Don Cherry offers support as the Ontario SPCA and Dog Tales send a second group of pit bulls to new homes in Florida. He's seen with Robert Scheinberg, co-founder of Dog Tales.

Don Cherry offers best wishes to rescued dogs

By Mark Pavilons

The Ontario SPCA and a team from Dog Tales Rescue and Sanctuary in King Township, ventured to Florida with a group of pit bulls from an alleged dogfighting operation, to continue their rehabilitation.

Don Cherry, former NHL coach and sports commentator, joined the transfer teams at the Ontario SPCA Provincial Office in Stouffville to wish the dogs well on their journey. Cherry's love of animals led to the creation of the Don Cherry Pet Rescue Foundation.

In October 2015 the Ontario SPCA uncovered an alleged dogfighting operation near Chatham, Ontario. Several dogs were removed during that investigation and assessed by world leaders in dogfighting rehabilitation, the ASPCA. Seven of those dogs immediately passed the ASPCA's assessments but due to lengthy court proceedings remained in the Ontario SPCA's care until they were recently released from the courts to be given new homes. In addition, one of the animals removed from the alleged dogfighting operation gave birth to 11 pit bull puppies while in care of the Ontario SPCA. The puppies remained in the care of the Society for close to two years until ownership was recently released by the courts.

After having been spayed and neutered, the first group of these dogs were sent to two facilities in Florida.

Pit Sisters, a behavioural and dog training program with the mission to find challenging dogs new homes, is taking 10 of the dogs, and Dogs Playing for Life will be taking four of the dogs.

"Sadly due to the unexpected lengthy court process, these dogs have been waiting nearly two years to be rehomed. Our staff have been actively working with them every day to continue their rehabilitation and we are so pleased that we can finally relocate them and have them start the next chapter of their lives," said Deputy Chief Jennifer Bluhm, Ontario SPCA.

The transport of these dogs has been fully funded and executed through the generosity of Dog Tales Rescue and Sanctuary.

Minister Ballard grew up in King

By Brock Weir

Newmarket-Aurora MPP Chris Ballard was appointed Ontario's new Minister of the Environment and Climate Change on Monday by Premier Kathleen Wynne.

The Aurora resident, who was serving as the Province's Minister of Housing and Minister Responsible for Poverty Reduction, succeeds MPP Glen Murray to the portfolio.

As a native of King Township, Ballard grew up living on the Oak Ridges Moraine.

As an MPP, and earlier as a municipal councillor, he was a particularly vocal champion of its preservation. Now that very preservation rests, in part, in his portfolio, a twist of fate he describes as "so wonderful."

"I would call myself an outdoors guy and to be in a portfolio where I can have real influence on preserving green space and preserving the environment and helping people deal with climate change has absolutely made my day," Ballard said.

"Standing up to the environment, which I had a reputation for doing on Aurora Town Council as well, really advocating that a strong and healthy natural environment means stronger and healthier human being is an understanding I have had from the time I was a kid running through the fields of King Township, fishing and hiking the East Humber River. Until today I have seen too much of a decline in that quality of life and I am really excited to be able to make some contributions to reversing that trend."

Hitting the ground running, week, he says his immediate focus now and into the fall will be communicating with Ontarians about all the "good things that have come out of legislation that has been passed by the government related to the environment and climate change.

These, he said, include the cap and trade system which has allowed for the investment of $1.9 billion into green projects, investing in the expansion of the GO Train network, incentives for electric vehicles and housing retrofit programs which will help homeowners save money and combat climate change.

"We have put $100 million into home retrofits to help people reduce their energy costs," he said. "We're putting $200 million into public schools for furnaces, windows and lights. The list goes on and I compare that to what the opposition has been calling for and I think ours is a far more solid fiscal one that costs taxpayers a lot less money and is far more effective.

"My initial goal will be to continue working on communications, working on getting our message out to people and to continue travels across Ontario to listen to what people are talking about and listen to what is important in their lives and to better understand how the government through policy in my new ministry how that policy can help make their lives better."

There will also be the challenge of addressing climate change in an era where Canada's neighbours to the south have a commitment to the fight that is currently on life support. That roadblock, however, is at the top, and Ballard said it is important to understand that there's plenty of fight still with state legislators.

"They are more committed than ever to climate change," he said. "We will continue to work closely with California and they are a big influencer. They are not backing off from their climate change activities. We are all part of the cap and trade system together. While some people may not be enthusiastic, my sense is the vast majority of the space where the real work gets done when it comes to climate change initiatives, quite frankly, will continue to move ahead. Climate Change is such a big topic. We have been talking about it exhaustively for 15 or 20 years.

"I need to continue to make sure people understand the gravity of the situation but at the same time I don't want to overwhelm people; I want people to know there is a pathway out. Working together, all of us, there is a pathway through this and we can do it together."

The cabinet shuffle was sparked by the resignation of Glen Murray who, although no longer in Cabinet, will continue to serve as MPP in his Toronto riding.

Peter Milczyn, MPP for Etobicoke-Lakeshore, succeeds Ballard as Minister of Housing.

"Public opinion shapes our destinies and guides the progress of human affairs"

~ Frank B. Kellogg

Feeling guilty about taking time off

In an unprecedented move, I won't be back in the office until Aug. 17.

I haven't missed an entire issue of the King Weekly Sentinel since I joined the company roughly five years ago. The sad part is I haven't been on a true family vacation during that time.

This year, my wife rented a cottage for the clan to gather, free from distractions and modern contrivances. We will be one with nature, sipping coffee on the deck with the local fauna. Our view won't be of our subdivision street or backyard forest, but rather a lake and a dock.

We all know the importance of family time, down time and the need to decompress and unwind. Canadians are notoriously bad when it comes to taking their full allotted vacation time.

I have written about it many times, and I'm just as guilty as the majority. No one should feel bad about taking time off to recharge those batteries.

Being the proverbial worry wart, I constantly stress over each week's issue of the paper. I want to make sure it's the best, in terms of content and design, that I can offer our community. Our readers deserve it, and I hate to let them down.

In small, independent companies, editors tend to be jacks of all trades. I don't just write articles and take photographs. I coordinate all editorial efforts - columnists, submissions, sports, letters, etc. I make sure all important events are covered and I have to provide enough content each week to fill those 20 pages in King (and another 12-16 in New Tecumseth).

I'm fortunate in that the King community has embraced me and the Weekly Sentinel. They contribute, call and write. They submit photos and provide "tips." Readers make "suggestions," and others offer "constructive criticism."

It's this partnership that results in a really good product.

I've come to learn that King is built on partnerships and co-operation. The community is about sharing events, fundraisers, and dealing with progress and development. It's about looking out for one another.

I believe the newspaper is an extension of that. I don't sit in the editor's chair and send out dictates or edicts. I never have a "take-it-or-leave-it" attitude. Instead, I ask for input and relish recommendations to make our community paper better. I often go above and beyond.

Mark Pavilons

Some people often criticize small town papers for not being tough enough, tenacious enough or critical enough. "Where's that investigative journalism?" the mob asks. To be honest, it comes down to time and manpower. There's not enough of both.

I often smile when I hear from the conspiracy theorists or anti-government types, crying foul about graft, cover-ups and closed-door tyranny. In all my years in journalism, I have never encountered any major illegal or unethical activity coming from municipal government or its representatives. There have been individuals who erred and were appropriately punished. But wide-scale corruption simply doesn't exit. Today, there are too many checks and balances, policies and procedures to foster any sort of wrongdoing.

People who've accumulated a certain amount of experience and wisdom tend to feel self-important. I have a title, but I'm still stressed out from time to time over a letter, comment or article. I still get frustrated over typos, spelling mistakes and factual errors. Hopefully they're few and far between. If not, I have a few "watchdogs" who I rely on to set me straight.

I guess many other department heads or office workers don't relish the idea of leaving their work unattended for a week or so. Will everything fall apart while I'm gone?

I doubt it. The paper may not have my personal stamp on it for one issue, but I'm sure the end result will be just fine. If not, just let me know.

In smaller companies, there are employees who are quite valuable. Most have key roles and manage their own departments very well. But others can't simply step into their shoes, or slip into their comfy chairs and take over.

In my case, there are a hundred tiny things that I do on a daily basis without even blinking. When I jot down some pertinent things for those covering in my absence, I will undoubtedly forget a dozen or two minor things.

As a perfectionist, I wince when a headline is too short or a paragraph is out of place. I really don't want to worry about dangling participles or misplaced commas when I'm enjoying Smores with my family in Muskoka. I don't want to be plagued by calls or texts when something goes amok.

Don't get me wrong. I want to be sorely missed! It's good for the ego.

Like many things, our paper is a team effort. Our team may be small, but we're quite bright and experienced.

In my absence, send your correspondence to wendy.gabrek@gmail.com. For sports, email jakecourtepatte@gmail.com

I'll be back before you know it!

Letter to the Editor

Resident questions expenditures

The following letter, originally sent to Councillor David Boyd, was submitted to the King Weekly Sentinel.

I had an enlightening meeting with Allan Evelyn as you suggested.

I am extremely disappointed with you, in that you indicated earlier that the reason for my tax increase of 19.15% was caused by my MPAC assessment. Interesting that Cleve Mortelli said basically the same thing to one of his Ward 1 constituents and Deb Schaeffer explained it was lack of industry in the Township. It appears this huge tax increase was prevalent right across the Township, although it does vary slightly from ward to ward.

Well, after listening to Mr. Evelyn, and getting some charts from him, you are all wrong!

Early in 2017, you established a base budget of $35,318,698 in gross expenditures and $35,132,063 in total revenues, and purported to boast to taxpayers a proposed tax rate increase of 2.98%.

Then in the June 2017 Tax Rate Report you had to add an additional reserve contribution of $2,214,400!

What is that for?

1) A 25-acre property acquisition by the Township, in process, and therefore location cannot be disclosed.

2) Phase 2 sewer connection works in Nobleton!

To add insult to injury, besides this increase, they also increased the contribution to tax supported capital infrastructure reserve by $3,670,321 up to $7,875,629.

And, THAT is why our taxes went up so dramatically!

There are some other niggling issues, but I want to address a simple understanding of where taxes are being spent and for who!

When the "big pipe" issue was finally settled, the explosion of development came to King City and then to Nobleton (and their sewers no less).

I look at the folder that the Township supplied with our final tax bill and wonder a lot!

I read the following in the brochure sent with my 2017 Final Property Tax Notice:

"Major infrastructure projects planned for 2017 and 2018 include:

- 1) our new municipal office at the former Holy Name School site on King Road.
- 2) intersection improvements in Nobleton and King City.
- 3) expansion of the King City Library, that also includes space for the King City Seniors Centre.
- 4) design work for a new town-wide recreation facility at Seneca College's King City Centre.

In my opinion, the new office is a fat cat development, just short of the development when King City got the big pipe! Just look at the growth in King City! I say let these huge houses pay for it. The villages and smaller properties who have supported the Township for years are getting screwed.

What about the "Nobleton bypass?" King Road is already an absolute disaster.

The King City Seniors Centre is now totally under used. I would not use the Centre and I would seriously question how many would.

As a long-time resident of King Township, being 80 years of age, I do not think I should be having to pay for any of these so-called major infrastructure projects! I will never use them!

All of this infrastructure is geared to this explosion of residents of huge houses invading our once lovely rural landscape!

I think that it is high time to wake up and realize what King used to be!

Most of my friends, when I tell them I have a 19.15 % tax increase, said "sue" and talk to your lawyer, that is "obscene!"

Recently, I found myself in the unfortunate position of discovering a flat tire on my almost new car in the parking lot at No Frills in Nobleton. To make matters worse, I had forgotten my phone at home.

A very kind stranger, upon hearing my sad story, went out of her way to help me in my distress. She let me use her phone to call the towing company, the dealership and my daughter. She stayed until my rescue plan was in place and even offered to drive me home.

In these times of ignoring the problems of strangers, she was an absolute angel and I can't thank her enough for her help and concern!

Land use plans, OMB reform improve quality of life

The government is making changes to land use planning that would empower municipalities, protect the environment and build complete, livable communities for generations to come.

Municipal Affairs Minister Bill Mauro was in Newmarket to provide details on the proposed reforms to the Ontario Municipal Board and share recent updates to four land use plans that will help grow the Greater Golden Horseshoe (GGH).

By proposing to change the province's land use planning appeal system, communities would have a stronger voice in deciding how land use is planned. Changes would include:

- Replacing the Ontario Municipal Board with the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal to ensure people have access to faster, fairer and more affordable hearings.
- Creating a one-window approach to provide free information and support to citizens who want to participate in the land use appeal process.

Ontario has also updated the Growth Plan for the Greater Golden Horseshoe, the Greenbelt Plan, the Oak Ridges Moraine Conservation Plan and the Niagara Escarpment Plan. These plans will:

- Support the achievement of complete communities that offer more options for living, working, learning, shopping and playing by introducing new density and intensification targets.
- Improve access to a greater range of transportation options and help reduce traffic gridlock.
- Provide housing options to meet the needs of people at any age.
- Revitalize downtowns to become more vibrant and to provide convenient access to an appropriate mix of jobs, local services, public service facilities and a full range of housing.
- Guide and prioritize infrastructure planning and investments in the GGH to support and accommodate forecasted growth to the horizon of the Growth

Plan and beyond.

- Curb sprawl and protect farmland and green spaces.
- Support climate change mitigation.
- Promote long-term economic growth.

"The government is proud to support York Region's award-winning work toward complete communities. The updated Growth Plan for the Greater Golden Horseshoe and our proposed reforms to the land use planning appeal system would further help the region to realize the types of communities where people can live, work and play and where a range of housing options for all household sizes and incomes are available," said Bill Mauro, Minister of Municipal Affairs.

"Oak Ridges-Markham is one of the fastest growing communities in the province and I'm pleased to see our government supporting two major initiatives that will give residents a stronger voice in land use planning and improved access to jobs, local services and housing," noted Dr. Helena Jaczek, MPP, Oak Ridges-Markham.

The government recently introduced the Building Better Communities and Conserving Watersheds Act legislation that would, if passed, make changes to the Planning Act to give communities a stronger voice in land use planning.

The updated Growth Plan for the GGH, the Greenbelt Plan and the Oak Ridges Moraine Conservation Plan came into effect July 1. The Niagara Escarpment Plan came into effect June 1, 2017. The updated plans are the result of extensive engagement with the public, Indigenous communities, municipalities and stakeholders, as well as the recommendations provided by the Advisory Panel chaired by David Crombie.

As a result of the updated Greenbelt Plan, 21 major urban river valleys and seven associated coastal wetlands have been added to the Greenbelt, contributing to 10,000 new hectares of protected land.

The Greater Golden Horseshoe is forecasted to grow by approximately 4 million people over the next 25 years and will be home to more than 13.5 million people, working in 6.3 million jobs by 2041.

The Local Planning Appeal Tribunal would be an independent tribunal that makes decisions at arms' length from the government. If the legislation passes, it would replace the Ontario Municipal Board, which began in 1906 as the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board.

Mulrone seeks nomination

Bradford West Gwillimbury Councillor Raj Sandhu, campaign co-chair for the York-Simcoe Provincial Liberal Association, announced that Caroline Mulrone is seeking the nomination for the Conservatives in York-Simcoe.

"I want to welcome Caroline Mulrone to York-Simcoe; she seems like a fine individual, and she will find that Bradford West Gwillimbury, Georgina, King Township and East Gwillimbury are wonderful communities.

"Our region is rapidly growing and needs a strong, local, experienced voice who can advocate for investments in transit to fight traffic gridlock, to protect our environment and deliver smart growth, and ensure good schools and reliable health care.

"York-Simcoe Liberals look forward to nominating a dedicated, experienced, local candidate in the coming months."

Barrie Rail Corridor Expansion
Transit Project Assessment Process

The Project

Metrolinx, an agency of the Province of Ontario, has completed an Environmental Project Report (EPR) in accordance with Ontario Regulation 231/08 for the Barrie Rail Corridor Expansion. Metrolinx intends to proceed with the project in accordance with the EPR.

Metrolinx, an agency of the Province of Ontario, is upgrading its commuter rail system into Regional Express Rail. The Greater Toronto and Hamilton Area (GTHA) is now home to nearly 7 million people and heading towards 10 million by 2041. To address the urgent transit needs of the GTHA, the Province of Ontario committed to implement Regional Express Rail and make other improvements to the GO system. By 2025, electrified trains will be running every 15 minutes or better, all day and in both directions, within the most heavily travelled sections of the GO network.

To support this service increase, Metrolinx is undertaking the Barrie Rail Corridor Expansion (BRCE) Project which includes the following:

- Provision of a second track between Lansdowne Avenue in the City of Toronto to Allandale Waterfront GO Station in the City of Barrie;
- Upgrades to existing GO Stations along the corridor: Rutherford, Maple, King City, Aurora, Newmarket, East Gwillimbury, Bradford, Barrie South and Allandale Waterfront; and
- A new train layover facility within the Town of Bradford West Gwillimbury for overnight storage of trains.

30-day Public Review Period Begins August 9

The environmental effects of this transit project were assessed and an EPR prepared according to the Transit Project Assessment Process as prescribed in Ontario Regulation 231/08, Transit Projects and Metrolinx Undertakings. Walker special guest at Sip & Savour fundraiser

By Mark Pavilons

The sights, sounds and tastes of England will be on tap for visitors to the 4th annual Sip & Savour fundraiser, slated for Oct. 19 at Nobleton Lakes.

The gala evening of fun and food is the major fundraiser for the King Township Food Bank and runs 6-9 p.m. that evening.

The special guest this year is King philanthropist Joan Kelley Walker.

Most recently, Walker was one of the stars on the TV reality show The Real Housewives of Toronto.

Joan has been involved in humanitarian work for the past 18 years and most recently visited Cambodia, via World Vision's "Starting Strong" program that protects children from life-long stunting and premature death. The program focusses on the health of mothers during pregnancy and newborn health and nutrition.

The World Vision ambassador and advocate has received the Mother Teresa Award from Athol Murray College of Notre Dame and a Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal as well as World Vision's highest award – "Heroes for Children-Power of Generosity Award."

Joan has served as Chair of the United Way of York Region's Women's Leadership Counsel. She volunteers locally with Neighborhood Network and has served on Committee for "Right to Play."

Walker and her husband Don, CEO of Magna International, are passionate philanthropists. Don was named Canada's Outstanding CEO of the Year for 2014.

For this 4th annual fundraiser, Méliné Beach has come on board to serve as event coordinator.

This event expects to raise $40,000 which will be half of the annual budget needed to help over 200 residents of King who struggle to make ends meet. Just this month, the Food Bank notes that 49% of recipients are seniors or children, the most vulnerable sectors of the population. About 5% of the budget is needed for overhead – rent and insurance being the largest factors.

The King Food Bank promises a week of non-perishable groceries, in contrast to many food banks that can only manage a couple of days. And they also offer the option of food cards; a boon to those who have dietary issues, and giving dignity instead of a "hand-out."

Sip & Savour organizers are hoping to attract more local celebrities to make this gala the best ever.

Knee Pain: New Approach Delivers Remarkable Results

If you suffer from Knee Pain (Injury/strain/tendonitis/Arthritis) you need to be aware of effective advancements that can eliminate years of pain, suffering, immobility and frustration.

You may have told your doctor you suffer with one or more of the following: sore, stiff, painful knee, "clicking" sound with movement, difficulty bending at the knee.

You may find that your pain or stiffness affects your work, housekeeping, leisure activities, exercise, sports or other activities. You go to the drug store or to your doctor and get pills to help relieve your pain. But you find the pain keeps returning. Alternatively, the doctor may refer you to a specialist who may tell you that surgery is needed or is an option for you.

However, many people are hesitant to have surgery given its invasive nature. It is important to know that although surgery is sometimes necessary, it is considered a last resort in most cases.

Also, you may have heard that there are serious health risks associated with chronic use (or overuse) of pain pills or anti-inflammatory drugs that include damage to the liver, kidneys and gut.

There is a new, natural, safe and highly effective approach that has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically: *Laser therapy uses light to favor and accelerate the body's natural healing processes. TREB releases housing data following King summit

By Mark Pavilons

Despite a reported drop in house prices across the GTA, the market itself seems quite robust.

That was the message delivered by representatives of The Toronto Real Estate Board, who hosted an economic summit recently at the Cardinal in King.

The market, and data from a TREB-commissioned consumer survey were revealed, showing a substantial number of homeowners may sell and buy homes in the coming year.

Highlights of the new Ipsos consumer research, conducted from May 23-29, on home buyers and home sellers includes:

- 30 per cent of GTA households are very likely (12 per cent) or somewhat likely (18 per cent) to list their house over the next year.

- 15 per cent of households said that the Fair Housing Plan was the primary reason why they would list their home for sale over the next year.

- Close to 80 per cent of households who said they were likely to list their home said they would be purchasing another home.

“The Ipsos survey results suggest that many households plan to list their home for sale over the next year. We have certainly reported an increase in listings. However, it is interesting to note that almost 80 per cent of these households will be purchasing another home. This means that these households are not exiting the home ownership market, but, instead, changing the type or location of home they will own,” said Jason Mercer, TREB’s director of market analysis.

- 35 per cent of households surveyed indicated that they were very likely (13 per cent) or likely (22 per cent) to purchase a home over the next year. Taking into account the margin of error, buying intentions were similar to what was reported from the Ipsos survey conducted for TREB in the fall of 2016.

- There was a marked decline in the number of intending first-time buyers compared to the fall. In the May survey, 40 per cent of likely buyers indicated they would be first-time buyers, which was down from 53 per cent in Ipsos’ fall survey.

- 10 per cent of households who said they would NOT purchase a home over the next year said the Fair Housing Plan was the key factor in this decision (one per cent) or a contributing factor (nine per cent).

“It makes sense that some first-time buyers have decided to at least temporarily put their decision to purchase a home on hold. First-time buyers are more flexible, and can take a wait-and-see approach. They could also re-enter the market quickly once they make the decision to purchase,” continued Mercer.

“While we have certainly experienced a dip in sales and an increase in listings over the past two months, the Ipsos survey results suggest that there are still many consumers considering the purchase of a home over the next year. This could reflect the fact that new policies, like those contained in the Ontario Fair Housing Plan, can have an initial psychological impact before long-term impacts become clear,” said TREB President Larry Cerqua.

On July 6, TREB will be releasing a market outlook at a media briefing event to report on new survey data, MLS® Sales through June, and speculation on the impact of historically low interest rates.

Over 48,000 residential and commercial TREB Members serve consumers in the Greater Toronto Area. TREB is Canada’s largest real estate board.

Screening for documentary, 'The Other Side of the Hero'

By Mark Pavilons

A ground-breaking documentary with roots in King, will be shown to the public.

"The Other Side of The Hero," is a new independent documentary that takes us into that world of the first responder we rarely see: life out of uniform.

Actor and King resident Enrico Colantoni, who played Sgt. Greg Parker for five years on the international hit series Flashpoint, is our guide on this journey.

We'll get to know first responders through their families, their spouses, their co-workers, and themselves; people who have experienced the flip-side of what can happen when a hero discovers that they are not emotionally immune to all that they deal with during their shifts.

The film is produced by Colantoni and Karen Shopsowitz.

A portion of the proceeds from the screening will be donated to The Tema Conter Memorial Trust (www.tema.ca), an organization formed by King resident Vince Savoia.

The film was a team effort with Heroes are Human/Tema Conter Memorial Trust, Peabody-award-winning Canadian director Shopsowitz and Colantoni, who has been a spokesperson for Tema Conter for several years.

Savoia, founder of Heroes are Human, has been diligently working on making PTSD among responders a national issue.

The film will plunge viewers into the world of the first responder; the camaraderie and dark humour back at the station and the flip side to all of this - depression, darkness and solitude. These are what happen when a "hero" discovers they are not emotionally immune to what they encounter during a typical shift at work.

Things are changing and the consciousness is growing bigger and bigger. This cause is still grass-roots, Colantoni observed, but "we're on the right road."

The level of increased awareness is seen in small communities. Savoia led a cross-Canada tour, doing workshops and presentations literally from coast to coast.

"It's very exciting when you meet people who fill a need in their own community," Colantoni said. By featuring the testimony of other human beings, the impacts can "become viral."

Savoia pointed out that not every first responder will be affected by PTSD, but the resources need to be in place to deal with them when they do need help.

The film will be shown Wednesday, Aug. 23, at 8 p.m. at The Regent Theatre, 551 Mt. Pleasant Road, Toronto.

Kitchen retires after 30 years with Township

By Mark Pavilons

King Township has weathered many storms, but thanks to the effort of its most senior of staffers, residents are in good hands.

Planning director Stephen Kitchen retired after serving King for the past three decades.

Mayor Steve Pellegrini recognized Kitchen at a recent council meeting, noting he's been an outstanding resource to council, and mentor to staff. He likened him to the "father of the family" who's led the planning department through numerous changes and improvements over the years.

"May the next phase bring you all you seek, and much more," the mayor said.

Kitchen said it's been "very rewarding" and an "honour" to serve. He praised the strong senior management team who will carry the Township forward.

With King's Official Plan nearing completion, and the implementation of local zoning bylaws and various master plans, the lion's share of the work has been done, setting the stage for the future.

Kitchen said he believes King is evolving pretty much as it should. New projects planned for Keele Street in King City will make the core a hub of activity. With improvements to the GO station and increased ridership on local bus routes, we're seeing a lower dependence on the automobile.

He noted one of the most rewarding occurrences during his career was the broadening of the housing stock across the municipality. "It's great to see such alternative forms of housing," he said.

He lauded the staff, not just from the planning department, but in all Township departments. Staff work together in a cohesive, cooperative manner which made working in King a joy. He's also pleased that planning staff are able to work on a huge variety of projects to broaden their knowledge.

King was quite different in 1987 when Kitchen joined on a one-year contract.

During the early part of his tenure, farm accessory buildings and residential builds were popular as there was limited commercial or industrial activity. A lack of services hindered residents' plans for additions to their homes and the main thing that stalled development was a lack of water and sewer infrastructure.

The debate over the "big pipe" coming to King City was extremely controversial that resulted in fear, anger and frustration. Many long-time residents believed the addition of water and sewers would lead to explosive growth.

The delays for the big pipe coming to King City saw the services coming at roughly the same time as those arriving in Nobleton, leading to a huge financial strain on the municipality.

In the end, both Nobleton and King City are growing as planned and the influx of new residents are quickly becoming part of the community fabric. Even the large-scale projects planned for King City are being closely monitored by staff and council, to ensure things progress as desired.

The provincial growth plan and changes to greenbelt and Oak Ridges Moraine policies are generally in keeping with the philosophy in King – preserve the open space and direct development to the towns and villages.

Kitchen will, unfortunately, miss the opening of the new municipal office building. He did say this relocation is a great opportunity.

Stephen Kitchen won't be missed by King Township. He impacted almost every planning policy and master plan we currently enjoy. And leaving King a much better place than he found it is his legacy.

Self Employed?

3 Ways You Can Obtain a Great Mortgage

Many Canadians find self-employment to be highly exhilarating and rewarding. In Aurora and Newmarket there are over 8,200 self-employed people pursuing their passions and the numbers are growing.

While most of the self-employed prefer being their own boss, they often struggle with obtaining a mortgage.

These borrowers do not meet the bank's lending criteria for income requirements, and are therefore turned down. Banks require that they use their tax assessments to qualify for a mortgage. While maximizing expenses, their tax return may show a significantly lower figure than what they actually take home as income.

There is some good news however. If done right, securing a mortgage can be quite easy.

Some common advice has been to simply write off fewer expenses in the two years leading up to the property purchase or mortgage refinancing. However, this defeats the purpose of self-employment and results in paying more taxes.

Instead, self-employed individuals are taking advantage of these 3 different ways to qualify for a mortgage, whether for purchasing or refinancing.

QUALIFY WITH BUSINESS REVENUE

"We take into consideration all sources of the client's income, including stated business income, something the banks don't do," said Victor Camba, a mortgage agent who specializes in matching self-employed borrowers with lenders.

There are specialized programs for those who have a proven history of managing their business, credit and finances responsibly. Unlike at the banks, consideration is given to the borrower's business revenue in addition to personal income. Generally, a self-employed borrower can qualify and obtain a great rate if they can prove their business activity can support the desired mortgage and they have a minimum 20% down payment.

QUALIFY WITH NET-WORTH

There is a new program ideal for self-employed borrowers who have accumulated net-worth and have at least 25% down-payment. There is no income verification for qualification. In addition to the down-payment, the borrower's net-worth must be at least 20% of the size of the mortgage, and may include liquid assets such as cash and investments.

As an example, if the desired mortgage is $400,000, the borrower is required to have a down-payment of $100,000 and additional assets of $80,000 in cash or investments, such as RRSP or mutual funds.

QUALIFY WITH A DOWN-PAYMENT

This program rewards business owners who have managed to save and can provide a down-payment of at least 50%. This program is also ideal for borrowers who are looking to downsize and carry a smaller mortgage. There is no income verification, but good credit is required.

"The fact is, many self-employed individuals and business owners are unaware of their options," said Victor. "They would greatly benefit from working with a mortgage broker specialist who understands their specific needs and the complexities of the market."

An experienced mortgage broker will also have close professional relationships with multiple lending institutions. This increases the chance of getting the borrower an approval, as well as obtaining attractive rates.

"We do all the heavy lifting for our clients – the paperwork, the rate comparisons, and negotiations," said Victor.

The road to home-ownership for the self-employed may be a bit more of a challenge than for others; however, by being prepared and knowing available options, they too can enjoy the fruits of their hard-earned labour as home-owners. If you are self-employed and looking for some advice, contact Victor today for a free consultation.

Lions fall in OVFL finals

By Jake Courtepatte

A pair of hard-fought efforts came up just short for the York Region Lions on Saturday as they battled in both the Bantam and Varsity Ontario Varsity Football League championships.

The top-ranked Bantam squad first met with the offensive juggernaut Brampton Bulldogs at Ron Joyce Stadium in Hamilton, home of the McMaster Marauders. They were in tough against a team that scored a whopping 357 points in the regular season, the most in Bantam football, and fell by a score of 32-20.

Wide receiver Jared Goldin was named the offensive MVP for the Lions, while Liam Taylor took home the defensive prize for managing four tackles and causing a fumble.

Following the Junior Varsity championship, that saw the Ottawa Myers Riders preside over the Etobicoke Eagles, the Varsity Lions met the Varsity Eagles in what would prove to be the day's most exciting matchup.

Sharing just three losses between the two teams and heading into the postseason as the number one and two-ranked teams in the province, neither side was willing to give up much leeway in the first three quarters.

Heading into the final three minutes with a 21-20 lead, the Lions allowed the Eagles to reach the sixteen-yard line before a bad snap on second down sent the Eagles back to the twenty-eight.

A quarterback scramble was enough to confuse the Lions and bring the Eagles back to the sixteen, setting up a 23-yard field goal that they sent through the uprights.

With the Lions scrambling to gain some ground on their final drive of the game, they were able to move the chains to the Eagles' 32-yard line, setting up a monstrous 39-yard field goal attempt that ultimately came up just short.

University of Toronto Varsity Blues commit Nolan Lovegrove earned offensive MVP honours for his work as a wide receiver, averaging around fifteen yards per carry throughout the twelve weeks of the season, while linebacker Andrew Pizzuti was named defensive MVP.

Casullo named to NCAA All-American Scholars List

By Jake Courtepatte

An Aurora native is at the top of his class not only on the golf course but in the classroom as well.

Marc Casullo, fresh off his junior year at Francis Marion University in South Carolina, has been named to the Srixon/Cleveland Golf All-America Scholars List for the 2016-17 season.

"Prioritizing schoolwork while travelling to tournaments was a challenge," said Casullo, one of two members of the Patriots golf team to make the list. "Organization and time management skills are important."

To be eligible for the list, an individual must be a junior or a senior academically, have competed in at least three full years at the collegiate level, participated in fifty per cent of his team's competitive rounds, have a stroke-average under 76.0, and maintain a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 3.2.

According to the team website, a recipient must also be of "high moral character" and "in good standing with his institution", of which Casullo shows in spades, as a member of both the Beta Gamma Sigma and Chi Alpha Sigma honour societies.

He has also been named to the PBC Presidential Honor Roll three times and the FMU Swamp Fox Athletic-Academic Honor Roll six times.

Raised in Aurora, Casullo became competitive on the golf course when he attended Villanova College in King City, where he spent all four years on the school's varsity golf team.

Placing sixth overall in his grade eleven year at OFSAA, it was in his final season that he really began to turn heads, closing out his time at Villanova with a CISAA title.

Earning Most Valuable Player three times as a Knight, he earned the opportunity to play in the NCAA's Division-I against the nation's top collegiate golfers.

This past season, he carded a 75.79 stroke average, while playing in all eleven events. He recorded one Top-15 finish and four top-50 finishes.

His career stroke average stands at 75.63 for 75 rounds.

Playing a mental game requiring a ton of practice, Casullo said communication is key in balancing out a busy lifestyle.

"Getting to know my professors and keeping them on track when I'm going to be away at tournaments and getting help outside of class was extremely vital to maintain good grades," he said. "This allows me to have the time to still practice and play a lot, while also performing well in the classroom."

The finance major, who enjoys "learning about the stock markets and investments", will head into his senior year looking to continue his success both academically and athletically.

"If I continue to see steady improvement, my goal after university is to continue my golf career and give it a few years to see if it can potentially be a profession."

If it doesn't pan out, he is willing to continue to teach the game he loves and try his hand at the world of finance.

A big thank you to Sandra Kirby for leading worship on Sunday. Sandra spoke about the important role women played over the centuries in the writing of hymns. Their writings have been instrumental in developing our faith in God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

One favourite writer of Sandra's is Fanny Crosby. Sandra gave background for the music and then everyone sang "All The Way My Saviour Leads Me" as well as "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Saviour."

Glenn Ferguson spoke about a member, William Heaslip whose memorial service will be on Saturday, Aug. 12 at 2 p.m. at King City UC. Bill had an important role in the church as he worked with the architect who designed our building.

We've got mail. Rev. Evelyn asked that anyone travelling this summer send a postcard or email back to the church to be posted for the congregation. We are starting to get responses. Remember that there will be a prize once again for the person who has travelled the farthest (or maybe sent the most postcards). Wherever you travel, find time to join another community of faith in worship and bring them greetings from King City UC.

If your Friday mornings are free and you desire something a little different for breakfast, join us for Tea and Talk at King City Sunset Grill Friday mornings at 10 a.m. We usually are seated at the table to the right of the doors. This is a time to make some new friends, enjoy a delicious breakfast and discuss the latest news or scores.

Please remember that King City United will hold worship services every Sunday morning at 10 a.m. during the summer. Join us and give thanks for the gifts we enjoy as residents of this beautiful area. Sunday school, for the young people, will resume in the fall. Young folk are welcome to join their family in the Sanctuary for worship and participate in a story for children every Sunday.

King City United is located at 50 Elizabeth Grove, King City. For more information, call our Office Administrator Kristen at 905-833-5181 or visit our website: www.kcuc.ca

KCSC Travel Club

The last trip of the year for the KCSC Travel Club will be a mystery tour with lunch included. It is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 3. The coach will leave the King City arena at 8:30 a.m. and return at 5:30 p.m. The cost is $106 per person. To book your seat, please call Jane at 905-833-5870.

We welcome you to join us for Worship Service on August 6 as Pastor Mark will be continuing our Book of Revelation Series with "How Will You Respond to Babylon's Fall?"

Please take advantage of our excellent children's ministry. Our Sunday morning "Celebration Zone" provides age-appropriate programs for children aged 4 to Grade 8. Our children's program is staffed by screened volunteers who care about your kids! The children in Grades 1-8 will join their parents for the beginning of the service until they are invited to go downstairs. The children in kindergarten can go directly to their class at the start of the service.

If you have children aged 0-3 then we invite you to bring them to our beautiful and safe nursery facilities which are located on the lower level. Caregivers will meet you there.

At Operation Arctic, kids will learn about the coolest book on the planet (the Bible!) as they enjoy songs, crafts, games, goodies, and dramas.

St. Andrew's

St. Andrew's invites you to join us this Sunday when Alison Agnew, a former Elder at St. Andrew's will be back to lead us in Worship.

Last Sunday we were pleased to have Pastor John Mills back with us. How exciting and encouraging it was to hear his message from God's word about God's faithfulness to His people. How is our faith in Him and His Word. Are we praising Him for what He is about to do in our lives, our families, our churches?

Over the summer, children are welcome to sit with their parents in the sanctuary and quiet activities are available for them. A nursery is also available. Join us for coffee after the service.

This summer we are encouraging folks to pray while they take a walk! Pamphlets are available that may be used as a guide. Anyone may participate at anytime, wherever, with others or on their own. Let's get out there. God will be listening! Call the office if would like some pamphlets for your prayer walk.

As wildfires remain active in B.C., please continue to pray for the affected communities and the first responders. Check out www.presbyterian.ca for reports regarding the Cariboo Mission.

Our church office number is 905-833-2325. We are located at 13190 Keele St., 2 blocks north of the King Rd. A ramp is available for accessibility. All Saints Anglican Church
By Diana Armitage

Our summer worship schedule continues through August with 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. services in our chapel. Beautiful organ music at the 10 a.m. service is provided by Lavinia.

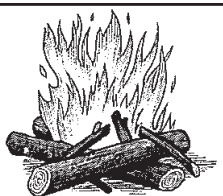

We welcome Reverend Claire Godrich-Dyer for the month of August while Reverend Elizabeth is away.

Thank you to Justin Grounds for playing his violin at last Sunday's 10 a.m. service. It was a treat to hear him again and to visit with Alison and Ari.

Nobleton United Church By Nancy Hopkinson

Nobleton United is joining Schomberg United for August. We will be enjoying services in Schomberg as follows:

On Aug. 13 at 10:30 a.m. at St. Mary Magdalene, 116 Church St., we will join Schomberg United and the Schomberg Anglicans for an Anglican lay-led morning prayer service.

On Aug. 20 at 10:30 a.m. also at St. Mary Magdalene for an Anglican Communion service led by Rev. Sheilagh Ashworth.

On Aug. 27, at 10:30 a.m. there is an ecumenical service with Anglicans, Presbyterians, and United Church people at the Dufferin Marsh in Schomberg. Park on Dr. Kay Dr. All three ministers are involved and sharing the service. All are welcome. Refreshments and snacks afterwards. Please bring something for the refreshment table if you can.

The August Senior's Luncheon is available to all local seniors on Tuesday, Aug. 29, at noon at 116 Church St., featuring BBQ hamburgers, hotdogs, sausages and salads. Local entertainment. For info, call Sheila 905-939-2315.

The picnic at Jack and Kim Campbells was a lot of fun. The Front Porch Harmony sang many songs. Minister Carol-Ann Chapman gave a brief message and then everyone socialized, ate from the BBQ and the pot luck salads and desserts. The younger folk used the trampoline, did cannonballs from the diving board, went on the swings and the slide and found frogs in the stream. The older folk sang "Happy Birthday" to Betty Huisman and enjoyed her birthday cake.

If you would like to meet Minister Carol-Ann Chapman, come to Sunday service, Wednesday service or phone the church and make an appointment. You are welcome to come to the church to meet, or Carol-Ann can visit you. Carol-Ann will be taking two weeks holidays in August, and returns Aug. 22.

For more info, visit nobletonunitedchurch.com, our Facebook page, or call 905-859-3976. Messages are picked up regularly. We are located at 6076 King Rd., north side, about 6 buildings west of Hwy 27. We have a big parking lot at the rear of the building, an accessible ramp at the rear of the building, chair lifts and accessible washrooms.

Anglican Parish By John Arnott

To put it bluntly Christians believe Jesus came to this Earth to kick ass, shaking up the status quo by challenging authority that had become only interested in acquiring power and wealth and practising ritual for ritual's sake, thus neglecting to care for the many poor and help the downtrodden people, over whom they ruled, to improve the quality of their lives in the 1st century AD.

His message and approach regarding this mission were certainly unconventional and seen as even radical by some.

Now there are many questions about this Jesus dude at the heart of Christianity, the most vital one asking "Did he really exist?" The St. Alban's Anglican community in Nobleton with Christians worldwide answer this with a most emphatic yes he did!

This being, whose existence is only documented in the Bible, holy book of the Jews (Old Testament) and Christians (New Testament) and the Koran, holy book of the Muslims seems to have two natures - one spiritual and one human. Who then was Jesus the man?

God would not have created a son who had just a human veneer stretched over a spiritual core. His son was to be fully human but with a spiritual element only rarely evident and always under His control. Jesus, the man, like all humans, had a will and could freely chose to do right or wrong. As a human he would not only experience life, joy, love, acceptance, friendship, praise, adulation, but frustration, disappointment, rejection, betrayal loneliness, sorrow, physical and mental pain and finally death.

He came into the world in the natural way and in spite of what the old carol says he, as a baby, would have cried when he was hungry or needed changing. He would have grown up a normal boy with his share of smiles and tears. He would have played with varying amounts of skill competitive games with boys his own age, and getting into scrapes with his mates he would give as good as he got resulting in the odd black eye or swollen lip! No doubt he was well aware of girls from an early age.

York Pines United Church

The Vacation Bible Camp, known as "Camp Awesome" at York Pines will run from August 21 to 25 each day from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. This camp is for children aged 5-12. The cost is $60 per child and space is limited! This cost includes lunch and snacks.

This year's camp theme will be "Make A Joyful Noise!" This springs out of the 100th Psalm. Using the Song of Faith and stories from the Bible, we will have fun making our own joyful noise. Come for games, stories, crafts, songs, fun and adventure! Registration space is limited! For more information or to register, please contact the church office.

Registration space is limited! For more information or to register, please contact the church office at 905-727-8118 or check out our website for the registration form and waiver form.

York Pines closes for the month of July. We will resume services on Sunday, Aug. 6.

We wish everyone a safe and happy summer!

You can follow what's happening at the church by visiting our website <http://ypuc.ca/calendar.html>; our facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/yorkpinesunitedchurch/>

If you'd like some summer reading suggestions, visit our website for next year's book club selections. September's book is "A Number of Things" by Jane Urquhart - Stories of Canada told through 50 Objects.

Schomberg Agricultural Society

The regular price to get into the CNE is $19 per adult. Through the Ag Society, Cyndy Rowlands is holding tickets that you can get for $14 per person if purchased before Aug. 18.

Normally the Fair Board sponsors a bus down to the Ex on the day that the Ambassador of the Fair (Miss CNE) is picked, but Schomberg had no entry this year so there is no bus. So, if you do go on the 19th, check out the competition. Most of the fairs in Ontario are represented and it is a wonderful competition to watch.

Just as a side note- Doug Palmer, a resident of Schomberg since 1950 and the owner of the Carlsberg Horse Team, that we used to see all over the country and the TV, as president of the Ag Society created the Miss Schomberg contest. As president of the CNE, the next year, 1971, created the Miss CNE Contest which initially involved over 107 Fairs throughout Ontario.

It is important for Schombergians to know that our very own Doug Palmer started all this. His wife Irene, continued to be a vice-president of Agriculture of the CNE for many years. This couple was passionate about maintaining and sustaining our Agricultural resources, knowledge and way of life.

Think of it - without agriculture, where would we all be?

So, if you want one of these tickets, please call Cyndy at 905-939-7158.

Nobleton Notes

At school he probably struggled with Greek, the lingua franca of the day, and was no hell at math but in general must have been a capable student as he went on to higher studies eventually becoming a rabbi.

He likely hated broccoli and had to be reminded more than once to tidy up his room - aww mom! And endure one or more of those father son chats.

While at work in the carpenter shop he probably, exclaimed the Aramaic equivalent of the f-word or s-word when he took a sharp sliver or accidentally hammered his thumb. But he would never have taken God's name in vain.

And of course he would have realized early he was big brother to his siblings and been encouraged to set a good example.

In Jerusalem continuing his studies, a part time job was necessary to support himself probably using his skills as carpenter/stone mason. During school holidays he would have worked with his dad. Little is known about Joseph, Jesus's Earthly father. He fades from biblical accounts just after Jesus's Bar Mitzvah. If in fact he had died after Jesus had graduated but was still at home Jesus would possibly have taken over running the family business until one of his brothers was old enough and skilled enough to take over.

Now Jesus would be free to leave home and begin his mission.

Jesus, the man would get hungry, thirsty and tired. And he had to answer the call of nature even on itinerant travels where he and his companions braved the elements and slept rough. Here the valuable survival skills he learned from time spent camping with his cousin the baptist, John in the semi desert wilds of Judea were put to good use.

He may have even been irritable at times and his anger with the money changers on the Temple grounds is a matter of biblical record. He would have had minor illnesses colds, flu and stomach upsets. He bled, he spit, he wept. And he sported a sense of humour when he jokingly told his closest followers - get the plank out of your own eye (correct yourself) before you try to remove the speck in your brother's eye (correct someone else)!

A bachelor away from home living on his own he would need to rent or to own digs. He must have had to shop for food, clothes and household articles brushing up on site the bartering, haggling and bargaining skills he picked up from being with his grandmother in the local Nazareth bazaars.

This Jesus man from the get go was truly human!
