Little Abby Eveson leaves a legacy of hope and perseverance

By Mark Pavilons

King's smallest heroine, little Abby Eveson, leaves a legacy of perseverance.

And that legacy will hopefully transform into a lasting physical memorial. Abby passed away suddenly Oct. 24 and her death has the community reeling.

A Celebration of Abby's Life will be held at the Trisan Centre, 25 Dillane Drive, Schomberg, on Thursday, Nov. 1, starting at 2 p.m. Everyone is encouraged to wear Abby's favorite colours, either pink or purple and a We Believe in Abby t-shirt if you have one. At 3:20 p.m. the ice surface will be available for public skating until 6:50 p.m. From then until 8 p.m. the family invites you to join them in common areas at the Trisan Centre for a time of fellowship and refreshment.

The community came together to support the Eveson family, and the outpouring has been truly remarkable.

Mom Becky Eveson noted on Facebook that they are working with the Township to build an accessible memorial park in Abby's name in Schomberg. They are hoping to include a pavilion and "make it a park that will be able to have community events and fundraisers held at it, to help give a location to inspire young and old to give back to charities that are close to their hearts."

Rory MacKinnon, owner of the Schomberg McDonald's, was quick to offer his support. From Oct. 26 to 28, 100% of the sales of their charity cookies will go to the "We Believe in Abby" fund.

"We have come to know Becky Eveson, Craig and their family over the last two years since we opened the Schomberg restaurant," MacKinnon commented. "We are also very strongly invested in the Schomberg community. We are so honoured to be part of this great community that cares so much."

Signs of support have sprung up throughout Schomberg, in the form of pink ribbons.

"The last few days have been uplifting," Becky wrote on Friday. "A community mourning our loss with us. You drive through town and all you see are pink bows everywhere. The town is literally painted pink.

"They say it takes a village. There is no doubt in our minds we picked the best one. From the beginning, the support for our family has been unimaginable."

Abby's story is one of hope in the face of almost insurmountable odds. Abby fought like a champion throughout her short life. Abby suffered from a rare congenital heart defect. Born without her main pulmonary artery, Abby had her first surgery 14 hours after birth and has had three open heart surgeries since.

Parents Craig and Becky had gone above and beyond ensuring that Abby had more than enough love and positive energy.

King Mayor Steve Pellegrini, Linda Jessop, member of the board of directors, Councillor-elect Bill Cober and Schomberg Lions Club President Gord Dobson celebrate the Kitchen-Breedon Manor's anniversary.

Manor marks its 25th anniversary

Residents, past and present board members, Schomberg Lions Club members, staff, and family members of both the late Jim Kitchen and Bill Breedon, celebrated the 25th anniversary of the opening of the Kitchen-Breedon Manor in Schomberg recently. Joining the commemoration event was Mayor Steve Pellegrini and Councillor-elect Bill Cober.

Kitchen-Breedon Manor, formally part of the Schomberg Lions Non-profit Housing Corporation, was initialled conceived and spearheaded by Jim Kitchen and Bill Breedon, long-term Schomberg Lions Club members, in the early '90s to provide affordable housing for local seniors who wanted to stay in their community. Sadly, neither lived to see the breaking of ground but they are remembered by having the building named in their honour.

Then Lions President John Bassel persevered and applied his know-how to overcome initial local resistance to the project until the first shovel in ground was made on a very cold, but special, Feb. 9, 1992, with both widows Shirley Kitchen and Anne Breedon doing the honours.

Over the past 25 years, this 32-unit non-profit housing facility in the heart of Schomberg, has been home to seniors from within Schomberg and, recently, people from across the GTA who have come to call Schomberg home.

The Schomberg Lions Club continues to support the operation of the Kitchen-Breedon Manor by volunteering their time on the board of directors. Scott Church, operational services manager, and previously Joe Huson, can be credited with ensuring this facility is one of the most well-managed and immaculate housing facility in York Region. The Schomberg Lions are proud of the Kitchen-Breedon Manor and expect to see it thrive for at least another 25 years.

"A newspaper is the center of a community, it's one of the tent poles of the community, and that's not going to be replaced by websites and blogs."

- Michael Connelly

We should 'stop sucking' and strive to do better

"Be yourself, but always your better self."

Karl G. Maeser

"Stop sucking," shouted the loose-lipped 17-year-old as he meandered up to his room.

His comment had nothing to do with the mechanics of using a straw. Instead, he aimed that particular barb at his parents for a lack of success in getting the results he was looking for. In our defence, we have to work within the confines of the real world and the limitations contained therein.

Yes, we'd love it if car insurance premiums were cheap and income taxes dropped for average Canadians. We'd be thrilled if we could buy a new car for our kids to share.

The boy's comment did resonate with me. Yes, he's right. We should all "stop sucking."

By that, I mean we should all up our game and ramp up our efforts in every aspect of our lives. We often excel at our jobs and careers, and even if we're veterans, we still come up with innovative strategies, efficiencies and approaches to make things better.

It's funny how we can be so good at our jobs, and yet we fail when it comes to other aspects of our lives outside the walls that bind us.

I can write a 900-word article in 40 minutes, and yet I can't help my son with his Grade 12 math. I can discuss current political strategies at all levels of government, but I can't fix my lawnmower or washing machine. I can act as MC for an event and even speak to large crowds. But I can't always open a re-sealable bag.

"Excellence is the gradual result of always striving to do better," Pat Riley said.

In some ways, I think society helps us reach our goals, or excel in certain areas. We have vast amounts of knowledge and power in our smart phones. We can order anything from appliances to cannabis online and have it delivered to our door in days.

We can't ignore what God gave us – that three pounds of gray matter in our heads. It's estimated that our brains can produce upwards of 1 million chemicals, each with the sole purpose of accomplishing a specific task. The roughly 10 billion neurons can interact with others in a multitude of ways. For a computer to possess as many "bits" as the human brain, it would have to be the size of Texas!

I am lucky in my job in that I get to meet a great many interesting souls. Many are accomplished and successful and I try to learn from them. Some were helped along the way by family members or mentors. Others put in countless hours of blood, sweat and tears to reach their dreams. Many are not satisfied to sit back and relax, but strive for even more, each and every day.

The fate of the many, decided by so few

Our democratic system may not be perfect, but it works. Sometimes, politics and getting out to vote is like leading a horse to water. The fate of the many rests on the shoulders of a few.

That point was made abundantly clear Oct. 22, as only 30% of King voters made the effort to cast a ballot in this municipal election. The old adage that if you don't vote, you can't complain, holds true.

The majority of King voters left the decision up to the 5,802 people who voted. With numbers that small, every vote does matter. In two races, the winner was decided by only 56 votes. The candidates engaged in those races likely asked a lot of "what ifs."

The municipal election is the most important one for homeowners, but it seems to draw the least attention, or effort. Local councils decide where your property tax dollars are spent, how your garbage gets collected, and what roads are paved. Our council also plans new development, creates infrastructure and builds libraries and rec centres. We enjoy parks and arenas, thanks to the good work of our municipal politicians and staff.

Residents pay a premium to live in King. With that comes an open invitation to take part in the political process.

The five men and two women on council love King and their respective communities. They made a commitment to serve, not just the 30% who voted, but 100% of the population.

The price of admission to the democratic system is free. Too bad more of us didn't take advantage of it.

We can do better than than 32% turnout in King

By Bruce Craig
Chair, Concerned Citizens of King Township

Commentary

It is well documented that voter turnout for municipal elections is often considerably lower than voter participation in provincial or federal elections. This election was no different in King where only 5,802 of the 18,365 eligible voters actually cast a ballot. This equals a voter turnout under 32%, less than one-third.

Many news articles highlight the fact that there is a general trend in many western nations of decreasing voter participation over the past 20 years. One wonders why, and what can be done to engage citizens more and exercise their right to vote.

For this year's municipal election in King, significant efforts were made to engage voters in several ways. To begin, individual Voter Cards were sent to all registered voters many weeks before the election. In addition, the Township of King website provided basic information about all the candidates who were registered, including contact information and links to websites set up by several candidates. King also organized several Advanced Polls around the township for early voting, plus made proxy forms available.

The King Weekly Sentinel ran a series of informative articles featuring the candidates running in each ward, and provided notices regarding all candidates meetings and other election information.

Concerned Citizens of King Township (CCKT) organized two all candidates meetings, and later posted a video of each meeting on the CCKT website. In addition the citizens' group created a questionnaire that was sent to each candidate, and responses were posted on the website for public viewing. Further, CCKT leveraged its significant social media presence using its Facebook Page, YouTube channel and Twitter feed to further broadcast this information to King voters.

And perhaps most significant of all, many candidates participated in active campaigning by knocking on doors of constituents, listening to concerns and sharing platform goals.

In spite of all these efforts, voter turnout remained low. Many ask, "What can be done to have citizens become better engaged and exercise their right to vote?"

On-line voting and telephone voting were used in many municipalities across Ontario this year. Could this be helpful in King? Studies suggest that e-voting can increase voter participation by providing this convenient form of voting in the lives of people with busy work schedules and family commitments.

Many voters wonder if their vote really matters. Given the close results in Wards 1 and Ward 3, it is clear that each vote does count and can make a difference.

Use of social media, ranked ballots and proportional representation are other ideas being offered to help engage voters more. Ultimately, there is a more poignant question we each must ask ourselves, "Of what value is my vote, and will I participate?"

With all this said, we recognize a new council for King Township has been elected, albeit by a relatively small number of voters, and now citizens have an opportunity to participate and make their voices heard in the matters of community interest and concern. A new Official Plan for King. Preserving and growing the Greenbelt. Creating vibrant, healthy and unique communities in King. Who will participate?

Fewer residents are heading to the polls to vote

By Mark Pavilons

King may very well be one of the best places to live in the country, but its residents aren't flocking to the polls to vote.

The voter turnout in this year's municipal election was one of the lowest in many years. Only 30.86% of people voted – 5,802 cast their ballots out of a total of 18,803 eligible voters.

It was down from 2014 levels, when 5,496 marked ballots, representing a 32.96% voter turnout.

In Ward 1, roughly 34% turned out. In all, 1,276 votes were cast, out of 3,775 eligible voters.

Ward 2 has the largest population in King, but its numbers were similarly low. In Ward 2, 1,081 voted, out of a total of 4,693.

The turnout in Ward 3 was roughly 28% and 299 people voted for their new councillor. Jakob Schneider won by a mere 56 votes.

Ward 4 had the strongest showing, and one poll recorded a 44.59% turnout. Of that ward's 3,677 eligible voters, 1,454 cast ballots.

Ward 5 averaged a 30% turnout in another 56-vote margin for the winner, Jordan Alexander Cescolini. In a ward with 3,482 voters, only 1,103 came out.

Finally in Ward 6, 384 residents went to the polls, out of 1,274 eligible voters.

By the numbers, it was disappointing that more people didn't take advantage of the democratic system. The mayor's race in the past may have generated more interest, and encouraged more to come out and vote, so Steve Pellegrini's acclamation may have kept some voters away.

Clocks will fall back one hour at 2am on November 4 and King Fire & Emergency Services is recommending residents install new batteries in their smoke and carbon monoxide alarms when they change their clocks.

"In order for smoke and carbon monoxide alarms to do their job, they need to have working batteries," explained Fire Chief Jim Wall. "Once a year, old batteries should be replaced with new batteries. When you change your clocks on November 4, King Fire & Emergency Services wants everyone to take the time to install new batteries in all alarms."

In order to survive a fire, you need to be provided with an early warning and know what to do when the smoke alarms sound. Working smoke alarms are required on every storey of the home and outside all sleeping areas. For added protection, it is recommended to also install smoke alarms inside all bedrooms.

Carbon monoxide alarms must be installed outside all sleeping areas if your home has a fuel-burning appliance, fireplace or attached garage.

Tampering with or removing the batteries from your smoke and carbon monoxide alarms is against the law. Failure to comply with the Fire Code can result in a ticket for $360 or a fine of up to $50,000.

Abby was an inspiration

She was the driving force behind the We Believe in Abby campaign, raising tens of thousands of dollars for Sick Kids Hospital.

Condolences flooded social media and Facebook the day Abby passed.

In his post, Craig said he's "absolutely gutted. I have no way to express what a hole in my life this morning has left. Nothing is going to be able to replace the way she looked at me. The last 5 years have been the most emotionally difficult times I will ever face, but they are nothing compared to the joy my sweet little girl gave me every time I saw her. I have been reading the kind words that have been posted and texted to us today and I know I was not alone. She truly was one of a kind and I wouldn't trade one second of her extraordinary life. She has made me a better person and the luckiest dad in the world. Daddy loves you so very much my sweet sweet little girl, I will miss you today, tomorrow, and every day, and for the rest of time."

Mom Becky poured her heart out on her Facebook post.

"I never thought I would ever be writing this especially when Abby has been doing so well. Attempting to walk more, eat more, and in general just looking better then ever. This morning has rocked our world as I sit in the ER holding my baby girl for the last time. She had a cardiac arrest this morning and wasn't able to fight anymore."

"I said it last week after the Wiggles concert. This girl had a twinkle in her eye and a love for life. She had that special gift of making everyone around her fall in love with her. She gave everyone so much hope. She was a miracle. We made sure that she had the opportunity to live life as we knew we never had any guarantees."

"How do we move on without her smile, her laughter, her love."

"She is my sunshine. In my heart of hearts I honestly thought she had beat this."

Mayor Steve Pellegrini extended his condolences to the Eveson family, noting Abby was an inspiration to us all.

"For a little girl, she had such a big impact on the lives of everyone in King," he said. "She was always smiling. For all of the difficulties she endured, people can learn a few things about having a positive outlook. She was an inspiring little example of courage."

Abby has touched the community forever according to Councillor-elect Bill Cober.

"Abby has been an inspiration throughout her life journey. Abby, her family and many community volunteers have worked to support many others through the 'We Believe in Abby Campaign.' Our entire community sends our thoughts and prayers to the Eveson family at this time. Our community is a family and we are all grieving but are blessed that Abby touched our lives and will always remain a part of our community."

Ward 2 Councillor-elect David Boyd, who serves with Craig on King Fire and Emergency Services, said he's deeply saddened and praying for the Evesons, their extended family and for everyone who was fortunate enough to have known Abby.

"Abby's light shone bright. The impact she had in the community will never be forgotten," he said.

Public support also poured in on the Go Fund Me page set up in Abby's memory. It surpassed its goal within the first two days. To contribute, visit <https://www.gofundme.com/3h3hur-in-memory-of-abby>

Abby's presence helped redefine "family" in Schomberg, within the ranks of King Fire and Emergency Services, and in fact, all across King Township.

The School of Drama sashays into Nobleton plaza

By Jake Courtepatte

Future stars of King, unite. The School of Drama officially opened its doors in Nobleton, holding a ribbon-cutting ceremony recently at its new location in the Highway 27 plaza.

Artistic directors David and Stefanie Farro's new workspace brings together decades of experience in both the classroom and studio settings, promising their students the best in the biz with a carefully selected team of expert teachers.

Despite the name, the School of Drama is a multi-faceted facility: classes are available in everything from drama, to visual art, to dance, to musical theatre, and even photography.

"We are exciting to have you here, and to have an opportunity like this in King," said Mayor Pellegrini when presenting the Farros with a commemorative plaque. "Here's to many long and successful years here in Nobleton."

A high school drama teacher for 17 years, David has produced over 20 musicals and plays in his career, and has been the recipient of awards like the Premier's Award for Teaching Excellence.

As a member of the curriculum-writing team during the re-development of the Ontario Arts curriculum, he is well versed in strategies and expectations required to deliver arts education. For the past decade, he has worked as an instructor for York University's Continuing Education Program, where he teaches other educators how to teach drama.

Stefanie has a BFA with an honours specialist in dance, where she trained in classical genres. Growing up, she studied under Brian and Fay Foley's ADAPT syllabus. She has taught dance in the Regional Arts program in both the elementary and secondary school panels, where she was also a member of their admissions team.

She was nominated for the Premier's Award for Teaching Excellence, and has been the recipient of many choreography awards for her work at studios in the GTA.

Stephen Lecce, MPP for King-Vaughan, Deputy Government House Leader, and Parliamentary Assistant to the Premier and Minister of Infrastructure, joined by Minister of Finance, Vic Fedeli, consult with job creators and workers on government reforms to spur growth in the economy, support small businesses, and create better jobs through the "Making Ontario Open for Business Act." They toured the facilities of Coco Paving Ltd., a business operating in Vaughan.

Lecce, Fedeli at round table talk

The Vaughan Chamber of Commerce convened a roundtable with the Minister of Finance Victor Fedeli and King-Vaughan MPP Stephen Lecce to discuss broader reforms to drive growth in the economy and increase businesses competitiveness across Ontario.

The event was attended by prominent business leaders in Vaughan who have indicated that industry is struggling to compete under increased costs and regulations with business competitiveness a primary concern for businesses.

"Businesses are experiencing the consequences of red tape and increased regulatory burden, which has dramatically increased over previous years and has significantly impacted industries ability to invest and grow," said Brian Shifman, president & CEO of the Vaughan Chamber of Commerce. "We appreciate that our local MPPs and the new government are consulting business owners to create and implement policies that make it easier to invest, start, and grow a business in the province, as well as build an economy that connects workers to jobs."

"Our new government is working around the clock to create better jobs, to make life affordable, and to unleash the economic potential of our workers and small businesses in Vaughan and across Ontario," said MPP Lecce. "I am grateful to the Vaughan Chamber of Commerce for partnering with us as we consult with job creators directly on how our plan to reduce hydro rates, taxes, red tape will strengthen our local economy and make life affordable for families."

During the course of the discussion, business owners expressed strong support for the Government's actions on the repeal of Bill 148 through the recently introduced Bill 47 legislation. The Vaughan Chamber has been an active voice on the issues surrounding Bill 148 and the Ontario Chamber Network has always maintained that the labour reforms established by the previous government were too much, too fast. The provincial government's announcement of the repeal of Bill 148 is welcome news for the Vaughan business community.

An entertaining look at the Great War and Roaring '20s

By Mark Pavilons

What better way to mark the anniversary of the end of the First World War than a night filled with song, readings, poetry and camaraderie?

Residents are in store for a treat, courtesy of King's own "Diva in the Rough" songstress Catherine Hughes and her acting troupe.

"From Poppies to Peace," is a unique live presentation from some very talented people. Hughes brings her Hughes, known far and wide for her fresh renditions of age-old classics from the 1920s, '30s and '40s. Her music stands the test of time, and Hughes comes alive on stage, entertaining audiences with her crafty sense of humour.

The night will feature tunes from the war era as well as blue vaudeville songs and hits by blues singer Bessie Smith and jazz artist Marion Harris.

Hughes will be accompanied this time by pianist Don Baird, who was musical director for Second City, when star Mike Myers was popular there. He was also musical director for Lion King and Rent to name a few.

The cast members are John Featherston, Mark Rival, Jeff Naworynski, David Mackett, Shelagh Carlini, Deirdre Kirby.

Hughes pointed out that John, Jeff and Mark have played together a lot and have great chemistry when doing comedy.

"Believe it or not there is lightness and humour in order to balance the heaviness of the topic, WWI," Hughes said.

"In Poppies to Peace we also look at the 1920s and the reason why the '20s were so bold, loud and boisterous. It was a celebration, but also a way to block out memories of war and the death of loved ones. It seems as though the '20s were one long PTSD party."

Hughes said the group will involve the audience with a little quiz and prizes as well as counting down to the New Year, (the New Year being 1920).

"Hopefully we bring enough respect and humanity to the topic of 100 years since WWI. Our goal is to have you laugh, cry, smile, cry and laugh again. There is a short sing-a-long at the end of the program just to leave everyone with lighter hearts."

To promote the show, Hughes and her sister will entertain viewers via social media, on Instagram, Facebook and YouTube. The humorous battling siblings will be complemented by historic facts about The Great War.

"Shelagh is my sister and we have a lot of fun doing the social media publicity together," Hughes said. "She is naturally funny and an excellent actress. She also makes me funnier."

You can see our "Meet the Cast" segments and "Facts about Canadians" on Facebook - Catherine Hughes is Diva in the Rough, or on Instagram at divaintherough.

The show is written, directed and produced by Hughes. Poppies to Peace is Saturday, Nov. 3, at The King Heritage & Cultural Centre

Tickets are $25 and this also gets you in to see their latest exhibit on Sir Arthur Currie. You can pay at the door but reservations are recommended by calling the museum at 905-833-2331.

"From Poppies to Peace," an interactive musical performance, takes place this Saturday, Nov. 3 at King Heritage and Cultural Centre. It's written, directed and produced by King's Catherine Hughes, aka "The Diva in the Rough."

Mayor Steve Pellegrini joins artists Deborah Jolly, Liina Peacock and Teri Hastings of Arts Society King.

Urban/Modern art show a success

The success of Urban/Modern 2018, sponsored by Margarida Ramos and BMO, reminds us that, now more than ever, people connect with people.

Nowhere is this more evident, than the rising art scene in King Township. This exhibit was made possible by, and was a direct result of, BMO's commitment to local arts, and to the artists. Of course the enthusiasm and support from their community partners, ASK and the King Heritage & Cultural Centre, is exactly what you would expect from such a dedicated, art-loving organization.

"They helped moved furniture for us and helped with our set up and moved track lighting and carried our art in, and promoted us online; it was truly a lovely and shared experience."

Their new gallery is fresh, welcoming, and, with the artists passion and planning, it was transformed to a space fit for a master - candles, hors d'oeuvres, music, a restrained explosion of high-energy contemporary art, and adoring, passionate guests.

It takes many people to connect and make an event like this happen. Perhaps, it would seem, it takes an art-village.

"We are both proud to be a part an art community that supports our passion, and fuels our artistic inspiration," said participating artists Liina Peacock and Deborah Jolly. "And, with a crowd of supporters and new patrons, it is no wonder that the Urban/Modern 2019 exhibit is already in the works."

Witnesses sought following fatal collision

Investigators with the York Regional Police Major Collision Investigation Unit are seeking witnesses following a fatal collision in the Township of King.

On Friday, Oct. 26, at approximately 6:30 p.m., police responded to a two-vehicle collision on Dufferin Street and Miller's Sideroad. Investigators determined that a blue Subaru was northbound on Dufferin Street when it crossed the centre line and collided head on with a southbound pickup truck. The driver of the Subaru was ejected and the Subaru caught on fire. Witnesses at the scene quickly rushed to cut the passenger out of the burning vehicle.

The ejected driver, a 19-year-old man from Uxbridge, was transported to hospital with life-threatening injuries. He later succumbed to his injuries in hospital.

The passenger who was cut out of the vehicle, a 19-year-old man from Acton, was taken to hospital and is now in stable condition.

These witnesses showed incredible bravery rushing towards a burning vehicle and put their own lives at risk in order to rescue this passenger. As a result of their actions, this young man is expected to make a full recovery.

The driver and two passengers in the pickup truck were not injured.

Any witnesses are being asked to please come forward. Investigators would also like to speak to anyone who may have been in that area or may have seen the vehicle prior to the collision. Contact the Major Collision Investigation Unit by calling 1-866-876-5423, ext. 7704.

Resident support, donations, make Sip & Savour 2018 a night to remember

By Mark Pavilons

When in Rome ...

Nobleton Lakes was alive with the sights and sounds of Italy, during Ciao Roma Sip & Savour, the annual gala fundraiser for the King Township Food Bank.

The who's who of King flocked to the venue, strolled the piazza, shopped the silent auction mercato and enjoyed the Italian cuisine prepared by chef Roger.

Visitors enjoyed the music by accordion player Albert Iaboni and took selfies with the models from Statues Alive. Jenn Scherle set up her easels and visitors enjoyed a version of Art in the Park. Edllusion, one of Toronto's top magicians, made his way through the crowd showing off his sleight of hand.

The highlight of the evening, and a major source of funds for the Food Bank, was the live auction, handled once again by professional auctioneer David Beasley. Top items up for grabs this year were a Toronto Maple Leafs box, courtesy of Priestly Demolition; four Bianchi bicycles, courtesy of Treasure Hill, and an original abstract from artist Ernestine Tahedl.

The event was a resounding success.

PJHL joins forces for breast cancer awareness month

By Jake Courtepatte

Some things are bigger than hockey. Teams from across the Provincial Junior Hockey League put aside the animosity last week for breast cancer awareness month, donning pink uniforms for the cause.

The Schomberg Cougars wrapped up their fundraising campaign on home ice in hosting the Midland Flyers on Thursday night, looking to snap a three-game losing streak at Trisan Centre.

Facing a streaking Flyers squad with wins in three of their last four games, both Schomberg goaltender Parker Hayward-Sword and his Midland counterpart Brody Read kept the game scoreless through the first period, before a four-goal second had the score tied at two at the second intermission.

Midland took a 3-2 lead early in the final frame before back-to-back markers from Spencer Ripley and Alexander Cordeiro gave the Cougars a one-goal lead with under ten minutes left in regulation.

With Midland pressing late in the game, a goal in the final four minutes guaranteed a point for each side before the Flyers took the game in overtime 5-4.

Back to the drawing board against the Caledon Golden Hawks on Friday night, both sides came together in solidarity in their pink uniforms for warm-up – though the rivalry renewed when the puck was dropped.

The Cougars took an early 2-0 lead thanks to goals from Owen Heilemann and Jonathan Calleja, though Caledon's Matt Magliozzi and Kegan Hoover returned the favour before the first buzzer.

Scoring was limited in the middle frame, with Caledon's Marc Simonetta recording the only tally, though the constant carousel to the penalty box saw sixteen minutes of penalties handed out.

Hayward-Sword, between the pipes for the second time in two nights, made a crucial stop on a penalty shot in the final few minutes of play in the third, though Caledon added an empty-netter to take a 4-2 win.

Despite the loss, Thursday's point earned helped the Cougars claw closer to the seventh-place Penetang Kings in the PJHL's Carruthers division standings, four back of the Kings with a record of 2-9-1-2.

Next up for the Cougars is a meeting with the Orillia Terriers on Thursday, who have jumped out to a surprise 9-4-0-0 record so far this season.

Puck drop is set for 7:30 at Trisan Centre.

They then meet with Penetang in a crucial road game on Friday, before wrapping up the week in visiting the interdivisional Goderich Flyers for a Sunday matinee.

The Schomberg Cougars and Caledon Golden Hawks came together in pink uniforms before their PJHL match-up Friday night in support of breast cancer awareness month. The Golden Hawks won 4-2.

NHLers at York-Simcoe Celebrity Hockey Classic

On Friday, Nov. 2, hockey fans in the Vaughan area will have the opportunity to live the dream and participate as line mates with NHL greats such as Wendel Clark, Shayne Corson, John Scott and many more in the sixth annual York-Simcoe Celebrity Hockey Classic in support of Easter Seals Ontario.

The tournament kicks off the evening of Thursday, Nov. 1 with an unforgettable Draft Party, where each team will select a NHL star to play on their team. Draft positions will be determined by the total dollars raised by each team. After an evening spent getting to know their celebrity teammate, teams will hit the ice on Friday, Nov. 2 at The Sports Village in Vaughan. Each team is guaranteed a minimum 3 games with VIP treatment before and after each game.

An All-Star game ends the tournament with the top individual fundraisers from each team taking on the Celebrity All-Star Team in a thrilling game of hockey. Other Celebrity Hockey Classic tournaments taking place this year feature Eric Lindros in Whitby, Brad May in Halton, Rick Vaive in Waterloo and events in Thunder Bay and Grey Bruce.

Funds will help kids in Ontario with physical disabilities live more independently within their communities.

The King City Skating Club would like to thank Mayor Steve Pellegrini, Councillor Cleve Mortelliti, Councillor Debbie Schaefer and all of King council, for their support with the purchase of 2 new skating harnesses.

Clubs praise new skating harnesses

Local skating clubs are thrilled to have the use of two new skating harnesses. One is for the King City Skating Club, the other for the Nobleton Skating Club.

A figure skating jumping harness can dramatically reduce the learning time for double, triple and quad jumps. The coach is able to direct the take-off curve, keep the skater straight in the air, and keep the skater's back in position upon landing. Down-time due to injury can be minimized. You will be able to instill confidence in your skater's ability to do the difficult jumps and have them avoid practicing mistakes.

The made-in-Canada harness was designed and developed by Jan and Nancy Glerup, professional skating coaches and world caliber competitors.

King curlers play with the keys to excellence

By Shellee Morning

“The will to win, the desire to succeed, the urge to reach your full potential. These are the keys that will unlock your door to personal excellence.” Author unknown.

“Excellence” is certainly a key ingredient in the performers of last week’s curling during the Mixed competitive League.

With a 3.5-point spread between the top 9 teams of the 18 team roster, proves once again the parity of the club’s mixed league. Each week the chance to be in the top 5 can change by a mere 1 point game between the win or lose column. And with the new 5 rock rule in play teams are recording some fairly hefty scores.

Sitting at the top after 4 games in regular season play is Team Boynton with Teams Pelland and Smith tied for 2nd place breathing down their neck with a single point difference. Team Steenhoek is hot in the hack with ½ point behind for 3rd place and Team Morning just 1 point back to secure 4th. Teams Gerrits and Robinson have swept into a tie for 5th place overall.

Team Steenhoek who was solid after the first 3 games of the season and in first place, were handed their first loss last week to Boynton. The first few ends were kept simple and looked to be anybody’s game. Boynton found the curl path mid-way through the game then cruised to the win column with a 7-3 decision.

Skip Jim Smith was up against Skip George Gerrits where both teams displayed the “will to win” and came to play going end for end on the scoreboard. The final decision took the whole 8 ends to be determined with handshakes given to Smith.

The league’s only lady Skip; Shellee Morning greeted Team Jack Campbell in the rings on sheet 3. Pinpoint shots were executed by both teams with a tip of the broom going to Vice Laurel Nelson (Team Campbell) for 2 timely doubles to help her team keep the game close. The teams exchanged the lead back and forth a few times with the final outcome awarded to Team Morning after a hit and stick for the single point and for the 6-5 win.

Team Pelland was put to the challenge against Team Quick. Skip Richard Quick and his new squad to the league found their A-game collecting points through their match pushing the Pelland team to their full potential. Coming down to the final rock in the 8th end, it was Team Pelland who succeeded with excellence for the 7-6 victory.

With the games this tense and close in the running, any given game can be the deciding factor for a place in the top of the roster.

Every game has its challenges, and every game will have its rewards. Whether it’s the score, or finally making that “draw to the button,” the challenge has been met, and you will grow. You will meet your potential, and you will succeed. As they always say, the game isn’t over until the last rock is thrown.

Arthritis:

New Approach
Delivers
Remarkable Results

If you suffer from Arthritis you need to be aware of effective advancements that can eliminate years of pain, suffering, immobility and frustration.

You may have told your doctor you suffer with one or more of the following: sore, stiff knees, painful achy hips, low back pain, mid back pain, neck stiffness or pain, hand stiffness, shoulder pain or elbow pain.

You may find that your pain or stiffness affects your work, housekeeping, leisure activities, exercise, sports or other activities. You go to the drug store or to your doctor and get pills to help relieve your pain. But you find the pain keeps returning. Alternatively, the doctor may refer you to a specialist who may tell you that surgery is needed or is an option for you.

However, many people are hesitant to have surgery given its invasive nature. It is important to know that although surgery is sometimes necessary, it is considered a last resort in most cases.

Also, you may have heard that there are serious health risks associated with chronic use (or overuse) of pain pills or anti-inflammatory drugs that include damage to the liver, kidneys and gut.

There is a new, natural, safe and highly effective approach that has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically: Laser therapy uses light to favor and accelerate the body’s natural healing processes. The innovative Multiwave Locked System (MLS) Laser produces a safe, efficient and simultaneous effect on pain, inflammation, swelling and water retention, exceeding the limits of traditional LLLT (Low power) and concerns of HP (High power) laser therapy.

What does this mean for you?

Our patients have reported a 90-95% relief of their symptoms, more mobility, increased flexibility and vastly improved function!

It is the very latest in medical technology, with years of clinical studies supporting its safety and efficacy and we are very proud to offer our patients effective solutions to their recent or chronic conditions.

“This new, natural, safe and highly effective approach has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically”.

Come in and allow us to help you achieve the results you deserve! Call (905) 773-2225 to book your FREE consultation and examination at King West Wellness Centre 141 King Rd., Unit 10, Richmond Hill (In the Home Hardware Plaza)

King residents at record-breaking Scotiabank Marathon

More than 25,000 people, from over 70 countries, took part in the 29th annual Scotiabank Toronto Waterfront Marathon recently, raising an estimated $3.5 million for nearly 200 local charities, through the Scotiabank Charity Challenge.

Race highlights include:

A Canadian national record set by Cam Levins in his marathon debut, with a time of 2:09:25

A new course record set by female Bahraini marathoner Mimi Belete, with time of 2:22:29

In her debut marathon, Canadian Kinsey Middleton finished in a time of 2:32:09, the first Canadian female to cross the line.

Benson Kipruto of Kenya won the men's marathon in a time of 2:07:24

Competing in the full marathon was King's own Joan Kelley Walker. She said it was hard, but she expected it to be.

"I'm very pleased to have completed it! It was very inspiring! I did it! Learned so much! I killed it the first half then slowed down in the second, but I am very happy to have completed it! A personal goal, check off the bucket list!"

In the half-marathon, competing from King were Connor Anderson, King City; Michael Auciello, Nobleton; Nadia Racco, King City; Hayley MacNeil, King City; Mike Sovereign, King City; Beverly Strain, Schomberg; Maya Crispino, Schomberg, and Silke Huber of King City.

"So many unforgettable moments — Cam Levins' new national record was undoubtedly the highlight. Since its inception, we wanted to build a marathon that Toronto and Canada would be proud of. We have always aimed to have a balance between sport and community and I think we can all be proud of what was achieved today," said Alan Brookes, Race Director of the Scotiabank Toronto Waterfront Marathon.

The Scotiabank Toronto Waterfront Marathon is one of Scotiabank's six sponsored running events in Canada this year, with events taking place in Montreal, Halifax, Ottawa, Calgary, Vancouver and Toronto.

The Scotiabank Charity Challenge is a turnkey fundraising program that provides a simple and effective way to support local causes that make a big difference in people's lives.

We Believe in Abby

This past week our Community lost little Abby. She put up a valiant fight but she just couldn't fight anymore.

Abby's parents, Becky and Craig, along with many friends had organized 4 annual "We Believe In Abby Family Days" which celebrated another year with Abby and her very special siblings. These were free celebrations for the community and any donations raised went right back to Sick Kids Hospital that had allowed them to enjoy every possible moment with Abby and thank the community for their constant inclusion and support.

The community was so saddened by the loss of Abby that everyone stepped right up to the plate.

Rory McKinnon, of Schomberg McDonald's, donated 100% of all sales of the Ronald McDonald House Charities Cookies from the Schomberg McDonald's to go to the "We Believe In Abby" fund.

Rory said: "We are do honored to be a part of this great community that cares so much."

Pink bows have appeared everywhere throughout our town-trees, stop signs, hydro poles, parks, porches - everywhere. They will help us heal and continue to share Abby's very special effect on this community.

The family has decided to work with the Township to build an accessible memorial park in Abby's name in Schomberg, with the hope of adding a Pavilion where community events and fundraisers can be held. Hopefully, it will be a location that inspires young and old to give back to charities that are close to their heart.

The weekend sales of their cookies will be the starting point of the Abby Memorial Park donations and will continue to grow and make this park a reality for the family and our community.

Abby was truly a shining light and a very special little girl. Hopefully her memory will reinforce in all of us to pay it forward, be kind to others and always enjoy the moment.

We will always Believe In Abby!

By Nancy Hopkinson

The service this Sunday, Nov. 4 will be at Kitchen Breendon Manor at 9:30 a.m. The focus is on 2 Kings 5:1-15a, a story of Naaman, a leper who was cured after being told by the prophet Elisha to wash 7 times in the Jordan River. Naaman did so and was cured. How will Rev. Carol-Ann Chapman relate that story to our lives? Come and find out!

On Remembrance Day, Nov. 11, there are two choices for the Schomberg congregation. Since Remembrance Day is on a Sunday this time, everyone is invited to attend the ceremony at the Cenotaph in front of the Trisan Centre at 10:30 a.m. This is an outdoor service, which is very special, but often a bit windy and cold. Nobleton United is also inviting Schomberg to a warm service at their church at 11:15 a.m. We will be honouring people that we know personally who have served in the military. Rev. Carol-Ann Chapman is inviting us to send photos and info via email to ministernobletonschomberg@gmail.com. Rev. Carol-Ann has information that was submitted last year, so if you already submitted something, there is no need to resubmit.

Do you love craft and bake sales? Schomberg United is having one on Saturday, Nov. 24, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at St. Mary Magdalene Church. There are crafters who have created hand-made jewellery, soap, painted candles, cards, sewn, knit and preserved items and Regal products. At the tearoom for breakfast, we will be serving freshly baked muffins and homemade tea biscuits, or a gluten-free item with Muskoka Roastery coffee or Yorkshire Gold tea and orange juice. At lunch time we will switch to ham and cheese on fresh baked tea biscuits, with raw veggies and dip with tea and coffee. Breakfast or lunch is $5.

Schomberg Club 55

Schomberg Club 55 meets every other week at 10:30 a.m. in the Curling Lounge of the Trisan Centre, 25 Dillane Drive. This group, along with their regular meetings, organizes special events, programs, activities and outings for seniors in our community.

Their next outing is planned for Friday, Nov. 2 to Flato Markham Theatre, 171 Town Centre Boulevard, Markham. You will be blown away by The New Chinese Acrobats, who are an elite handpicked troupe of Chinese acrobat performers who will astound you with their daring feats of strength, agility, balance, grace and artistry. Their amazing acrobatic prowess defies the laws of physics and nature leaving you in a state of awe and wonder.

Personal transportation is being organized but if you are interested, please call Lynn Bird at 905-836-2597 or email schombergclub55@gmail.com

St. Paul's Church

On Nov. 11, the world will mark the 100th anniversary of the end of World War I, the "war to end all wars." In recognition of this event, we will be tolling our church bell 100 times beginning at sunset on Nov. 11. Young people are encouraged to participate; contact the church office at 905-859-0843 if you or a youth you know would like to help toll the bell that evening.

St. Paul's is involved in Operation Christmas Child, a hands-on project that brings joy and hope to children in desperate situations around the world through gift-filled shoeboxes packed by Canadians. It is one way to remind children suffering as a result of war, poverty, famine, disease, and disaster that they are loved and not forgotten. You can find out more about this opportunity at www.samaritanspurse.ca/about-operation-christmas-child. Lunch will be served after worship on Nov. 11 at which time shoeboxes will be filled for those of us that are not able to fill a whole shoebox, but would rather contribute items. If you are interested in filling a shoebox, just e-mail the church office at secretary@stpaulsnobleton.ca. The deadline for collection of shoeboxes is Nov. 11.

The Community Youth Group meets most Thursdays at the church from 7-9 p.m. Come join in the fun. Follow our Instagram account to stay up to date on current events, "4.12.youth.group." Check this space for details, or contact our church office at 905-859-0843. A2J, our program for kids in Grades 3 to 6, meets the second and fourth Fridays of the month at 7 p.m.

LifeConnect Groups are small gatherings for friendship, study and prayer. Our newest LifeConnect Group gathers on Thursdays at 7 p.m. at the church to learn the faith and grow together. We have several other LifeConnect Groups that meet throughout the week. If you are interested, please contact the church office and we can give you further details on these.

We are blessed at St. Paul's to have diligent librarians that have worked for years on creating an amazing library with new books being added weekly. This is a true goldmine if you are a reader. You're welcome to borrow from it anytime!

The first and third Tuesday of the month we have a group of people that get together at 1 p.m. to do Quilting. The second and fourth Tuesday of the month, the focus is on knitting. All handcrafted items are donated to various mission projects.

This Sunday Jeff continues his series on the Gospel of John. Jeff's message this week, "Befuddled!" is based on John 7.25-36. Ministry for children of all ages takes place at the same time. Following the service all are invited to spend time together over refreshments.

Jeff's messages are posted at www.passionatelyhis.com each week. They are also on Facebook Live and are available on the church's Facebook page (@stpaulsnobleton) and YouTube page (search St. Paul's Church, Nobleton) for viewing.

For more information about ANY of our activities or events, please contact the church office or visit our website at www.stpaulsnobleton.ca.

St. Mary's Church

Heralds of the Gospel, rosary and talk, is held at St. Mary's Church, 190

McTaggart Drive, on Monday at 7:30 p.m. After the rosary there will be a short talk about Our Lady, presented by one of the Heralds. Please check the Schedule of Events for upcoming date in the church bulletin.

A big thanks to all those who came out to support the various St. Mary's CWL fundraisers. Also to St. Mary's CWL for their generous donation through sharing of the proceeds from the yard sale, apple pie sale and Soupfest. It was only possible through the hard work of the CWL ladies who volunteered their valuable time and the students that helped with these events.

On Holy Humour Sunday, Nov. 18, the Joyful Spirits will sing a funny piece called "All God's Creatures Have a Place in the Choir." The Joyful Spirits are mooing, croaking, neighing and braying as well as singing in harmony. Jokes will be told. It is a fun service.

On Monday, Nov. 19, we are having a Christmas Pot Luck Social. Yes we know Christmas is a month away, but things get too hectic in December, so we are celebrating early. Come and join the fun. We gather at 6 p.m., eat at 6:30. Sharon Birks and her team always organize some interesting activities for us.

The next Messy Church is on Tuesday, Nov. 20, from 5 to 7 p.m. and dinner is included. There is no charge for this fun time with young families. There are various crafts related to the theme each month. The theme this month is "Who is the Holy Spirit?" The story time at 6 p.m. is interactive. We eat at 6:15 p.m. Make sure that clothes are washable, because some of the activities are messy! For more info, call Nancy at 905-859-0761. Also mark your calendar for Messy Church on Sunday, Dec. 9, 11:15 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. (includes lunch).

Last Saturday's Craft and Bake Sale attracted people who used to live in Nobleton as well as our current neighbours. It was lovely to see old and new friends. Thanks to everyone who contributed to making this event a success, especially Fran Bones who made 13 dozen butter tarts for the bake table, as well as innumerable meat pies with her many helpers, and special thanks to Val Ball and her sister Sue DiFebo who organized the delicious lunch of sandwiches, celery and carrot sticks, pickles and cookies. The Raffle winners: Marg Adams (formerly of Nobleton, now in Alliston) won the beautiful Queen-sized quilt; Penny Emmans (Nobleton) won the glossy wooden turntable; Leslie Riley (Schomberg) won the Gift Basket.

For more info, visit nobletonunitedchurch.com, our Facebook page, or call 905-859-3976. The church office is normally open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings. Nobleton United, 6076 King Rd., is north of the King Rd., about 6 buildings west of Hwy 27.

On Sunday, Oct. 28 we examined the roots of Halloween and the fun and trickery behind the event with remembrances from our past. A holiday rooted in celebrating the dark and spooky sides of life and even sometimes some trickery is stark contrast to God's light. We hope that all in the community had a safe and fun Halloween night and will remember that in the darkness, God's light will always be present to light our path.

Rehearsals have begun for the annual Men's Dinner and Show, a wonderful roast beef dinner hosted by the men of The United Church and friends. The date for this wonderful performance and roast beef dinner is Nov. 23 and 24 at 7 p.m. For tickets (at $30) you can call the church office (contact is below). This is a ticketed event so get your tickets early!

Please join us for worship on Sunday at 10 am (Sunday school runs at the same time).

For those looking for some conversation and company, Tea and talk takes place on Friday mornings at the Sunset Grill (1700 King Rd) at 10 a.m. All are welcome to come out and join in a cup of coffee or tea and some conversation.

If you have any questions please contact the church office at 905-833-5181.

King Bible Church

Please join us on Sunday, Nov. 4 as Pastor Mark will be continuing our journey on "The Guaranteed Places to Encounter God" with "The Word

Gifts-Part 1."

"Every day is full of various encounters, encounters with our families, encounters with our neighbours, encounters with those we work with or go to school with. Each one of those encounters in varying degrees has had a part in shaping who we are and who we will become. This coming year we as a church are going to focus on another encounter, the encounter to meet with God. We are going to walk through 8 different places that God has said through his Word he will meet us and transform us. We would like to invite you to join us on this life changing journey."

Please take advantage of our excellent children's ministry. Our Sunday morning "Celebration Zone" provides age-appropriate programs for children aged 4 to Grade 8. Our children's program is staffed by screened volunteers who care about your kids! The children in Grades 1-8 will join their parents for the beginning of the service until they are invited to go downstairs. The children in kindergarten can go directly to their class at the start of the service.

If you have children aged 0-3 then we invite you to bring them to our beautiful and safe Nursery facilities which are located on the lower level. Caregivers will meet you there.

Our "Legacy" nights are our family Bible Study nights. We chose the theme of "Legacy" because we believe that's what families are looking for; both to be a part of as well as leave a lasting "Legacy."

We will provide Nursery care for children 0-3.

Our children (JK-Grade 5) & Junior High (Grade 6-8) classes will meet downstairs. Our adults will meet upstairs.

Our program runs from 6:45 to 8 p.m. every Tuesday.

Join us this Sunday, Nov. 4 at 10:30 a.m. when Alvin Kim, a graduate from Knox College will lead us in worship. Remember that Daylight Saving ends and adjust your clocks!

Lynn Vissers will lead us the following Sunday, Nov. 11, Remembrance Day. Sunday School for school-aged children up to 12 years will runs concurrently and a nursery is available.

Last Sunday, the Rev. Paul McLean and his wife Mary Beth visited with us. Paul's sermon "God's Living Active Word," was based on Acts 8:26-40 where Philip was guided by God to find a complete stranger travelling in the desert from Jerusalem to Gaza. He was an official of the Queen of Ethiopia's treasury who happened to be reading a passage of scripture from the Old Testament while on his way home. He didn't understand the passage and was thrilled when Philip was able to explain the scriptures to him. They became living and active, resulting in the reader's becoming a believer.

During coffee time, Paul continued to emphasize how God's Word, the Bible, is Living and Active as he showed us slides about his exciting work as a Bible Translation Advisor in partnership with the Presbyterian Church in Taiwan and the Bible Society in Taiwan.

"Messy Church" last Sunday had the families showing gratitude to the King City firefighters by making cookies and special cookie bags for each firefighter. Fun was had by all and the church smelled delicious! The next Messy Church is Nov. 25 from 5-7 p.m. We hope you can come and bring your friends for this fun, creative time where we get to know more about God's love for us. Our evening ends with a wonderful communal supper at 6 p.m.

Soup and Conversation for "the after work gals" continues Wednesday evenings at 6:30 p.m. at the church office.

Because of the early winter weather, the Fall Yard Clean-up was postponed. However, if any teens need volunteer hours please call us!

Cleaning out your clothes closets? Warmer winter clothing for men, women and children is now being collected to be taken to Evangel Hall. Contact Bonnie Mooney at 905-833-5256.

It is wonderful to be able to talk with God anytime and anyplace and know that He is there and cares. It's getting a little chilly for prayer walks, but happily a new venue for a Ladies' Prayer Group is in the works and we hope to start very soon on Tuesday mornings from 9 to 10 a.m. More information to follow.

For pastoral care needs contact Lynn Vissers, Director of Congregational Ministries at the office, 905-833-2325 or contact our Interim Moderator, the Rev. Paul Johnston, 705-341-7738.

We are located at 13190 Keele St., 2 blocks north of the King Rd. www.standrews-kingcity.ca

All Saints Anglican Church By Patrick Gossage

Special welcome for new parishioners - This Sunday we celebrate the "All" in All Saints. On this the feast of All Saints after the 10:30 service there will be a special coffee hour as we gather as a community to welcome and connect with those who have recently joined us. This is an opportunity for new and older parishioners to get to know each other better and to share what our faith life means to us. All are welcome. Bring friends.

Words to live by in dark times - Mark 10's story of the blind man who received his sight from Jesus was the Gospel last Sunday. Rev. Dr. Elizabeth talked of the grief and despair we all felt about the tragic violence in a house of worship the day before in Pittsburgh. The darkness and fear we all feel as well with threatening ecological and climate events.

"But the blind beggar in his darkness saw God and God saw him." She said. "Do not allow darkness to prevent you from seeing the love of God and doing his work. God sees you. You are born again. We mustn't turn a blind eye to each other. We must stop anti-Semitic dialogue. My Lord is Jewish."
