoon concert, the time is yet to be determined. Watch for more information.

We are all anticipating a great evening at our 50th anniversary dinner on Saturday, Oct 5. Many members who now live in other places are returning for a fun-filled evening of dinner, entertainment, memories and memorabilia. Lots of pictures and mementos will be on display. It will be a fun evening at the Oak View Terrace.

The UCW ladies enjoyed our guest speaker from "Valley Vista" retirement home. Jennifer told us about all the good things of retirement living, and also supplied us with a delicious lunch.

Come and enjoy Sunday services, 10 a.m. at 50 Elizabeth Grove. Stay for coffee, conversation, and cookies. Reverend Evelyn will send you on your way with good reason to come back again. For any information call our office 905-833-5181.

Please send comments, suggestions, digital pictures of church events to Fred fjesty@hotmail.com. Items for the local paper send to donaldelly@sympatico.ca or call 905-833-5954.

King Bible Church Community Fun Fair

We hope you can join us this Sunday, Sept. 29 for our special 50th Anniversary Worship Celebration.

We are so privileged to have Rev. Paul Carter sharing the message from God's word. Several of our long-time and returning members will remember Paul and his family for their years of service at KBC. Paul is the senior pastor of First Baptist Church, Orillia. He has written 2 books, one dedicated to King Bible Church.

O'Neill Ministries will inspire us in song. We will have a time of light refreshments after the service.

For our special service our Celebration Zone will be for kids aged 3-Grade 2. We also have nursery available downstairs for babies 0-2.5.

We invite everyone to join us for a fun-filled day on Saturday, Sept. 28 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

We will have a screamer slide, obstacle course, carnival games, bouncy castle, farm animals and pony rides, exotic animals and reptiles, clowns and magicians, concert (Anthem for Today), face painting, balloon animals, popcorn, cotton candy, BBQ and much more!

King City Travel Club

The King City Seniors' Centre Travel Club reminds all members that tickets are available for the following upcoming trips:

Wednesday, Oct. 16 is the Credit Valley Explorer. The day begins with a delicious brunch at the Globe Restaurant in Rosemont, then enjoy a scenic tour by train through Ontario's greenbelt. Light snack and refreshments served on board. Last, but not least is a coach tour through Orangeville to look at tree carvings around the town.

Thursday, Dec. 5 is the Geritol Follies' "Christmas Magic."

At the Dutch Mill Country Market, we will enjoy a hot lunch including dessert, tea and coffee. In the afternoon we will go to the McIntyre Theatre at Mohawk College for a matinee performance of the Christmas Magic show.

We require a firm commitment for this trip by Oct. 1.

For details on all trips, call Carol Field at 905-833-3324 or Jane Hepworth at 905-833-5870.

St. Andrew's By Kathy Patterson

St. Andrew's invites you to join us at 10:30 a.m. for our worship service this Sunday. Our Sunday School runs concurrently and nursery care is also available during the service. The Sunday school is blessed to have many willing teachers and volunteers and would love to have your children join us. Stay afterwards for a time of fellowship over coffee.

Last Sunday we celebrated the September birthdays including The Rev. Dr. John Visser's who led us in worship. His sermon was entitled, "Wrestling with God."

Sometimes we don't realize what has taken place or what we are going through, but in reflection, we can see the hand of God, are forever changed and are amazed at His involvement in our lives.

It is obvious that John loves to preach and share the Christian message wherever he goes. He will be with us again for Communion Sunday, Oct. 6. This Sunday we will look forward to a return visit from Mrs. Anita Van Nest from St. Andrew's, Newmarket.

The Thanksgiving food and clothing drive for the King Township Food Bank and The Evangel Hall, Toronto has started. Please leave the donations in the church Narthex.

St. Andrew's provides the church service for the King City Lodge this Thursday at 2 p.m. If you would like to join the Visitation Group, please meet in the church parking lot at 1:30 p.m. to car pool.

The next "Ethnic Dinner" is Oct. 4. The group will be going to a Hungarian restaurant. Contact Kathy Patterson at 905-833-0391 for more information.

Prayer is key at St. Andrew's. The Ladies' Prayer Group continues Tuesday mornings at 9 a.m. in the church narthex. Do join us.

Should you have any prayer requests, praise items or any questions or concerns, please contact the church office at 905-833-2325 or call Kathy Patterson, clerk of session or our interim moderator, the Rev. Dr. Neal Mathers at 905-895-5512.

Our church is located at 13190 Keele St., 2 blocks north of the King Rd. There is a ramp available for accessibility.

All Saints By Nicola Skinner

What is the point of going to church? This is a common question asked of most church-goers. Can't you just believe in God without going to church? Well, of course you can.

But what church does offer is a very different kind of community. It's a community where the young and the old rub shoulders, where people pray for one another and support each other in difficult times, a place where we rally together for a variety of great causes, a place for communal meals and celebrations, a place where a God of peace and justice is proclaimed.

Sometimes it is just the place to go and sit quietly when the world is rushing all around. So, if you wonder why we do it, or what we do, drop in one day and look around, or come on a Sunday and see for yourself. You are welcome.

Sunday, Oct. 6 is our annual Animal Blessing service. Bring your beloved furry (or non furry) friend to either of our services for a blessing at 8 a.m. or 10.30 a.m. Join us as we celebrate St. Francis of Assisi, our friendship with animals and our mandate to care for God's earth. This Sunday is also a farmers' market, so bring your recycle bags and your wallet!

During the week we have a book club, yoga and bible study. Our regular outreach activities include cooking meals for residents of a local hostel and collecting for the Food Bank. If you would like to donate please look at the King Township Food Bank website for details of their most needed items.

On Oct. 20, Janet and Ian Rodger, who run the farmers' market, are ending the season by cooking a feast of local flavours for the finale celebration at 6 p.m. Tickets are only $20 for adults and $10 for children 12 and under. Enjoy a fabulous meal and foot stomping music from The Blazing Fiddles.

All Saints is an inclusive and welcoming Anglican church in the heart of King City. We strive to be a community of compassion and hope, following in the footsteps of Jesus. Service times are 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. and we are located at 12935 Keele Street, King City. See www.allsaintskingcity.com. Please leave messages at 905-833-5432, and I will return your call.

The word around King

What's your favourite part of Fall?

Jocelyn Kean

"I love the cool weather, the fall leaves and definitely the apple pie!"

Michele Donnelly

"Walking the trails - it's gorgeous this time of year. There are no bugs and so many people out there enjoying it."

Brooke Allen

"Spending time with friends and family. Thanksgiving is always something I look forward to. I love to bake and cook."

Samantha Kastner

"My favourite part is Halloween and dressing up. This year I'm going to be a zombie soccer player!"

Residents get up close with Pope

Long-time King City residents Sante (Sandro) and Rosa Perruzza (centre), along with Sandro's brother Frank, enjoyed a once-in-a-lifetime experience recently during a trip to the Vatican. The trio saw Pope Francis Sept. 11 make his rounds, among a crowd of some 200,000 people at St. Peter's Square. Rosa actually got a chance to touch the Pope's hand as he passed by, making this a very memorable experience.
