Winter parking ban now in effect

It may not officially be winter yet, but winter parking regulations are now in effect. The seasonal change in the rules is meant to keep streets and sidewalks clear of vehicles for King's snow-clearing operations, as well as emergency vehicles and public transit.

This means no cars are allowed to be parked on the street between 2 a.m. and 6 a.m., until April 15th or any time if it interferes with snow removal from streets or sidewalks.

The amount of the ticket for vehicles parked on the street during a snow event is $50. Vehicles may also be towed and impounded at the owner's expense.

Residents are responsible for clearing snow from their driveways and the sidewalk fronting their properties. Residents are reminded to not shovel or blow snow onto the roadway or sidewalk.

Nancy Cronsberry, manager of bylaw services, asks people to be considerate of others when it comes to following the township's rules regarding winter parking and snow removal.

"It's important that King's roads are clear of parked vehicles when the snow hits. We need to ensure emergency vehicles can get to calls quickly. Having to deal with roads clogged by snow or parked vehicles will slow emergency vehicles down," said Cronsberry.

To report problems with snow removal, contact the Township of King at 905-833-5321. To report parking complaints contact bylaw@king.ca or 905-833-4002.

King City & Schomberg Zoning By-law Review

Public Open Houses #3 and #4

King Township has initiated a review of the Zoning By-law as it applies to the King City & Schomberg urban areas. The outcome of this project will be new Zoning By-law(s) for King City & Schomberg. All interested persons are invited to attend an open house to learn about the Draft Zoning By-law for King City and Schomberg. This project follows the new Zoning By-law for Nobleton, which was adopted by Council on July 11, 2016.

What is a Zoning By-law?

A Zoning By-law is prepared under the requirements of Section 34 of the Planning Act. The Zoning By-law regulates the types of land uses and the character, height, location, size and massing of buildings for all lands in the community. Currently, the Township administers Zoning By-law 74-53, as amended, which applies to most of the Township. The Township has initiated a review of the Zoning By-law with the intent to develop new Zoning By-law(s) for King City and Schomberg.

Why prepare a new Zoning By-law for King City & Schomberg?

The current Zoning By-law was enacted in 1974. There is a need to ensure the Zoning By-law conforms to Provincial, Regional and local planning policy. A Discussion Paper has been prepared to provide additional information about the types of planning issues that will be addressed. The Discussion Paper is available on the Township's website (see the link at the bottom of this notice).

What is being presented at the Public Open Houses? Should I attend both meetings?

The First Draft Zoning By-law for King City and Schomberg will be presented at these meetings. The content presented at the meetings will be focused on each community, so you may wish to attend both meetings if you are interested in the zoning for both King City and Schomberg.

King creates special events 'strategy'

By Mark Pavilons

King Township is closely knit to its community groups. To strengthen ties and make community events more efficient, staff are working on a new delivery strategy.

Councillors received the report from Jonathan Bell and Chris Fasciano of Parks, Recreation & Culture. Staff received comments from councillors and will fine-tune the draft strategy, present it to community groups and return to council in the future for final approval.

Staff, back in November 2015, made a presentation to council, noting they needed a guide to future direction and delivery of special events in King. Staff hosted consultation sessions with community organizations, gathered comments and developed nine guiding principles for their strategic direction. The idea is to enhance future community events.

The strategy includes a look at current events, challenges and opportunities, communication consultation and where the Township wants to go.

"This is a critical point for King with respect to special events as with the immediate and future growth will come more pressures to deliver additional events. A framework for how and why the municipality will support these events is needed to ensure equitable levels of service and a means to measure the impact of that investment. The Township is and will continue to be incredibly supportive of events in King and the volunteers who organize them, however, this must be done in a responsible manner."

Staff pointed out this special event strategy is a "living document," intended to elicit discussion and form the future strategic direction for Parks, Recreation & Culture over the next three to five years.

"It is understand that while the document is the framework to work from, adjustments based on circumstances will be required and built into the document during the review process."

Mayor Steve Pellegrini told staff he doesn't want to lose or deter any "seed" events that are growing in popularity in King.

Fasciano said there is an over-saturation of local events, and it's difficult for the Township to support all of them. The strategy provides criteria for offering a certain level of support.

Editorial, Letters & Opinion

"Public opinion shapes our destinies and guides the progress of human affairs"

~ Frank B. Kellogg

Democracy is the best system we have

The people have spoken. This pretty much sums up the fundamentals of our democratic system in a nutshell. Sure, our form of government may not be perfect, but it's the very foundation of our society.

Often, when you toss out the term "politics," people shudder and make some weird facial distortions. Politics isn't everyone's cup of tea, but politics permeates every aspect of our society, whether we realize it or not.

In Canada, we enjoy universal health care and education – both political decisions and two very important cornerstones of our political system. We take them for granted. Sure, we expect to be treated well and expeditiously and often complain when the system hits a few hurdles, or we're left waiting for a few hours for emergency care. I would like to remind people that we have one of the best health care systems in the world and our hospitals in the GTA are among the finest anywhere on the planet.

People die every day across the globe due to a lack of access to a doctor. Children perish from illnesses that we've cured in the west decades ago.

We have a pretty good public education system in this province. From kindergarten to Grade 12, our children are given a really good start in life. They have access to not only quality education, but a vast array of extra-curricular activities that improve their health, fitness and social skills.

Mark Pavilons

There is assistance for those who need money for post-secondary studies, through OSAP. Recent changes have postponed repayment for students until they are settled, earning a decent salary.

We also have some of the finest colleges and universities around.

Our tax dollars – income taxes, sales taxes, property taxes – go to pay for garbage collection, roads, police and fire protection, to name a few. All of this just happens to be part of our political system, at all three levels.

People are often heard to remark "there's nothing we can do to change things." That can't be further from the truth.

The recent U.S. election is proof of that. People wanted change. They sent a strong message to the "establishment" that they were not happy with the way things were. A strong voter turnout proves just how effective, and in this case, dramatic, democracy can be. For all those who said they couldn't make a difference, well look at how they've effectively changed the political landscape in America!

And, believe it or not, we all have a say. We can voice our opinions and concerns any time, to our local councillors, provincial MPPs or federal MPs. They are our pipeline to the government and ruling party. We can affect change. Simply by standing up, making our concerns known, we can not only provide input into our own communities, but perhaps right some wrongs along the way.

While the term "politics" can be daunting, confusing and intimidating, it shouldn't be. It was never meant to be when our founding fathers created our system. Our humble beginnings were ground-up – from the people, by the people.

I can't stress this enough. The words from the U.S. Constitution are so powerful – "We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

Nothing is so simple and eloquent.

Our relatively new Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms (1982) is equally powerful. It sets out our fundamental rights and freedoms that include (a) freedom of conscience and religion; (b) freedom of thought, belief, opinion and expression, including freedom of the press and other media of communication; (c) freedom of peaceful assembly; and (d) freedom of association. It also guarantees democratic, mobility, legal and equality rights.

Boiled down, politics means democratic rights. A lot of time and effort went into these founding documents.

Okay, growing up in a free society we tend to take it all for granted. But I'd like to remind everyone that Canada was founded by European immigrants and an influx of displaced persons after the Second World War jump-started our current way of life.

My father held democratic freedoms very dearly, since he left a country that fell under the Communist boot. He made it a point of taking an interest in, and voting in, every election here in Canada. He never missed one.

We just marked Remembrance Day and hopefully we all stopped and reflected on the sacrifices that allow us to enjoy our freedoms today. I take out an MIA letter about my uncle from time to time, just to remind me how real it all was.

I would like to remind everyone, young and old alike, not to fear the word "politics." Embrace it, understand it and get involved. Our system belongs to us, thanks to all those who came before, to make this land blessed with liberty and prosperity. Never take that for granted!

Letter to the Editor

Concerns on recreational development

The following is an open Letter to Mayor Pellegrini and members of council.

Informal discussion among King City residents has prompted questions for which there appear no satisfactory answers.

As King City embarks on a multi-million-dollar development with Seneca College, design, engineering, construction, operational and maintenance costs are anticipated to be extremely high. Any venture that proceeds in a prudent manner would have a precise analysis of such costs.

1. Where is there a comparable model where a municipality builds a major structure at their cost on leased land?
2. What precisely is intended to be built and who decided?
3. What are comparable costs in other municipalities?
4. What is the cost of sewer hook up?
5. How will the project be funded?
6. Rumours are rampant that as the Seneca/King project proceeds our existing arena will be demolished.

With the Senior's Centre adjacent this represents prime real estate within the heart of King City. What is planned for such a strategic parcel of land? Residents need assurance it will be reserved for local purposes to be decided by them. The walkability quotient of the Seneca/King development is zero for residents and hardly representative of sustainable development within our village.

7. Was the socio/psychological impact of such dramatic change in our community given adequate consideration?

Has council realized that 1/60 of the cost of construction must be written off each year since the entire cost of the project must be written off over the term of the lease? We are gifting to Seneca College a structure which could have an extremely high value 60 years from now. One needs only to consider the increase in property values in King over the last 10 years. Unless an option for the extension of the lease is part of the agreement it becomes a windfall for Seneca at King's expense.

Without answers to the most basic of questions there cannot be an astute agreement protecting the interests of King residents. The process is comparable purchasing a car with no information as to make, model or price and declaring it a good deal. The entire Seneca College proposal has transitioned from transparent, to translucent, to opaque. This process must be reversed.

Good Paris goal, bad Canadian target

By Ann Raney

The Minister of the Environment and Climate Change, the Honourable Catherine McKenna announced for the first time that the climate greenhouse gas emissions target of the new government is the same as the former government's - 30% below 2005 levels by 2030. Details as to how the target will be achieved are not yet known but they plan to find out. In other words, this government is announcing that it plans to make a plan to meet the last government's targets, one of the weakest in the industrialized world.

In part because of the hard work of Minister McKenna in Paris, Canada was an early supporter of the climate treaty goal of no more than a 1.5-degree increase in global average temperature compared to pre-industrial times. That is why the announcement of a target that will not contribute to meeting that goal is surprising as well as disappointing.

Two degrees was really a political compromise at Copenhagen 2009, so a provision was added to revisit 1.5 degrees as a goal. And in Paris 2015, to reflect more recent information from scientists and economists, and to be fair to island nations that would disappear at a 2.0 degree warming because of sea level rise, 192 countries agreed that a maximum of 1.5 degrees global average temperature compared to pre-industrial times would "significantly reduce the risks and impacts of climate change" (Paris COP 21 Treaty). However, it may be that we are forced to aim for 2.0 since there is already enough warming gases in the atmosphere to increase the planet's temperature by 1.5 degrees. It takes time for the heat to bounce around eventually warming our oceans and land masses, just as it takes time to warm up by a fire when you come in from the cold.

We only have .5 degrees to work with because the amount of greenhouse gas emissions, mostly carbon dioxide, in the atmosphere has already committed the planet to a 1-degree rise.

"Climate change is happening now and much faster than anticipated," said Dr. R. Watson, former chair of the UN Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, and one of seven climate science experts to author report released September 29th. (Universal Ecological Fund). The report states: "The 1.5°C target has almost certainly already been missed. Global average temperature has already reached 1°C above pre-industrial times in 2015. There is still time to slow down the current path towards reaching the 2°C target within the next few decades. While the Paris Agreement on Climate Change is an important step in the right direction, what is needed is a doubling or tripling of efforts."

Global average temperature is not the same as local temperature. Local temperatures can vary greatly, global averages cannot. During the last ice age, which ended about 11,700 years ago, most of the western countries including Canada were under tons of ice and the global average temperature was only about 5 degrees colder than it is now. A few degrees change in global average temperature can affect everything upon which our civilization depends.

Fairness cannot be based on the output of greenhouse gases from countries in recent years, but as the portions dumped and still accumulating in our atmosphere for over two centuries. Western nations that went through their industrial revolution over a century ago are responsible for a great deal of the atmospheric CO2 that has accumulated over the decades. Mostly agrarian nations did not burn fossil fuels nearly as much.

These are facts and why the world gathers to discuss climate change and agree to a binding treaty as in Paris and Kyoto, but "agreement should never be confused with solving the problem." (Fiona Wolf, former Mayor of London, UK.). The Paris agreement allows for countries to increase their individual targets in order to meet the treaty goals.

Last November the aggregated targets (called Intended Nationally Determined Contributions, INDCs) were calculated by the UN Climate Secretariat and the result was that the targets, (which included our current Canadian target), would cause a global average temperature change relative to pre-industrial times of 2.7 to 3.5 degrees. Canada's target was "only ahead of Kazakhstan, Australia, and Saudi Arabia which is a sad place to be as one of the top 10 emitters in the world" (Dr. Karen Farbridge, former Mayor of Guelph).

The Iron Pup offers unique protection for dogs

By Mark Pavilons

Pet owners would do anything for their beloved, four-legged family members.

In rural areas, pets face a number of natural hazards and there has been an increase in attacks by predators, particularly coyotes.

To ease her own peace of mind, and provide dogs with added protection, a King City area resident has come up with an innovative solution. The Iron Pup puncture-proof coat is the brainchild of Jasmine Montreuil.

She and her husband Devin often hear the eerie cries of coyotes near their home. Concerned about the threat of predators for her eight-year-old cockapoo Abby, Montreuil went to work earlier this year researching methods of creating such a coat. She studied the habits of coyotes and other predators, such as large birds of prey.

The result is an adjustable, comfortable coat, made from correctional grade Kevlar fabric. It consists of a water resistant shell, two layers of Kevlar and an inner lining. It also boasts a studded collar at the back of the neck, an area favoured by attacking predators. Montreuil relied on bite force data and mounds of information from U.S. law enforcement, for her design specs and materials.

Designed for smaller dogs – cocker spaniels, corgis, dachshunds and chihuahuas – the vests are lightweight, even fashionable. Montreuil described them as “functional 1980s punk.” She has had requests from owners of toy dogs, and she will look into those once the products are launched.

This project, she admitted, is more of a “creative endeavour” rather than a business plan. Sales and marketing will be online at first, but Montreuil does hope to have them available in retail outlets.

She has received a lot of requests from friends and acquaintances who live in the Beaches area of Toronto.

Coyotes, she said, have become a problem in recent years as the animals appear to have no fear when it comes to approaching people and pets in the GTA. In Halton Region in 2015, there were roughly 500 reported encounters with coyotes. Fear and concern locally resulted in the establishment of Coyote Watch King Township in December of 2015, by a resident who lost her prized dog to a coyote.

“Almost everyone you talk to has had an encounter with a coyote,” Montreuil pointed out.

The Iron Pup can be used anywhere you take your dog – hiking, camping, even a dog park.

The business process has been frustrating at times, Montreuil admitted. She said as a health-care professional, she was a bit out of her element as an entrepreneur. It was a “huge learning experience” and once you step outside of your comfort zone, you realize how valuable your skills are.

She’s tried to source as much as she could within Ontario, and the manufacturing will be done here.

Protecting pets is Montreuil’s mandate. She’ll be happy when those “success stories” start coming in about how beneficial the protective coats are. Making a difference, and perhaps helping to save a dog’s life, is all the reward she needs.

The Iron Pup will go a long way to easing the minds of pet owners.

King Township Food Bank distributes Nov. 19

The monthly distribution of food, food cards, produce and pet kibble happens from 9-11 this Saturday at three centres in King Township.

If you are not registered, please call the food bank number 905-806-1125 to pre-register so that food can be sent to the proper location. Walk-ins can't be accommodated, as all the food is in the warehouse except for what is pre-ordered and shipped.

The next distribution will be Saturday, Dec. 10, a week earlier than usual, owing to Christmas. At this time all Christmas in King hampers and gifts will also be available for pickup.

Donations from Hillside Gardens, Engel & Volkers, and Dorio's Bakery continue to ensure vegetables and breads for attendees. And the shelves are pretty full with Thanksgiving food donations through Foodland and most of the schools in King.

KTFB is a totally volunteer organization of about 30 volunteers who care for 240 people, ensuring they receive a month of non-perishable groceries every month or food cards in lieu.

Christmas in King is in full swing (not to be confused with Christmas in King City, which is a festival). This program offers turkeys, hampers, fresh trees, wreaths and gifts to all who register. CiK is a sister organization of KTFB, providing a Christmas program that the Food Bank would otherwise be doing. Many churches in King participate in providing gifts, and a record number of individuals have adopted hampers to provide festive foods for the season.

Help is still needed. Donations of cash and Walmart cards are particularly helpful, as there is shopping to be done for "unadopted" gifts and hampers. The deadline for Walmart cards is Nov. 29. For cash donations wishing a receipt, please make out a cheque to King Township Food Bank and place CiK in the memo line. Donations and cards can be given to any Food Bank volunteer, and cheques can be mailed to King Township Food Bank, P.O. Box 224, Schomberg, ON, L0G 1T0 if you prefer that route. Please do not mail cash or Walmart cards!

Carol Ann can be reached through 416-559-7898 or call the Food Bank number 905-806-1125 and leave a message.

Canada is not part of the solution, and we are part of the problem.

Work toward reducing the degree of damage and adapting our civilization to climate changes is too slow.

The devastating and very real consequences have seemed too far off to consider for business leaders and governments that are primarily concerned with shorter timelines like business cycles and political cycles.

Mark Carney, Governor of the Bank of England and former Governor of the Bank of Canada, defines the challenges of climate change as “a tragedy of the horizon” (September 2015, speech at Lloyd’s of London, UK). “Once climate change becomes a defining issue for financial stability, it may already be too late. This paradox is deeper, as Lord Stern and others have amply demonstrated. As risks are a function of cumulative emissions, earlier action will mean less costly adjustment.”

Since 1990, severe weather events caused by climate change have doubled in number. An increase to 2°C above pre-industrial levels could lead to another doubling in their frequency. Science cannot say that any one event, a flood, a storm, or a drought, has been caused by climate change alone, but the increase in frequency and severity of these events can be directly linked to our burning of fossil fuels and emission of other greenhouse gases. Frustratingly these often tragic events are still reported in the mainstream media over and over wherever they occur as “the flood of the century, the driest it has ever been” and “record” floods or droughts but without mention of climate change. They have observed that there is “yet another major flood” but do not make the connection to climate change. The science, the root cause, the story behind the story is left untold.

I am reminded of Mark Twain who said: “Never let the truth get in the way of a good story.”

But climate change events are real and not fiction.

“To get the Liberals to act to meet the Paris goal, to ensure we urgently replace the weak climate target left behind by the previous prime minister will take public pressure from an informed electorate. That informed electorate may want to start by educating our media,” said Elizabeth May, posted Sept. 3.

This is the first in a series of reports from Ann Raney, P.Eng, CEO of the King-Vaughan Greens.

Master plan continues to take shape

By Mark Pavilons

King Township’s Parks, Recreation & Culture Master Plan is a “living document,” and as such, continues to evolve.

The 10-year plan is already achieving short and long-term priorities, according to Chris Fasciano, director of parks, recreation & culture.

In his report to council, he noted work has begun on some 85 of the 96 recommendations contained in the plan, which was adopted in June 2013.

Working with the public, and user groups, is key to the plan’s continued success.

“Working and consulting with our user groups, key stakeholders and our residents has been, and will continue to be, a vital part of departmental operations,” Fasciano said in his report. “The past few years have seen the expansion of the types of situations where staff would engage the community to include policy development, strategic direction documents, parkland and playground development and more. The opinions and knowledge of our residents, stakeholders and volunteers will continue to be a valuable asset and remain a priority as the community develops and grows.”

Fasciano said as we move into the plan’s third year in 2017, staff will build on the progress made to date. On tap in the coming year will be exploring hall use or repurposing; redeveloping parkland to meet the community’s needs; increasing quality control models and working toward a forestry management plan.

Letting kids be kids at King

By: Emily Milic

Since the 1970s, Seneca's King Campus has not only been providing education to young adults, but to the youngest members of the community as well. The King Observation Lab Teaching School (KOLTS) is a childcare centre that provides high quality programming to benefit each child, parent and the community.

The centre cares for children from one to 12 years of age and serves as an observation lab for students from Seneca's School of Early Childhood Education. This allows KOLTS to model best practices and cutting-edge curriculum for the children.

Pam Leavere is the Manager of the centre and has worked there for more than 35 years.

"We want to offer the best programming possible for our children," said Leavere.

Two years ago, the staff undertook a research project to determine the value of having the children get outside and take advantage of the 700 acres of forest, hills, meadows, wetland, and the pristine 45-acre Lake Seneca on the campus.

"Once the incredible benefit was proven, we arranged for forest school practitioner training for one staff member and are now providing a forest and nature school for children year-round two to three times a week," said Pam Leavere. "The children are demonstrating an increase in coordination, balance, agility as well as resiliency."

KOLTS hires qualified early childhood educators (ECEs) who are registered with the College of ECE (RECEs) in the Province of Ontario. For more information about childcare offered through Seneca, visit <http://www.senecacollege.ca/community/childcare/>.

The first major revitalization of King Campus in more than 30 years is officially underway and will include additional lab space for Seneca's School of ECE. For more information, visit www.senecacollege.ca/king.

King residents take time to remember

King residents came out in support of two local Remembrance services.

In Schomberg Friday, hundreds braved the chilly winds to take in the annual service at the cenotaph at the Trisan Centre. MC and Navy veteran Bob Gwalchmai read the names of local residents lost in the wars; Susan Beharriell, Lt.Col. (ret'd) read the iconic poem In Flanders Fields, and Rev. Sheilagh Ashworth offered an inspirational message.

Breakthrough Treatment For Diabetic and Peripheral Neuropathies

Diabetic neuropathies are a family of nerve disorders caused by diabetes. People with diabetes can, over time, develop nerve damage throughout the body. Symptoms depend on the type of neuropathy and which nerves are affected. Some people with nerve damage have no symptoms at all. For others, your symptoms may include numbness, tingling, or pain in the feet, toes, hands, arms, and fingers.

Some of you may experience pain in the thighs, hips, or buttocks leading to weakness in the legs, a condition called proximal neuropathy.

A smaller percentage of you may experience a sudden weakness of one nerve or group of nerves, causing muscle weakness or pain, a condition known as focal neuropathy.

You go to the drug store or to your doctor and get pills to help relieve your symptoms. But you find the symptoms keep returning. Alternatively, the doctor may refer you to a specialist who may tell you that surgery is needed or is an option for you.

However, many people are hesitant to have surgery given its invasive nature. It is important to know that although surgery is sometimes necessary, it is considered a last resort in most cases.

Also, you may have heard that there are serious health risks associated with chronic use (or overuse) of medications that include damage to the liver, kidneys and gut.

There is a new, natural, safe and highly effective approach that has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically: Laser therapy uses light to favor and accelerate the body's natural healing processes. The innovative Multiwave Locked System (MLS) Laser produces a safe, efficient and simultaneous effect on pain, inflammation and nerve conduction, exceeding the limits of traditional LLLT (Low power) and concerns of HP (High power) laser therapy.

According to multiple studies MLS therapy appears to be uniquely capable of healing the injured nerve in DPN (Diabetic Polyneuropathy) and shows great promise in the battle against the devastating sequelae of this disease.

Many of our patients have reported a 90-95% relief of their symptoms, more mobility, increased sensation and vastly improved function!

What does this mean for you?

It is the very latest in medical technology, with years of clinical studies supporting its safety and efficacy and we are very proud to offer our patients effective solutions to their recent or chronic conditions.

"This new, natural, safe and highly effective approach has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically".

Christ Church travels back in time for event

Schomberg Should Know

By Wendy-Sue Bishop

Christ Church Kettleby

Excitement builds as Christ Church, Kettleby prepares to officially mark its 125th anniversary with a combined parish service of Holy Communion to mark its Patronal Festival called the Reign of Christ, this coming Sunday, Nov. 20, starting at 10:30 a.m. The service will follow the traditional Anglican service in practice in 1891, as clergy and some parishioners attending plan to dress in the fashion of that era as well.

The church, on Kettleby Road, midway between Keele and Jane, will welcome former members and clergy as well as fellow parishioners from the St. Alban's Anglican community in Nobleton and St. Mary Magdalene's Church in Schomberg to this historic event. A luncheon in the church hall will follow the service. All are welcome to come to the service and the luncheon. Please feel free to wear 1890s period dress.

For more information contact the church office 905-939-2314

The Bell Tower has been fully restored on this Norman style fieldstone church erected in 1891. Also the interior plaster has been fully restored complete with gold leaf as was the original interior.

York Pines United Church

YPUC is located on Aurora Lloyd-town Road just east of Highway 400. It is a busy church with lots of things happening.

Yoga In Spirit is happening most Tuesdays from 7 to 8:30 p.m. All are welcome, donations appreciated.

YPUC Book Club meets on the 4th Wednesday of the month at 7 p.m. All are welcome. They next meet on Wednesday, Nov. 23 and they are discussing "And Then There Were Nuns" by Jane Christmas. Best selling author Jane Christmas decides to enter a convent to discern whether she is, as she puts it, "nun material." But just as she convinces herself to take the plunge, her long-term partner, Colin, surprises her with a marriage proposal. Determined not to let her monastic dreams get sidelined, Christmas puts her engagement aside and embarks on an extraordinary year.

The York Pines United Church website is a great place to stop by for further information about what's happening at the church - <http://ypuc.ca/calendar.html>

St. Mary Magdalene's

It's delicious homemade soup with crusty rolls, tea /coffee as Souper Thursday returns to St. Mary Magdalene's Anglican Church, 116 Church St. in Schomberg this Thursday, Nov. 17 from 5 to 7 p.m. Eat in or takeout. Fun games are planned for those eating in. Souper Thursday happens again on Dec. 15.

With the Advent season fast approaching the Advent Series of Films will be again held on Tuesdays throughout the season in the church's basement hall beginning Nov. 29 at 7 p.m. Films past and present will be presented and a lively discussion will follow each showing. Tea/coffee/juice and treats will be available.

We plan to have our regular booth again this year at Schomberg's "Main Street Christmas" Saturday, Dec. 3 with homemade squares, tarts, cookies and hot sweet cider.

AA Meetings continue every Monday in the church beginning at 7:30 pm. Guests are welcome the last Monday of the month - this month Monday, Nov. 28. For more information call the church office 905-939-2314.

Main Street Christmas

Less than a month away now, Schomberg's most spectacular festive event awaits to beguile and amaze you; to propel you into the magical kingdom of Christmas and for all to experience the magic, the wonder and purity of our Christmas event!

Last year we had record crowds and record weather; I might add! Hard to believe that over 5,500 people could fit into that tiny area that we close off on Main.

King's MacLennan lauded at hometown ceremony

By Jake Courtepatte

"No pressure, but three would be great."

Those were the words of King Township mayor Steve Pellegrini to Rosie MacLennan, two-time Olympic gold medalist, at a special ceremony to commemorate the region's golden girl at Cardinal Golf Club last Thursday.

Of course, Pellegrini was being playful, although MacLennan herself did not rule the prospect of returning to the Summer Olympic Games in 2020 out of the question.

"In a sport that's individual, we all work together," said MacLennan, speaking of her close relationship with her teammates and coach David Ross, who was in attendance. "(Ross) was able to spark my imagination, and leading into Rio I was doing skills that if you would have asked me before London if it were possible, I would have never expected to have done in my entire athletic career. That's what makes me feel like I'm unstoppable, and I'm not done yet."

MacLennan's four-minute speech brought a crowded hall to its feet, the finale of a round of speeches from the area's top politicians both at a municipal and federal level.

Perhaps the most rousing of the night was a revelation brought forth by Pellegrini, who surprised MacLennan with news on the future King Township Recreation Centre, set to be built at the corner of Dufferin Road and 15th Sideroad.

"We would like to name part of the facility after you," Pellegrini told MacLennan, before telling her parents John and Jane that if they "hung around a little longer, she could have taken swimming lessons there."

Ross, who has been involved in the sport of trampoline for close to 50 years and MacLennan's coach for the last 15 (and counting, said Ross), gave an emotional speech that saw the sports veteran almost moved to tears.

"If this were a wedding, and I needed a good roasting, I would have trouble searching for material," said Ross. "Rosie's the most kind and wonderful person I've met."

Ross has been with MacLennan through her two Pan American gold medals, two World Championship gold medals, and now, two Olympic gold medals.

"As a coach, I look for race horses knowing that as Canadians, we cannot beat the world, which Rosie did, just by throwing more athletes and more money at the problem ... that's what makes her special."

Ross said that what sets MacLennan apart from the crowd is her positivity and determination.

"She perseveres. She's like the little engine going up the mountain ... I think I can, I think I can."

MacLennan grew up in King City, training at Sky rider's Place in Richmond Hill and attended King City Secondary School.

"I couldn't say thank you enough, to the schools that I went to in King City and Aurora, that were supportive of this nine-year old little girl that one day dreamed of being an Olympian," said MacLennan.

The 28-year-old, who made her Olympic debut in Beijing in 2008, became the first Canadian to win back-to-back golds in individual trampoline in London 2010 and Rio 2016, and was the nation's official flag bearer in the opening ceremonies of the 2016 Games.

Cougars end Hornets' historic streak

By Jake Courtepatte

Don't look now, but the Schomberg Cougars are making waves in the Provincial Junior Hockey League after becoming the only team to best the Alliston Hornets through 19 games this season.

The Junior C club shocked the crowd at the always full New Tecumseth Rec Centre in Alliston on Friday, using a strong second period to overcome the odds and end Alliston's 18-game unbeaten streak.

Brandon Cohen was the first to get the Cougars on the board just 37 seconds into the game, converting a pass from Connor May for his third goal in two games.

Alex Acosta doubled the lead in the opening minute of the second on the power play for his first as a Cougar, though two quick goals from Alliston veterans had the game tied midway through the second period.

It was two of Schomberg's own veterans, Ryley Egerton and JP Crescenzi, that once again restored a two-goal lead for the road team before the second intermission.

It was Vince Michelizzi who eventually won the game for the Cougars in the third period, stopping all but one of a barrage of Alliston shots on the Schomberg net in an eventual 4-3 win.

The Hornets, who averaged giving up just over two goals per game while scoring close to six, came into the game with a record of 17-0-1.

Schomberg, meanwhile, has been on a hot streak since the beginning of November. Falling to the Hornets on Nov. 3, the club has since gone 3-1, winning three in a row before meeting up with a streaking Stayner Siskins squad on Saturday.

OT loss to Stayner

The teams traded goals back-and-forth throughout regulation, before Stayner's Jordan Taylor beat Nicholas Nabuurs just over a minute into extra time. Schomberg goals were scored by Carter LeRoux, Jake Mooring, and Crescenzi.

The loss in overtime, however, extends Schomberg's point streak to four games. After a slow start to the season, the Cougars are clawing their way up the Carruther's division of the PJHL, now sitting pretty in fourth place out of eight teams.

They will put their 8-11-1 record on the line Thursday, hosting the Midland Flyers (8-12-0) who sit just one point back of the Cougars in league standings.

Puck drop is set for 8:30 p.m. at Trisan Centre in Schomberg.

The Cougars close out the week on Saturday with a visit to the Siskins (16-3-0).

Muller and Fraser are turning heads in curling

By Shellee Morning
King Curling Club

Teams Muller and Fraser each week command the power of concentration, patience, and of course repeated accuracy to compete in the King Curling Club's men's league. Currently sitting in the top 3 in the C Division, these men are revelling in their new found celebrity status.

Three years ago Skip Thomas Muller put his team together with long-time friend and fellow Boy Scout Leader Blair Krauter to play as his Vice. The pair bring a decade of curling experience as well as strong leadership, and masterful strategy. Brother-in-law Steve Munro, who never curled a day in his life, was added to play in the Lead position and then convinced the squad to add his friend Mark Ruthven to play in 2nd.

Muller runs a tight ship with his team who presently control the top spot in the C Division with a 4-1-0 record. In the early days when Steve was a Rookie curler he told his fearless leader and brother-in-law Thomas, "don't get mad, you asked for this" when he hogged his sport that won't send you to the hospital. Team MacDonald currently holds a 3-2-1 record in the C division, tied with Team Wright in points but sit in 3rd place (Wright has only one loss) overall. MacDonald, a seasoned curler has put together a team that generates energy, and enthusiasm, as well as a competitive edge.

Fraser played for several years out of Mississauga Golf and Country Club but left the game for at least 15 years. He began to play again out of York Curling club in Newmarket in 2010, then joined King Curling Club in its opening year of 2011.

Rookie Jordan Dunlop, originally from Bracebridge who now lives on the same street as MacDonald, has a contagious smile and displays a jovial demeanour that is magnetic. The rookie seems to keep the other 3 members in check reminding them the game is all about fun. Jordan believes a team that is destined to win should look good doing it. So matching blue hoodies and a team name was decided, and The Sweep Dogs were born.

Michael Lepp and Sean Bush make up the middle part of the quartet with rocks has become surgical for this team as with precise weight control and clutch playmaking when the game gets tense.

Team MacDonald is grabbing attention within the C and B Divisions and (most likely) will be knocking on the A division's door. MacDonald hopes to hear one day "The Sweep Dogs sweep to first place."

Make 150 Count

The local RBC Bank has offered a youth representative of Nobleton the opportunity to give back to our community through the "Make150Count" program. RBC is celebrating the 150 year anniversary of Canada by giving $150 to youth representatives across the country for the purpose giving back to our communities. Our local representative is Tessia Orlandi and she is both honoured and enthusiastic about this opportunity. Together with a group of energetic teens, they have decided to use the $150 towards organizing a Food Drive in Nobleton to donate to the local Food Bank. The Food Drive will be this Sunday (Nov. 20) in the afternoon. There will also be a raffle and for every 3 items donated, one ticket will be given to enter the raffle.

So if a teen knocks on your door Sunday afternoon, please open it and donate generously! Let's celebrate Canada's milestone by helping those in need. Thank you RBC!

Earlier on that same day, Nov. 19, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., our sister church, Schomberg United, will be holding its Craft and Bake Sale, at St. Mary Magdalene Church, 116 Church St., Schomberg. There will be handmade jewellery, soap, pottery, hand painted candles, sewn and preserved items. The Tony and his wife Jayne were born and raised in Leaside, moved temporarily to Churchill (north-east of Cookstown) in the '80s and never left. Tony loves to play golf, is a Toronto Maple Leaf fan, and spends time with his Irish setter "Gunner." Come a little early so that you can have tea/coffee and something sweet before the service. You are welcome to take the refreshments into the sanctuary to finish.

On Sunday, Nov. 27, we need to get up earlier as we are joining our sister church in Schomberg at 9:30 a.m. at the Kitchen Breedon Manor. Mark your calendar for Monday, Nov. 28 for a Pot Luck Christmas Dinner/Social at Nobleton United's lower hall. Everyone is welcome. We gather at 6 p.m. Do join us!

Our very popular Breakfast with Santa is on Saturday, Dec. 3. More details next week.

On Sunday, Dec. 4, Rev. Marjorie Knill will conduct the Advent 2 service. Alexandra, sister of Sydney, daughter of Nobleton's Arin and Jeff Ellis, will be baptized.

Tuesday, Dec. 13, from 5-7 p.m., Messy Church returns. Last month we were focused on Remembering Jesus and Remembering our Vets. The children enjoyed the activities: making bubbles with different wands (to recall that bubbles do not last long, but memories last a lifetime); making a catapult (thinking about potential energy and what everyone's energy could accomplish if it was focused on peace instead of war); decorating a cookie with coloured icing to look like a poppy; making a dice from paper and decorating the 6 sides with pictures or names of important people in their life. Then each week, they are to roll the dice and whoever comes up, they should pray and wish them well for the week. Some children made bracelets with foam pieces in red, green and black (colours of poppies) and elastic. Others learned how to use a mortar and pestle to crush some rosemary and create the wonderful aroma. Some made crosses and decorated them in the Latin American style.

We remembered Jesus's words at the Last Supper, and so we had a choice of bread sticks or carrot sticks (one way to not single out someone who is allergic to wheat) and a small drink of grape juice and remembered Jesus saying "Remember me when you do these things."

Nobleton Lions Club

The Nobleton Lions Club fund raising Cash Draw was held at the Library Gazebo on Saturday, Oct. 22. Three cash prizes were drawn totalling $5,000. The winning ticket numbers were: 3rd prize, ticket number 677, 2nd prize ticket number 419, and 1st prize, ticket number 191. The draw was a complete sell out, and the Club is very grateful for the support shown by the community. This will be a great help in supporting many organizations in and around town.

November 5 was the date for the annual Clothing Drive. Enough good used clothes and small household articles were collected to fill a good sized truck - in fact the most in a number of years. The Lions and the Salvation Army are most encouraged by the strong response, and send a very big thank you to all who donated.

December features the Annual Skating Party on the 12th from 6 to 7:30 p.m. at the arena, with free skating for all, and Santa is planning to come and visit the kids.

Anglican Parish By John Arnott

In 1998 in Jordan's Red Sea port of Aqaba, archaeologists begin their dig into a tel or mound hoping to uncover a long buried building. To their surprise they soon discover from layout and architectural style that emerging into the sunlight again after being buried for centuries are the ruins of an ancient church complete with a once covered entrance or porch (narthex) at one end of a two-aisled nave. At the other the space (chancel) from which a priest or elders would conduct services and a further space serving an apse for an altar from where Holy Communion would be served.

St. Alban's Anglican community in Nobleton notes that while Dura Europos, the ancient village on the edge of the Syrian desert, has the oldest surviving place of Christian worship, a house church, a private home with a room set aside where early Christians held services, these Aqaba ruins would prove to be the oldest structure yet found that was specifically built as a place for Christian worship - a church!

Also discovered was a collection box containing coins thus dating the church to the late 3rd century plus fragments of oil lamp glass. The adjacent cemetery yielded pieces of pottery, more coins and the fragment of what appears to have been a bronze cross suggesting a bishop's grave. Aila, Aqaba's ancient name, was once an important Christian centre and its bishop took a prominent part in the Council of Nicea (325 AD in what is now modern Turkey) convened by Constantine the first Christian Roman emperor to decide the future path of Christianity in Roman Empire.

King's Corners

King City United
By Earle Laycock

Remembrance Sunday worship was devoted to honour not only those who have died protecting our freedom but also those who served or are serving in our military. Brownies, Guides, Pathfinders, Rangers and their leaders participated in this special service.

Lt.-Col. (ret.) Susan Beharriell recited "In Flanders Fields" and told us the circumstances surrounding this famous poem. Trumpeter Brandon Braga (Jean and John Kell's grandson) played The Last Post and Reveille.

Director of Music, Rosemary Karunaratne, led the choir in singing "Songs of Peace." The Bell Choir performed two pieces under the direction of Sandra Kirby: "Holy, Holy, Holy" and "Largo Excerpt from the New World Symphony."

During the children's time, Rev. Evelyn McLachlan asked if any of them had met a real soldier. She then introduced Lt.-Col. (ret.) Susan Beharriell who spoke about highlights of her 35-year career in the military and explained the meaning of some medals worn on Remembrance Day. Thank you, Susan, for sharing these experiences.

The United Church Woman thank those who donated warm winter children's clothing. Items will be distributed this week.

Tea & Talk continues at the King City

Parents, take a break! December 3rd, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. is the Gift of Christmas, a day for children ages 5-12 to come and learn the real meaning of Christmas. There are games, crafts, cooking, video, music and a presentation to the parents at the end of the day. There is no cost for this (although a free will donation would be gratefully received!). Need to earn some community volunteer hours? We need some young volunteers to help out. Please call the office or email kcuc@bellnet.ca to register. All children welcome.

King Bible Church

We welcome you to join us for worship service on Nov. 20! Pastor Mark will be continuing our sermon series "Growth Matters" with "Where Do I Fit In?"

Please take advantage of our excellent children's ministry. Our Sunday morning "Celebration Zone" provides age-appropriate programs for children aged 4 to Grade 8. Our children's program is staffed by screened volunteers who care about your kids! The children in Grades 1-8 will join their parents for the beginning of the service until they are invited to go downstairs. The children in kindergarten can go directly to their class at the start of the service.

If you have children aged 0-3 then we invite you to bring them to our beautiful and safe Nursery facilities which are located on the lower level. Caregivers will meet you there.

We chose the theme of "Legacy" because we believe that's what families are looking for; both to be a part of as well as leave a lasting "Legacy."

Our children's classes will be JK-Grade 4, Grade 5-8 and Grade 9-12. They will meet downstairs and begin with a time of Worship altogether before breaking off into their classes for a time of study, crafts and games!

We will provide nursery care for children 0-3.

Our adults will be studying the "Truth Project" and will meet upstairs.

The KBC Women invite all women in the neighbourhood to join us for our Road Trip to One-Of-A-Kind! Saturday, Nov. 26 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., we will load up cars with excited shoppers and gal friends to have a blast at the biggest craft show of the year. Sign up solo or with your friends to join in on hassle-free shopping from hundreds of Canadian artisans as they offer their creative best in a bonanza of great deals and power shopping. The cost of $20 includes admission, lunch, parking and gas money. Plus, you will receive a voucher for a free re-entry for any other day of the show! Sign up by Nov. 21 or call for more information at 905-833-5104.

Horticultural Society By John Arnott

Did you know that you can still plant tulips for spring bloom? Well members of the Nobleton-King City Horticultural Society (Garden Club) want you to know that as long as the ground is diggable tulips can be planted. For best results plant tulip bulbs 6 in./15 cm deep – some members say 1 ft./30 cm deep. Being members of the lily family they prefer sandy soil but they are happy in average garden soil – to make them even happier dig in a generous helping of compost such as composted cattle manure.

Most gardeners know that daffodils should be planted similarly to tulips and by mid October at the latest. But I have planted daffodil bulbs both here in Tecumseth Pines and at my former Nobleton home as late as December as the weather was mild and the ground obviously not frozen.

To prevent accidentally digging into them after they've died back to the ground by late spring I mark where I plant both tulips and daffodils as they must be left until the leaves turn brown and wither when like oriental poppies they completely disappear as their wild cousins still do to survive the baking heat of mid summer and the bitterly cold winters of their native range.

St. Andrew's By Kathy Patterson

Have you heard that "Messy Advent" is coming to St. Andrew's starting Sunday, Nov. 27 at 5 p.m.? Let your friends and neighbours know! This is an intergenerational, hands-on event with supper served to end off the fun time together as we learn about Advent – Hope, Peace, Joy and Love over the 4 Sundays leading to Christmas. Hope you can come! Call the church to find out more, 905-833-2325.

There's a warm welcome at St. Andrew's, King City. Sunday Worship is at 10:30 a.m. with Sunday school running concurrently. A nursery is available and all are welcome to stay for coffee in the lounge following the service.

Last Sunday Pastor John Mills spoke to us about Peace and one of his favourite chapters in the Bible – John 14 where in verse 27 we read, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid."

Coffee and Conversation continues on Thursdays at 10 a.m. in the office. Soup and Conversation is Thursday evenings at 6 p.m. in the office. Reports from both groups are enthusiastic! Feel free to join either group as they listen to podcasts on Jeremiah (really, lots of pertinent info there!) and then discuss engaging questions which apply to us today. Contact Lynn Vissers for further information.

The Christmas in King Gifts and Food Hampers project is in full swing! Information on how you can help is posted in the narthex. Contact Kathy Patterson on how you can help. Gifts and food hampers need to be at the church by Nov. 27 to ensure distribution at the Food Bank centres throughout the Township on Dec. 10. The Christmas Tree and Wreath delivery will be the week before, Saturday, Dec. 3.

The Tree of Warmth is also in place in the narthex where mitts, gloves, scarves, hats, socks and small-sized personal toiletries are being collected for our Evangel Hall's many appreciative visitors over the winter.

This Saturday, Nov. 19 our Synod Mission Consultant, the Rev. Dr. John-Peter Smit leads us in a special workshop for St. Andrew's, "Discerning our Future: Planning a Way Forward." It's from 9-noon and all congregants are invited to participate and share their ideas. Don't forget to mark your calendars for our Christmas Potluck at St. Andrew's. It's Saturday, Dec. 10 at 5 p.m. Santa's coming too and needs to know how many children will be there, so call the office and we'll let him know.

All Saints Anglican Church By Diana Armitage
