Magna puts move to King on hold

Magna International has put its move out of Aurora to King Township on hold until 2022, according to the company.

The auto part manufacturer, which is one of Aurora's largest and most prominent employers announced Monday they have extended their lease on their Aurora headquarters until 2022, after pausing the move to King Township.

The company previously announced its intention to relocate to an extensive new corporate headquarters in King Township with a 2017 target.

"Magna confirms that the project to construct a new corporate headquarters building in King Township has been put on hold," said Tracy Fuerst, the company's director of corporate communications, said in a statement. "We have recently completed discussion with our landlord and have reached terms to extend our lease for the Aurora headquarters building until 2022."

"This provides Magna an opportunity to monitor current macro-economic conditions and to continue evaluating our future need. We are extremely appreciative to King Township for their hard work, support and professionalism provided throughout the development process."

King Mayor Steve Pellegrini said while council and staff are disappointed that the project is on hold, "we understand Magna's decision in light of today's challenging global economy. Since Magna is keeping its land in King Township, King will be ready to work with them again. The process to construct such a facility is going to take three years realistically."

Pellegrini added that Magna representatives have made it very clear that they have appreciated the efforts of council and staff in support of their application. Magna does intend to complete the zoning process. King will encourage them to continue the site plan approval process, too.

Soupfest another success

The annual Holland Marsh Soupfest was another huge success Saturday, drawing people from all across the GTA and beyond. The weather was perfect to enjoy some fresh soup, made with locally grown ingredients from the Holland Marsh. In all, there were 15 vendors at the event, 25 soup-makers and roughly 1,400 visitors. Humber College's creation –baked potato soup –was the big draw, with the lineup stretching out the door. Here, one of the College's soup-makers stirs the pot. More land added to Happy Valley Forest

By Mark Pavilons

A generous donation by a local resident has added more natural land to the Nature Conservancy of Canada's Happy Valley Forest.

The conveyance of a 26-acre parcel to NCC came as good news to Township councillors, and the parties have vowed to work together to accommodate the needs of the local equestrian community.

The land swap included a transfer of the 26 acres from Mary Lou Rose on the 17th Sideroad, for heritage conservation purposes. The plan also requires the lands be "sterilized" and protected from any building. A 2.2-acre piece will be transferred back to Rose for residential purposes.

The properties consist mainly of dense deciduous forest of Happy Valley. Under the Oak Ridges Moraine Conservation Plan, conveying land for conservation is permitted and these transfers don't create any new lots for development.

As it stands, permitted uses of the land are restricted under the ORMCP zone category. Rose is further asking a more restrictive definition of Forest Management that manages woodlands and provides outdoor recreation activities.

There has been a request by local horse riders to have access to Happy Valley lands. The zoning will provide uses "consistent with historic activity."

Mark Stabb, of the NCC, said they purchased the adjacent piece from Ms. Rose and the transfer of the small portion helps her with the laneway. NCC has been working hard since 2001 putting together some 773 acres in Happy Valley for public use.

He said based on provincial models, public trails are typically used for hiking, not riding.

NCC is growing its network in King and piecing together parcels is like putting a puzzle together. He said it's a constant balance between public use and conservation.

He said he hopes to organize a meeting among trail users and get input from equestrians. He did point out that NCC doesn't manage horse trails and so has nothing to base their policies on.

He did say they are looking at equestrian use for the Glen Echo property, but there is work to be done before that happens. He hopes to work with the Township and equestrian community to create a sustainable trail network.

Catering to all interests is a juggling act.

A resident on the 7th Concession said NCC is a responsible organization and land donors typically want the acres preserved and conserved, not to create a "playground" of sorts. It's still private property, he pointed out.

An 8th Concession resident said there are some great hiking trails in Happy Valley, used by local residents. Since King is part of "Horse Country," equestrian access should at least be considered.

Councillor Cleve Mortelliti said the Township is working on a comprehensive trail strategy and it makes sense to bring everyone to the table to come up with a system that makes sense.

Councillor Linda Pabst said they've ridden their horses through Happy Valley for decades and it's traditionally been open for equestrians.

The equestrian sector in King needs to be supported she said, adding "I hope we can work something out to make everyone happy."

Editorial, Letters & Opinion

"Public opinion shapes our destinies and guides the progress of human affairs"

~ Frank B. Kellogg

Science always changes our perceptions

Humanity, like our revolving world, is constantly changing, evolving, growing.

The more we know, the less we rely on hearsay, conjecture, speculation and that good, old, gut feeling.

Not a day goes by that we don't learn something new, and science doesn't dispel yet another myth.

Data released by NASA and a redesign of our astrological signs, has shifted everything around. With the addition of a 13th constellation – Ophiuchus – a new form of musical chairs has been unveiled.

NASA hasn't really changed anything, they just presented the facts and updated the math.

For the first time in more than 3,000 years, a new zodiac chart is introduced. The world was used to having only 12 astrological signs, as established by the early Babylonians. Basically, astrological signs are determined based on the constellation that creates the imaginary line from the Earth to the Sun on an individual's birth date.

Each of the 12 signs belong to one of the four elements – air, water, fire, and earth – all of which provide a description to the personality types related to their sign.

With NASA's latest revelation, there are now 13 astrological signs, with the newest one being "Ophiuchus."

Apparently, there have always been 13 constellations in the zodiac. However, the 13 constellations didn't "fit neatly," in our 12-month calendar, so the Babylonians chose to leave Ophiuchus out.

Ophiuchus's elimination was done mainly so that the signs would be even to each month. Furthermore, "the Sun is also aligned with Ophiuchus for about 18 days each year," adds NASA.

So now, that means that roughly 86 per cent of the world's population was born with a different astrological sign than they previously believed.

Mark Pavilons

Aw, nuts!

A few signs remain the same, but many have shifted. I am no longer an articulate, picky, organized Virgo. Instead, I have joined the ranks of stubborn, self-centred, inflexible Leos. But alas, there is some ray of starlight – Leos are also creative, passionate, generous, warm-hearted, cheerful and humorous. Boy, maybe I was a Leo all along!

The weird thing about this bunk is that the majority of the population on the planet knows what sign they are!

It also shows how junk science supercedes real science. While my mom swore by the stars, I always found the information less than earth-shattering. I don't really need astrology to describe my characteristics or my moods. I never plotted my love life according to the celestial alignment, nor did I celebrate when Mars was entering my house through an open window!

This just shows how fragile our modern way of thinking can be.

It's the very nature of scientific discoveries to change everything that we previously knew or believed.

Sir Isaac Newton's law of gravity in 1687 explained just how it works here on earth, and how the planets retain their orbits. Blame him for putting us on the right track regarding the star signs!

For thousands of years, human seafarers believed the earth was flat, and sailing too far would lead you over the edge and into the abyss.

Humankind suffered in darkness until 1831 when electricity was produced.

The creation of antibiotics, thanks to Louis Pasteur, altered the way we understand disease. They have also saved countless millions of lives of people who routinely died of relatively minor ailments.

We've only really known about DNA since the early 1950s, when the double helix was revealed. That led to the entire field of genetics, something we take for granted today.

And recently the bowhead whale genome, linked to cancer resistance, DNA damage repair and increased longevity, has been mapped by scientists

In a UK-based study, scientists working together with scientists in Alaska, Denmark, Ireland, Spain and South Korea successfully mapped the genome of the bowhead whale – the longest-living mammal – identifying a number of genes that are linked to cancer resistance, DNA damage repair and increased longevity. This discovery could lead to those genes being used to help humans enjoy a longer life.

Bronze and iron may have been used for thousands of years by our ancestors, but steel is a relatively modern creation, coming into its own in the 1850s.

The internal combustion engine, turbines, solar power, space flight, the microwave and iPhones have all drastically altered life as we know it.

New discoveries, innovations, applications and "cures" are made almost weekly across the globe. This isn't news, but it is very interesting.

While we tend to reap the benefits of technological advances through everyday luxury items, the real science means much more.

If and when physicists disprove Einstein's Theory of Relativity, and we can indeed, surpass the speed of light, nothing in the cosmos will be beyond our reach. We will even be able to visit those zodiac constellations!

The human knowledge base continues to grow exponentially. While most of us await self-driving automobiles, discovering the fountain of youth may one day be a reality, too.

Put all your previously held "certainties" in a shoe box, and give them a good shake! There's more newfound wisdom to come.

Thanks for making Tasca Park opening a success

Thank you for the outstanding coverage The King Weekly Sentinel provided for the Tasca Park opening celebrations that took place on Sept. 10. The park is a very special addition to King Township – we appreciate the ongoing support.

Municipalities share their concerns

By Mark Pavilons

GTHA mayors and chairs gathered last week as former Mississauga mayor Hazel McCallion, the ex-officio advisor to the Premier on issues within the Greater Toronto and Hamilton Area, hosted a summit.

Mayors and chairs heard from their colleagues on the Province's Co-Ordinated Land Use Planning Review. Chair McCallion called the meeting as a direct result of the GTHA municipalities raising serious concerns on the Province's proposed amendments to the Growth Plan for the Greater Golden Horseshoe and Greenbelt Plan.

"We heard consistent messages from the mayors and chairs, related to the proposed density targets being too high, about what their cities and towns will look like under proposed Plan, as that certain types of density will end up in areas that do not have the necessary planned or existing transit, infrastructure, community services and corresponding financial investments to support that type of growth," said McCallion. "This comes with zero consideration for the financial and economic implications to the municipalities and regions. I am very concerned that these Plans are absent of any direction or planning for economic growth."

The summit was an opportunity for municipal colleagues to collectively share concerns and recommendations on the proposed draft amendments to the Greenbelt and Growth Plans, which councils are bringing forward through staff reports to be submitted to the Province by the Oct. 31 deadline.

"I heard overwhelming concern today from my municipal colleagues on the proposed density and intensification targets," said McCallion. "Some Municipalities are clear they just cannot support them. Some say that they should be applied to areas where it makes the best planning sense. What's clear is that the Province has not looked at the impact of the proposed policies on each municipality and it cannot be applied the same way across the GTHA. This is not evident-based planning."

McCallion will use the summit findings to inform her formal report to the Premier on the multitude of issues impacting GTHA municipalities and their residents as a result of the Proposed Plans. Specifically, McCallion is concerned on how the Plans will impact affordability and housing choice.

The proposed amendments to the Growth Plan come with a requirement the current Designated Greenfield Area density of 50 residents and jobs per hectare be increased to 80 residents and jobs per hectare, and the intensification target for built up areas is proposed to increase from 40 to 60%.

"The message was clear - one size does not fit all. As a group, the municipalities are united in opposing this approach which does not respect individual city building process and differences across the GTHA regions," said McCallion. "Local government is closest to the people. Municipalities need to make local decisions, and it will be the municipalities that are left to implement these Plans at a time when we are only beginning to see the impacts of the first Greenbelt and Growth Plans. We recognize it's very hard for the Province to understand the differences among municipalities but they cannot be ignored."

"The Town of Caledon went ever further with a council resolution that requests the Province, "... lower the proposed ... target(s) to reasonable levels more appropriate to Caledon's current density targets within the Region of Peel."

King Township planning staff have said we cannot support the levels of intensification being proposed.

With regard to the Greenbelt Plan, the York Region staff report calls on the Province to: "Develop a process to review boundaries associated with the Greenbelt Plan and ORMCP in response to individual landowner requests."

Councillor Debbie Schaefer attended the summit, noting there is very significant concern about the magnitude of changes in the Growth Plan and the speed for implementing those changes.

All speakers and all representatives of the municipalities identified the proposal for region-wide density targets as being a problem - one size does not fit all was the refrain. Many identified the problem of building the targeted densities and the intensification without the public transit being in place.

"This has been something I have frequently identified as we are looking at development applications," she said.

"I questioned why the definition of 'infrastructure' in the Oak Ridges Moraine would now include waste management systems. As the ORM was established to protect aquifers and water sources such infrastructure is surely inappropriate."

Schaefer added the amended plans are not specific enough in the role of municipalities when new energy infrastructure is contemplated. Disappointment was expressed by some that the proposed amendments do not include significant expansion of Greenbelt as the proposal to include urban river valleys does not achieve much as those valleys are already protected by conservation regulations.

"What would have been meaningful was to protect the headwaters of various water courses."

Several commented that new financial tools and more funding is required to deliver the new communities. Development charges need to be increased and they must include 100% of costs. The Province needs to provide financing or new revenue sources as taxpayers cannot be expected to fund.

DESIGN On King

The Art of the Bookcase

Written by:
 Marcy Nemes
 Interior Designer
 ARIDO, IDC
 Owner, Design on King

No matter what size of home we live in, from condominium, to townhouse, to large home on a rolling property, it is often the final touches that make a space feel polished. But the reality is by the time we have tackled the big jobs.....finally the basement is done, or the kitchen is renovated, maybe you've wallpapered an accent wall or primed the powder room..... there is decidedly less enthusiasm for tackling "The Dressing of the Bookcase"!

Here are a few steps to help you get there:

First, decide if you want this unit to be mostly decorative, or functional? This may require a family meeting... or debate? Bring negotiating tools to trump your opposition if necessary. A good looking bookcase will not have more than 50% functional use.

Second, choose 3 design elements you wish to use. These will be the elements that anchor your finished product. Design elements are: shape, texture, colour, and scale.

Third step is to find the items that fall under each category.

Remember you will need multiples of each.

In the bookcase above, charcoal is the "Colour" element; covered books of similar size are the "form" element; with both metallic and matte finishes acting as "texture" elements. The hunting and gathering for this step may involve trips to the attic, flea markets, or your fav accessory shops! Dare I say it again? You will need multiples!

The fourth and final step: placement using the "zig zag method". Starting at the top shelf, place larger decorative pieces from each category, then repeat them down the shelves in zig zag patterns. The eye loves to find harmony in repetition as it travels.

The result is a varied and interesting display with a sense of calm and cohesion.

The well dressed bookcase is a beautiful finishing touch to any space, and will likely receive as many compliments as the holiday menu.

Dr. Yee retires after 26 years

By Mark Pavilons

After 26 years of practising medicine in Nobleton, Dr. Chok-Ching Yee has officially retired.

Many residents, patients and guests attended an open house last week, sharing stories and best wishes with Dr. Yee.

King Mayor Steve Pellegrini and Councillor David Boyd were on hand to present a certificate to Dr. Yee for his years of service to the community.

Not a fan of public speaking, the soft-spoken Dr. Yee shared some words with wit, humour and humility.

His last day was the first day he was ever late to work, noting he had to work on his speech.

Living so close to the office made his work a great experience over the past decades. He said he's thankful for his patients who have become friends, and for all the jokes they shared. His staff has been amazing, and knowledgeable pharmacists were always just a phone call away.

In bidding farewell, Dr. Yee paraphrased baseball great Yogi Berra: "Thank all of you for making this day necessary."

Dr. Yee is described by patients and members of the community as not only to a fabulous doctor, but also to the medical practitioner of the past.

De Zen Family pledges $10M to Mackenzie Vaughan Hospital

Prominent Vaughan citizen and entrepreneur Vic De Zen and his family have pledged $10 million to help build and equip the future Mackenzie Vaughan Hospital – the largest donation to date from an individual to Mackenzie Health Foundation’s $250-million “Exceptional Care Belongs Here” campaign.

The main lobby at the new hospital, slated for completion in 2020, will be named the Vic De Zen Family Welcome Centre in recognition of the transformative gift pledge to Mackenzie Vaughan Hospital.

“Vaughan is where my family was raised and continues to live; it’s where I built successful businesses with thousands of employees who live here and in the surrounding area. We’re very proud to give back to this great city and our community by helping to build the world-class hospital that Vaughan needs and deserves,” De Zen said at the announcement of the gift at Vaughan City Hall recently.

Mackenzie Health Foundation is spearheading the multi-year Exceptional Care Belongs Here campaign – the largest fundraising drive led by a community hospital in Canada – to help build and equip the much anticipated Mackenzie Vaughan Hospital, Canada’s first “smart” hospital, and to enhance care at Mackenzie Richmond Hill Hospital.

“Vic and Angelina De Zen and their family are defining ‘exceptional’ with this extraordinary act of generosity and early leadership in this crucially important hospital fundraising campaign,” Mackenzie Health foundation president and CEO Ingrid Perry said. “Inspired by a commitment to community building, this gift pledge of $10 million will help to transform care for our family, friends and neighbours in southwest York Region.”

“Vic De Zen and his family embody the spirit of generosity that defines our city,” Vaughan Mayor Maurizio Bevilacqua said at the announcement. “Their extraordinary contribution to Mackenzie Vaughan Hospital is a demonstration of their dedication to our community and their commitment to a legacy of giving back. I thank Mr. De Zen and his family for coming forward and I am confident that their leadership will inspire others to do the same.”

According to Mackenzie Health President and CEO Altaf Stationwala, the innovative, state-of-the-art and patient-centred design of the new hospital will be reflected in the soaring multi-storey, natural light-filled Vic De Zen Family Welcome Centre. The warm and welcoming public space will feature extensive seating and reception, information and concierge services. The Vic De Zen Family Welcome Centre will provide direct access to the public elevators, patients relations, medical imaging, clinics and treatment areas, as well as links to a parkade, nearby cascading gardens, retail areas, restaurants, a pharmacy and health resource centre.

“An extraordinary entranceway to Mackenzie Vaughan Hospital, the Vic De Zen Family Welcome Centre will set the tone for a world-class health experience,” Stationwala said.

Infrastructure Ontario and Mackenzie Health announced last month that Plenary Health will design, build, finance and maintain the new Mackenzie Vaughan Hospital. The preferred proponent was selected after extensive evaluations following a request for proposals process that began in June 2015. The project is expected to reach commercial and financial close this fall, soon to be followed by the beginning of construction.

Men’s shop opens for business in Nobleton

By Jake Courtepatte

The doors officially opened on Saturday to King Township’s newest haven for the modern man.

GG Custom Designs Inc., located on Hwy. 27 across from the Tim Hortons plaza in Nobleton, held a ribbon-cutting ceremony to commemorate the occasion, surrounded by family and friends.

“It’s such an exciting day,” said owner Gloria Garofali. “I feel we’re bridging a gap in the area when it comes to providing men’s personal care.”

The shop, which provides everything from spa treatments and haircuts, to custom-made clothing and even a hot shave, is the ultimate luxury experience for men.

Clinic important to Canadian Blood Services

By Mark Pavilons

The Schomberg blood clinic has proven to be a valuable community asset to the Canadian Blood Services.

The next clinic at the Trisan Centre takes place Tuesday, Oct. 18, from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Previously serviced by a mobile trailer, the regular clinics began roughly a year ago and they've been quite successful.

Elaine St. Pierre, territory manager for York and South Simcoe for Canadian Blood Services, said in 2015, they collected 102% of their target in Schomberg, something she called an "outstanding achievement. It demonstrates what happens when a community comes together."

She pointed out that 21% of local donors are first-time givers, a critical aspect to sustainability.

St. Pierre praised the efforts of Mayor Steve Pellegrini, Councillor David Boyd and Fire Chief Jim Wall for spreading the word and encouraging people to give.

St. Pierre urges everyone who's eligible to please donate, and encourage others to do the same. They are still looking for approximately 50 more donors. She will be at the Foodland on Oct. 8 from 9:30 a.m. for a couple of hours, handing out cookies and trying to encourage more residents to come out.

The need is constant and Canadian Blood Services runs clinics every day of the year, except Christmas Day.

She thanked King councillors and the community for helping to create a base of donors locally.

Pellegrini thanked St. Pierre for working so hard to create awareness in King.

You're invited to a FREE Evening Showcasing Many Programs and Services for Seniors, Caregivers and their Families.

King Samaritans help elderly woman

By Michelle Janzen

The efforts of some good Samaritans from King were much appreciated recently.

An 83-year-old Shelburne resident was out walking at Mono Cliffs when she fell and needed assistance.

"I know every inch of that park like the back of my hand," said Beatrice Fanning, adding she wasn't worried about wandering out there on her own.

Fanning said after parking her car on the Second Line she proceeded to head down the embankment that was really rugged and had lots of roots coming up. When she got to the bottom she says she doesn't know what came over her - she just fell over.

She noted a very nice gentleman picked her up and then she proceeded onto the main trail way. The entire time she took one step forward and three steps backwards, until she once again found herself on the ground after taking another tumble.

This time, two families came to her rescue and after some discussion they decided to help Fanning back up to the top of the cliff and to her vehicle.

"Each of the men took an arm, nice and sturdy, and helped me back up to the top," she stated. "Both of these men had such small children with them and didn't even think twice about helping me.

"When we got to the road and to my vehicle they refused to let me drive. Instead, they contacted the Dufferin Oaks, where my daughter Sherry Cornelius works. Ms. Cornelius was not at work that day, however, once they explained the situation they were provided with her cell phone number so that they could contact her regarding the state of her mother.

After calling her daughter on the cell phone, who coincidentally was also taking a stroll through Mono Cliff, the gentlemen waited for Ms. Cornelius to arrive.

"While waiting for my daughter to arrive I found out that these gentlemen were Rob Williams and Marcelle Piper and they are from the King City area. They are my heroes. They were kind and considerate and probably saved my life," said Fanning.

When asked if she will be going trekking through Mono Cliffs anytime in the near future, Fanning was quick to say "no, my daughter would kill me!"

Fanning thanks the King City men and their families for taking the time to help someone in need. It's nice to see chivalry still exists.

The Main Street Christmas Santa Claus Parade happens at 4 p.m. starting at Western Avenue and Main Street, heading south on Main Street and turning right at Church Street.

Sponsoring the event is a great opportunity for companies, not only to support a significant local event but also to get better known in the community. The AMSC brochure is distributed to 8,000 homes in King Township, and last year we had a record 6,000 people attend the event. As a result, sponsoring AMSC is definitely beneficial and a cost efficient way of promoting local businesses in and around the Township.

Schomberg Cougars tamed by Siskins

By Jake Courtepatte

The newly-formed Provincial Junior Hockey League has not

Moyer on U15 team

Carson Moyer of King City was one of 23 players selected to the Team Ontario U15 field lacrosse team this summer. The Canadian National lacrosse tournament was played in Winnipeg over the Labour Day weekend. The tournament started with a round robin. Team Ontario faced Team Alberta, Team BC, Team Manitoba and Team Saskatchewan. They were undefeated going into the playoffs. The final game was against Team BC and Team Ontario won the gold medal. The final score was 13-9. Not only did the U15 boys win the title but so did the next older age group U18 boys. Congratulations Team Ontario boys field lacrosse!

been kind to the Schomberg Cougars.

The Stayner Siskins came into the Trisan Centre last Thursday and left the home squad Cougars with an 8-2 loss.

Schomberg allowed five power play goals, including three in the first period, to drop their third game in a row and remain at the bottom of the PJHL's Carruthers division standings.

Starting goaltender Vince Michelizzi was first beat 11 minutes in with Mateo Thompson in the box for high sticking, and again just over a minute later with veteran Ryley Egerton serving two minutes for hooking.

Stayner went a perfect three-for-three on the power play at the 15-minute mark, with JP Crescenzi in the box on an interference call.

Schomberg's power play, on the other hand, was headed in an entirely different direction, failing to capitalize on three chances in the first period. By the end of the game they were one for ten on the man advantage, with Evan Woodhead breaking an 8-0 goose egg mid-way through the final period.

Kiefer McIntosh scored the game's final goal two minutes later for a final score of 8-2.

Michelizzi was pulled after the fifth Stayner goal mid-way through the second period, stopping a total of 13 of the 18 shots he faced. Nicholas Nabuurs came on in relief, also not faring too well against a sizzling Stayner offense, giving up three goals on 24 shots.

An unusually quiet weekend followed for the Cougars, who have an early season week-long break before resuming action back at home to host the 3-4-0 Orillia Terriers on Thursday. Puck drop is at 8:30 p.m.

They then head to Midland on Friday to face the Flyers, before visiting Orillia at their home rink on Sunday afternoon.

Schomberg currently owns a 1-5-0 record, tied with the Caledon Golden Hawks (1-6-0) in the basement of the former GMOHL division. The Alliston Hornets lead the way with a perfect 6-0-0 record.

For stats, schedules, and more information, visit www.schombergcougars.com.

Vince Michelizzi stopped 13 of the 18 shots he faced before being pulled in an 8-2 loss to the Stayner Siskins on Thursday.

Villanova runs in memory of former student

By Jake Courtepatte

A special day on the Villanova College calendar year after year, the 2016 Terry Fox Run was a little closer to the hearts of the school's students and staff.

The highly successful annual run, held Friday around the campus in King City, was in memory of Giuseppina Gurreri, whose life was taken by cancer after her tenure at Villanova.

Giuseppina passed away from a long battle with colon cancer last November, at the age of 21. Diagnosed at the age of 16, she was in her Grade 10 year at Villanova at the time.

"She ran her first Terry Fox Run in Grade 9, but by the time it came around again in a duration of a year, her life changed a great deal," said Giuseppina's sister, Adrianna.

In total, she went through 48 rounds of chemotherapy over the course of five years. She spent roughly 128 days during that time undergoing chemo, with over 300 days spent overnight in the hospital.

"You can only imagine being a teenager and having to deal with these things most will never face in a lifetime," said Adrianna. "This is who we run for - people like my sister."

Despite the battle she faced, Giuseppina's brother, Alfonso, said his sister was "as positive as she could be in the situation she was in."

"She never let the fact that she had cancer stop her from being a normal teen," said Alfonso. "Almost every nurse or doctor at the hospital knew her by name because of her positive attitude and friendliness."

When she had the opportunity, Giuseppina became a face for Villanova's Terry Fox Run, which has become one of the top schools in Ontario in terms of funds raised year after year. Over an 11-year history, the school has managed to raise over $300,000 for cancer research.

Giuseppina would speak annually at Villanova's run. "Something my sister said at a run a few years back was, if you break up the word cancer, the word 'can' is right there," said Alfonso. "Our sister has tremendous courage, but couldn't have done so without the help and support of everyone at Villanova."

Before the run, the school presented the Gurreri family with a cheque for just under $2,000 raised for Sick Kids Hospital.

"Despite her struggles, she always made herself available for the Terry Fox Run," said Stuart Stanbury, co-chair of the athletic department. "Sometimes she would send video footage, or be the starter for the race, but I think everyone that was here when she came and gave her first speech for Terry Fox remembers that day a little more vividly than others."

Nobleton United Church By Nancy Hopkinson

Thanksgiving Sunday, Oct. 9, is coming soon. Rev. Keith Knill will lead the service at 11:15 a.m. Join us as we celebrate the Harvest!

Messy Church is right after Thanksgiving on Tuesday Oct. 11 from 5 to 7 p.m., and is focused on the Harvest theme. The Bible story will talk about the feeding of the 5,000. This is the time to "count our blessings. It gives people a chance to be grateful instead of grumbling, to see what they have instead of what they do not have." Quote is from "Messy Church 3" book, written by Lucy Moore. The activities are all related to the harvest theme. All children must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Do not dress up for this, as the activities can be messy. Dinner is included. There is no cost, as our churches sponsor this. For more info, contact Nancy at 905-859-0761.

Sunday, Oct. 16 at 11:15 a.m. is Nobleton's 120th anniversary. We are having a musical celebration with Mount Albert United's handbell quartet, led by Sandra Thompson. This is a joint service with Schomberg United.

Rev. Marjorie Knill will lead the service and explain the origins of some of the hymns that we will sing. There will be a light lunch afterwards. The community is invited to celebrate with us.

Our Annual Craft and Bake Sale is on Saturday, Oct. 29, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. This is a very popular event. Some people come early to get the most choice in the baked goods and return for lunch. Lunch this time is sandwiches, tea/coffee/water and cookies. Weather permitting, we will also have a BBQ. The winning raffle tickets are drawn at 1 p.m. First prize is a beautiful Queen-sized quilt, hand sewn by our own Nobleton quilters; the second prize is a gift basket; the third prize is a lovely lap quilt, 40" by 40."

Schomberg Youth Club returned last Friday for a 6th season of fun and activities at Schomberg Public School.

Players sought for women's volleyball

It runs every Friday night from 7 to 9 p.m. for the duration of the school year. It is open to all youth ages 10 to 16 and is free of charge to all participants. Nobleton and Schomberg United Churches sponsor this.

Mallory Groombridge is the youth leader this year. Mallory loves working with youth and will bring along her own creative ideas for interactive games and crafts. The main focus will continue to be on sports, with a choice of basketball, volleyball, dodgeball, ball hockey and even soccer.

Jack Campbell and Andy MacPherson oversee the program. Jack reports "This year we hope to have a youth volunteer assistant working with Mallory, ideally someone 16 years of age or older. This would be ideal for anyone requiring community service hours and, of course, the experience always looks great on a resume."

For further information about registering or helping out, contact Jack Campbell at 905-939-2992 or email jcampbell@look.ca.

For more info, visit nobletonunitedchurch.com, our Facebook page, or call 905-859-3976. The church office is normally open on Wednesday and Thursday mornings. Messages are picked up regularly. We are located at 6076 King Rd., north side, about 6 buildings west of Hwy 27. We have a big parking lot at the rear of the building, an accessible ramp at the rear of the building, chair lifts and accessible washrooms.

Women's Volleyball

We play Thursday evenings from 8 to 9:30 p.m. in Nobleton and are looking to add a few players to the roster. If you enjoy playing recreational volleyball and are looking for a social activity on Thursday nights, please call Glenda at 416-561-6016.

Nobleton Lions Club

The Nobleton Lions Club is up and running for our 55th year of service to the community.

We start off with a fund raising Cash Draw to be held at the Gazebo on Saturday, Oct. 22. Three cash prizes will be awarded totalling $5,000. Tickets are available at the plaza, or by calling Joe at 905-859-0877, or Jim at 905-859-5277.

November 5 is the date for the annual Clothing Drive. Good used clothes and small household articles will be collected and put to good use. Watch for a flyer which will be mailed prior to the pick-up, and can be attached to bags or boxes put out for collection.

December features the annual Skating Party at the arena, with free skating for all, and Santa is planning to come and visit the kids. Watch this space for more details.

The Lions Club is seeking new members at this time. If you are interested in helping your community become a better place to live, while having lots of fun, please call Bob Phillips at 416-522-9675. We will make you more than welcome.

708 OBITUARIES

Harvey, Philip James

Father, grandfather, great-grandfather and uncle passed away on Tuesday, September 27, 2016 at the age of 90. Phil was a Civil Engineer who graduated from the University of Toronto in 1948. As an avid philatelist (stamp collector), it brought him much joy in his final years after losing the love of his life Irene, his wife of 63 years. He loved to read and was always a source of information: he was our encyclopedia and was always there to answer our questions. His knowledge was the main reason he was great at crossword puzzles, especially the very difficult ones. One of his greatest pastimes was watching sports on TV his favorites were golf, baseball and football. Along with the great care his son Bob gave to him during these last several years, his daughter Jane (Mike) and son Paul (Lola) were additional support and strength during this time. He was so proud of his grandchildren, Lisa (Brad), Nathalie, Dean and Andrew and always loved seeing his great-grandchildren Soleil and Kingston whom he never thought he would live to see. Predeceased by his sisters Winnie and Irene (Ernie) and his brother Joe. He will always be with us. A private family funeral will be held after cremation. No flowers please. Arrangements entrusted to Thompson Funeral Home 530 Industrial Parkway South, Aurora.

King's Corners

King City United
By Earle Laycock

Rev. Evelyn McLachlan asked the congregation what their favourite story was growing up. She then explained that story telling is an important element for Jewish homes where children know their history as recorded in scripture. Her text was based on Exodus 12: 1-13, 13:1-8. Chapter 13, verse 8 tells us "you shall tell your child on that day, 'It is because of what the Lord did for me when I came out of Egypt.'"

And that is done in every Jewish family to this day. What stories do you tell your children? Our community? Go tell our story. It is through story telling that the promise of God continues.

The congregation of King City United celebrated the life of Donald Fry on Monday, Oct. 3. Don's enthusiasm for life including family, boating, family get-togethers, snowmobiling and affection for his four-legged friends will be missed by all who knew him. We hold Eleanor, his devoted wife of 35 years, and his daughter Lisa Cameron (Bruce), his step daughters Jill Winter, Jo Ann Miles and Janet Dodgson and their families in our prayers.

The United Church Women participated in the King City Farmers' Market on Sunday. Thanks to Marylee Skurdel-is and Alma Feindell for taking this initiative and for all those who contributed items for sale.

Bible study is held every Wednesday morning at 10:30 a.m. in the Chapel. Whether you attend King City United or not, you are welcome to join us for Bible study and fellowship.

Remember Tea & Talk at the King City Sunset Grill Friday mornings at 10 a.m. Drop by to discuss the latest news, your faith, meet new friends, renew acquaintances or even just to enjoy a delicious breakfast.

Rev. Evelyn will be leading worship at Elginwood in Richmond Hill on Sunday, Oct. 9 at 2 p.m. with music accompaniment by Marylee Skurdelis. If you would like to be part of this ministry, contact Rev. Evelyn.

Sunday worship services are held at King City United Church every Sunday at 10 a.m. All are welcome. There is Sunday School for the young folks. King City United is located at 50 Elizabeth Grove, King City. For more information, call Kristen our office administrator, at 905-833-5181.

St. Mary Magdalene's Schomberg

AA Meetings continue a St. Mary Magdalene's Schomberg Monday evenings starting at 7:30 p.m., with visitors welcome the last Monday of each month.

For more information call the church office 905-939-2314 or visit our website www.anglicanparishofloydtown.com

King Bible Church

We welcome you to join us for worship service on Oct. 9! Pastor Mark will be continuing our sermon series "Family Matters" with "Forgive One Another."

Please take advantage of our excellent children's ministry. Our Sunday morning "Celebration Zone" provides age-appropriate programs for children aged 4 to Grade 8. Our children's program is staffed by screened volunteers who care about your kids! The children in Grade 1-8 will join their parents for the beginning of the service until they are invited to go downstairs. The children in kindergarten can go directly to their class at the start of the service.

If you have children aged 0-3 then we invite you to bring them to our beautiful and safe Nursery facilities which are located on the lower level. Caregivers will meet you there.

We chose the theme of "Legacy" because we believe that's what families are looking for; both to be a part of as well as leave a lasting "Legacy."

Our children's classes will be JK-Grade 4, Grade 5-8 and Grade 9-12. They will meet downstairs and begin with a time of Worship altogether before breaking off into their classes for a time of study, crafts and games!

We will provide nursery care for children 0-3.

Our adults will be studying the "Truth Project" and will meet upstairs.

Horticultural Society

With her passion for mists and essences made from flowers from her own garden Judy Onorato (King City) guest speaker at Nobleton-King City Horticultural Society's Sept. 26 meeting and flower show in Nobleton's Community Hall, delighted a small but appreciative audience.

As well show judge Patricia Clarke was faced with the daunting task of judging over 60 eye-catching entries in the flower show. Nancy Hopkinson (Nobleton) whose entry of 3 magnificent large matched golden skinned onions won Best in Show Cultural earned most points in show with 67 and Barb Downey (Castlederg) who swept the design class winning firsts in all categories and Best in Show Design with her imaginative entry "School Days" came second in total points with 36. Jules Maule-finch (Caledon) was third with 27 points. Lucille King (King City) won first for her clematis. Judge Clarke commented favourably on the quality of each entry.

Kettleby 'goes country' this Friday night

She particularly encouraged exhibitors in the cultural class to name the cultivar entered as she was most intrigued by an exhibit of an unnamed variety of red fused with greenish yellow petunias.

Christ Church, Kettleby

Kettleby Goes Country goes this Friday, Oct. 7 from 7 to 9 p.m. with live country music from a 5 piece band, country, singing country dancing, light country style refreshments and a good old fashioned country auction of pies, including some made by local celebrities. Tickets at $25 each available at the door.

All this happens in the hall at Anglican Christ Church on Kettleby Rd. half way between Keele and Jane Streets. Get ready to swing into some old fashioned country fun! All funds raised will go towards phase 2 of the restoration of the 125-year-old church.

York Pines United

Regular events are happening again at the church. Monday evening dance classes are held 7 to 9 p.m. in the church basement hall under the professional instruction of Derek Kryszkowski.

More dancers, especially beginners, are welcome to join classes.

Bible Study, following Seasons of the Spirit curriculum, is held weekly Tuesday mornings 10 to 11:30. New members are always welcomed. Once a month, a group gather to knit prayer shawls and baptismal blankets.

Also monthly, a Fellowship Lunch takes place.

The church is located at 3150 Lloydtown Aurora Road, Kettleby, just east of Hwy. 400. Our Sunday services begin at 10:30 a.m. Join us in prayer, worship and song. For any further information, please contact the church at 905-727-8118 or office.ypuc@rogers.com

St. Andrew's By Kathy Patterson

Ladies' Prayer time continues Tuesday mornings at 9 a.m. All are welcome to attend this special time of prayer and quiet reflection. God is with us as He has promised and is hearing and answering our prayers. Let us know if you have a prayer request or a thanksgiving.

Should you have pastoral care needs please contact Lynn Vissers, our Director of Congregational Ministries at the office, 905-833-2325. Our church is located at 13190 Keele St., 2 blocks north of the King Rd. www.standrews-kingcity.ca

All Saints Anglican Church By Diana Armitage

Last Sunday, Bishop Peter Fenty and many area priests joined the Rev. Dr Elizabeth Green and the parishioners of All Saints to celebrate their new ministry. Elizabeth was formally installed as our incumbent by the Bishop. The Rev. Canon Donald Butler of Trinity, Barrie, was Elizabeth's excellent pick to give the sermon and he spoke to us amusingly about new priest/parish expectations and our mission to make a good impact on the world as God's salt and light.

Thank you to everyone who made the service so memorable and who cooked the dinner, served and cleaned up afterwards. It was a great day for All Saints!

Annual Field to Table Dinner will be held on Sunday, Oct. 23 at 5 p.m. in the church hall. Tickets are $20 each. Please call the church office at 905-833-5432.

The last King City Farmers' Market of the season will be on Sunday, Oct. 16, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the All Saints parking lot.

Our annual Vestry meeting is on Sunday, Oct. 30 and all reports should be in by now!
