MPP Stephen Lecce announces financial support for King Museum

MPP Stephen Lecce visited the King Museum recently, bringing word of funding from the Government of Ontario. The funding will promote the preservation of King Township's rich history.

"Rich history lives in King. That is why our new government is committed to protecting our local heritage, while focusing on our top priorities: better jobs, affordability, and opportunities for the residents of King. The funds announced today will offer support and stability to the King Township Museum, providing the residents of King-Vaughan a place to continue to embrace our shared history," Lecce said.

Marco Muzzo denied parole

By Mark Pavilons

Marco Muzzo will have to wait another year before he applies for parole once more.

The Parole Board denied Muzzo's application for day and full parole last week, noting he hasn't addressed his alcohol misuse.

Muzzo was sentenced to 10 years in prison in 2016 after pleading guilty to four counts of impaired driving causing death and two counts of impaired driving causing bodily harm.

Muzzo was convicted in the Sept. 27, 2015 fatal accident that killed Daniel, Harry and Milly Neville-Lake and their grandfather Gary.

The board received numerous letters and petitions both for and against Muzzo's parole request.

"We don't question your remorse. It's obvious that this is a very difficult thing for you to deal with," said the board panel.

"I don't and won't get the chance for parole from this life sentence of misery and despair," Jennifer Neville-Lake said at the hearing. Neville-Lake told reporters outside the hearing she does not believe Muzzo is remorseful.

"Although parole was denied, it doesn't change a thing for me," she said. "I will still stare at urns, still stare at photos because an impaired driver stole innocent lives."

An online petition against Muzzo's parole garnered more than 10,500 names in just over six days. The petition was started by Thornhill's Jennifer Stallman. The petition was to the parole board. It says in part:

"We are a community asking for tougher drinking under the influence laws. We are asking that Marco Muzzo should not be allowed parole and should finish the rest of his 10-year sentence in prison. Our kids deserve protection. Stronger laws and consequences are going to help this. Our community has been deeply affected since Sept. 27, 2015, by the death of the Neville-Lake children and their grandfather. Please make an example out of him to prevent more DUI cases. We are all feeling grief for this family."

THE BEST MOVE YOU COULD MAKE

Editorial, Letters & Opinion

"A newspaper is the center of a community, it's one of the tent poles of the community, and that's not going to be replaced by websites and blogs."

- Michael Connelly

Is the universe wasted on human beings?

In order for us to put on our pants in the morning, the universe had to be created.

Carl Sagan once used that type of logic to bring the importance of the universe to our attention. He was right, of course. This, like many other questions, furthers the chicken-and-the-egg scenario. Which came first? Why, the universe, naturally.

As we roll up to the drive-through window and order our morning cup of coffee, many of life's mysteries come to mind. Such as did they get my order correct; does God have a sense of humour, and what's the price of gas today?

Okay, these aren't very mysterious or important in the big picture. But that's the key right there. We humans, unaware of just what created the universe in the first place, allowing us to scramble some eggs for breakfast, aren't very deep thinkers. Sure, we're quite intelligent critters, capable of complex calculations, formulas, economic strategies and musical compositions. More often than not, many of our fellow humans are reduced to Homer Simpson-like souls, one-dimensional cartoon characters, made to move on the whims of some omnipotent artist. Our thoughts centre on lunch, the newest Netflix offering and Friday's Lotto Max jackpot.

We anxiously wait for Black Friday or Cyber Monday so we can grab some pre-holiday bargains. We are more concerned about the lives of Hollywood stars than our own friends, neighbours and co-workers.

I wonder if the universe, in all of its massive brilliance, was created for a mightier purpose than this. I wonder if we're just squandering such cosmic wonders.

I've long been fascinated by astronomy and the sheer brainpower needed to send the Shuttle back and forth; to guide a probe millions of miles to explore a neighbouring planet. A room full of scientists are elated every time a course change goes off without a hitch. This is a typical day at the office for some of our brilliant minds, dedicated to furthering humankind in their own small way.

For most of us, we don't give it a thought, knowing very little about our water-filled ball speeding through space. We prefer to check our texts on our smart phones, keep our streaks alive and chuckle at the latest grams or posts.

Maybe that's how it should be - specialists doing their special things; billionaires making economic decisions; politicians making sure everything is running smoothly.

I do hope God, when he granted us free will, wasn't expecting more out of us.

On the micro-level, we're quite accomplished. We're nurturing, friendly, compassionate souls, willing to do what's necessary for the common good.

We run our fingers through out children's often sticky locks and give them a hug when they scrape their knees.

My son and I often discuss the nature of the universe and try to make sense of the Big Bang, wormholes and the future of space travel. As his enthusiasm and knowledge grow, maybe he will one day solve some of those galactic mysteries. Maybe he will achieve his dream and be among our species' first deep space explorers.

He can be a deep thinker at times, often criticizing his fellow humans for their bad behaviour. As long as he keeps learning and keeps questioning, he may find answers to our more earthly pursuits.

We humans are prone to rather mundane lifestyles that involve recycling and putting up holiday decorations. We also display less than remarkable behaviour.

Hopefully it's just a phase, and our species will eventually come into its own. Maybe we are really poised for greatness, the likes of which the galaxy hasn't seen in recent millennia.

Either that or the earth will be destroyed to make way for a cosmic super highway.

I realize we all can't accomplish greatness each and every day. Our roles, societal guidelines and even our physical forms limit our achievements.

The fact is we are making great strides every day. There are tons of technological marvels just waiting to be unveiled. Medical advancements occur weekly and we're constantly looking for new forms of energy.

No, new homes in King City aren't being built with roof-top observatories or basement cryogenic chambers. But even making our homes smarter will make us a bit smarter down the road.

I've been documenting human events for more than three decades. I have found that my fellow humans are fascinating people who have risen from the depths of despair to the heights of unbelievable accomplishments. I have witnessed unspeakable tragedies and shared in marvellous triumphs, too.

I continue to be impressed by King residents and their contributions to society. Oh, if only we could include the whole of King in Spaceship Earth, the next ark set off in search of a new world.

Our race still has a lot to learn, so perhaps the onus is on each and every one of us to become teachers, leaders and mentors. If we all share our gifts with others, we'll make the universe proud!

Semi-annual public complaints report

The York Regional Police Chief reports to the board on an annual and semi-annual basis with respect to public complaints. During the first half of 2018, 86 complaints were filed against York Regional Police officers compared to 77 during the same period in 2017. Sixteen (16) of those complaints remain under investigation. Thirty-nine (39) complaints were deemed to be not in the public interest, frivolous, or more appropriately dealt with under another Act or law; six complaints were unsubstantiated; 15 public complaints were withdrawn by the complainant; two complaints were resolved informally and one complaint did not fall under the jurisdiction of the Office of the Independent Police Review Director. The nature of the majority of complaints relates to police procedure.

Have your say on Sustainability Plan

Created in partnership with the community, Sustainable King has acted as the template for a long-term plan to help King reach its environmental, socio-cultural, economic and financial sustainability goals. Sustainable King provides immediate priorities and a framework of tangible goals and actions to strive towards in King.

Six years later, it is now time to reflect and refocus. It is also time to assess our progress and move towards the next phase of Sustainable King's implementation. King is undertaking a refresh of its Sustainability Plan and residents are being asked for input. Sustainable King is always looking for new ideas and ways to meet their sustainability goals.

King Township Food Bank centres open Saturday

This Saturday, Nov. 17, the three Distribution Centres are open from 9-11 a.m. to receive those registered with the Food Bank. If you need help, please call ahead 905-806-1125 or ktfoodbank@gmail.com so food can be shipped to the appropriate centre in the right quantity for you.

Again, the monthly distribution will have donated produce from Hillside Gardens, along with extra treats from Tim Hortons Schomberg and Dorio's Kettleby Italian Bakery.

The biggest events for the Food Bank in the past month have been the hugely successful Sip & Savour, called Ciao Roma, again raising over $30,000 under the direction of Méliné Beach. This is Méliné's second Sip & Savour, and she took it to new heights, with her volunteer team creating the best ever silent and live auctions, record attendance and a Diamond Sponsor, York Energy Centre.

This was followed by Méliné accepting the position of secretary on the board of KTFB, replacing Antonette Mollicone who is retiring, but not disappearing, as she has promised to be available for consulting. The board will miss her fine legal mind, but she says the board can call on her when necessary.

Country Day School held its annual drive for the Food Bank, bringing in nearly $2,000 worth of food, 95% of which can be used in our menu boxes, thus helping the budget in a very direct way. Special thanks to Talia Black of CDS Grade 4 for coordinating the project for the Middle School.

King City Secondary School joined forces through Me to We, Student Council and Empowering Student Partnerships to conduct a drive for food and funds late in October, helping to fill shelves and the bank account.

Erin Greenblatt, on staff at KCSS was the coordinator and thanks are offered for the wonderful result that involved so many of the school student organizations.

Showa Canada held an October Drive at their plant in Schomberg, it was large shipment to the Depot, all the more impressive as KTFB notes that even people who do not live in King respond generously to help those struggling to make ends meet.

Alloro Fine Foods conducted a Thanksgiving Drive in which their customers participated generously by purchasing pre packed bags.

Royal Bank, King Township and Kleinburg, under the new leadership of Cesar Roldan and Carissa Carrabeta brought a large team to the Depot in Kettleby for the annual pack, offering in addition a cheque for $1,000.

Visit www.ktfb.ca for the latest news and updates, including distribution dates, that are always the third Saturday of the month. For December, the date is Saturday, Dec. 14.

Operating for over 15 years, this is a volunteer run, Township wide program to help everyone in King have a Merry Christmas

Bells ring 100 times for peace

A group of enthusiastic bell ringers and supporters gathered at the “going down of the sun” on Nov. 11, outside King City United Church, to mark the centennial of the end of the First World War. This local initiative was organized by Sandra Kirby as part of the Royal Canadian Legion’s “Bells of Peace” program.

Sandra explained that “Bells are a symbolically strong way to mark important occasions and reminiscent of the ringing of bells to signify peace after war. This initiative will be undertaken in many other countries as well.”

Ringers represented various King Township churches including King City United, Nobleton United and St. Andrew’s Presbyterian churches. Each ringer rang their bell individually 10 times and the sound of peace rang out for almost 17 minutes.

Board approves 2019 police budget

The board approved the 2019 York Regional Police Operating Budget of $327.9 million, which is a 3.7 percent increase over the 2018 budget and includes the addition of 53 police officers and civilian members to address population growth and intensification, continued sustainable and effective police services to the communities, increasing demands for service and cannabis enforcement.

The 2019 Police Operating Budget continues to maintain the lowest policing cost per capita in Canada among comparable police services (with populations of over 1 million residents).

The board also approved the 2019 York Regional Police Capital Budget of $33.5 million with a Capital Spend Authority of $62.5 million. The expenditures include $14.5 million for facilities, $8.6 million for vehicles, $5.9 million for information technology, $4.1 million for specialized equipment and $0.3 million for communication equipment. Financing for the capital budget is a combination of contributions from reserves, debenture proceeds repaid from development charges, debt reduction reserve funding, development charge collections and external funding.

The 2019 Police Budget will be tabled at York Regional Council in January. A copy of the budget presentation can be found on the board’s website yrpsb.ca.

Dream becomes reality with the Olde Mill Art Gallery and Shoppe

It was a packed house for the official grand opening of the Olde Mill Art Gallery and Shoppe, a cooperative gallery located in the Old Feed Mill on Main Street in Schomberg.

Patricia Earl spoke on behalf of the artists, and shared how the gallery came to be.

"It was George Burt's vision to showcase local artists and artisans while at same time add some more life to Main Street. Forming a pop up gallery is just the perfect opportunity and the old Mill is the perfect venue. It is incredible to see the transformation of this space in just a couple of short weeks, as if made to showcase artists and artisans."

She also thanked Janet and Paul Hill, owners of the Mill for supporting this venture and making this space available.

"I couldn't have said it better," said Mayor Pellegrini, just prior to cutting the ribbon. "We live in a wonderful, caring community, and it is fantastic to see all the people here supporting this new business. It's ventures like these, and the support of the community that will inspire more people to make Main Street the home to their business."

"The timing of this opening couldn't be better," commented Councillor Bill Cober. "With A Main Street Christmas just around the corner, there will be 6,000 people on Main Street. With beautiful art like this, I am sure they won't be leaving empty handed."

The gallery has already sold a number of works, including two paintings to a shopper from Port Perry, hand weaving to a King resident, and an extraordinary painting that practically sang to its new owner.

Pamela Godwin, local interior designer, shared the heartwarming reasons behind her purchase of Bill Lunshof's painting "Like a Rock."

"My son loves cars, and he was really close to his grandfather, who passed away six years ago," she explained. "Their favourite song to sing together was Like a Rock. When I saw that painting, and its name, I felt so emotional I had to step outside to compose myself. I called a friend and she told me that if a painting made me feel so strongly, I ought to buy it. And here I am. My son will love it."

The art gallery features an eclectic assortment of art, including acrylic, watercolour and oil paintings, creations crafted from wood, quilting and hand woven items, all beautifully displayed within the historic ambiance of the Old Feed Mill.

It is open Thursdays through Sundays, noon to 6 p.m. and is slated to stay open until Dec. 10, but already some of the artists are considering extending their stay. To see more of the artists' work, visit www.experienceking.ca/gallery

Nobleton's inaugural shop local Christmas Market

By Mark Pavilons

Bringing the community together and supporting local businesses is the theme behind the first Nobleton Christmas Market.

The market will be held Nov. 25, from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Nobleton arena. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

The market is the brainchild of Melissa Gatto and her aunt Rita.

"We wanted to create a market that supports local businesses. We want to bring the community together to shop for a few hours and experience the feeling of shopping local and actually getting to know members of the community," Gatto said.

She's quick to point out that most people refer to these enterprises as "small businesses," but these vendors put so much time into their products (creating them, sourcing them, promoting them) they pour their hearts and souls into what they do. Gatto said most of these business owners are parents working two jobs, with small children, and they still put in the time, pulling all nighters to create their pieces.

"We believe we have some of the most talented people participating in our market. This is why Rita and I have been promoting each vendor constantly through our social media outlets, and now through this paper.

"The Market With Purpose is also largely focused on acts of kindness. We want to promote giving back. Working with charities is something we want to incorporate in every single market we organize. We want to encourage communities to come together and become involved in various issues. We strongly believe that by spreading kindness we can slowly start to change things. In a world right now that has become extremely scary, it's nice to see people joining forces and being there for one another."

Gatto pointed out they were on the receiving end of an act of kindness from a Nobleton business owner. Rosie, from North Flow Yoga in Nobleton, allow them to place the road sign on her property so they could utilize the full 30-day permit.

"This was a person who didn't know Rita or myself and yet took a chance to help us so that we could promote this market asking for nothing in return. Thank you again to Rosie from North Flow Yoga."

Gatto said they are so thankful to their two sponsors, Tile Giant Ltd. located in Vaughan, who has sponsored the event and Lisa Colalillo a realtor in Vaughan who has sponsored the 25 stocking stuffer swag bags being given away to the first 25 shoppers. Without them this event would not have been possible.

Participants include Sparkle With Elegance Weddings and Events, Kidzations, For Your Keepsake, Maya's Beads, 7Camicie Canada, Mommy Hobby Creations, Once Upon a Time Designs, One of a Kind Lawn Signs, SweetLegs Holland Landing with Annie, Concept Thirteen Woodworking, It Works Global, Epicure, Ruby Two Shoes Publishing Inc., Peas in a Pod Baby Boutique, Soul Tribe Boutique, Healing Finds.

Importance of family vital to King Fire and Emergency Services

By Mark Pavilons

There's a large, close-knit family in King that numbers over 150 men, women, mothers, fathers, sons and daughters.

They all share a passion for helping their communities, and risking their lives in the process.

The family got together last week for an annual reunion, at the 2018 King Fire & Emergency Services Appreciation Dinner, held at Nobleton Lakes. Members laughed, cried, pondered and counted their blessings as they paid tribute to their siblings and mentors.

MC and 20-year veteran Doug Bolton provided his highly entertaining manner to the proceedings.

But he was quite serious when he said most people can't choose their families but in KFES, "we do, and it's truly a great family."

Mayor Steve Pellegrini extended his thanks for the hard work and dedication of our volunteer firefighters and their families.

"It's inspiring to reflect on another year of your service to our community; at times a very difficult year!

"I salute the extraordinary efforts you have made in so many ways while you serve our community and I share this sentiment with all members of council.

To the family members of firefighters, "thank you for sharing your spouse, father, mother, brother, sister, son or daughter with us your community! There is no greater honour than to serve your community.

"And There is no greater reward than to serve your community.

"You are the epitome of service ambassadors for the Township; whether it is at an emergency, one of the many special events, fireworks, checking smoke detectors, as an Honour Guard ... you do us proud and it is my honour to thank each and every one of you."

Fire Chief Jim Wall took time to centre out the family members of the firefighters, the "support team" and "constant" within the families.

"This family is quite resilient, and that allows us to do what we do," he said.

The chief also thanked Mayor Pellegrini for always being just a phone call away.

"Tonight is a night where we can slow down and take the time to show our appreciation for what you and your families and loved ones do for King Fire & Emergency Services, the communities you live in and the Township of King," noted Deputy Chief James Arnold.

King-Vaughan MPP Stephen Lecce lauded the firefighters for bringing the light to often dark situations. He, too, praised them and their families for putting the community first, and displaying the qualities of courage, service and leadership.

Members of each station were asked to provide their personal insights.

Elliott Antonacci, of Station 34 (King City), said they all have pride in ownership. The members are all driven to help others and constantly train to be the best. The crew maintains a positive attitude and come gell together; when responding to an estimated 600 calls per year.

Lucas Stonehouse, from Schomberg's Station 36, said his high school placement has turned into the greatest opportunity of his life.

King Fire Chief Jim Wall congratulates Doug Bolton and Lisa Sinopoli on 20 years of service to the King Fire & Emergency Services. Below are recipients of the Distinguished Service Awards, given to members from each station.

The level of expectation at KFES is high and he's thankful of the relationships he's formed with his friends, colleagues and mentors.

Brian Mitchell, of Nobleton's Station 38, said the hard-working men and women of KFES prove no challenge is too great. This strong, versatile family always gives 100% to provide help to the community.

Awards

Members were given awards for years of service and going above and beyond for KFES.

The major award is the Paul Jackson Memorial Award, given to a member who exemplifies the values, dedication and commitment that was demonstrated by training officer Paul Jackson, who passed away in 2008.

This year's recipient exemplifies these qualities, and much more. It was evidenced by the tremendous support by his peers during the nomination process. And, like everyone in KFES, dedication is paramount. Ray Fortin wasn't able to be at the dinner because he was on call that night.

Chief Wall said Fortin does everything with passion and care and he takes training a step further. Fortin is one of the most professional officers in the department and his colleagues would "follow him anywhere."

Fortin has truly helped shape the culture of the fire service in King.

Dave Share is retiring after his years of service.

Deputy Chief Arnold and Renzo Cescolini were honoured for their 30 years of service.

Doug Bolton and Lisa Sinopoli were praised for 20 years of dedication.

Bobby Tibbitts got a nod of approval for 15 years of service and James Binsfeld was celebrated for 10 years.

Distinguished Service Awards were given out to Rachel Jacobs, Alex Simonato, Mariska Kempers, and Katie Street.

Reaching the five-year milestone were Steven Bonollo, Andy Bowden, Cody Chapman, Philip Defina, Massimo DeMaria, Laura Edwards, Tanner Ferreira, Jesse Gilmour, Miranda Hussey, Warren Jackson, Lee Jolliffe, Alex Keillor, Larry Rocha, Johnny Schonheit, Alex Burbidge, Frank Figliomeni, Daniel Giansante, Damian Rivero, Sean Young.

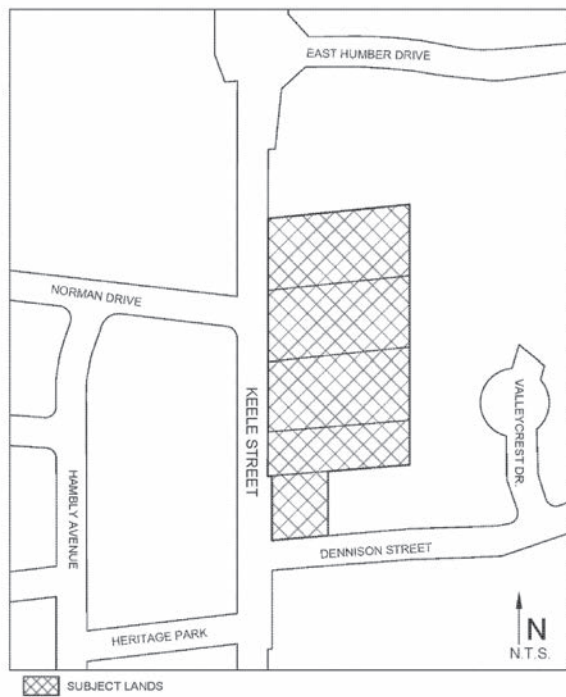

Renzo Cescolini and Deputy Chief James Arnold were honoured for 30 years of service to King Fire & Emergency Services.

King Fire family sticks together in times of tragedy and sorrow

By Mark Pavilons

“It was the best of times, it was the worst of times ... it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness ...”

Charles Dickens may not have been thinking about first responders when he wrote A Tale of Two Cities, but these words certainly ring true of the recent dark days experienced by members of King Fire & Emergency Services.

Personnel routinely risk their lives to save strangers in their community. And they're equally brave and committed when coming to the aid of one of their own. Families of KFES volunteers suffered tragic losses recently and these stories – this perspective – sheds some light on the unique bond shared by this fellowship of brothers and sisters.

The community said farewell to little Abby Eveson recently, daughter of Becky and firefighter Craig of Schomberg.

Abby suffered from a rare congenital heart defect. Born without her main pulmonary artery, Abby had her first surgery 14 hours after birth and has had three open heart surgeries since. The community, and family of King firefighters, rallied around the Eveson family, providing whatever support they needed. They answered the call.

During the annual KFES appreciation dinner, Mayor Steve Pellegrini shared his thanks for the support shown the Eveson family.

“I can think of no better example of the positive impact you make on King Township than the support you showed for Abby Eveson’s family. You responded to the call when Abby went into distress. You were on the scene and did everything you could in an attempt to save Abby’s life.

“Everything you did those dark days speak to how connected you are to the community you serve.”

Mayor Pellegrini read a note provided by Becky Eveson.

“I felt that we needed to say something here this evening since the majority of the fire department is sitting in one room.

“Our family has been a part of the department for quite some time now. You always hear the term brotherhood and fire family being spoken of. You celebrate weddings together, babies together, and then there are times you come together to mourn a loss.

“I understand that sinking feeling when you hear an address that you know over your pager. I can only imagine how you all felt as you heard 99 Cooper knowing that it was our dear Abby and assuming that things were bad if you were being paged out. What I can tell you is that as your hearts sank as I saw each of you that was able to respond to the call my heart was lifted. As I saw you share the pain on your face as you saw Abby my heart lifted. I knew that no matter what, she was going to be cared for when I wasn’t able to be at her side. That love like ours would be shown to her.

“As the ambulance raced to the hospital I saw Chief Wall coming down Main with lights and sirens trying to get to our house. He arrived at the hospital with Craig and stayed by our side for the day.

“The amount of support that poured in through the fire department. We have felt it before but this time there was so much love. Taking on the leads of ensuring our vision for Abby’s celebration would happen. Devoting hours to details. Dropping off meals, setting up gofundme pages, coming to the house to offer hugs and a shoulder to cry on.

“Then the day of Abby’s celebration, so many of you came out to help set up. You honoured her with one of your most greatest traditions of the honour guard.

“So yes I completely agree that it is a family. It may not feel like it during the first few years. There may be disagreements and arguments but in the end this is a family. A family that stands strong together especially when someone in their family needs them.

“Thank you to each and everyone of you that has made us a part of your family as we have with you. Thank you for standing by our sides when we have needed you the most.”

Captain Trevor Storey knows how life can change in an instant.

October 28 is etched in his mind as both the luckiest, and saddest day of his life.

While spending time at their cottage, family members awoke with severe headaches and sickness. They rushed to the emergency department of the nearest hospital and it was confirmed they all suffered carbon monoxide poisoning. The fact they all made it was a miracle.

While at the hospital Storey received a call no parent ever wants to receive. His eldest son Byron, 19, died suddenly in a remote area of Algonquin Park.

He rushed to the area, which was virtually inaccessible, even by ATV. First responders at the scene banded together and offered Storey all the support he needed. He also received countless calls from his brethren at KFES, offering whatever they could.

He pointed out that one’s perspective changes with time and personal experiences. “It’s different when it’s your own,” he said.

The veteran paramedic and firefighter with 28 years of experience, offered some advice for his colleagues. He told them to be cognizant of what you do and say on the scene and be compassionate with the families involved. This support is invaluable during times of tragedy.

“Duty, Trust, Honour” are more than just words, he said. “They mean a lot when you’re on the other end of things.”

There’s no question that family helps ease the pain in the worst of times.

Members of KFES chalk up impressive training stats

By Mark Pavilons

Being a member of King Fire and Emergency Services comes with high expectations. Personnel train constantly to be the best. During the recent 2018 Appreciation Dinner, Deputy Chief James Arnold shared some impressive statistics.

Since November of 2017, staff have participated in 243 training classes for a total of 1,164 hours of training.

That adds up to 9961 staff hours of training alone. This dedication to training has resulted in 99 individual certifications in NFPA Professional Qualification for staff in the last 12 months.

22 Certifications in NFPA 472 Hazmat Awareness.

18 Certifications in NFPA 472 Hazmat Operations.

26 Certifications in NFPA 1001 Firefighter Level 1; 25 Certifications in NFPA 1001 Firefighter Level 2; 3 Certifications in NFPA 1021 Fire Officer Level 1; 1 Certification in NFPA 1041 Fire Instructor Level 1; 1 Certification in NFPA 1041 Fire Instructor Level 2; 1 Certification in NFPA 1035 Public Information Officer and 2 Certifications in NFPA 1035 Fire and Life Safety Educator Level 1.

“We have been fortunate to be able to replace some aging apparatus and staff spent many hours training on the new Engine 341, Ladder 366 and Command 30,” he said.

Arnold pointed out the service has benefitted from 21 recruit firefighters from the 2017-2 class who graduated in 2018, and 18 firefighters from the 2017-1 class were promoted to Fourth Class Firefighters receiving their black helmets.

“We also recognized the promotion of 4 firefighters to the rank of Captain, and last but not least, we now have 21 more recruits in training as we speak and they will finish their recruit training in February.”

Rebellion peewee AE champions in wine country

By S. Lupo

King Township's very-own peewee AE team competed in the annual Niagara on the Lake Harvest Fall Classic hockey tournament on Nov. 2-4.

The team was exuberated to participate in their first away tournament and as per usual, the parents and coaches were equally anticipating both a break from the weekly grind and an opportunity to socialize with other parents, teams, and coaches.

The team started off strong with a decisive 6-3 victory over Mooretown Minor Hockey, with a hat-trick from assistant captain Cooper Cullum solidifying the win!

The team faced the hometown Niagara on the Lake team later in the first day, but after a long drive and hard fought first game, our energy levels were clearly running low. Niagara beat King 6-2, reminding the local boys that they needed to be focussed and prepared for the exciting games ahead.

The second day brought a late game preceded by some much-deserved down time, team building, and a lovely team dinner. The team was once again victorious, with Reagan Maksymiu shutting the door in net, and the team beat Burlington 3-0.

King headed to the semi finals early Sunday morning. With the finals clearly in their iron sights, they squared off against the hometown Niagara team yet again, the same group who had schooled King two days before. Trepidation was setting in, but what a chance at redemption! Through hard work and effort, the team muscled through with a tremendous victory, with a sudden death goal from Julian Ascenzi, defeating Niagara 2-1 after a nail-biting double overtime melee with 4 on 4 action, solidifying their spot in the finals! The team was unstoppable and the best was yet to come.

The finals, later on Sunday, Nov. 4 pitted King against the undefeated West Hill hockey club. While King clearly had reservations, there was an undeniable sense of accomplishment and momentum coming from the previous days' winning games and coming together as families, coaches, and the King community. King defeated West Hill 4-1 in a tremendously tough battle that went the better part of 1.5 hours.

King's head coach, Rob Ascenzi commented: "It was a great opportunity to bring the families together and kick-start the season."

Well done, you are all champions on and off the ice!

To the coaching staff, Robert Ascenzi, Aaron Goggins, Kyle Goggins, Marc Fortin, and Benjamin Ivany, thank you for your dedication and hard work in helping our team grow.

To the team – captain Marcus Rose, assistant captains Cooper Cullum, and Darian Vincent, goalies: Charlie Piper and Reagan Maksymiu, players: Adam Fortura, Cameron Budway, Dante Alaimo, Emiliano Friguglietti, Frankie Femia, James DeCarvalho, Julian Lupo, Julian Ascenzi, Noah Faulkner, Ronnie Boyko, and Tennyson Tobin, thank you for an exciting weekend, reminding us how a sport like hockey, can bring a community together. For the love of the game!

CDS soccer team wins CISAA gold

By Jake Courtepatte

In capturing the CISAA championship in DII varsity boys soccer, Country Day School coach Peter Milonas said the team has seen a "bit of an uprising" in recent years.

That may be an understatement. With their third league title in four years, and second in a row, the Cyclones capped off an incredible season with a 2-0 win over Upper Canada College that saw them go undefeated throughout.

Allowing just three goals all year to end the independent school season with a 5-0-1 record, their only blip on the schedule came in mid-October against Royal St. George's College, a 1-1 tie on a Monday following a trip to New Brunswick.

"You could say the boys were a bit gassed," said Milonas. "But from there on out they were incredible."

The Cyclones finished off the season with four straight wins, setting up a semifinal game against Toronto French School on championship on home turf. CDS cruised to a 3-0 victory.

The championship match up spelled the first defeat for one of the two competing squads, with Upper Canada College entering with a similar 5-0-1 record coming from the CISAA's East division.

Though the Cyclones came out slow, Caleb Clarke opened the scoring for CDS in what turned out to be the game winner, before captain Will Sherman put home the finisher in the second half just minutes after being called off-side on an earlier successful strike.

Milonas called the final "a tale of two halves." "The boys came out in the second half, inspired, and played great," said Milonas. "The weather wasn't great, but they played as a team and in the end were able to accomplish what we knew they could do. We're super proud of them."

With a good chunk of the squad spending the last few years together on the pitch, Milonas gives partial credit to the comradery learned on a once-in-a-lifetime trip to the United Kingdom the team took for a training camp tour two seasons ago.

"The Grade 10s that year would be the graduating class this year, who have really helped bring leadership to the team," said Milonas.

Yet even with those seniors moving on to the college ranks, the future continues to look bright for the varsity Cyclones next season.

"We're a pretty split team, in terms of grades. We have a lot of talent in our younger guys, we're on the right track."

Cougar alumni celebrate half a century

By Jake Courtepatte

Fifty years of history and tradition met at centre ice at the Trisan Centre on Saturday night for some friendly competition.

The Schomberg Cougars' celebrated a half century of junior hockey with an alumni game bringing together young and old once more beneath the red and black sweater, opened with a ceremonial face off with the team's first ever captain, Bill Duggan, dropping the puck.

"We had a full house both on the ice and in the stands," said team director Nicki Sellers.

The Cougars would like to thank the alumni and fans for generously donating to Ronald McDonald House in lieu of a gate fee.

The current incarnation of the Junior C club took to the ice following the spirited match to take on the Goderich Flyers in an interdivisional battle, falling 5-1 in a game that saw three-straight Goderich goals in the third period.

Cameron Robinson scored the lone goal for the Cougars, with Owen Heilemann and Alexander Cordeiro adding apples.

Despite the loss, the Cougars were able to eke out a point over the week with a 5-4 loss to the league-leading Caledon Golden Hawks on Thursday.

Schomberg came within fifteen seconds of securing an upset regulation victory over the powerhouse Hawks, before a power play goal sent it to extra time. The Hawks managed to score just over two minutes into overtime to secure the extra point.

Calum Bett led the way for the Cougars, potting his first two goals of the season.

Mini-majors to world class curling clinics

By Shellee Morning

Women's Mini-Majors

Curling is a sport that requires precision shot making. In order to accomplish this, teams build on team work through the skills of the game and communication.

Figuring out the “curl” on the ice is colossal. The sweeping skills have become such a major part of the game with directional sweeping, the technology of the broom head, and the physical attributes of the player. Winning games doesn't just happen by the rock throwing. In most cases, it's the sweepers that have either kept the rock in line for its target, or dragged the rock to its ultimate resting spot.

Being late on when to call the sweepers on or off, could very well determine the outcome of the entire game.

In Monday Night Men's League, the 18-team roster has improved so much that there is near parity between them all. Winning games comes down to which skip has figured out the ice patterns and the consistency of his fellow team mates.

This year, the men have changed their league format to a full round robin where teams will face each other once – then be seeded for a triple knockout 7 week playoff series. Sounds exciting? You bet! With this format and the new 5 rock rule, the teams will face tougher challenges and higher scoring ends where all are vying for their ultimate prize.

Defending 2017-18 Men's Champion Team Brown, who's added new comer Trevor Battershall to the team continues with their strong appearance producing a 5-0 record to the lead the field. The Barber rink is right behind with 4 wins and 1 loss so far this season.

The next 7 teams all share with 3 game wins and mix of ties and losses. The men with brooms bring an abundance of excitement each week to the icy playing field that not only generates the highest of competitive juices, but a tremendous amount of respect for their fellow opponents.

For the first time in club history, two ladies teams will be representing King Curling in the Women's Mini-Majors League. The league began in 1988 and has grown to 16 teams from across the GTA. Team 1 includes Nancy Morrison, Susan Serra, Joan Montgomery and Claire Murphy. Team 2 includes Sylvia Mulder, Vivian DeFaveri, Brenda Clarke and Karen McCabe.

The purpose of the Mini-Majors is to give novice curlers the learning experience in all aspects of the game. Each curler will play all positions on a team so they have a better understanding of each role on a team. Players must usually (or are only experienced) play in a lead or second position and have less than 10 years' experience to qualify.

After 2 games on the schedule King has a 1-1 record with their next game being hosted by King on Dec. 7. Championship day is Feb. 27 in Annandale (Ajax). King wishes both teams good luck and good curling.

World class clinic

Ranked 4th in the world of curling, Toronto based John Epping conducted two instructional clinics at the King Curling Club last weekend. Epping was last year's Ontario Men's Champion advancing to the infamous Men's Brier where his team enjoyed a 9-2 record earning a spot in the playoffs. Epping finished 3rd overall in his debut performance at the Brier and becoming a world class contender.

Over 50 KCC members participated in the beginner and intermediate/advanced clinics addressing delivery, release, and sweeping for the beginners and shooting drills, strategy and angles for the advanced. John's tutelage, as well as his experience and knowledge were very well received giving club members inspiration and a new-found vitality for their game. Many Thanks to Julie Oakley for organizing the event and making it a true success.

Breakthrough Treatment For Spinal Stenosis

(Cervical/Lumbar Stenosis)

Do you experience numbness, weakness or tingling in a leg, foot, arm or hand? Do you have neck or back pain that has lasted more than one month or experience frequent headaches? You may be suffering from a condition known as spinal stenosis.

Spinal Stenosis is defined as narrowing of the bone channel occupied by the spinal nerves or the spinal cord.

Some people are born with a congenital form, but most develop spinal stenosis as part of the degenerative process. A few do not feel any effects of the narrowing, but as part of the aging process, most people will eventually notice radiating pain, weakness, and/or numbness secondary to the compression of the nerves or spinal cord.

In lumbar stenosis, the spinal nerve roots in the lower back become compressed and this can produce symptoms of sciatica—tingling, weakness or numbness that radiates from the low back and into the buttocks and legs—especially with activity.

You go to the drug store or to your doctor and get pills to help relieve your symptoms. But you find the symptoms keep returning. Alternatively, the doctor may refer you to a specialist who may tell you that surgery is needed or is an option for you.

However, many people are hesitant to have surgery given its invasive nature. It is important to know that although surgery is sometimes necessary, it is considered a last resort in most cases.

Also, you may have heard that there are serious health risks associated with chronic use (or overuse) of medications that include damage to the liver, kidneys and gut.

There is a new, natural, safe and highly effective approach that has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically: Laser therapy uses light to favor and accelerate the body's natural healing processes. The innovative Multiwave Locked System (MLS) Laser produces a safe, efficient and simultaneous effect on pain, inflammation and nerve conduction, exceeding the limits of traditional LLLT (Low power) and concerns of HP (High power) laser therapy.

According to multiple studies MLS laser therapy appears to be uniquely capable of decreasing the inflammation around the spinal cord and shows great promise in the battle against the devastating sequelae of this condition.

What does this mean for you?

Many of our patients have reported a 90-95% relief of their symptoms, more mobility, increased sensation and vastly improved function!

It is the very latest in medical technology, with years of clinical studies supporting its safety and efficacy and we are very proud to offer our patients effective solutions to their recent or chronic conditions.

“This new, natural, safe and highly effective approach has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically”.

Come in and allow us to help you achieve the results you deserve! Call (905) 773-2225 to book your FREE consultation and examination at King West Wellness Centre 141 King Rd., Unit 10, Richmond Hill (In the Home Hardware Plaza)

You will want to mark this on your calendar; A Night in Bethlehem is coming soon. "Starry Night" will run from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 9. It's a family event and we would love to have you join us.

The Community Youth Group meets most Thursdays at the church from 7-9 p.m. Come join in the fun. Follow our Instagram account to stay up to date on current events, "4.12.youth.group." Check this space for details, or contact our church office at 905-859-0843. A2J, our program for kids in Grades 3 to 6, meets the second and fourth Fridays of the month at 7 p.m.

LifeConnect Groups are small gatherings for friendship, study and prayer. Our newest LifeConnect Group gathers on Thursdays at 7 p.m. at the church to learn the faith and grow together. We have several other LifeConnect Groups that meet throughout the week. If you are interested, please contact the church office and we can give you further details on these.

We are blessed at St. Paul's to have diligent librarians that have worked for years on creating an amazing library with new books being added weekly. This is a true goldmine if you are a reader. You're welcome to borrow from it anytime!

The first and third Tuesday of the month we have a group of people who get together at 1 p.m. to do Quilting. The second and fourth Tuesday of the month, the focus is on knitting. All handcrafted items are donated to various mission projects. You are welcome to join us.

This Sunday Jeff continues his series on the Gospel of John. Jeff's message this week, "Caught!" is based on John 8.1-11. Ministry for children of all ages takes place at the same time. Following the service all are invited to spend time together over refreshments.

Jeff's messages are posted at www.passionatelyhis.com each week. They are also on Facebook Live and are available on the church's Facebook page (@stpaulsnobleton) and YouTube page (search St. Paul's Church, Nobleton) for viewing.

Nobleton United By Nancy Hopkinson

On Sunday, Nov. 18, at 11:15 a.m., Holy Humour Day is back. We will have jokes, funny videos, and the Joyful Spirits singing a hilarious piece called "All God's Creatures Have a Place in the Choir." The Joyful Spirits are mooing, croaking, braying, sometimes singing in harmony, sometimes in unison.

On Monday, Nov. 19, we are having a Christmas Pot Luck Social. Christmas is a month away, but things get too hectic in December, so we are celebrating early. Come and join the fun. We gather at 6 p.m., eat at 6:30 p.m. Sharon Birks and her team always organize some interesting activities.

The next Messy Church is on Tuesday, Nov. 20, from 5 to 7 p.m. and dinner is included. There is no charge for this fun time with young families. There are various crafts related to the theme each month. This month's theme is "Who is the Holy Spirit?" The story time at 6 p.m. is interactive. We eat at 6:15 pm. Make sure that clothes are washable, because some of the activities are messy! For more info, call Nancy at 905-859-0761.

There is a pulpit exchange with Rev. Jean Leckie, minister at Heart Lake United Church on Sunday, Nov. 25. Rev. Carol-Ann will be preaching at Heart Lake, formerly her home church.

Saturday, Dec. 1 is our very popular Breakfast with Santa, 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. The breakfast is pancakes, syrup, sausages and a beverage. For the children, these are arranged to look like a snowman with sausage arms, chocolate chip eyes, and covered with icing sugar. Santa always drops in and provides a lovely stuffed animal for each child. Pictures are taken of each child on Santa's knee and the pictures are given to the parent/adult with them. This event is fun for everyone. Do come and enjoy the breakfast and see the children with great big smiles. A goodwill offering will be donated to "Christmas in King."

Sunday, Dec. 9, 11:15 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. will be a "Messy Church at Church" day, where we invite everyone, young and old, to participate in the crafts downstairs, after the story and songs upstairs, and then enjoy a lunch together.

Thinking about Christmas Eve? We are meeting at 3 p.m. for tea/coffee/cookies, and having a family friendly service at 3:30 p.m., with special guest singer King City's Sandra Kirby. Sandra has enhanced our Christmas Eve services since 2016.

Northern Water Presbytery held its last meeting on Nov. 3 in Alliston. In the future, there will be no more Presbyteries, only very large Regions. For this last meeting, most of the former Chairs of Presbytery participated in the service. Brian Nicholson, a former Chair and our former minister, currently in Australia, participated via video link. He looked well and said that he was in Darren Liepold's church for the video link but his own church was not too far away.

For more info, visit nobletonunit-edchurch.com, our Facebook page, or call 905-859-3976. The Church office is normally open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings. Messages are picked up regularly. Nobleton United, 6076 King Rd., is north of the King Rd., about 6 buildings west of Hwy 27. We have a big parking lot at the rear, an accessible ramp, chair lifts and accessible washrooms. We warmly welcome everyone, old and young.

Anglican Parish
By John Arnott

On that chill, drizzly, fall, still dark, early morning just over 100 years ago deep in a forest a railway coach stood silently waiting for its moment in history. Then before dawn the principal players a small group of middle aged men in distinctive military uniforms arrived on scene and just as they exited their several autos, lights went on inside the coach revealing its rich interior of polished teak wood, bronze decoration and comfortable leather chairs. At 5 a.m. a document was signed which 6 hours later would bring blood soaked World War 1 officially to an end. But this doomed peace would last only 21 years before an even more horrific war between the same adversaries would plunge the world into Hell once again.

The signing took place in an historic woods, long a favourite with French royalty staying at Compiègne Chateau near the town of the same name, in Picardy northeastern France.

The railway coach used was built in 1914 for the Compagnie des Wagon Lits to serve as a dining car. At the beginning of the war it was made into a travelling office for French Marshall Ferdinand Foch Supreme Allied Commander and attached to his private train. After its use for the signing of the peace it returned to being a dining car but in 1919 the afore mentioned railway company gave it to the French government as an historic site. Much of the furnishings it had in the days when Foch used it were found and put back in place, then it was put on public display in the courtyard of the Hotel [Hall] des Invalides, that Paris landmark, where Napoleon lies entombed. Here it remained from 1921 until 1927. But at the request of the mayor of Compiègne it was returned to the forest and placed in a protective covering especially built for it only a few metres/yards from where it had originally been on Nov. 11, 1918.

Son after France fell to the Nazis in 1940 Hitler demanded it be taken and placed on the same stretch of train track where it had stood on that armistice day 22 years before and then invited the officials of a defeated France to come to the coach to sign surrender documents. He, surrounded by his Nazi officials, sat at the same polished desk in the same comfortable leather chair

Marshall Foch had used in November 1918. Then, like Foch, he left abruptly leaving his underlings and the humiliated French to take care of details. Later he had the coach to be shipped to Germany to be put on display in Berlin as a symbol of Germany's victory over France and ordered the entire Compiègne site obliterated leaving only the statue of Foch staring out over nothing but destruction as another calculated humiliation.

Today the Compiègne site has been lovingly restored and an exact replica of the lost coach containing small pieces of bronze decoration and a pair of access ramps, all that remains of the original, stands sheltered in the area now designated Clairiere de l'Armistice- Glade of the Armistice only a few steps from section of railway track marking the original site.

The St. Alban's Anglican community in Nobleton notes that this past Sunday, Remembrance Day, French President Emmanuel Macron and German Chancellor Angela Merkel together inspected a brigade of young French and German soldiers on site, placed a memorial wreath and unveiled a plaque in memory of those who lost their lives on both sides of these past conflicts.

King's Corners

King City United
By Sheryl Sinka

In a solemn and meaningful Remembrance Day service, Rev. Bruce left us with some well chosen words. "Remember the past with gratitude. Alter the present with love and shape the future in hope. In those acts of love, we will suitably remember them." May it be so.

Lunch with Santa is back! Saturday, Dec. 8 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. come on out for a fun lunch with lots of baked goods for sale, white elephant table and cookie walk. There will be soup for the adults and pizza for the kids. Attendance is through free will offering.

Last chance for tickets for the annual Men's Dinner and Show, a wonderful roast beef dinner hosted and performed by the men of The United Church and friends. The dates for this entertaining event are Nov. 23 and 24 at 7 p.m. For tickets ($30) you can call the church office (contact is below). This is a ticketed event so get your tickets early!

Please join us for worship on Sunday at 10 a.m. (Sunday school runs at the same time).

For those looking for some conversation and company, Tea and talk takes place on Friday mornings at the Sunset Grill (1700 King Rd) at 10 a.m. All are welcome to come out and join in a cup of coffee or tea and some conversation.

If you have any questions please contact the church office at 905-833-5181.

King Bible Church

Please join us on Sunday, Nov. 18 as Pastor Mark will be continuing our journey on "The Guaranteed Places to Encounter God" with "The Power Gifts-Part 1."

"Every day is full of various encounters, encounters with our families, encounters with our neighbours, encounters with those we work with or go to school with. Each one of those encounters in varying degrees has had a part in shaping who we are and who we will become. This coming year we as a church are going to focus on another encounter, the encounter to meet with God. We are going to walk through 8 different places that God has said through his Word he will meet us and transform us. We would like to invite you to join us on this life changing journey."

Please take advantage of our excellent children's ministry. Our Sunday morning "Celebration Zone" provides age-appropriate programs for children aged 4 to Grade 8. Our children's program is staffed by screened volunteers who care about your kids! The children in Grades 1-8 will join their parents for the beginning of the service until they are invited to go downstairs. The children in kindergarten can go directly to their class at the start of the service.

If you have children aged 0-3 then we invite you to bring them to our beautiful and safe nursery facilities which are located on the lower level. Caregivers will meet you there.

Our "Legacy" nights are our family Bible Study nights. We chose the theme of "Legacy" because we believe that's what families are looking for; both to be a part of as well as leave a lasting "Legacy."

We will provide Nursery care for children 0-3. Our children (JK-Grade 5) & Junior High (Grade 6-8) classes will meet downstairs. Our adults will meet upstairs.

Our program runs from 6:45 to 8 p.m. every Tuesday.

We are excited to welcome back to KBC comedian Leland Klassen for his "More True" comedy tour; Saturday, Nov. 24 at 7 p.m.

Tickets are $15 per person in advance or $20 at the door. Family rate $50 total.

This is a fun family event, as well as a great opportunity to invite your friends and neighbours for a night out!

Tickets can be purchased by emailing Lisa in the Office (lisa@kingbiblechurch.com) to reserve tickets. You can pay by e-transfer at payments@kingbiblechurch.com. Please email Lisa with the security question and answer.

Join us on Saturday, Dec. 8 to make homemade gifts for everyone on your Christmas list! We will provide details soon about what gift options there will be; and how you can sign up for them!

Please contact the Office with any questions.

You can find us at King Bible Church, 1555 King Rd. King City (at King Rd. & Dufferin), 905-833-5104, www.kingbiblechurch.com, info@kingbiblechurch.com

St. Andrew's By Kathy Patterson

Join us this Sunday at 10:30 a.m. as we welcome Henna Kim, a student from Knox College as our Pulpit Supply. Alvin Kim will be back with us Nov. 25. We look forward to their ministry. Sunday school for school-aged children up to 12 years runs concurrently and a nursery is available. Following the service, you're invited to stay for coffee.

Last Sunday, Nov. 11, Lynn Vissers led us in the Service of Remembrance.

A special thank you to Cassandra Khani on the cello, accompanied by her mother Catherine on the piano, for their beautiful "Song of the Birds" by Pablo Cassel which as he said emanates "Peace, Peace, Peace."

Lynn continued her sermon series on Naomi from the book of Ruth in the Old Testament. Naomi did not experience much peace in her life with moving to a foreign land, having her husband and both her sons die, leaving her with no children or grandchildren and in a state of poverty. But we realized the sermon title was true for Naomi, "God's Fingerprints on our Lives." God's providence was there all along even in her darkest hours. She, however, became the great-great-grandmother of King David who wrote Psalm 23 - "the Lord is my shepherd, I shall lack nothing!" The line continued right down through history to Jesus, God's son, the Light of the World.

Don't forget, the next "Messy Church" is Nov. 25 from 5-7 p.m. We hope you can come and bring your friends and neighbours to this fun, intergenerational, creative time where we get to know more about God's love for us. Our evening ends with a wonderful communal supper at 6 p.m.!

Soup and Conversation for "the after work gals" continues Wednesday evenings at 6:30 p.m. at the church office.

A women's Prayer Circle is has started Tuesday mornings from 9 to 10 a.m. at 80 Burns Blvd. Perhaps you too believe in the power of prayer and would like to pray with other ladies, but can't join us at this time. Please call Kathy Patterson, 905-833-0391 for more information and for other possible venues and times.

All the Christmas in King donations need to be in to the church by the end of November in order to be ready for distribution Saturday, Dec. 15. Thank you! Contact Kathy Patterson if you want to know more or wish to help out with a Food Hamper or purchase gift cards for registered families or individuals with the Township's Food Bank.

For pastoral care needs contact Lynn Visser, Director of Congregational Ministries at the office, 905-833-2325 or contact our Interim Moderator, the Rev. Paul Johnston, 705-341-7738.

In addition, amazing baking by our own parishioners to take home after you have settled down for a homemade soup and sandwich lunch. Come early and enjoy a unique shopping and good eats. To take a relaxing shopping break there will be coffee and sweets available.

Words to live by - Bishop George Elliott, a former incumbent, retired area bishop and much loved All Saints parishioner, spoke this Sunday which marked the 100th anniversary of the end of World War One. The Gospel was the story in Mark of the Widow's mite. Jesus says: "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything."

Bishop George talked about sacrifices made by the widow but especially made by those who died for us in the many wars which continue to this day. "We have lost the middle ground in the hate and intolerance of the last decade." He said. "We are called to dig deeper and look at broken relationships and to heal so God's grace can shine through us. Peace starts with you and me. We must be ambassadors of peace."

He pointed to refugees from conflict we have sponsored and how blessed they feel to be in Canada. "God has blessed us to grow a nation of peace and love," he said. "Christ made the ultimate sacrifice to empower us to bring peace and hope to the world."

Question:
What is a "Day in the Life" of a Hospice Nurse like?

Answer:
Sometimes I can be found helping residents set & achieve goals which may be as simple as sitting up in a chair when their family comes to visit.
I also help family members through their challenges by explaining the disease process and by involving them in the plan.
Occasionally, making people laugh is the best medicine at Hospice.
This is the most patient-centred care anywhere and we empower our residents to be involved in their own care plan and to make informed decisions.
Hospice is holistic care; physically, emotionally & spiritually.

Gillian
Registered Practical Nurse

Question:
How have your past experiences helped you as a Hospice Volunteer?

Answer:
As a retired First Responder, I have comforted many people when death has entered their lives. I know the support they need and in my private life I have had the honour of being with friends when their loved one dies. This is why I volunteer at Hospice. It comes naturally to me and I have the experience to provide support to people who are grieving and can offer some compassion and understanding when they need it most. Volunteering at Hospice is a wonderful experience.
