Demolition marks start of project

Raymundo Mamancia, of Priestly Demolition Inc., hoses down brick dust while an excavator tears down a wall on the former Holy Name school on King Road in King City. King Township's new municipal offices will eventually be built on the site, The new building is expected to be complete by the end of next year. The Township's Facebook page has received a lot of comments on the post, mostly from people reminiscing about the former school.

NOTICE OF SERVICE DISRUPTION
Highway 27 watermain replacement in Nobleton

What: Watermain replacement
Where: Hwy. 27 in Nobleton from Parkview Avenue to Wilsen Road
When: Ongoing. Construction is expected to last up to three months
Why: Replacement of watermain to improve service to the area

Project impacts:

- During construction, full-time access to all residences and businesses on Hwy. 27 within the work zone will be maintained. Pedestrian access will also be maintained.
- Through traffic on Hwy. 27 will be maintained, however there will be lane reductions as required. Motorists should expect delays for the entire duration of the project.
- Periodic closures of local road connections to Hwy. 27 in the project area will be necessary. Additional notices will be distributed to property owners with specific dates of the closures as well as any alternative traffic arrangements.
- To facilitate the installation of the new watermain, the water supply to properties on Hwy. 27 in the project area will need to be temporarily shut off for short periods of time. Property owners will be given advanced notice prior to any water disruption.

King Township will make every effort to minimize disruptions. If you have any questions about the project, please contact Wayne Pinkney, King Township project manager, at 905-833-4575 or by email at wpinkney@king.ca.

Grand opening set for Nobleton's Tasca Park

The public is invited to celebrate King's newest community park in fine style.

Everyone is welcome to the Sept. 10 grand opening of Tasca Park in Nobleton.

You can get a first-hand glimpse at the park's features, which include a splash pad, soccer field, basketball court, first and only fully accessible playground, trails, a skate park, a tobogganing hill, and much more. Located on Parkheights Trail, Nobleton.

The grand opening will take place Saturday, Sept. 10, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Some speeches are planned by local councillors and dignitaries for roughly noon.

Activities during the day include a skate board demo, 3-on-3 basketball tournament, soccer demonstration, geo-caching, live music, prizes and give-aways and Lions Club BBQ, local food vendors.

"Tasca Park is a true treasure to our community. I hope that many Township residents will join us for the grand opening celebrations. It promises to be a fantastic afternoon of community fun, food and entertainment," said Councillor David Boyd.

Named after a community-minded family, Joe and Bernice Tasca who have volunteered with numerous organizations all their adult lives, the park is a statement of all that King residents value: living in harmony with our natural surroundings, keeping active through outdoor pursuits, and sharing our free time with family and friends.

This park is not just for kids. Adults, parents and teens quickly note the fitness track which winds for several kilometers around the perimeter of the park, punctuated by stations for stretches, hurdles, lunges, and squats. In the centre of the park a star rises - a large hill with sides sloping down into a depression. In the winter this will be the perfect tobogganing hill. In the summer it will be used as an amphitheatre for music concerts, and outdoor theatre performances.

First human case of West Nile virus

An individual in the City of Markham has tested positive for West Nile virus, marking York Region's first human case of 2016.

"Education and awareness are key to avoiding West Nile virus infection," said Dr. Karim Kurji, York Region's Medical Officer of Health. "Remember to cover up or stay inside during dusk and dawn when mosquitoes are most active."

York Region encourages residents to follow these simple Fight the Bite tips to reduce their chance of being bitten by mosquitos:

- Limit outdoor activities in the early morning and early evening, when mosquitos are most active.
- Cover exposed skin by wearing long sleeves, pants and socks.
- Use insect repellent containing DEET when outdoors.
- Clean or remove standing water sources, including bird baths, empty containers, outdoor toys and flower pots.

Mosquito activity varies from year to year. While it is important to know not all mosquitos are West Nile virus carriers, two mosquito traps have tested positive for the virus this year.

York Region's annual West Nile virus control plan includes: Mosquito control - Mosquito populations are reduced through a process called larviciding, using provincially and federally approved pesticides.

Mosquito surveillance - Each week between June and October up to 40 mosquito traps are set up across the Region, capturing and testing mosquitos for the virus.

Symptoms of West Nile virus may include fever, muscle weakness, stiff neck, confusion, severe headaches and a sudden sensitivity to light. In rare cases, the virus can cause serious neurological illness including encephalitis, or inflammation of the brain.

For more information on West Nile virus or any other public health related issue, visit york.ca/health or contact York Region Health Connection at 1-800-361-5653, TTY 1-866-252-9933.

Editorial, Letters & Opinion

"Public opinion shapes our destinies and guides the progress of human affairs"

~ Frank B. Kellogg

I'm way too old to wear skinny jeans!

There comes a time in everyone's life when they realize they just can't compete with the youngins.

Alas, the body raises the white flag long before our minds and wisdom begin to fail. So here we are, my fellow 50-somethings – smart, experienced, funny and genuine souls, who are deemed too old to wear a sports jersey!

It would seem, from a recent survey in Britain, that I'm too old for many things, and almost ready to be put out to pasture. As my birthday nears on Sept. 2, I will likely be breaking some of the so-called rules set out below. Because I can. Because, once you reach a certain age, I believe we all earn the right to speak our minds and act how we choose.

The 2,000 Brits surveyed say I should no longer have a Facebook account, the upper limit being age 49.

I'm too old to get drunk in public – that should stop at age 38!

Well, let me tell you I've been to some fancy cocktail parties and on various Caribbean beaches where they didn't get the memo. I've seen people in their 60s and 70s put away enough booze to down a rhino. And good for them!

I had to stop wearing a sports jersey at 42 and after 44, I was no longer welcome at any nightclubs.

Apparently, those who answered the poll say I can no longer go to a music festival. The cutoff is age 45. I'd like to remind them that many of our iconic rockers are still performing, well into their 60s and 70s. So it only stands to reason their fans would be older, too.

My wife and I attended a concert by Gowan recently and I was surprised at how many 60-plus fans were singing and shouting along with this Canadian star.

According to the study, women shouldn't wear a mini skirt past the age of 39. Women can't wear a bikini past 46 and none of us should squeeze into skinny jeans past 47. And you can't stay out past midnight, once you reach the ripe old age of 52!

Tell that to Mick Jagger, Paul McCartney, Elton John, Rod Stewart, Billy Joel, Bruce Springsteen, Alice Cooper, Steven Tyler, Cher ...

At the age of 36 it is no longer considered okay to like a "boy band" and we should refrain from texting. :(

Past 34, taking selfies are a definite no-no. That makes Kim Kardashian West past her prime.

Under these guidelines, I can't get my belly button pierced and I must stop watching reality TV. Damn!

Some 62 per cent of Brits say they cringe when they see people wearing clothes "too young" for them, and a further 54 per cent have found it embarrassing when someone acts younger than they are.

My wife may agree. I have yet to reach the age of maturity – I'm much too young for that! I wear loud, colourful shirts in the summer – I want to be spotted from the International Space Station! I play with toys. I keep taunting my better half, saying I'm going to dye my hair blond and add some streaks. I'm gonna wear a cape or a single glove! Humour also gets better with age.

I think those 2,000 surveyed were likely under 30, so they're still babes and really don't have a firm grasp on life.

I firmly believe the concept of "growing old gracefully" is out the window, or has changed dramatically.

As I mentioned, once you reach a certain age I believe you can say what you want, swear at whomever you wish, eat, drink and be merry. You've earned it!

I'm not qualified to provide any benchmarks because they would be way off. I've seen seniors perform incredible feats.

In cultures other than our own, the adults and seniors are revered and very respected. Why? Because they've seen it all, done it all, and learned a lot along the way.

I concur.

Just think of our parents or grandparents, who lived through a world war, the Depression, booms and busts over the past century. They did things, I believe, that very few of us could muster today. They fought wars, protested and lobbied for equal rights. They worked extremely hard and took pride in everything they did. They loved their homelands, and they loved Canada even more.

My dad's been gone 18 years now. If he were still alive, he'd be 97, and likely cranky as hell! I wouldn't dare tell him – at any point in his life – there was something he couldn't do. I didn't even comment when he wore socks with sandals!

In my profession, I'm so lucky that I get to meet some really interesting people. I gather insights, first-hand, from some who really have "done it all." I pick their brains and take away as many "nuggets" as I can. They help me grow.

Some of the fascinating souls are older – in their 60s and beyond. They've accomplished incredible things and accumulated more wisdom than you can imagine. To all those I've interviewed for feature articles in the paper, thank you!

Too old to wear a bikini? Heck, I'd even wear one! And I'd take a bunch of selfies and post them on my Facebook page!

Time is not always good to us. But it's up to us to use it wisely and make every second worth living.

So grab those skinny jeans, mini skirts and sports jerseys and head out to a music festival! Who's with me?

Letter to the Editor

The great severance debate

I would like to congratulate the King Weekly Sentinel on their recent editorial on the severance topic in Kingscross Estates. I am compelled to write after reading the letter to the editor by Donnelly Law. I am quite surprised that an environmental law firm would wade so aggressively into the internal politics of a neighbourhood ratepayers association instead of advocating on the points of environmental law that apply to a severance application.

Donnelly's letter alleges that there may be an inappropriate personal relationship between the editor and the developer. It reminds me of the George Bush speech right after 9/11: "Either you are with us or against us." It seems like there is no middle ground allowed on the severance issue in Kingscross just as Bush tried to force other countries to take sides.

We have seen the bullying tactic routinely in Kingscross when it comes to the severance issue. If you are not anti-severance, you must be in bed with the developer. As the original editorial reported, disappointingly these were some of the allegations levelled at residents by their fellow neighbours during the recent council meeting on the issue.

Since Donnelly Law has called into question the integrity of the paper, I would call on Donnelly Law, in the interest of full disclosure, to encourage their client, the board of KRA, to disclose who is actually funding the Donnelly bills. It's been made public – the funds to hire Donnelly Law were raised through anonymous donations. The names of the donors were kept so secret, only a few select directors on the KRA board know where the funds came from despite repeated request to disclose the source of funding. Who is/are the benefactor(s) paying for Donnelly Law? Is it an individual or is it a group? Are the donors even member of Kingscross? Do the donors have a personal vendetta against the applicant or is there another agenda at play? Or perhaps the donors are members of the ratepayers' association who are concerned about the severance application. The fact is nobody knows but a select few directors.

I congratulate the King Weekly Sentinel for playing its role as the Fifth Estate and reporting on issues such as this one. It seems the paper may have struck a nerve, and perhaps through the paper's continued reporting, we may have a more transparent and open process on this severance issue and actually get some answers on what is truly going on.

Thus far we have only seen secrecy, anonymous donations and bullying. We are all better than this.

Impacts of weather felt in Holland Marsh

By Avia Eek

When your livelihood is derived from agriculture, there is no such thing as a “normal” or “average” year. From one year to the next, you will have to deal with varying challenges and food and farming certainly isn’t the “same old, same old” from one year to the next. We use best farm, and best management practices, as much as you are able to when your business partner is Mother Nature!

Our spring started out cooler than we would have liked, given that we had transplant onions to plant. Then, as is usually the case, around May/June, the Holland Marsh experienced wind storms (think of a blizzard in the winter, except with dirt). The ground is light, having been “worked” in order to plant our seasonal crops. Some farmers will plant cover crop “windrows” to protect their crops until the roots are established in these crops, but there is still that small window when the wind can blow through, picking up the dirt, seeds etc., requiring re-seeding.

Our farmers dealt with damaging winds from the northwest for 2.5 days, which dried out small seedlings (dependant on the size), and various other crops died as a result of wind damage. A lack of precipitation compounded matters.

Some farmers irrigate their fields prior to seeding, if the field is really, really dry. Some will wait to irrigate until after they have seeded in order for the worked up soil holding the seeds to form a “crust,” which mitigates wind damage by holding the soil together, essentially packing it. Either way, choosing to irrigate pre- or post- seeding, adds to input costs. Irrigation systems require the use of pumps to pump the water from the river or canal to our headers, pipes or reels. Pumps require fuel and tractors, and lots of man hours for optimum results.

Our Holland Marsh farmers have important partners, without which, would make what we do much more difficult. We have our Muck Crops Research Station, University of Guelph, who work with our farmers from the science end of things providing us with important information about soil, bugs, crop protection, integrated pest management, field scouting, disease, which varieties of seeds grow best in our organic based soil, etc. Another very important partner is the Holland Marsh Drainage System Joint Municipal Services Board, folks comprised of the mayor and a councillor from each of King Township and Town of Bradford West Gwillimbury, two farmer representatives from each municipality, and a member at large who provide direction to the drainage superintendent. It should be noted that the drainage system in the Holland Marsh is unique in all of Ontario, and contributes to the importance of this Specialty Crop Area, and our ability to provide locally grown produce, which is world renown. There are a number of pump houses within the polders that control the flow of water in and out of the Holland Marsh from Lake Simcoe.

During the lengthy drought, the likes of which we have not seen in a couple of decades, the pump houses are checked twice daily controlling the flow based on the needs of our farmers.

The drought conditions this year have been incredibly hard on crops, and our farmers, who have been spending 19 hours a day trying to keep the crops alive. The extreme heat, and lack of rain have contributed to seedlings burning off. Some of our farmers have had to re-seed part fields due to burn off. The weather has also reduced the effectiveness of crop protection which directly relates to an increase in weeds (they seem to be flourishing this year). Under normal weather conditions, fields are hand-weeded at least 4-5 times throughout the growing season. No, we are not organic farmers, but spraying less is less stressful for the plants, and reduces our crop protection costs. Weeds must be removed from fields, as they compete with our field crops for nutrients, and provide a haven for pests (which leads to the need for crop protection. Fields are scouted regularly, and are only sprayed when thresholds are reached). As well, when weeds are present, it increases the chance of disease. This year, to date, we have, on our farm alone, increased our labour costs for additional handweeding by $14,000 – that’s just one cost!

Some crops, like onions, may experience a size reduction. The chain stores have a “standard” that they prefer for consumers. Based on the conversations I’ve had with folks, most consumers prefer smaller onions. Don’t be shy about sharing your preference for smaller produce with your local grocer! Other crops, like carrots, may experience length differences. This is good, as there’s a standard for length too. Those that have survived the heat, as a result of irrigation. You see, in a dry year the tap root of the carrot will seek water, growing downward, creating a longer carrot. We’ll find out at harvest this fall!

It’s really difficult to say what, if any, food price increases will occur. While we all talk about buying local, shopping local, and supporting local agriculture, the reality is most of our Holland Marsh Farmers (except for some of the farmers’ market growers) are commercial growers, and the prices we get paid depend on the global market pricing, not what it actually costs us to grow the food, but what the prices are based on our international trading partners. So, back to the question will food prices go up? That depends on whether there is ample supply of produce, including that provided by our trading partners.

What are farms’ losses? I would be able to sit down and figure out the increases of labour, fuel, transplants, seed, crop insurance, crop protection etc., to date based on actual numbers, but it isn’t really until next April when we will be able to figure what the actual losses are based on market value.

Our new restaurant in Schomberg will be opening soon

King City Community Garden launched

The Township of King Parks, Recreation & Culture Department has officially launched the King City Community Garden, located at St. Andrew's Church on Keele Street.

Gardeners gathered together for the first garden meet and greet celebration on Aug. 15. It is great to see all of the garden plots filled. Not only did volunteers fill the plots but the garden plots are doing unbelievable and residents are working together to help each other with watering and weeding, which ultimately provides a real sense of community garden.

Everyone is fully utilizing the space they have been given to garden and have been working together to conserve the rain water in the rain barrels to ensure everyone has water for their plots.

Thanks go out to sponsors for their contributions to making the King City Community Garden a success:

King Station, Signature Communities, Zancor Homes, King City Lions Club. Thanks also go out to Habeb from the King City Market Gardening Centre for the vegetable plant donations.

If anyone is interested in learning more about the garden or getting involved please email environmentalstewardship@king.ca or call 905-833-5321.

Coppa's Fresh Market offers Nonna Francesca's Ristorante

Coppa's Fresh Market is pleased to introduce Nonna Francesca's Ristorante, the company's first restaurant, in addition to a full complement of freshly prepared foods at its new King City location.

Designed to enhance the entire shopping experience, this latest addition to the grocer's products and services will enable shoppers to enjoy a fresh, home-cooked meal without having to prepare it themselves. Whether customers only have a short amount of time to enjoy a hot lunch or simply don't have the energy to cook dinner after a long day, Nonna Francesca's Ristorante and the fresh selection of ready-made foods will ensure customers still have easy access to the authentic foods they love.

Nonna Francesca, the matriarch of the Coppia family, was the original inspiration behind the company's line of Italian comfort foods. Using traditional ingredients to make classic Italian meals, she brought her entire family together over dinner. These ready-made and freshly prepared meals are the next logical step in bringing the world's freshest foods to consumers, while keeping Nonna Francesca's tradition alive.

The restaurant has a Pasta Station where pastas and flavours are harmoniously combined, a Grill Time Station where patrons can have meat, fish or vegetables prepared exactly the way they like it, and a bar with a wide variety of local and international beers and wines. Hand-made pizzas and smaller plates are also available. Nonna Francesca's Ristorante is designed to replicate the experience of dining together at a family home. The restaurant will serve food throughout regular store hours (listed below) for the best possible customer convenience.

Prepared foods currently available at other Coppia's locations have their own dedicated department at the new King City store. This will be a big time-saver for busy shoppers as they can visit the store, purchase a hearty meal for the entire family, and get home quickly. Foods are prepared daily, and only the best ingredients are used in Nonna Francesca's ready-to-eat pizzas, pastas, poultry items and other traditional favourites. Bring a little Italian flair to your family's dinner table, next office function or barbecue event.

Store hours at the new King City location are Monday to Saturday, 7 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Sunday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Coppia's Fresh Market is a family owned and operated grocery store chain. Coppia's is committed to providing an authentic grocery experience, offering a combination of exceptional value, superior service and a selection of the finest quality food from around the world.

The ownership group's family roots run over 50 years deep in the grocery business; the Coppia family opened their first grocery store at 1558 Queen Street West in Toronto. The company takes great pride, passion and care in bringing their customers a comprehensive global shopping experience; one that offers the freshest and widest variety of foods from top local suppliers and authentic international brands.

New site promotes businesses

By Mark Pavilons

Shopping in King just got a little bit easier, thanks to the efforts of a King resident.

Tom Marchese launched KingTownshipBiz, a subsidiary of DistrictBiz, a privately held company having roots right here in King Township. He came up with the idea this past February, deciding it was time to make it easier for the community to shop locally.

"King Township residents have an inherent desire to support local business, so I want to help them find each other, faster. Local businesses have long expressed a need to reach the community in a better way, and this modern platform allows for them to be found more easily than ever before. Additionally, businesses have an opportunity to advertise directly to people looking for their services with laser focus like never before," according to Marchese.

There are several competitor directories in the marketplace, so the undertaking was risky. However, there didn't seem to be a directory that truly served the purpose of supporting local King business. Searches within specific villages and hamlets would return results with little relevance to the actual search zone.

The main difference, Marchese said, is the local focus at the highest level, as opposed to a broad geographic area. People looking for a business on KingTownshipBiz.com already want to find a local business, so that eliminates a huge layer of the search criteria! On top of that, the smart category filtering allows for very fast searching.

"My web developers designed a smart method of filtering and displaying results, so that you can find what your looking for extremely quickly. The site is also mobile friendly! So whether you are on a computer, or mobile device, the site displays brilliantly."

One of the unique service offerings will be customized advertising metrics. Businesses will have the ability to know how many times visitors have visited their category and profile page.

KingTownshipBiz is the first directory within the DistrictBiz company. The business model is to have very focussed advertising plans for local directories.

"Our plan is to expand our reach to other districts throughout Ontario using KingTownshipBiz as the model," he explained.

"We do this because we believe that local business creates the fabric of communities, and residents want to support them. We believe in the synergy that exists between local business and the community to which they belong. In order to succeed, business must invest in their community. In turn, the community needs to support local business. To that end, we provide the King community a simple way to connect with local business using an easy, online directory dedicated to business serving King. We provide local business a simple, and cost effective way to reach their target market using online tools."

Marchese's plan is to make this site the "business hub" of King Township. It will grow to include classified adds, real estate listings, and blogs.

"For small and medium sized businesses, this is a true solution to their marketing challenges. Now, they can easily advertise products and services directly to their target market allowing them to maintain focus and resources on core business. Essentially, all business that is carried out in King Township will have a presence on this site."

King's Ian Hilley is vice-chair of the board of CHATS

CHATS - Community & Home Assistance to Seniors - is pleased to announce the recent appointments of its new officers to the board of directors, which includes a Kingscross resident.

Yash Kapur was appointed chair of the board. He is a retired Professional Engineer (P.Eng) with many years of working with the United Nations (Department of Peacekeeping Operations) in various parts of the world. He is a past chair of the Canadian Red Cross, York Region and International Delegate with the Emergency Response Unit of the Red Cross. He is also the chair of the Hall of Fame Awards Committee for the Mayor of the City of Markham and is a member of the Seniors Advisory Committee of the City of Markham.

Yash is a recipient of Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal. Yash has served on the CHATS board as a director since 2012 and was most recently the chair of its Governance Committee. He holds a Bachelor of Engineering, MBA, and a Post-graduate Diploma in Journalism and Public Relations. Yash resides in Unionville.

Appointed to the position of vice-chair of the board, was Ian Hilley of King City. Hilley holds a Bachelor degree in Pharmacy, and has over 30 years' senior leadership experience in health care, government and as a community pharmacist, most recently serving as VP Government Affairs and Market Access for Mylan Pharmaceuticals.

Currently, Ian also volunteers as president of the Canadian Hemochromatosis Society. Hilley was elected to the CHATS board in 2014, served as chair of its Quality Committee and will now chair the Governance Committee.

Cristine Prattas was reappointed as treasurer of the organization. She is a CPA, CA with experience in public accounting and had a successful career with Canadian Tire as a finance executive until her retirement in 2010. Her professional experience includes Enterprise Risk Management, financial governance, financial reporting, transaction processing, process improvement and Internal Audit.

CHATS is the largest provider of in-home and community services in York Region and South Simcoe, providing services to over 7,500 clients. Their ongoing mission is to support the health and wellness of seniors through the delivery of a continuum of geared-to-income community support services including respite care, home help, home adaptation and maintenance, transportation, home at last/hospital transition, adult day services, assisted living services, meals on wheels, caregiver education, interpretation services, and telephone reassurance.

They believe everyone has the right to age gracefully - with dignity and respect. We also believe everyone deserves the right to continue to live in their own home and community, surrounded by familiar things and routines which give them comfort.

Schomberg's Lamaze returns to Olympic podium

By Jake Courtepatte

After eight years, and with a different horse, Eric Lamaze has recaptured the connection he shared with Hickstead in earning Olympic bronze with Fine Lady 5.

One of the most accomplished rider/horse connections in Canadian equestrian history, Lamaze rode Hickstead to a gold in individual jumping and a silver in team jumping in Beijing in 2008, and earned a World Equestrian Games bronze in 2010.

Hickstead collapsed in competition the following November in Italy, and Lamaze opted to ride the nine-year old Derly Chin De Muze in London in 2012.

"I never thought this would happen again," Lamaze told the Canadian Press after his third place finish in the individual jumping event in Rio. "There were times when I was not sure if I wanted to keep going. But this makes it all worth it."

It wasn't until Rio in 2016 that he recaptured the magic he had with Hickstead with Fine Lady 5.

The pair was not docked a penalty through the three qualifying rounds and two final rounds, with Fine Lady 5 the only horse not to knock a rail to the ground in all five rounds.

Two other pairs had penalty-free final rounds, sending the riders into a jump-off. Great Britain's Nick Skelton led off with another perfect round, posting a quick time of 42.82 seconds as well.

Swiss rider Steve Guardat followed, hitting one rail in a time of 43.08. Two other riders followed suit, both with misses.

"I knew what I had to do and even if I was unlucky and we had a fence down, I knew there was still a spot open if we were fast with a fault for a medal," said Lamaze.

The pair sped through the course, clocking a time of 42.09 with just one miss, earning the third place on the podium.

"I think the Olympics is one of the most difficult things that we come across in our sport and I think we all tried our hardest to do the best that we can," said Lamaze. "We really appreciate what the horses do for us, and for me, this little mare was jumping her heart out all week long and she continued until the end."

"So many things have to go right to be here with a medal around my neck. We saw a lot of great horses and great riders have some misfortune," he later said. "I think you really need good luck all the way. You need your horse to stay healthy and it's never a predictable thing."

The 48-year old Lamaze is now Canada's most decorated Olympic equestrian with three medals.

"I think in our sport, mostly all of us go to a show every week. There's always a major Grand Prix. But in my experience, people quickly forget what you've won when it comes down to Grand Prix. But an Olympic medalist stays with you forever."

King soccer program a breeding ground for Europe opportunities

By Jake Courtepatte

Three members of an elite soccer development camp in King City played their way to a chance to train across the pond this summer.

Julian Graca, Miguel Barbosa, and Callum Young, all trainees with ANB Futbol, received invitations to play in Europe over the months of July and August.

Graca spent six months with Portugal's C.D. Nacional of Madeira before returning recently to play permanently with the under-19 Academy team.

"Playing on the U19 team in Portugal at C.D. Nacional has been an amazing experience," said Graca. "And a dream come true to be playing pro in Europe and competing against big teams. It has been my dream from a young age. I'm proud of my accomplishments."

Growing up playing soccer in Brampton, Graca spent close to two years with the ANB Futbol organization, honing his skills and calling it a "learning experience" while calling ANB "a family."

Miguel Barbosa, meanwhile, returned from Portugal in mid-August, following a stint of training with pro club Clube Desportivo das Aves.

Having worked with Sporting Academy in Portugal three years ago, the opportunity was the next step in Barbosa's entrance into European soccer. With a mother from Lisbon and a father from Porto, the move from ANB to Portugal was a smooth one.

"Miguel really enjoyed training with ANB," said his mother Racquel. "Because the level of soccer and the program in general helped him be well prepared to go back to Portugal this year again."

Young, the youngest of the three born in 2003 and a member of ANB since the age of six, travelled through Scotland in August. While there he had the opportunity to train with the academies of Falkirk Football Club (Scottish Championship) and Hibernian Football Club (Scottish Championship).

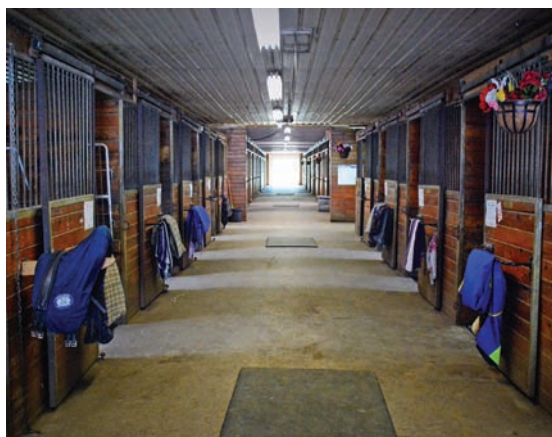

Each player has a European background. "We have worked with the players' families who have personal connections, and most importantly, European documentation, to facilitate these opportunities for these talented players," said Basam Naim, Academy Director at ANB.

Based out of King City's Country Day School, ANB Futbol has been developing some of the highest levels of soccer talent in the GTA since 2005.

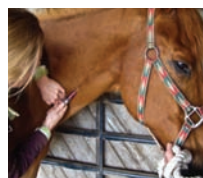

Julian Graca (middle) is one of three players from King's ANB Futbol program to earn a chance to train with a European club this summer, now full-time with the CD Nacional U19 team in Portugal.

Royals U13 team back in action

After a few weeks off from competition in the York Region Soccer Association's first division, the U13 King City Royals boys' soccer team got back to action playing a pair of games against teams out East.

On August 9, the Royals tied Whitby Iroquois 1-1 in a battle between two evenly matched teams. The first half was a back and forth affair as both teams had their fair chances to score but could not find the back of the net. The second half was a different story. Three minutes into the half, Kahyl Jadavji's long diagonal pass to Mason Dalakis into the corner led to the Royals taking a 1-0 lead. Mason took a shot from an almost impossible angle that squeezed through the Whitby goalkeeper's hands for his sixth goal of the season. This opened the game up as Whitby were pressing for an equalizer that actually led to three golden opportunities inside the 18 yard box for the Royals over the next 10 minutes but they missed the net on all three occasions to keep the score at 1-0. That would be costly as Whitby scored off a turnover on a beautiful cross into the box minutes later to tie the game up for good.

Two nights later, the Royals travelled to Darlington to face the Darlington Energy and won convincingly 8-1. Zack Donsky led the way with four goals, bringing his season total to 14. Zack scored two of his goals in the first half as the Royals took a 5-1 lead into the break. Marco LaVerde, with his team leading 21st goal, and Mario Fratto, who scored two goals in the half to bring his season total to four, were the other first half goal scorers. Mario's second goal was on a penalty kick late in the half. The Royals started the second half quickly again but could not find the back of the net until 16 minutes in when Mason Dalakis won the ball off a turnover and fed Zack Donsky for his hat trick goal to make it 6-1. Darlington found some life over the next few minutes as goalkeeper Anthony Bruno had to make a few saves to preserve the lead before the Royals came back at the 25 minute mark to make it 7-1 on Zack Donsky's fourth goal of the game. Defender Giovanni Sciuilli added another, his second goal of the year, to make the final 8-1.

With six games remaining, the Royals are in fourth place out of 21 teams with an 11-2-1 record (34 points).

Hemstock, Diane Marilyn
(née Wiebe)
November 2, 1937 Vermilion, Alberta
August 19, 2016 Calgary, Alberta

It is with great sadness that we share the passing of Diane Hemstock, a loving wife, mother, sister, grandmother and friend, who passed away on Friday, August 19, 2016 at the age of 78 years.

Diane was born in Vermilion, Alberta and moved to Edmonton where she spent most of her childhood. Through her high school years at Westglen she was active in many sports with her favourite being basketball. Diane had a special place in her heart for Edmonton where she grew up with her Mom (MaryAnn), Dad (Art Wiebe - Chicago Black Hawks 1934-44) and sister (Lois). She loved the Eskimos and the Oilers.

After high school she attended Oklahoma University where she met Alan and they were married on April 6, 1957. Alan and Diane began their journey together in Edmonton where they started their family of five children. The family moved to Thornhill, Ontario and then on to a hobby farm outside Nobleton, Ontario where she had an active and busy life with Guides, horses, farm chores, hockey, and many volunteer community activities. Diane was known as a vocal supporter and fan of her kids and their teammates in the many sports they played.

Alan and Diane were transferred back to Alberta in 1981 and then to Dartmouth, Nova Scotia in 1985. As empty nesters they enjoyed exploring every nook and cranny of the Maritimes in their motorhome. They retired to Calgary in 1992 to be closer to their family which was the focus of her life. Diane never missed cheering on her grandkids at many sporting events. She also enjoyed short day hikes with a special group of friends called the ORFs, travelling North America in their motorhome, and exploring many countries all over the world. Highlights for Diane of her travel abroad were many World Hockey Championships, Africa, New Zealand, China, and her favorite place Antarctica, where she loved the penguins and this pristine, beautiful, and peaceful part of the world.

An informal Celebration of Diane's Life will be held at the Springbank Park For All Seasons (32224A Springbank Road, Calgary) on Friday, August 26, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. Condolences may be forwarded through www.mcinnisandholloway.com In lieu of flowers, memorial tributes may be made directly to the Children's Wish Foundation of Canada, #270, 2323 32nd Avenue N.E., Calgary, AB T2E 6Z3 Telephone: (403) 265-9039, www.childrenswish.ca

In living memory of Diane Hemstock, a tree will be planted at Fish Creek Provincial Park by McINNIS & HOLLOWAY FUNERAL HOMES, Crowfoot, 82 Crowfoot Circle N.W. CALGARY, AB T3G 2T3. Telephone: 1-800-661-1599.

Congregations gather for outdoor service

Nobleton Notes

By Angie Maccarone

St. Paul's Church

The Youth Group will meet bi-monthly during August this summer. Check here for details or contact our Youth Leader Taylor Scott at scottie_tay@yahoo.ca or 289-338-2539.

A2J is a program for kids in Grades 3 to 6. It will resume in September.

Join us Sunday, Aug. 28 at 10 a.m. as we welcome Soong Huh to the pulpit.

Child care (for children 3 years of age and younger) is provided during the gathering. Our Summer KidzKonection and NextStep Program (for children ages 4 to 11) takes place at the same time.

Jeff has a blog and he records his weekly messages there after worship each Sunday. Anyone interested in listening to his messages can go to www.passionatelyhis.com to hear them.

For more information about ANY of our activities or events, please contact the church office or visit our website at www.stpaulsnobleton.ca.

St. Mary's Church

During August, Communion and Confirmation registration is by appointment at the parish office in Schomberg (905-939-2256). Requirements are posted on the church website, and extra copies available for pickup at the parish office in Schomberg.

Life Teen is a Catholic youth ministry organization within the Catholic Church. Its goal is to lead teens into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. Life Teen is already taking place in over 1,000 churches in over 31 countries around the world. Let's bring this movement to Saint Mary's Church in Nobleton.

For the used clothing drive, please leave your bags in the foyer of our Churches after masses. For every one bag collected, $1 goes towards St. Mary's Mortgage Fund.

Nobleton United Church By Nancy Hopkinson

On August 28 at 11 a.m., join us for an outdoor ecumenical service with Schomberg Presbyterian, Schomberg Anglican and Schomberg United at the Dufferin Marsh at 11 a.m. Bring your own chair and bug spray! Light refreshments afterwards. Contingency plans are in place for inclement weather.

Our Harvest Dinner is on Thursday, Sept. 15 at 6:30 p.m., and includes baked chicken, cranberries, coleslaw, peas, carrots, mashed potatoes, buns and delicious homemade harvest pies (pumpkin, apple and lemon meringue). The cost is $20/adult and a reduced rate for children. Call Helen Bible at 905- 859-3924 to reserve your place as the space is limited. This is a sit-down dinner with white tablecloths and ample time to chat to friends and neighbours.

The next Messy Church is Tuesday, Sept. 20, from 5 to 7 p.m. The theme of "Bible Seaside" means that all the choices of activities will involve seashells (shells, water, sand). Children ages 2 years to teenagers must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Activities are from 5 to 6 p.m., story time to 6:15, and then eating dinner (fresh fruit, raw veggies with dip, and something hot from the oven). All are welcome. Messy Church is sponsored by Nobleton and Schomberg United Churches and is free. This is a fun way to learn the Bible stories and to get to know each other as well. All are welcome. For more info, call me, Nancy, at 905-859-0761.

For September, we are fortunate to have the Knills taking our services. Keith Knill will do Sept. 4 and 11 at our individual churches (Schomberg at 9:30 a.m., Nobleton at 11:15 a.m.). Marjorie Knill will be doing the Jt. Service at Schomberg on Sept. 18 at 9:30 a.m. This one is a musical service with the "Sentimental Journey" band. Our own pianist Dennis Kowal is part of this band. Marjorie will also do the Sept. 28 service at our individual churches.

For more info, visit nobletonunitedchurch.com, our Facebook page, or call 905-859-3976. The church office is normally open on Wednesday and Thursday mornings. Messages are picked up regularly. We are located at 6076 King Rd., north side, about 6 buildings west of Hwy. 27. We have a big parking lot at the rear of the building, an accessible ramp at the rear of the building, chair lifts and accessible washrooms.

Guiding registration

We are planning another exciting year of Guiding in Nobleton and all girls and women are welcome. Guiding is a dynamic organization for girls and women that teaches and promotes leadership and respect of self, others, community and the environment through games, crafts, songs, excursions and camping. Guiding is a uniformed organization where Sparks (ages 5 & 6), Brownies (ages 7 & 8), Guides (ages 9-11), Pathfinders (ages 12-14) meet weekly. All meetings take place locally in Nobleton on Tuesday nights from September to June.

We are actively recruiting adult women volunteers so please share this opportunity if you know someone who might be interested. You do not need to have a daughter to be involved. For more information and to register visit online at www.guidesontario.org.

Blessing of church's restoration is Sept. 11

King's Corners

King City United
By Earle Laycock

Rev. Evelyn McLachlan continued her sermon series on Job using the scripture passages from Job 31:35-37 and 38:1-11. Job was a faithful follower of God and was a wealthy man. Job's life was pretty much perfect. He had a family, lots of camels, sheep, donkeys and land. Job loved God with his whole being.

Then tragedy struck, he lost everything he had. In these passages, Job questions God as to the reasons for his tragic losses. Why is there such suffering and pain? The Lord responds by showing Job the far stretches of creation. A tour of the universe if you will. Job may not understand why bad fortune has struck his life but he does realize that he is a small part of creation and that God has a plan that includes us all.

As Rev. Evelyn said, "... we don't fully understand how God is in control of our lives because bad things still happen. We experience sadness, grief, frustration, anxiety and disappointment. But we do know that we are indeed in God's hands ... relax and rest in God's love."

During the summer worships, King City United has been blessed with great music as played by our Music Director Rosemary Karunaratne and soloists Sandra Kirby and John Kell. Thank you for lifting our spirits with such inspiring music.

Rev. Evelyn continued the ministry of outreach by conducting worship at King City Lodge Nursing Home. She was joined by soloist Sandra Kirby and pianist Slava Samokhin.

A worship was also held Sunday afternoon at Richmond Hill Retirement Home where Rena Gordon resides. Sandra Kirby sang the beautiful piece, "It is Well with My Soul" and explained the history of the hymn. Ask Sandra about this hymn for its origins are as remarkable as the story of Job.

We extend our sympathies to Gail and Lloyd Wait on the death of Gail's sister Joan who lived in California. May God's strength uphold you at this time.

Remember Tea & Talk at the Sunset Grill Friday mornings at 10 a.m. Please drop by to discuss the latest news, your faith, to meet new friends or renew acquaintances or even to just enjoy a delicious breakfast.

Sunday worship services are held at King City United Church every Sunday at 10 a.m. All are welcome. King City United is located at 50 Elizabeth Grove, King City. For more information, call Kristen our office administrator at 905-833-5181.

St. Mary Magdalene's Schomberg

This coming Sunday, Aug. 28 members of St. Mary Magdalene's Schomberg, Christ Church Kettleby and the St. Alban's Anglican community in Nobleton will join other church congregations from Schomberg for an outdoor (weather permitting) ecumenical service in Schomberg's Dufferin Marsh. It starts at 11 a.m. Bring your own chair and bug spray! Light refreshments afterwards. Contingency plans are in place for inclement weather.

Sunday, Sept. 11 is a big day for the congregation of Christ Church Kettleby as Area Bishop Peter Fenty comes to bless the restoration work at the historic Kettleby church and rededicate the building to God's service during the 9:30 a.m. Holy Communion. Christ Church is in the midst of celebrating its 125th anniversary (1891-2016). Later that same morning, Bishop Peter will conduct a Service of Confirmation and Holy Communion at 11:15 at St. Mary Magdalene's in Schomberg. For more information contact the church office at 905-939-2314 or visit www.anglican-parishofloydtown.com

All Saints Anglican Church By Diana Armitage

Summer services continue in the chapel at 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. with our wonderful rector, Dr. Elizabeth Green.

Many thanks to King City harpist, Nicole Lancaster, for providing beautiful music last Sunday. If you missed hearing her, Nicole will be playing one more time at All Saints this summer: at the 10 a.m. service this Sunday, Aug. 28.

If you would like a home visit or to receive communion at home, if you are unable to get to church because of illness or mobility issues, please call the church office: 905 833-5432. We are always happy to visit.

Blessing of the Animals will take place on Sunday, Oct. 2 at both the 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services. Please bring your beloved pets. Lots of fun!

Installation of our new rector, Dr. Elizabeth Green, on Sunday, Oct. 2 at 4:30 p.m. Bishop Peter Fenty will join us for a Celebration of New Ministry between Elizabeth and the people of All Saints. There will be a special dinner after the service.

Our annual Vestry meeting will be on Sunday, Oct. 30. Please submit your Vestry Reports by Monday, Oct. 3.

The next Farmers' Market will be on Sunday, Sept. 4 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the All Saints parking lot. On tap will be fresh vegetables, honey, soaps, cakes, breads, smoked meats, herbs and more!
