Spring Hill Soup Fest supports firefighters

The residents of Spring Hill in King City hosted their annual Soup Fest Nov. 16. In recognition of the valuable services provided to the community four representatives of the King City Fires Service were invited to attend and their annual Turkey Shoot fundraiser was included in the festivities. The money raised goes to support the following: The Canadian Cancer Society, the Heart and Stroke Foundation, the King Township Food Bank and the King City Firefighters Benevolent Fund. In total over $500 was raised.

The turkey shoot will be held on Nov. 25 and the winners will be contacted by the firefighter who sold their winning ticket and are expected to be delivered around mid-December. The firefighters were enthusiastically welcomed by the residents and the firefighters thanked everyone in attendance for their generous support of the turkey shoot.

The evening provided a welcome opportunity for the residents to meet and talk to the firefighters in a non-emergency situation. It was a great learning experience for all concerned.

The support of the residents is deeply appreciated. Congratulations go to Bernie Moyle and Karen Booth, who led this event.

Notice of Complete Application and Public Meeting Concerning a Proposed Zoning By-Law Amendment

The public are invited to attend a public meeting to be held by the Council of the Corporation of the Township of King on:

Monday, December 11th, 2017 AT 6:00 P.M.

at the Township of King Council Chambers at 2075 King Road, King City to receive information and provide comments on a proposed Zoning By-law Amendment under Section 34 of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter P.13.

Subject Property

Location: 13 Patton Street, King City, ON

Plan 356, Lot 7

Owner: Evran Properties Ltd.

Applicant: Township of King

File Number: Z-2017-09

What Are The Proposed Changes?

The proposed Zoning By-law Amendment submitted by the Township of King under Planning File Z-2017-09 concerns a site located on the east side of Patton Street, approximately 38 metres south of King Road, and municipally known as 13 Patton Street. The subject property is vacant and is under the same ownership as two adjacent lots to the north fronting on King Road. The lot measures approximately 836 square metres (0.2 acres) with 15.24 metres (50 feet) of frontage and is currently zoned Open Space (OS) under Zoning By-law 2017-66.

The purpose of the Zoning By-law Amendment application is to re-zone the subject lot from Open Space (OS) to Core Area – King City (CAK) Exception, to include site specific permissions for a parking area and a planting strip. The application is being filed to re-introduce permissions that were granted under a previous by-law but were omitted in the new by-law in error. The application will facilitate the future development of abutting lots situated in the core area that are under the same ownership.

Appeal Procedure

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the Township of King before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of the Township of King Council to the Ontario Municipal Board.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, or make written submissions to the Township of King before the proposed zoning by-law amendment is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Municipal Board unless, in the opinion of the Board, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

Any person may attend the public meeting and/or make written or verbal representation either in support of or in opposition to the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment.

How to Stay Informed

If you wish to be notified of the passing of the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment, you must make a written request to the Clerk of the Township of King, 2075 King Road, King City, ON L7B 1A1. Written comments will become part of the public record.

Additional Information

The proposed Zoning By-law Amendment, including the proposed Draft Zoning By-law for the site, is available for inspection at the Township Office between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., or inquiries may be directed to Paul Kulyk, Planning Department (pkulyk@king.ca), quoting File Number Z-2017-09 at (905) 833-5321.

Dated at The Township of King this 21st day of November, 2017.

Nobleton sanitary sewer project Phase 2

Council recently approved contract areas 1 and 2 for construction. A total of 74 properties will be able to be connected to the sewer system. When completed the work is subject to a capital charge.

A public information centre is being held on Dec. 6 to provide residents with information about the project.

If your property is part of contract 1 and 2, you will receive a notice.

An additional 32 properties – mostly on Russell Snider Drive – may be added to the contracts depending on the Township receiving additional federal and provincial funds.

Project: Nobleton Sanitary Sewer - Phase 2 - Contracts 1 and 2

When: Dec. 6, 2017 – 6:30 pm to 8 pm

Where: 13375 Highway 27 - Nobleton Public School

Connecting to the sanitary sewer system is important in order to protect and preserve source drinking water and the environment. The project completion is expected to be by the end of 2018.

There are currently no plans for future servicing in the phase two area at this time.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please contact Wayne Pinkney at 905-833-4575 or by email at nobletonsewers@king.ca.

Community voices opposition to townhouse project

By Mark Pavilons

Hot on the heels of a vocal public meeting, word has come of a pending Ontario Municipal Board (OMB) appeal into a Schomberg townhouse development.

Residents packed the King council chambers recently to register their opposition to a proposal by King Ridge Developments to build 32 townhouses and remove a century home on Main Street in Schomberg.

According to Gaspare Ritacca, King's manager of planning and development, they received word that the proponent is appealing the zoning bylaw on the grounds of a non-decision by council within an allotted time period (120 days). While Ritacca said staff did their best to deal with this matter expeditiously, the set timeline is "aggressive."

Ritacca pointed out the zoning bylaw is predicated on the pending Official Plan amendment, so it's a bit of a catch-22.

While the appeal is in the offing, Ritacca said the applicant is exercising his options, but the intent is to move forward and cooperate with the Township on addressing the concerns with the application. Hopes are the parties will come to an agreement before the matter reaches the OMB.

During the council meeting, the message from the community was made loud and clear – keep a century home and lower the density.

Applause broke out on several occasions when residents spelled out clearly the drawbacks, and potential compromises, to this plan, delivered at the public information meeting.

Councillors, staff and representatives of the developer heard the message, repeated many times during the marathon, three-hour discussion.

Mayor Steve Pellegrini said he's proud that people can come out, voice their concerns. "Here, you have a council that listens. It proves this (process) works," he said.

The consensus, from councillors and staff, is this proposal, as presented, does not fit in with the present community and there's still a lot of work to do to make it fit in.

In the end, council voted to receive the staff report. The developer's consultant will take the concerns to his client and continue to work with staff on the details of this proposal. Staff will continue to meet with the applicant to review and address all concerns.

While most oppose the density, few were against building on the unique, three-acre parcel tucked behind bungalows on Main and Cooper.

King Ridge is looking for an OP and zoning bylaw amendment to change the lands to medium density, to permit their townhouse project. The plan is to arrange the townhouses in blocks, ranging from three to six units, with one semi-detached home. Units will be two-storeys, with three to four bedrooms, measuring 1,633 to 1,950 square feet.

As it stands, the developer would like to remove the old home on the site, as well as more than 100 trees along the north property line.

It's an irregular shaped parcel with 35.65 metres of frontage on Main Street. The property contains a portion of the Schomberg Creek. The property is currently zoned low density residential in the Schomberg Community Plan, and includes an environmental constraint area.

King's policies do acknowledge infilling for Schomberg. However, staff identified concerns with access, traffic, parking, stormwater management.

Staff noted the height of the townhouses may cause some concern to adjacent homeowners.

Some of the contention lies in the home used by the Hollingshead and Coburn families. An expert hired by the applicant said there's no merit in designating the property under the Ontario Heritage Act, but there is merit in commemorating the site with a plaque. The property is on the Township's Heritage Register for its architectural and historic features.

Kevin Bechard, from Weston Consulting, appeared on behalf of the developer. He said they are in a "listening mode" and have noted the areas of concern in the staff report and by residents.

He pointed out this project will provide needed housing options in the community and these units would be suitable for new owners or those looking to downsize.

"There are members of the community looking for this type of housing," he said.

They did have the century home evaluated and Bechard said there are structural problems with the building.

Residents did not hesitate in expressing their opposition.

Editorial, Letters & Opinion

"Public opinion shapes our destinies and guides the progress of human affairs"

~ Frank B. Kellogg

Re-examining fatherhood and faith

I no longer have a dad to provide fatherly advice. I no longer have a mom or big sister to help me get in touch with my feminine side.

It's been some time since I had any of these shoulders to lean on. We make do with what we have and what we've been given.

While I love music from the 1970s and '80s, I don't tend to dwell on the past. I've always said, if you must look back, keep one foot on the gas!

Faith is a funny thing. My dad was Catholic and my mom was Lutheran, but their faith was shattered by the horrors of the Second World War. Neither spoke much about it, but the stories I did hear continue to haunt me.

The fact they made it, found each other and came to Canada is against all odds. I'm so glad they did for obvious reasons. To me, that's more than a series of coincidences or twists of fate.

I had time to reflect on these things when I wrote my son a letter, something he will take on a spiritual retreat with him. I found myself praising my son, pointing out his good qualities. I wrote that life will present many challenges, and we have to face them with focus, fortitude and inner strength. Where he draws that strength is up to him, but I wanted him to know he is not defined by his accomplishments, but by the content of his character and the goodness inside. Plus, we all have his back, as it should be.

As I said, faith is a fickle thing. For many, it's a great source of comfort, hope and yes, strength.

I found some early in 2017 during a humanitarian mission trip to the Dominican Republic. There, in the Basílica Catedral Nuestra Señora de la Altagracia, a cathedral in Higüey, a miracle is honoured. A long time ago a young girl asked her father for a portrait of the Virgin Mary. Her father brought the picture as gift for her. It is believed that the portrait was placed at their house, and for some reason, at the break of dawn of each day, the portrait was always found outside the house, beneath a small tree. Every day this portrait was moved back inside by the girl, until she told her parents about it. The place became sacred, and the basilica was built on that same spot as reference of Mary's grace.

I find stories like this fascinating. The DR is also home to some of the oldest churches in the Americas.

During our mission work, I found that faith is the only source of strength for some of the desperate Haitians who toil for meagre wages. I brought along many crosses to give out and they were very much appreciated.

My son is going on his third trip this coming January and oh, how I wish I could return to those remote villages and show them that they are loved.

In the past year or so, I've taken up a new-found interest in antiquities, particularly bronze crosses, pendants and medallions from the dawn of Christianity through the Middle Ages. I find these interesting because back then religion was so very important to people and it was something they held close to their heart. Peasants and the wealthy alike displayed their faith openly. So when I come across a nice, affordable piece online, I snatch it up.

My wife doesn't believe that these items are relics, but rather modern copies. I try to do as much research as I can to ensure they're the real deal. Some are affordable, for the very fact that long ago, things like coins, crosses and good luck charms were churned out by blacksmiths and metallurgists on a constant basis. People from far and wide traded them and wore them proudly. Things like arrowheads and Roman coins are abundant because they were produced in such large quantities. Many are affordable, but of course, some are priceless. I am amazed by holding a piece of history, something that has survived for thousands of years.

I have one Byzantine coin minted in 1,000 AD that I find simply amazing. On one side is the image of Christ, on the other, the words "IHESUS XRISTUS BASILEU BASILE." Experts say the first two words are part of a phrase that translates to "May Jesus Christ conquer." This is the first appearance of the current term on U.S. currency - "In God We Trust."

I will continue to search for more of these trinkets from our past. In a strange way, they give me strength, just knowing they're in my pocket every day.

I have also found some new evidence of faith in recent years. I'm a huge fan of the supernatural and love shows that depict exorcisms. My wife can't watch them because she finds them too unsettling. What I have come up with is this. Exorcisms have been performed the world over and some of these documented incidents have no rational explanation. My argument is, if there are demons then there must be angels. In other words, if there is evil, there must be good, the form of a supreme being (God).

I have also seen a ghost. It was the spiritual leftovers of my uncle who passed away one night long ago and his last words to his wife was that he wanted to visit his relatives in Canada. It was a weird, but really cool experience.

Again, I argue that if spirits exist, there must be an afterlife. If there's an afterlife, there must be a higher plain of existence. Call it Heaven if you like.

I have seen a lot in my time here on earth. So much so, that I can't believe this is all there is.

That, and my faith in the goodness of people, give me strength. What's yours?

Letter to the Editor

Resident offers suggestions for Schomberg townhouse proposal

The following letter to King council was submitted to the Weekly Sentinel.

I am very familiar with 66 Main St. Schomberg, as Marg Coburn often held meetings at her home.

It is a beautiful structure and it would be a pity to lose this heritage building, which is on the Township's heritage listing.

I think that council and planning staff should encourage the new owner to retain this building, perhaps converting it into apartments and some suitable parking. This property should be severed from the rest.

For the rest of the property, I think that council and planning staff should encourage the new owner to develop the land using the unopened road allowance opposite Rice Drive off Cooper Drive.

Some townhouses could be allowed provided that the designated wetland was not encroached upon. Any play area should be in the developable area.

A lot more parking should be provided. At a minimum, two parking spaces per dwelling, as these days both partners usually need to have their own vehicles. Garages are rarely used for parking cars, so there needs to be adequate parking outside of the garage.

As children become 16, they also need to have a car, as usually they are involved in activities that require a car to get them there. So, no one will be walking to the Trisan with all their hockey gear. The high school is not located in Schomberg, so if they are involved in activities, they may well need transportation and the "late" bus was never late enough when my boys were at King City Secondary School.

Thanks for considering these issues.

The public are invited to attend a public meeting to be held by the Council of the Corporation of the Township of King on:

Monday, December 11th, 2017 at 6:00 p.m.

at the Township of King Council Chambers at 2075 King Road, King City to receive information and provide comments on a proposed Zoning By-law Amendment under Section 34 of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter P.13.

Subject Property

Location: 20080 Highway 11
Plan 65R743, Part Lot 1 and 2, 2 Old Survey
File Number: Z-2017-06
Related File Number: SPD-17-63
Owner: 2445962 Ontario Inc.
Agent: Owen Designs Ltd. c/o John Owen
Area: 0.7322 hectares (1.81 acres)

What Are The Proposed Changes?

The application seeks to amend Zoning By-law #74-53, as amended to facilitate the development of a one (1) storey automobile drive-thru car wash (240 square metres), vacuum and air station, one (1) storey automobile service station with convenience store (200 square metres) and four (4) gas pump islands. The site proposes a loading space area and eleven (11) parking spaces including one (1) barrier free parking space. The development is also proposed to be serviced by a private drilled well and new septic system and entrances to the site will feature two (2) vehicular access points from Highway 11. The property is currently vacant and previously functioned as a gas station between 1974 to 2009 based on aerial photograph.

The Zoning Amendment would be required to provide relief for the otherwise required parking and snow storage requirements for the commercially zoned portion of the property. It would also rezone the rear portion of the site to an "Environmental Protection (EP)" zone, to protect the remaining portion of the woodlot. The amendment in the EP zone would be to allow for the placement of a septic system and stormwater management facility. Furthermore, the by-law presently permits only one (1) of the aforementioned uses on the site and as such, a zoning amendment would be required to accommodate the additional commercial uses.

The subject lands are designated 'Commercial' by the Township of King Official Plan (1970) and zoned Commercial Highway (C2) by Zoning By-law #74-53, as amended. The property is also located in the Greenbelt Plan area and is designated Greenbelt Protected Countryside and Natural Heritage system and Regional Greenlands System, Well Head Protection Area and Significant Groundwater Recharge Area in the York Region Official Plan.

Appeal Procedure

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the Township of King before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of the Township of King Council to the Ontario Municipal Board.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, or make written submissions to the Township of King before the proposed zoning by-law amendment is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Municipal Board unless, in the opinion of the Board, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

Any person may attend the public meeting and/or make written or verbal representation either in support of or in opposition to the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment.

How to Stay Informed

If you wish to be notified of the passing of the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment, you must make a written request to the Clerk of the Township of King, 2075 King Road, King City, ON L7B 1A1. Written comments will become part of the public record.

Additional Information

A copy of the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment and additional information about the proposed applications are available for review at the Planning Department located at the Municipal Offices. Office hours are Monday to Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Contact: Colin Pang, Planner, 905-833-4067 or cpang@king.ca

Mayor wants new cell tower on Highway 27 to look like a tree

By Mark Pavilons

King's mayor is adamant that a proposed cell tower reflects the municipality's green philosophy.

Mayor Steve Pellegrini led the charge recently, adding that a project's approval be conditional on the structure resembling a tree. The location and visibility of the planned tower would make it stick out like a sore thumb, so Pellegrini wanted this one to be camouflaged.

Companies like Bell Canada have built towers that resemble natural trees in other parts of Ontario.

"I want a tree," Pellegrini said. "I'm expecting better."

Pellegrini said he doesn't want this to be a cold monolith, perched high on a hill for all to see.

SBA Canada is proposing the 150-foot tower for Brookdale Treeland Nurseries at 15500 Highway 27, just north of the 17th Sideroad.

The plan is to attract service providers to co-locate in one location (up to four providers), to provide enhanced wireless services in Nobleton and Schomberg.

Morteza Alabaf, on behalf of SBA, said the mayor's request is problematic. The tree-like towers are all single-provider structures. In order to accommodate multiple providers, the tree design can't be used.

Mayor Pellegrini loved the idea the tower will host several providers, thus eliminating the need for multiple towers dotting the landscape. However, he challenged SBA to be the first to do this and he'll be their biggest cheerleader if they can accommodate his request.

The tower on BTN will be located near the existing driveway, roughly 283 metres from Highway 27.

Staff noted the approval of telecommunications facilities is under federal jurisdiction, administered by Industry Canada. Municipal approval in the process is constrained, but Industry Canada does request the proponent consult with the municipality. King does have a "Protocol for Establishing Telecommunications Facilities."

A public information session was required and held July 24 in Nobleton. No one from the public attended.

Staff pointed out that SBA Canada is not a telecommunications company, but rather provides infrastructure only with its towers.

The proposed tower will serve residents with continuous coverage along the Highway 27 corridor between Schomberg and Nobleton where reception is considered poor.

Marylake celebrating its 75th anniversary in style

By Mark Pavilons

An idyllic King Township property continues to blossom.

Marylake Monastery has marked the 75th anniversary of the Augustinian Order. The property continues to unfold and offer many new features. Marylake is a world-class shrine, welcoming people from around the globe.

Joseph Gennaro, executive director of Marylake, said they're currently working on the second phase of the Rosary Path, the world's largest living rosary at 1.5 kilometres long.

Gennaro said they're planing to install fused glass panels representing the traditional 14 stations of the cross, as well as one of the resurrection. They're being done by award-winning glass artist Stuart Reid, who created "zones of immersion" for the TTC at Union Station.

Future improvements to the garden include landscaping and gazebos.

Gennaro said Marylake will once again rise to become a pilgrimage destination, and the path is a physical reflection of what a pilgrimage really is. Over the years, Marylake has seen thousands upon thousands of pilgrims descend upon the property.

Public interest and foot traffic has increased, but in some ways Marylake is still one of the best kept secrets in King.

Marylake is also raising money to restore its 1928 Aeolian Skinner organ, one of only three in the province. It's a melding of two famed instruments, one from the Eaton estate, the other from the Seagram estate.

The bell tower will be repaired over the next year and the hills will once again reverberate with the sound of music from these legendary chimes.

Gennaro pointed out the work is due to the support and generosity of the public. He encourages people to visit the site and there are always opportunities to donate.

All masses are open to the public, weekdays at 8 a.m. and weekends at 9.

The Marylake property, located on Keele and the 15 Sideroad, was first purchased by Pellatt, around the same time he was building Casa Loma.

Pellatt decided to turn the property into a working farm, to help contribute to the local economy. This opened up a whole new social circle among the agricultural elite of upper society.

Four hundred acres were sold to the Eaton family in 1922.

The jewel of the property is the 35-acre glacial kettle lake, formed some 17 million years ago. Pellatt named it Lake Marie, after his first wife Mary Dodgeson (Lady Mary Pellatt). At its deepest, Marylake reaches 100 feet to the bottom.

In 1935 the property became part of an agricultural farm school. As part of the "back to the land settlement scheme," people impacted by the First World War, Depression and Second World War were given the opportunity to live and farm in rural Ontario, in co-op-type arrangements.

The first group were Basilian fathers, a community of impoverished families, priests and students. They remained on the land until 1942. This group of Basilians is responsible for renaming the property as "Marylake."

The current residents - the Augustinians - made the estate their monastery and retreat centre that same year.

On Aug. 15, 1943, 12,000 people attended the dedication of the chapel and blessing of the statue of Our Lady of Grace. On Nov. 11, 1961, the Augustinians were given the care of Sacred Heart Parish in King City. In 1964, a new monastery and shrine were dedicated.

The current property, consisting of just over 800 acres, is split between the Archdiocese of Toronto, the Augustinians and Villanova College.

Only the picturesque gate and gate house have received heritage designation.

There's an unbelievably rich heritage of sanctity, scholarship and spiritual direction at Marylake. It's home to two orders of Augustinian nuns - The Sisters of Good Counsel and the Sisters of Consolation.

Attached to the Shrine is the long-standing Augustinian Monastery. The Augustinian order dates back to 1244, following the teachings of St. Augustine of Hippo (354- 430 AD), which promote the harmony of community.

Another important part of the monastery is the Retreat Centre, set aside for those wishing to quite simply, get away from it all, contemplate, pray and sit in on thoughtful discussions.

For more, contact Gennaro at 905-833-5368 or visit www.marylake.com

"The Road to Marylake," by author Kelly Mathews, was just released. It chronicles the fascinating history of the property. It's available from the Marylake Gift Shop, Amazon online and Arcadia The History Press online.

Turkey shoot fundraiser

The King City firefighters will be holding their annual turkey shoot to raise funds for the charities that they support. The charities are The Heart and Stroke Foundation, The Canadian Cancer Society, The King Township Food Bank and the King City Firefighters Benevolent Fund. The turkey shoot will be held on Nov. 25.

Loconte holds ribbon cutting

Loconte Meats officially opened their doors in Nobleton with a ribbon-cutting ceremony along with King Township Mayor Steve Pellegrini and Councilor David Boyd.

Loconte Fine Meats is the latest CIP Grant recipient. King Township has partnered for prosperity with Ambrogio Loconte (business owner) and his landlord Peter Crupi to assist with the new façade treatment and awning sign.

This is the first successful Nobleton Grant recipient of 2017, and Township staff we are hopeful it will be the catalyst for further successful applications from the property owner and tenants of this multi-unit commercial mixed use building and spur on other applications from businesses and property owners in 2018.

They have been successful in securing just less than $2,000 for their façade and signage improvements.

To assist you with any inquiries you may receive directly from business proponents and property owners, just a reminder to refer them to the link below found on the Economic King microsite and from the business "your business" drop down section of www.king.ca

The Guide Light has already proven to save lives

By Mark Pavilons

The innovative Guide Light has saved lives. And, it's creating safer communities.

The brainchild of Tony Nowzari, president and founder of Safety Aid, the Guide Light is ideal in neighbours where we tend to look after our own.

There have been instances when neighbours have come to the aid of Guide Light users.

George Koss, an 87-year-old man from Toronto, fell and knocked himself out. When he regained consciousness, he activated the Guide Light and help arrived.

The Guide Light saves valuable seconds during an emergency, and in Koss's case, saved his life.

In another incident, a couple called the local fire department and waited for their arrival. Tina saw the flashing lights at the bottom of the street and realized that they were having a hard time identifying her house so she activated the Guide Light and that directed them to her front door.

"If it wasn't for Guide Light I don't know what would have happened to my husband. He was bleeding really bad and we both were scared. Guide light brought attention to our home for the first responders and our neighbours. I highly recommend this light to anyone. Guide Light is a life-saver," Tina said.

Nowzari said time is of the essence, especially during instances of heart attack, stroke or choking.

Nowzari has been touring across Canada, promoting the Guide Light to first responders and fire departments. He noted emergency personnel are amazed at the time they're saving responding to calls. The light has been particularly effective in coastal areas that experience "black fog."

Nowzari said the applications of the Guide Light are limitless. They can be installed at schools and triggered during lockdown situations, alerting emergency responders.

King Fire and Emergency Services has embraced the Guide Light, and installed it at many residences.

This simple, intelligent light bulb, complete with its own remote, brings help right to your door. In fact, it's been proven to save lives. Each bulb is synchronized to the remote.

You simply replace your existing exterior light bulb with the Guide Light. In the event of an emergency, it flashes red, alerting first responders and neighbours of trouble. The light can be seen upwards of three to five kilometres away!

Nowzari added the product has been in Canada just over a year now. He began his company after his father-in-law suffered a heart attack in a metropolitan community, and emergency crews had trouble finding the home in bad weather.

For more on the product itself, contact Nowzari at 416-749-6660 or Tony@safetyaid.com

Creativity needed on townhouse site

A Merchant Circle man said the plan consists of too many units and will fundamentally change the neighbourhood.

Another resident said we shouldn't set a precedent where a heritage home comes down in favour of houses.

Charles Cooper, a Main Street resident, said while he's not opposed to development in general, he said the unique home should not be demolished. He urged the developers to utilize the home in the design.

He pointed out the density figures provided were artificial, since one-third of the property is Environmental Constraint and should be removed from the calculations. The roof peaks of the proposed homes will loom large.

Regarding affordable housing, Cooper said this is a "pipe dream" since these 3- and 4-bedroom units will be expensive.

He has set up a petition which has attracted well over 1,000 signatures, indicating residents are engaged in this issue.

A Rice Drive resident said parking will be a major issue, along with emergency access to the site and snow removal.

Greg Locke, of Concerned Citizens of King Township (CCKT), called this proposal "awkward." The CCKT supports mixed use and the idea of townhouses, but feels there are just too many for this site. Regarding the home, Locke said the consultants didn't specifically say why the house couldn't be salvaged. He admitted it needs work, but "it's a gem."

Resident Mary Asselstine noted this lot is the "gateway" to historic Schomberg and has a lot of heritage value. The home is a local landmark.

Other residents echoed the sentiment, noting the building is a "unique identifier" of Schomberg.

Councillor Bill Cober said the size and scope of the project is at the heart of the issue, and he hopes the Township can continue to work with King Ridge.

"This needs a site-specific approach," he said. "It needs to fit in."

Councillor Debbie Schaefer challenged the developer to work with the heritage home, noting it adds to Schomberg's appeal to tourists and visitors, which generate income.

Councillor Cleve Mortelliti did point out that if this home stays, its location would hinder access to the site. He said a lot of give and take is necessary to make things work. "Creativity is needed," he said.

He, too, said people have to get the notion of affordable housing in King out of their minds. Given the current economic realities, affordable housing is not feasible.

Helping others continues to motivate Joan Kelley Walker

By Mark Pavilons

"Anywhere I see suffering, that is where I want to be, doing what I can."
~ Princess Diana

Joan Kelley Walker leads by example.

Juggling a hectic schedule and wearing many hats, Walker is a strong woman, loving wife and mother. Underneath her calm, cool exterior is unbridled passion for what matters most – helping others and remaining true to herself.

Joan's celebrity status has snowballed since she appeared on the inaugural season of The Real Housewives of Toronto this past spring.

Her legions of fans spread across the globe like wildfire, and followers have reached out to her from as far away as New Zealand, Denmark and Indonesia.

"People still want to talk about it (the show)," she said.

Joan is happy to hear from fans and tries to respond as often as she can. She found the experience amazing and she appreciates the outpouring of support.

The reality show was invasive but respectful and the crew was very professional.

Throughout the show, Joan remained genuine and level headed.

She's thrilled with the "entirely positive experience" that helped raise the bar for reality TV. She's happy that she helped contribute to the show's quality and remained true to herself throughout.

This elevated status has opened some very interesting doors, and bolstered her philanthropic efforts.

While it may sound like a cliché, she follows a simple rule – be a good person and do your best with the purest of intentions.

"With privilege comes great responsibility," she said, quoting Princess Diana. For Joan, her voice gives her a platform to help others.

"I feel it's something I can do," she said.

Her focus is not fame or fortune but to do good and enjoy what she's doing.

Her commitment to her fellow men and women came from her humble upbringing and solid values instilled by her parents. Growing up in small-town Saskatchewan, everyone looked after each other.

"That's philanthropy at the grass roots level," she observed.

Joan's penchant for giving back led her to World Vision Canada. Both Joan and her husband Don Walker, CEO of Magna International, looked into various charities, and found World Vision has a solid track record. Admittedly, Joan leads with her heart and her instinct, just like Diana, who never followed any rule book. Don conducts the thorough strategic analysis and the duo complement one another perfectly. This synergy extends to all of their endeavours.

Joan was approached by Mercy Ships to be their spokesperson and she's now taking up the role.

Mercy Ships uses hospital ships to transform lives and provide surgery related programs that bring hope and healing to those who have limited access to health care. Mercy Ships is the world's leading non-governmental, ship-based medical organization and since its beginnings in 1978, has impacted the lives of more than 17 million people.

The Walkers have been strong supporters of Magna's annual Hoedown, which raises money for 20 York Region community groups, charities and non-profits. The 2017 event raised more than $500,000.

Joan didn't have just one mentor through her career. She believes that you meet many people along the way and some may influence you if you're open to it and willing to accept them. She does draw a great deal of inspiration from Princess Diana and her work around the world. Joan also credits Ron Moore, of the Red Carpet Diary, for giving her some early career opportunities which set the stage for more to come. Red Carpet Diary is an entertainment news program covering red carpet events at the Toronto International Film Festival.

From announcing at many major trade shows in Canada and the U.S., Joan made the transition to voice-over work, hosting and stints with radio stations such as The Fan and EZ Rock.

Joan enjoyed her own self-made success and didn't marry until she was in her 30s. Her solid relationship with Walker has taken her life, and her pursuits, to an entirely different level.

The opportunities and financial resources give her that larger voice to help others.

Joan challenges all other celebrities and successful entrepreneurs to think about donating to worthwhile causes. There are many creative ways of giving back.

Joan walks the walk in this regard. She's on the verge of launching her own lifestyle brand of clothing, accessories, etc. She will donate all profits from these sales.

"I'm not messing around here," she said proudly.

"Carry out a random act of kindness, with no expectation of reward, safe in the knowledge that one day someone might do the same for you."

~ Princess Diana

Joan stresses that everyone has a role to play when it comes to generosity.

"No one goes broke donating and being kind," she observed. She pointed out that giving isn't just writing a cheque, but giving time and energy.

Giving is part of everything Walker does

“We have to think outside the box and do something,” she said. “That’s philanthropy. Make an effort at whatever level you can. The smallest gestures often make the biggest difference.”

Joan admitted she’s quite blessed and never forgets it. She’s deeply committed to her two sons and wants to simply enjoying being a mom before they head off to university.

Despite the wealth that surrounds her, she wants her kids to develop a respect for others and follow in her footsteps. To that end, she brought them along with her to a World Vision mission to Cambodia.

Joan’s efforts are currently focused on the “Starting Strong” Program in Cambodia, spearheaded by herself and her husband. This program concentrates on the health of mothers during pregnancy and newborn health and nutrition during the first 1,000 days of life. As a mother and step-mom, Joan strongly believes that every child deserves a fair chance.

There’s nothing like being on the ground, working in areas like Cambodia or Rwanda, which is still recovering from years of genocide. Joan becomes teary eyed when recalling a few incidents in Rwanda and trying to fathom the injustice of it all.

She’s also a fashionista, and expresses herself through the clothing she wears. She admits that she has a few pieces from her mother from the 1970s that she integrates in some of her outfits.

The fresh air of King Township, their dogs and beehives provide comfort from the hustle and bustle of the Walkers’ busy lifestyles. When time permits, they try to cross off destinations around the globe – some of National Geographic’s top places to visit.

Family activities – enjoying their Muskoka retreat, Florida vacation and skiing in winter – become precious moments for the Walker clan. Joan revels in each and every one of them.

Wherever the need takes her, Joan Kelley Walker will continue to wear her heart on her sleeve.

King's Sarain Fox shares some Indigenous stories, call to action

By Mark Pavilons

You can't talk about Canada without including our Indigenous people.

A CBC/Radio-Canada yearbook has brought some fascinating stories to the forefront.

To mark the country's 150th, CBC launched "What's Your Story? - A Canada 2017 Yearbook." It's a collection of over 150 stories, perspectives and photographs that create a fascinating snapshot of the people, places, things and events that tell a story of who we are now and where we are headed together as a nation.

What's equally important is the voice given to some very fundamental aboriginal issues, something Schomberg's Sarain Fox is passionate about.

Fox is Anishinaabe Ojibwe, originally from Batchewana First Nation on Lake Superior near Sault Ste. Marie. Raised in the traditional manner within the Midewiwin Lodge, Fox is a bastion of hope, an outspoken champion for weaving a new mosaic of Canadian culture.

Often called an activist and a "warrior," Fox refers to herself as anishinaabekwe, or "Woman of the People." She's that and more. Fox is an actor, dancer, choreographer and fashion designer. First and foremost, she's a protector of her culture, which admittedly, is on the brink of fading away, unless we all act together and start reading a brand new script from the same page.

While Canadian pride was in the forefront during our 150th anniversary, Fox is often critical of the past, one that is, unfortunately, riddled with guilt and shame. She points out the Indigenous history precedes those 150 years and First Nations voices should lead and speak for the country. That's not to say others should be silent, but those Indigenous voices are integral in portraying an authentic Canada and can help us all learn how to protect our land.

In terms of Canada 150, Fox said she feels Indigenous people were "not invited in a proper way to honour our truth and to honour the contributions that we've made. I felt so left out of the narrative, and that was extremely painful."

There's no need for Canada's people to be at odds. We have to become good friends and have this earnest conversation about how to take our cultural past and meld it with our future. In order to cement this friendship between European-Canadians and Indigenous people we have to acknowledge the truth and build lasting connections.

Our nation has gone through years of discussions on the residential school issue. Despite this dark part of our history, it resulted in open and frank discussions and awareness on both sides. These journeys of discovery are "marvellous" if you want to explore them. Currently, Fox is pushing for "reconciliation."

In the yearbook, Fox promotes Indigenous innovation. Truly Indigenous-made art and products and their distribution channels have the ability to connect Indigenous people with the world. There is a lot of potential in expanding Indigenous business and a lot to be proud of. It is important for buyers to distinguish between Indigenous art and Indigenous manufacturing. Both have potential grow globally and to support Indigenous people making an impact in their local communities. I buy Indigenous art from local Indigenous crafters and my Indigenous products from Indigenous companies who give back.

Fox just wrapped up filming a new series called Future History. This "gem" is about the reclamation of Indigenous knowledge and the rematriation of their ways through all kinds of avenues - arts, dance, policy, treaties, children and food. Preserving native identity is key.

Fox hosted "Rise," an eight-hour documentary shown on Viceland. In the show, they travelled to Indigenous communities across the Americas to meet people protecting their homelands and rising up against colonization.

Rise chronicled several different movements of resistance by indigenous people, including the current Standing Rock protest of the Dakota Access Pipeline, and the Apache Stronghold protesting the handover of Oak Flat to the Rio Tinto mining company in 2015.

"I think people can fall into a really linear thinking when they think about Indigenous issues. And what we're trying to showcase is that it's not just one thing, it's actually the fabric that this country is made of, that Indigenous people are interwoven with it."

Fox explains that, "through film and acting my goal is to tell the stories that allow us to relearn our self's as aboriginal people." Through her pursuit of recognition as a name in the film industry, Sarain hopes to open new doors and opportunities for aboriginal youths.

Fox has worked on several major film and TV projects as well as independent projects.

She's excited to be part of this "revolution." You can count on her to always be on board to make a difference!

Knee Pain: New Approach Delivers Remarkable Results

If you suffer from Knee Pain (Injury/strain/tendonitis/Arthritis) you need to be aware of effective advancements that can eliminate years of pain, suffering, immobility and frustration.

You may have told your doctor you suffer with one or more of the following: sore, stiff, painful knee, "clicking" sound with movement, difficulty bending at the knee.

You may find that your pain or stiffness affects your work, housekeeping, leisure activities, exercise, sports or other activities. You go to the drug store or to your doctor and get pills to help relieve your pain. But you find the pain keeps returning. Alternatively, the doctor may refer you to a specialist who may tell you that surgery is needed or is an option for you.

However, many people are hesitant to have surgery given its invasive nature. It is important to know that although surgery is sometimes necessary, it is considered a last resort in most cases.

Also, you may have heard that there are serious health risks associated with chronic use (or overuse) of pain pills or anti-inflammatory drugs that include damage to the liver, kidneys and gut.

There is a new, natural, safe and highly effective approach that has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically: Laser therapy uses light to favor and accelerate the body's natural healing processes. The innovative Multiwave Locked System (MLS) Laser produces a safe, efficient and simultaneous effect on pain, inflammation, swelling and water retention, exceeding the limits of traditional LLLT (Low power) and eliminates concerns of HP (High power) laser therapy.

What does this mean for you?

Our patients have reported a 90-95% relief of their symptoms, more mobility, increased flexibility and vastly improved function!

It is the very latest in medical technology, with years of clinical studies supporting its safety and efficacy and we are very proud to offer our patients effective solutions to their recent or chronic conditions.

"This new, natural, safe and highly effective approach has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically".

Come in and allow us to help you achieve the results you deserve! Call (905) 773-2225 to book your FREE consultation and examination at King West Wellness Centre 141 King Rd., Unit 10, Richmond Hill (In the Home Hardware Plaza).

Schomberg Should Know

By Wendy-Sue Bishop

Main Street Christmas

A Main Street Christmas is a huge annual event in Schomberg and it always happens on the first Saturday of December. This year that date is Saturday, Dec. 2.

The event goes from 3 to 9 p.m. At 4 p.m. there is a Santa Clause Parade that comes south down Main Street from Western Avenue and Main Street down to Church and Main.

I am the parade marshal for this parade and I am encouraging all of you, whether you are family, a Business or a Society to put a float or walking entry into the Parade.

This year, being our Canada's 150th celebration, I want to incorporate that celebration into our parade. I would love to see all the floats and walking entries incorporate Canadiana and/or our Flag into their entry. I have also had hundreds of little Canadian flags donated from our two MPs - Deb Schulte and Peter Van Loan and I would like to see them lined all down our parade route saluting our parade as we pass through. So get your spot early along the parade route, get your flag and let's show how patriotic we are in the great little town of Schomberg!

Please call myself, Wendy-Sue, at 905-590-0054 or email me at wsue52@hotmail.com if you are interested in participating or helping with the Santa Clause Parade.

Schomberg the talk of the town at A Main Street Christmas! Come on out and see our over the top, bake sale, book store, thrift shop and gift baskets. We open at 11 a.m. to 7:45 p.m. on Dec. 2. Homemade soups, treats and hot drinks are all here in our Christmas cafe.

A great place to stop before and after the Santa Claus Parade.

Children's coat drive

The Schomberg Chiropractic Wellness Clinic will once again be holding a "Children's Coat Drive" to benefit "Coats for Kids." This organization distributes the clothing to individuals in need in York Region.

Coats for Kids needs gently used and washed coats, snowsuits, boots, hats, mittens and scarves. Items can be dropped off at Schomberg Chiropractic until Dec. 15 (905-939-7569, www.schombergchiropractic.ca).

Schomberg Community Farm

Interested in growing your own food and want to be part of this great community asset? Come to the Schomberg Community Farm's AGM on Saturday, Nov. 25, 7 p.m. at Schomberg Library.

Be on the executive, or be a member by securing your plot for 2018, have a say in the planning for future development.

Refreshments served, all welcome. For more information contact schombergcommunityfarm@gmail.com

Schomberg Skating Club

The skating club is now taking registrations for the January session. Please email the club at schomberg-skatingclub@hotmail.com

By the way the Schomberg Skating Club, the Schomberg Community Farm and the Schomberg Scarecrow group are all entrants in the Santa Claus Parade on Dec. 2.

Keep your mind fit

Are you concerned with your memory? Marking it down as getting old? You're not alone! And the good news is there is something you can do about it.

Anna Malfara, director of care for Retire-At-Home Services will be presenting a fun and informative session on Brian health - "Fit Minds-Keeping your mind Fit for Life."

Anne will be presenting at the Tri-san Centre on Tuesday, Nov. 28 at 11 a.m. in the Curling Lounge. Come out for some refreshments and learn about how you can keep your brain in top for as you age.

Schomberg United Church

This Sunday, Nov. 26 at 9:30 a.m. is Holy Humour Sunday. This will be an entirely different Sunday. There will be numerous jokes, funny videos and a skit by the Joyful Spirits with Dennis Kowal playing Mrs. Brown. Do join us and laugh with us.

Schomberg United is hosting a Craft and Bake Sale on Sat. Nov. 25, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at St. Mary Magdalene Church. There will be handmade jewellery, soap, painted candles, pottery, cards, sewn, knit and preserved items. At the tearoom for breakfast, we will be serving muffins & tea biscuits, or a gluten-free item with a drink. At lunch-time we will switch to ham and cheese on tea biscuits, with raw veggies and dip with a drink. Breakfast or lunch is $5.

Schomberg United Church will once again be selling their delicious chili on Main Street during our illustrious A Main Street Christmas on Dec. 2. All proceeds from this venture will support Schomberg United Churches Youth Club and Schomberg Senior Programs.

Schomberg Presbyterian Church

We are the talk of the town.

Come on out and see our over the top, Bake Sale, Book Store, Thrift Shop and Gift Baskets. We open at 11 a.m. to 7:45 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 2.

Homemade soups, treats and hot drinks are all here in our Christmas cafe.

A great place to stop before and after the afternoon parade.

Cougars falter late in loss to the Golden Hawks

By Jake Courtepatte

A botched third period meant an extra two points for the Schomberg Cougars' most heated division rival.

A 3-0 lead on the road against the Caledon Golden Hawks was squandered in a 5-4 loss, with penalty trouble icing the Cougars in the final frame.

Vince Decastro and Mitchell Robinson found the back of the net early, while James Floyd scored on the power play to give Schomberg the three-goal lead.

Caledon bounced back with a power play goal of their own before the first buzzer, while the teams traded a goal each in the second, Schomberg's off the stick of Floyd for his second of the game.

Caledon made it a one-goal game just over eight minutes into the third period, capitalizing just after the expiry of a two-man advantage, before tying the game minutes later after a

Thomas Foulds checking from behind misconduct.

The Golden Hawks took their first and only lead with just under four minutes to go, holding on until the final buzzer.

Adriano Mamone took the loss in net for the Cougars, stopping 30 of the 35 shots he faced.

The loss came on the heels of a Schomberg comeback of their own, picking up a point against the Huntsville Otters on Friday night after being down 4-2.

A pair of late goals in the third period by Branon Cohen and Josh Morrison cemented the 4-4 tie, after Matthew Lolli stood tall in the overtime period.

Sunday's loss puts Schomberg one point back of the Golden Hawks for third place in the Carruthers division standings, holding onto a 9-11-1-1 record.

The action on the ice takes a backseat this Thursday when the Cougars

This Thursday the Cougars host their annual Ronald McDonald night, when all proceeds from the game will go to Ronald McDonald House charity.

host their annual Ronald McDonald night on Thursday, when all proceeds from the game will go to Ronald McDonald House charity.

Schomberg will be looking to get their revenge on the Golden Hawks, with puck drop set for 7:30 p.m. at the Trisan Centre.

They close out the week on Saturday with a trip to visit the last-place Orillia

Terriers at 7:30 p.m.

Fans are also reminded that the annual toy and gift drive runs until Dec. 7, benefiting Sick Kids Hospital, collecting at all home games for ages 1 to 17 years.

The Huron Heights Warriors ran over the King City Lions 38-0 on Saturday to win their third straight YRAA championship.

Lions tamed by Warriors in football final

By Jake Courtepatte

A mighty return to the YRAA championship for the King City Lions was squashed by the reigning champions on Saturday.

The Huron Heights Warriors of Newmarket rumbled through the Lions in a 38-0 victory at St. Max Kolbe field in Aurora, sending the Warriors to the Simcoe Bowl for the third straight year.

It was also the fourteenth straight season with the Warriors appearing in the regional final.

Huron got off to an early start when Bill Paisley received a long pass in the Lions' end zone just under five minutes into the game, giving the Warriors a 10-0 lead.

King City looked to counter with a long drive of their own, reaching the 20-yard line on first down, but a blocked field goal kept them scoreless.

After a quarterback sneak made it 17-0 for the Warriors, King City returned with another long drive of their own in the second quarter, before an interception ended their run.

Jericho Daher kept the clock moving for Huron, stringing together run after run in moving the chains and running out the clock.

Sebastian Scott, Chase Thompson, and Anthony Pinto added a major each in the second half in a blowout victory.

Quarterback Scott was named the game's MVP.

Huron Heights are not preparing for the Simcoe Bowl next Wednesday, to be played against Ottawa's St. Matthew's High School Tigers at Tim Horton's Field in Hamilton.

King City Lions early leaders in YRAA hockey

By Jake Courtepatte

It may be early, but the King City Secondary School Lions are looking to be top of the class in YRAA hockey circles.

Through three games in the season, the Lions have posted a pair of shutouts on route to a 2-1 record good for tops in the regional standings.

The Lions opened the season with a pair of 3-0 shutouts over Sir William Mulock and St. Max Kolbe, before falling to Sacred Heart 3-1 on Thursday.

Despite the loss, King City still holds the top goal differential in the league at a plus four.

The second year of the Lions' varsity program continues on Nov. 30 when they take on St. Theresa of Lisieux, who are 1-0 so far on the season.

Socially competitive is on the rise at King Curling Club

By Shellee Morning

The Social curlers from Wednesday evening are a lot more competitive than you would expect. Some may even think they are equal to the Howards and Homans of the game.

But, with every hit and roll or draws to the button that were executed in last week's games, the levels of pressure and panic to find a point were rising after each end completed. As some teams recognized their scoreboard was clearly out of reach, and accepted their game was now a practice, other games took to the last rock to find its winner.

Sheet 1 featured Broadhurst against Petersen and this game had it all – wicks, biters, doubles and Plan Bs. Petersen collected 2 in the first and held Skip Ian Broadhurst to a single in the 2nd. Skip Karl Petersen and Vice Robert Lostracco worked their house strategically after their front end of Patricia Lostracco and Pat Earl generated perfect rock placement in the early frame, but could only get one more on the board.

Broadhurst and his squad of John DeFaveri, Pat Schneider and Vivian DeFaveri also meticulously placed their rocks to where they thought would produce a multiple score but they too could only round up a single. In the 5th Skip Petersen's front end once more completed their task setting up the house to earn 2 more points and take a 4-2 lead. Things got interesting in the 6th when Broadhurst and DeFaveri haggled over their final shot on how to get 3 when there was a secure 2. The question was "Do you play with the Risk and hope for the Reward" or keep it simple and get you're 2? Broadhurst went for the risk on a hit that actually wiggled against a Petersen stone and moved it just enough to collect a well-earned 3 points and the lead of 5-4.

The final end had 14 rocks in play with the skip stones to go. DeFaveri surgically removed one of Petersen's rocks to cut them back setting his team up for a possible tie. Petersen stared down a house full of Broadhurst gravel with his only shot to place a guard and protect his only stone that was perched on the button. The skipper's throw slightly over curled just enough leaving Broadhurst an open port with a full view of his stone. Broadhurst and his sweepers guided his throw with laser precision allowing the rock to bounce the counter away and sit in the best seat of the house, on the button. With no way of getting in for removal Team Petersen shook hands and settled for the 5-5 tie.

Struggles were apparent on sheets 2 and 4 between the Schneider and Kolb teams but their spirits were enlightening. Smiles, laughter and good sportsmanship from these two teams certainly out-weighted their score on the board.

Teams Wasylikw and Sowerby were in solid control as each team member performed at the top of their ability. But make no mistake, Schnieder and Kolb can come back next week and achieve the above and beyond. Never count anyone out in the game of curling, because all it takes is one slight over curl and the momentum can shift to stardom.

The late draw also crafted their own excitement with high scoring games and a tie that took to the last rock creating another competitive climax. Skips Clark Bryce and George Gerrits fashionably produce nail biting rounds when they play against each other. After a healthy collection of draws and hit and rolls, the two masters of the games settled for a 6-6 tie.

League convenor Michelle Boynton commented that "our league is really unique because any given week you just don't know. The teams are well matched, leaving no predictions as any team can win."

There are only 9 points separating the 18 team roster with Team Lee in first and 6 teams right behind breathing down their neck. Other winners in last week's late draw match-ups include Sinclair, Rhind and Powers.

Part of the proceeds to go towards St. Mary's Catholic Church.

The Ordinandi dinner celebration will be Wednesday, March 7, 2018 at the Pearson Convention Centre, 2638 Steeles Avenue East, Brampton. Tickets are $75 per person, contact parish office for tickets.

Nobleton United Church By Nancy Hopkinson

This Sunday, Nov. 26 at 11:15 a.m. is Holy Humour Sunday. This will be an entirely different Sunday. There will be numerous jokes, funny videos and a skit by the Joyful Spirits with Dennis Kowal playing Mrs. Brown. Do join us and laugh with us.

Schomberg United is hosting a Craft and Bake Sale and Tea Room on Saturday, Nov. 25, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at 116 Church St. For more info, see "Schomberg Should Know."

Everyone is invited to our Christmas Pot Luck dinner on Monday, Nov. 27, 6 to 8 p.m. Dennis Kowal will play Christmas carols for everyone to sing along. Maureen Kowal will read her special poem, "A Christmas Prayer." There is no need to register, just bring something to share.

Our very popular Breakfast with Santa is on Saturday, Dec. 2, 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. The breakfast is pancakes, syrup, sausages and a beverage. For the children, these are arranged to look like a snowman with sausage arms, and chocolate chip eyes, and covered with icing sugar. Santa always drops in and provides a lovely stuffed animal for each child. Pictures are taken of each child on Santa's knee and the pictures are given to the parent or adult with them. This event is fun for everyone, so even if you are not a parent, you can enjoy the breakfast and see the children having fun with Santa. A "Good Will" offering will be donated to the "Nobleton Christmas Drive" (Mimi Buchanan works in cooperation with "Christmas in King"). Nobleton United will be matching the funds collected up to a maximum of $500.

Christmas Eve is a Sunday this year. We are having a family friendly "Christmas Eve Morning" service at 11:15 a.m., with refreshments afterwards. The musically talented Sandra Kirby will be singing three pieces and leading the singing of familiar carols. Minister Carol-Ann Chapman will tell the ABCs of Christmas using a box full of presents and children will be invited to participate.

Nobleton Notes

Last Sunday our guest speaker LGBTQ activist Rachel Clark challenged us to transform, to really embrace diversity. She reminded us that Jesus said (in Matthew 7) we should not judge others, or we ourselves will be judged. How would we greet a sex trade worker, a homeless person or a transgender person as she is? Rachel pointed out that these people already have God's love. She reminded us to treat everyone equally. We need "to love and serve others" as it says in the United Church New (1968) Creed. Jesus himself was radically inclusive.

Our worship services are at 11:15 a.m. Sundays at Nobleton United at 6076 King Rd., Nobleton. Our sister church, Schomberg United, meets at St. Mary's Magdalene at 9:30 am most Sundays, but at the Kitchen Breeding Manor on the first Sunday of the month. For more info, visit nobletonunitedchurch.com, our Facebook page, or call 905-859-3976. The Nobleton United Church office is normally open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings. Messages are picked up regularly. Nobleton United is on the north side of the King Rd., about 6 buildings west of Hwy. 27. We have a big parking lot at the rear of the building, an accessible ramp at the rear of the building, chair lifts and accessible washrooms. We warmly welcome everyone, old and young.

Nobleton Skating Club

This is the 60th anniversary of the Nobleton Skating Club, and it is small fundraisers like this that have helped the club to make it to 60 years. We would really appreciate your support.

As well, don't ever think it's too late to skate!! Though our current session of Canskate is underway, we are happy to prorate any new memberships joining part way through the session. If you can't join now, please skate with us in January when we have a new session beginning.

Canskate, our learn to skate program, is offered on Mondays at 5:30 p.m., Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m. and Saturday mornings at 9 a.m. Registration is open and is available through our website, www.nobletonskatingclub.com. Should you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact us either via email, or at our office at 905-859-4943.

Ladies Volleyball

We play Thursday evenings from 8 to 9:30 p.m. in Nobleton and are looking to add a few players to the roster. If you enjoy playing recreational volleyball and are looking for a social activity on Thursday nights, please call Glenda at 416-561-6016.

Nobleton Lions Club

December features the Annual Skating Party at the arena, with free skating for all, and Santa is planning to come and visit the kids.

Family tradition at Sisters of St. Kosmas

Did you know that for 14 years, The Sisters of Saint Kosmas Aitolos Greek Orthodox Monastery on the Caledon/King Townline near Bolton, have been inviting the community to their store "The Sisters Touch of Christmas?" It's a perfect seasonal family outing to a magical store snuggled in the area's rolling hills.

A first glance tells you that you'll never see an exclusive store like this in any mall and you notice that this is not your typical Christmas bazaar.

All these reasonably priced gifts are presented in the reflection of the true meaning of Christmas. The monies raised by the Sisters in their Christmas store help them in their initiatives to help others throughout the year. On the wall behind the register are plaques they have received from some of the many various service organizations they support.

The monastery is located at 14155 Caledon King Townline South. For more, call 905-859-8077 or visit www.thesisterstoc.com. It's open to Dec. 24, Thursdays and Fridays, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Saturdays: 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sundays: 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

King's Corners

King City United
By Earle Laycock

Rev. Evelyn McLachlan chose Isaiah 9: 1-7 as her sermon text. This familiar text is often taken as the prophecy of Jesus's birth. But Isaiah lived centuries before the birth of Jesus and possibly knew nothing about Jesus. Isaiah did know that the current King Ahaz was not following God's will nor was he particularly concerned about the welfare of his people. Like many leaders, the king was interested in his own welfare and power.

As Rev. Evelyn noted, "For us as Christians we do see more in this scripture reading. We can't help but see Jesus. He is the one who came into the world bringing a new world order and challenging those who held power, both politically and religiously, to change their ways, to walk in the light, shining God's love so that the world would indeed live in peace."

During the Sunday worship, the congregation celebrated the baptism of Leah Caterina Gill, daughter of Kateland and Amandeep Gill. In baptism we acknowledge a new life not just in the sense of a new individual in our midst but also in welcoming and incorporating that person into the community of faith. Welcome Leah, into the embrace of God's love.

Bible Study group meets on Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. If you enjoy lively discussion and learning more about the Christian faith, come out and join the group. All that is required is an inquiring mind.

It's almost too late! There are still a few tickets left for this Friday and Saturday, Nov. 24 and 25, "The Dinner and Show." Lots of good music, terrible jokes and skits and roast beef dinner makes for a fun evening. Contact our Office Administrator Kristen (905-833-5181) or Alan Henderson 905-833-5047 to book your tickets. Tickets are $30 per adult. Hurry before it's all over for another year.

Note that the Vocal Choir is cancelled this Thursday but will resume Nov. 30 at 8 p.m. The Bell Choir will meet at the regular 6:45 p.m. time Thursday.

Are your Friday mornings free? Why not join us for breakfast at King City Sunset Grill at 10 a.m. We usually are seated at the table to the right of the entrance. This is a time to make some new friends, enjoy a delicious breakfast and discuss the latest happenings in our lives and the world. You are welcome to drop by and see if this event is right for you.

Save the date! King City United will be celebrating Rev. Evelyn McLachlan's retirement on Saturday, Dec. 2 from 1 until 4 p.m. This will be an open house at the church but please RSVP with our Office Administrator Kristen at 905-833-5181 if you are planning to attend.

Saturday, Dec. 9 from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. is Lunch With Santa. This popular event is coming back with lots of food to eat, a cookie walk, silent auction as well as a gingerbread house auction. Bring your kids, meet Santa and enjoy a some Christmas fun.

King City United holds worship services every Sunday morning at 10 a.m. Sunday school, for the young people, has resumed. Young folk are welcome to join their family in the sanctuary for worship and participate in a story for children every Sunday. King City United is located at 50 Elizabeth Grove, King City. For more information, call our Office Administrator Kristen at 905-833-5181 or visit our website: www.kcuc.ca

Please take advantage of our excellent children's ministry. Our Sunday morning "Celebration Zone" provides age-appropriate programs for children aged 4 to Grade 8. Our children's program is staffed by screened volunteers who care about your kids! The children in JK-Grade 8 will be in the service for the beginning until they are invited to go downstairs.

If you have children aged 0-3 then we invite you to bring them to our beautiful and safe Nursery facilities which are located on the lower level.

Caregivers will meet you there.

We invite everyone to join us each Tuesday at 6:45 for our Legacy Family nights! The adults will meet upstairs and the children (nursery-Grade 8) will meet downstairs.

St. Andrew's
By Kathy Patterson

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas and the Season of Advent will soon be here. St. Andrew's welcomes you! Sunday worship services are at 10:30 a.m. with Sunday school running concurrently for children up to Grade 6. Join us afterwards for coffee.

December 2 is our Christmas Potluck! Santa's coming early to join us at dinner time, so come early at 5 p.m. for a 5:30 p.m. start. There's a sign-up sheet in the Narthex or call the office. We hope you can be with us!

Sunday, Dec. 3 is the beginning of Advent. The Rev. Dr. John Vissers will be taking the service and presiding over Holy Communion.

The Rev. Dr. Frank Kovacs continues to lead us in worship again this Sunday, Nov. 26.

The next "Messy Church" is Dec. 10 from 5 to 6 p.m.! This is an intergenerational time of fun and creativity, learning about the Bible and God's love for us and then enjoying a wonderful communal supper at the end. Children, bring your parents and friends. Want more information? Call Lynn at the church, 905-833-2325.

Would you like to pray with someone? Need resources on prayer? God loves to hear from us and wants to have conversations with us. He has promised to hear and answer our prayers.

With Christmas coming and the cooler weather, there are many opportunities to assist where able. The Tree of Warmth for Evangel Hall is up in the Narthex ready to collect warm hats, mittens, scarves, and socks. The Christmas in King Food Hampers are available for filling with Festive Items. Contact person is Kathy Patterson.

Should you have pastoral care needs please contact Lynn Vissers, our Director of Congregational Ministries at the office or at 905-833-5762 or contact our Interim Moderator, the Rev. Paul Johnston, 705-341-7738.

Our church office number is 905-833-

2325. We are located at 13190 Keele St., 2 blocks north of the King Rd. A ramp is available for accessibility. <http://www.standrews-kingcity.ca/>

All Saints Anglican Church
By Diana Armitage

Poinsettia Pick Up is Saturday, Nov. 25 in the church hall, between 1 and 4 pm. Please park on Doctors Lane for pick up because Keele St. south of King Rd. will be blocked due to Christmas in King event. Please call the church office 905 833-5432 or Bridget 905-539-0140 if you need more information.

All Saints' Country Christmas Market and Home Cooked Luncheon with skilled artisans, delicious baking, and raffle of Mirvish Tickets will be held on Saturday, Dec. 2 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. There are two sittings, 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m., for our lunch of chicken pot pie (vegetarian/gluten free options) salad and dessert. Tickets are $15. Please call 905 833-5432 or email allsaints3@bellnet.ca.

All Saints Bake Table is looking for cookies, squares, pies etc to sell at our Country Christmas Market on Dec. 2. Please drop baked goods off at the church on Thursday evening, Nov. 30, during choir practice 7 to 8:30 p.m. or during the day on Friday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thank you!!

The Alpha course's final evening is next Tuesday, Nov. 28 at 6:30 p.m. All Saints King City, 12935 Keele St. Many thanks to Aileen Van Ginkel and Vivian Aschwarden for organizing the successful course.

All Saints Lessons and Carols service will be on Friday, Dec. 15, 7 p.m. Glorious organ music and guest singers to join our choir. Come celebrate the birth of Jesus!

All Saints is hosting the King Township Historical Society's Christmas Concert at 7 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 1. Famed fiddler Anne Lederman, Canadian music historian Ian Bell and their friends Tom Leighton and Martin Van de Ven will play Canada's music from indigenous, Metis, Quebec, Maritime and other traditions interspersed with stories from across Canada. Tickets are $20, $15 KTHS members. Call Diana 905 859-3965. They are a lot of fun!

Horticultural Society
By John Arnott

The Nobleton-King City Horticultural Society/garden club (N-KCHS/gc) will hold its Annual General Meeting (AGM), Potluck Dinner and Awards Night on Monday, Nov. 27, starting at 6 p.m., in the Nobleton Community Hall on Old King Rd. just east of Hwy. 27 at the north end of the arena complex.

After the dinner (famous throughout District 15 of the Ontario Horticultural Assoc. - OHA, of which N-KCHS/gc is a member) the election of society executive officers and their formal installation for 2018 (which marks our 60th year) will take place following which awards will be presented, including the prestigious Nobleton Women's Institute Cup to the member who earned the most points in the 2017 Open Class flower shows and the much coveted 'Olive Nelson Cup' to the member who earned the most points in the 2017 Novice Class flower shows.

Anglican Parish
By John Arnott

This Sunday morning November 27 there will be a 10:30 a.m. combined parish Holy Communion service at Christ Church, Kettleby on Kettleby Rd. mid-way between Keele and Jane Sts. to mark the 126th Patronal Festival called "The Reign of Christ" of this historic fieldstone Anglican church, with lunch following in the adjacent church hall

Holy Communion services in the Anglican Parish of Lloydton are held every Sunday morning in Christ Church, Kettleby on Kettleby Rd. mid-way between Keele and Jane Sts. at 9:30 a.m. with a coffee/tea hour in the adjacent church hall following the service for those who wish to stay.

Trees of Giving, CiK usher in the season

By Carol Ann Trabert
King Township Food Bank

The new brochure has been printed, and so the season is starting for accepting 2018 sponsorships. Nobleton Physiotherapy is first off the block this year - so early and so wonderful! Please visit www.ktfb.ca to see the list of all who so generously provided annual sponsorships for this past year. They are our "bread and butter" and we hope you will remember them when you shop for services or goods, as well as the generous Sip & Savour sponsors and donors.

Be sure to visit Trees of Giving at the King Heritage and Cultural Centre. A loonie lets you vote for your favourite tree and all proceeds go to the Food Bank.

Christmas in King, the seasonal program that strives to provide a Merry Christmas to everyone in King is in full swing. The white hampers are pretty much fully adopted, but there are families and individuals needing gifts. All gifts have to be in by Dec. 4 in order to proceed with the shipping stream. Donors wishing tax receipts should make their cheques payable to King Township Food Bank, and put CiK in the memo line.

The King City Fire Hall is willing to accept cheques for Christmas in King and King Township Food Bank during their open hours. They will put them away in a safe place for us to collect. Thanks go to Chief Wall and his team for offering this helpful way to get monetary donations to the Food Bank and CiK.

Thanks to Round the Bend Farm, again donating fresh turkeys, and to BTN who provide beautiful green wreaths. The generosity of the community has always met the need, and we know that individuals, families, community groups and businesses will again reach into their pocketbooks to help. Find Christmas in King details on the Food Bank website, www.ktfb.ca
