KCSS students participate in walkout

Roughly 200 students at King City Secondary School were among thousands of students who took part in the province-wide "Students Say No" walkout April 4. The students protested education reforms announced by Queen's Park. Among the education reforms announced by the Province are an increase in class sizes; a requirement to take online classes; a cell phone ban and new math and sex ed curricula. More than 700 schools took part.

Comments received and considered during the public meeting of May 28th, 2018 were summarized and included in the Planning Department Recommendation Report (P-2019-11). The report is available on the Township's website www.king.ca. Additional comments at the meeting of the Committee of the Whole on April 1st, 2019 were received by Council, which identified concerns relating to the devaluation of properties, congestion and safety concerns due to increases in volume of vehicles and traffic entering and exiting the surrounding area containing residential and an institutional use (i.e. Holy Name Catholic School). These comments have been taken into consideration during the review of the application and have been responded to both generally and specifically throughout the recommendation report. Based on these comments, Council adopted a revised version of the Amendment, which is available on the Township's website at www.king.ca.

The lands to which the Official Plan Amendment apply to are also subject to an amendment to the Zoning By-law (File No. Z-2018-01) and Site Plan Development Approval (File No. SPD-18-08). NOTICE OF PASSING OF AN INTERIM CONTROL BY-LAW BY THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF KING

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Corporation of the Township of King passed Interim Control By-law Number 2019-037 on the 1st day of April, 2019 under Section 38 of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P.13, as amended.

AND TAKE NOTICE that Interim Control By-law 2019-037 will be in effect for a period of one (1) year from the date of passing, lapsing April 1st, 2020, but may be extended by Council for an additional one-year period in accordance with Section 38 of the Planning Act, or repealed by Council at an earlier date.

PURPOSE AND EFFECT OF INTERIM CONTROL BY-LAW

The lands subject to Interim Control By-law 2019-037 include all lands within established residential areas in the villages of King City, Nobleton, and Schomberg (see Location Maps below). The By-law excludes certain properties within established residential areas where development applications are currently under review by the Township. The By-law also provides an exemption to 22 and 32 Snowberry Lane to allow the consideration of a Zoning By-law Amendment, Consent Application and Site Plan Approval in recognition of a recent decision by the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal (LPAT).

An Interim Control By-law is enacted pursuant to Section 38 of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990 c. P. 13, as amended. The purpose of an Interim Control By-law is to control the use of specified lands while a review or study of land use policies is undertaken. The Council of the Township of King passed Interim Control By-law 2019-037 to allow the Township the opportunity to undertake a review with respect to lot creation/consent policies through the Township's ongoing Official Plan Review. The Interim Control By-law prohibits the use of any residential land, building or structure for any purpose whatsoever except where both the minimum lot area and minimum lot frontage is as legally existing on the date of passing of the By-law. This serves to prevent the creation of new lots by Consent within the area to which the Interim Control By-law applies.

For more information about this matter, contact the Planning Department during regular business hours 8:30am-4:30pm Monday to Friday. Further enquiries or questions should be directed to Kristen Harrison, Planner-Policy, Planning Department 905-833-4065.

Drive-through supported with adjustments; public opposed

By Mark Pavilonis

Despite vocal public opposition, and even some dissent from councillors, King council voted 4-3 to allow changes to a King City parcel that will permit a Starbucks with a drive-through component.

After hearing from a crowd of opponents, Mayor Steve Pellegrini asked for some changes to staff recommendations regarding the physical layout of the plan, before supporting it.

The applicant, Springgreen Holdings Ltd., asked to amend the property's zoning to commercial and mixed use. The lot was left over from the King Dufferin subdivision and at one point was considered for townhouses, but this was deemed inappropriate on these lands. The vacant lot is located on the southwest corner of King Road and Spring Hill Drive, with roughly 40 metres of frontage on King, and 80 metres along Spring Hill.

The plan is for a coffee shop and restaurant with a drive-through, patio, garbage enclosure, loading space and 37 parking spots. There's a proposed right-in and right-out on King Road.

Planners believe the property will act as an extension of the eastern anchor of the core area and fits in with the commercial mall across the road. Staff pointed out the property is surrounded by a wide diversity of land uses.

King and York staff are satisfied with the landscape plan submitted for the project and a portion of the existing sidewalk along King Road and Spring Hill Drive will be replaced.

A consultant compared data for drive-throughs and noted Starbucks drive-through are used less frequently than Tim Hortons, largely because Starbucks customers tend to go into the shop and sit. Consultants did admit that there is the potential for drive-through vehicles in line to spill over onto Spring Hill, which may impede traffic entering or existing the site.

Local residents spoke out against the plan, citing traffic and safety issues in this area.

Judith Tenenbaum said this plan puts the community at risk, stressing it's not prudent to approve such amendments before the Township's new Official Plan is complete. She suggested all zoning changes be put on hold until we have our new OP.

Designating this property as commercial is an example of "spot zoning," which, she said, benefits only the property owner, at the expense of the community.

This plan would lead to traffic and safety issues for residents and children in the area, many of whom walk or bike to school. Idling cars in the drive-through present obvious environmental hazards. Tenenbaum called drive-throughs "throwbacks," noting several municipalities have banned them altogether.

The congestion, she argued, will impact all nearby roads, including Lavender Valley Road, Warren Road, Patricia and Burton Grove.

The subdivision is also home to Holy Name School, and buses travel the roads at morning and afternoon peak periods.

"The Spring Hill area is a hidden gem, with numerous residences backing onto the wetlands or ravine. There is a clear line in the sand between the residential and commercial area. That line should not be transgressed," she said.

Another resident said the peak periods for drive-throughs (7-9 a.m.) coincides with busy hours for school buses.

Another man pointed out a coffee shop will lead to increased litter in the area, compounding the existing problem.

A seven-year resident said she's also concerned about children's safety, noting she's enjoyed the small, green space in this area. She stressed that even the smallest of green parcels are important.

Kelly Colasanti noted he served as a crossing guard and he knows local traffic woes first-hand. "This will make things worse," he said. "Congestion is already evident."

A new resident to King City said he travels through town every day and said the traffic is already challenging.

Bruce Craig, representing Concerned Citizens of King Township, said they support building healthy communities. While CCKT is in favour of commercial growth, it needs to be balanced and in keeping with King's Sustainability Plan.

He questions whether drive-throughs have any benefits at all and he doesn't think this project is in keeping with King's vision.

The lot is bounded by wetlands on both sides and Craig said the new OP limits drive-throughs.

"It's time to turn the page in our society on drive-throughs," he said, adding villages should be designed to be more walkable.

Harvey Tenenbaum reminded councillors about the vigorous opposition campaign launched by residents. Councillors, he said, should be guided by input from residents and not solely by planning staff.

"Residents have, and continue to make it abundantly clear, that they are unalterably opposed to this proposal," he said. Tenenbaum noted the best interests of the community take priority. Even LPAT appeals take into account municipal planning rules.

Other issues with this proposal include noise, annoying lights and more than 100 environmental issues alone.

Another resident said they purchased their home to enjoy the green spaces in King City. There's already a speeding problem on Lavender Valley and Warren and she has difficulty getting out of her own driveway. She wondered what would happen to children's safety if the drive-through becomes a reality. Further, a Starbucks would be "an eyesore."

A Spring Hill Drive resident commented that she, too, has trouble getting out of her driveway due to the traffic. She said they moved from Maple to get away from the congestion.

Susan Beharriell said this won't improve the neighbourhood, adding idling cars not only impact climate change through emissions, but waste tremendous amounts of fuel.

Councillor Debbie Schaefer sided with the residents, noting this project seems inconsistent in the big picture. She doesn't see it as a commercial extension of the core at all and it's also incompatible with the draft Official Plan.

Mayor Pellegrini pointed out to the crowd that councillors don't direct staff, but rather these professionals offer their educated advice. He cited two recent LPAT hearings where council sided with residents but went against staff recommendations. The tribunal decided against the Township in both instances. These hearings cost the Township a lot of money, staff time and resources fighting what's often a losing battle.

This application, he said, has been improved since it was first presented. He made the recommendations of shifting the drive-through window to help improve traffic flow on the site.

"A newspaper is the center of a community, it's one of the tent poles of the community, and that's not going to be replaced by websites and blogs."

~ Michael Connelly

Technology being wasted on smart gizmos

"All of our technology is completely unnecessary to a happy life."
- Tom Hodgkinson

While Bill Gates may disagree with Tom's observation, we all know that technology has become our worst, double-edged sword.

The massive info sharing through the Internet has its obvious advantages, namely oodles of information that transcends time and location. It's instant and limitless. Virtually everything you need, and a lot that you don't, at your fingertips.

Some argue that our reliance on tech makes us less intelligent and lowers our collective IQs. We no longer think for ourselves, preferring to allow our gadgets do all the hard work, like remembering phone numbers and birthdays. How many of you still remember your home phone number from when you were a child? Can you believe that a rotary dial phone is a relic?

James Thurber once said that "Progress was all right. Only it went on too long."

You only have to look around at all the nifty gadgets for sale to prove his point. Our homes are filling up rapidly with so much tech, it's scary.

Techy gadgets in the home are designed to simplify everyday routines and keep us connected to the outside world. The "heart of the home" - the kitchen - boasts a ton of ever-evolving technologies that do just that.

Amazon smart home capabilities, much like the Amazon Echo with Alexa, are currently in development to be added to a suite of appliances. You will soon be able to speak commands such as "Alexa, microwave on medium for 45 seconds," or "Alexa, set the freezer temperature to zero degrees Fahrenheit." With some Whirlpool appliances already implementing this technology, GE, Kenmore, LG and Samsung are quickly following suit.

Some appliances currently have app-based technologies incorporated and you can check the status of your fridge through a phone app or voice commands to ensure settings are correct and the appliances are operating optimally. Or you can operate your oven without even being near the appliance. Taking it a step further, the Samsung FamilyHub Fridge uses a touch screen display as a communication centre for creating shopping lists and calendars that can be sent directly to a phone-based app. A camera inside the fridge allows you to see everything you have in-stock, taking the guess work out of what you may need to shop for.

That's what everyone needs, the ability to window shop in your own home! I bet more technology went into this than what was used by NASA to put a man on the moon!

The June Intelligent Oven, at roughly $1,500, is a counter top oven that perfectly bakes and roasts most foods automatically. Once you place your dish inside, artificial intelligence senses the item type and weight. A touchscreen display will provide the suggested cooking method for you to select. An interior camera and WiFi connectivity allow you to view the cooking progress on a mobile app. Worry-free for little ones who may be nearby, the outside stays perfectly cool while cooking. "Now you have time to read a book and be smarter yourself!" reads the promo.

Ok, I can see some merit in this, but what about good, old Jeeves? Who wants to watch a pork roast cook on their phone?

Titanium Falcon's Talon Smart Ring is a device that combines smart home control with jewellery. It gives you command and control of devices by simply using hand gestures.

You can now control some of the newest models of washing machines with your smart phone.

Those nifty little vacuum robots have been around for a while now but they've become a lot smarter. The Evovacs Deebot Ozmo can switch between mop and vacuum mode when reaching different floor surfaces. It also links to your smart device via an app to tell it which rooms to clean or not.

One bit of tech I don't mind at all is my smart TV. I also like my voice command remote. Samsung has a microLED TV called "The Wall." It consists of a modular design that lets you assemble your own display to whatever size you desire. Although making a 146-inch display is currently very expensive, it will get cheaper down the road.

Even our mattresses are becoming "smart." Magnismartech is an app-enhanced "bed system" that collects data and adjusts the mattress while you sleep to help improve your future "sleeping experience," and it can even react and prevent potential snoring events.

So, while technology maintains its dizzying ascent, the lifespan of batteries is still the biggest hurdle! And few are immune to power outages or brown-outs!

In almost all of today's appliances, the only thing to fail is the ominous, and expensive "motherboard."

So the smarter things get, the more expensive they become to maintain and repair. I can envision a mountain of mother boards, discarded phones and gutted fridges piling sky high on some uncharted island in the Pacific!

I find it a bit weird that all of this expertise, engineering and human thought goes into making our lives simpler and easier. In any survey I've filled out in recent years, nowhere does it ask whether I want a talking fridge or singing toilet.

Do we really need any of these things?

Okay, maybe the goal here is to free up our time from tedious chores, time that can be better spent with our families. However, when everyone in the family is on their phone, it's no longer quality time. I think advances in household gizmos only gives us more time to engage in trivial pursuits. I believe technological advancements should have loftier goals.

I'd trade in my smart phone any day for a cure for diabetes. I really want Alexa to work on a sustainable clean power source, instead of finding me the closest Chinese take-out restaurant. I want my AI fridge to provide clean drinking water for everyone in the developing world.

You can keep your flying cars, face recognition software and AI appliances.

All the tech in the world can't improve a sun-soaked tropical beach with my better half!

Letter to the Editor

Disappointed by Kettleby home decision

It is with disbelief, and huge disappointment, that council voted to allow the demolition of 446 Kettleby Road at the township meeting of Feb. 25.

Having greatly appreciated living in King for the past 33 years, and having visited the unique and historic village of Kettleby on a great many occasions, we were delighted to be able to move to the village in 2015.

People residing in Kettleby have taken immense pride, for generations, in the upkeep of their heritage properties, and for their community in general. Even now, on special occasions, visitors to Kettleby are informed, via plaques posted outside many of the old homes, listing which family lived in each home, their occupations, and when the homes were built. Appreciation of heritage and history is so important to many residents.

A book is currently being written about its founding, and how the village evolved to become the hamlet it is today. Many residents have contributed their family histories to this book, which will be published later this year.

This is a community who share in celebrations and festivities on a regular basis. Many of us share a common spirit and appreciation for our history. It is therefore highly disrespectful, to our forefathers who have built one of the truly unique villages in Canada, to have one of these historic homes given approval for demolition.

Brain teaser

In the card game bridge, which probability is greater - that you and your partner do not have any spades, or that you and your partner have all the spades in the game?

Last week's answer: Drop five coins in the first cup. Then put the other two cups in each other and drop the five remaining coins in them.

Spring cleaning your yard?

Check local By-law before starting an Open Air Fire/Burn

Township of King – April 2019

King Fire & Emergency Services is advising local residents to contact them regarding the restrictions that govern open air burning before having any open air fires or burning brush.

"With spring outdoor cleanup starting, we know some residents choose to burn brush and yard debris on their property," explained Fire Chief Jim Wall. "Cleaning up debris and limiting the level of flammable vegetation surrounding your home is understandable. However, please make sure that the way you do it is safe – for you, your home, your neighbours, and the surrounding area."

A permit is required with specific conditions for burning in the Township of King.

Open air burning can include the use of outdoor fireplaces and cooking fires not involving the use of a barbeque (for recreational purposes). Some outdoor appliances may not be recommended because there is potential for personal injury, property damage and increased risk of a grass fire. Please do your homework and go on-line and research these appliances before you make any purchases.

"Whether in the backyard of your home, the cottage or at a campground please make fire safety a priority," said Fire Chief Wall. "Open air burning, especially if left unattended can become difficult to control and can result in a serious injury or widespread fire." Always keep fire safety in mind.

Please contact King Fire & Emergency Services for more information if you have any questions about open air burning requirements.

Student protest addresses new changes to education

By Adriana Canale-Parola
King City Secondary School

When I saw Education Minister Lisa Thompson's announcement about the Ford government's education budget cuts on the news, I knew that my voice would be heard.

I saw the "Students Say No" Instagram account a few days after Minister Thompson's announcement. It was reassuring that I was not the only one who felt the same way. They had been planning a province wide walkout on April 4 at 1:15 p.m.

The main concern was the importance of our students and educators over other things, such as horse racing. Classroom sizes would increase from a 22 to 28 student average, decreasing the jobs of thousands of our educators. The quality of our education and increase stress for everyone. Unfortunately, that is not the only policy put in place. Major cuts are being made to the Ontario Autism Program, arts programs, ESL programs, and even omitting indigenous studies from the Ontario history curriculum! Also, they are tweaking the sexual education curriculum, allowing the parents to make the decision whether their children have the opportunity to learn about topics, such as birth control and LGBTQ+.

These cuts impact everyone from elementary to post-secondary. The Ford government is stripping students from low income families of their free tuition and limiting grants. Instead, they're are giving low-income students a 10% discount off their tuition. This is not enough of a discount. Because of these changes, students may not even have the chance to go to college or university based on how much money they have in their pocket.

I think it is an understatement to say that Ontario is in debt. We, as students, understand cuts in the provincial government's budget need to be made. However, why make such dramatic cuts to something that is building the foundation to our future? The provincial government needs to realize that LGBTQ+ people are still people. Indigenous history is still our history. Art classes have the same importance as math classes. Our teachers and students matter and I was not about to let this go unheard in our community.

I started the Instagram account @kcsc_saysno and registered my school, King City Secondary School, for the Students Say No walkout. I followed as many people as I knew until the word spread around school. When organizing the walkout, I knew that I could not do this by myself. I called on the help of my friends and the gears started turning.

I want to give a big thanks to Kashifa Ahmad, Sivan Isacov, Sarah Ashworth, Emily Stephens, Malaika Javid, Jacqueline Hillier, Cindy Li and Amira Kabir for helping me with organizing. I couldn't have done this without them.

When I had posted a poll on the Instagram page asking how many people were coming to the protest, only 40 people had said yes. But as soon as it turned 1:15 on April 4, a little more than 200 students united together as one voice to express their opinions on the devastating budget cuts. Over 700 schools and 100,000 students province participated in their local walkout.

All the walkouts were organized by students, for students, and we were not forced by the union.

We can get this to Queen's Park through the media and the multiple stakeholders involved in fighting for a change.

I have something in the works that I hope will get the attention of the provincial Parliament!

Mississauga wants independence from Peel Region

By Joshua Santos & Mark Pavilons

Mississauga wants independence from Peel Region and they held a town hall style meeting Tuesday night to get public input.

The city council passed in principle Mayor Bonnie Crombie's motion requesting the Province pass legislation that the municipality become independent from the Region of Peel.

"The City of Mississauga has long held the position that regional government does not work for our city, our residents or our businesses," said Mayor Crombie.

Crombie argues that the city sends $85 million to the region to fund the growth of Brampton and Caledon. She said that is not fair for residents and businesses. She said their money should go towards priorities in their city and that they must be able to govern their own affairs and set their own vision without interference.

Crombie states Mississauga will have the ability to speak as one city, fully in control of its future identity. She said it will lead to an efficient and effective government, that Mississauga's tax dollars will no longer be forced to subsidize Brampton and Caledon, that city council and staff will have the ability to make decision in their best interest and that they will have greater access to their own funding.

Further, she said Mississauga will be treated with the respect it deserves as the third largest city in Ontario and sixth largest in Canada, independent of another level of government.

Caledon Mayor Allan Thompson did not want to speculate on a potential divorce. He did, however, say that if there was a move to a single tier, the most likely outcome would be a single "City of Peel."

"The irony is that our regional government works quite well right now, from an operational and fiscal perspective," said Thompson. "In fact, the Region of Peel is the only government organization at any level to have receive an Excellence Canada's Platinum Award for Excellence, Innovation and Wellness. So, I'm not too sure what benefit there would be for the province to break up a government that is working well."

Peel Region chair Nando Iannicca said the current regional model is working exceptional well.

"This is not the first time Mississauga has expressed a desire to leave the Region of Peel, but from the interests of our residents across Peel, it is important to consider the benefits that Region-wide services offer economy of scale and seamless delivery," said Iannicca. "Services are provided effectively to meet the needs of those living and working in Peel and we have been able to provide value to the taxpayer through this competitive advantage that we have over smaller municipalities. Our scale of service delivery ensures costs are spread cost-effectively over time and population, that simply can't be matched by the local municipalities on their own."

"The Region spans across the three local municipalities and the details that will need to be negotiated are wide-ranging and very complex," said Iannicca. "Whatever the decision taken by the Province will be, we are committed to ensuring that the exemplary outcomes that we have been able to provide our residents and business for over 40 years will be maintained."

Mississauga staff provided three options to council at a recent meeting. They said the city can be its own single-tier municipality; that the Region of Peel is reformed, and that Mississauga, Brampton and Caledon amalgamate.

"Amalgamation with Brampton and Caledon is not an option," said Crombie. "Furthermore, amalgamations have historically not resulted in savings."

Crombie further states that residents of all three municipalities do not want an amalgamation. They each have a distinct identity and an independent history, and that they are inefficient.

Thompson, on the other hand, continues to voice his support for regional governance.

"I've been involved in regional government for the past 16 years," said Thompson. "I've been chair of the Region's Public Works Committee. I have a good understanding of how regional government works. What appears at first glance to be simple would, in my view, be complicated, divisive and potentially very expensive."

Crombie said it no longer makes sense for Mississauga to be part of the Region of Peel. She said they have the financial strength, experience and maturity to operate as their own city, set their own priorities and control their own destiny."

York Region chair and CAO Wayne Emmerson didn't want to enter the fray.

"It is not for me to comment on discussions or decisions of other political jurisdictions beyond the boundaries of York Region," he said. "As I stated in January when the Ontario government first announced a review of Regional governments, Simcoe County and the lower-tier municipalities, York Region is supportive of the review. York Region and our partnership with our nine cities and towns is strong, supportive and collaborative. We are always identifying efficiencies and better ways to conduct business to benefit our residents and businesses. It is just one of the reasons why people choose York Region to live, work and visit."

King Mayor Steve Pellegrini said it's "narrowminded to think it's all about you."

Regarding the relationship among regional colleagues, Pellegrini likened it to sending your kids off to university, one by one.

York is very different than its regional counterparts.

"We've got something special in York," he said, adding municipalities are always willing to help one another. He pointed out when York was formed, the northern municipalities helped fund the south. The N6, as it's commonly known, works well. Pellegrini said he's always looking for partnerships to make things better, through joint efforts with other municipalities, schools, businesses, colleges, etc.

Councillors weigh in on proposal

Councillor Bill Cober also came out in favour of the plan, noting some 32,000 cars travel along King Road each day. The market demand drives commercial investment like this, he pointed out. Today, time is precious and people demand the convenience of drive-throughs. Cars are becoming cleaner, and more electric vehicles will lower emissions and pollution in the future.

King has to shore up its residential to commercial ratio, to improve the overall tax burden. A commercial investment like this makes people stop in the village, and creates jobs.

Councillor Avia Eek sided with the residents, noting this project is not suitable on this parcel. She said residents' concerns really need to be taken into consideration. "These people live there; it's their community," she said.

Councillor Jordan Cescolini noted he supports business, but has listened to residents and stands up for them. He, too, opposed the recommendations.

Investigation continues on suspicious food being left around park

By Mark Pavilons

King Township and York Regional Police are investigating a series of suspicious events around Memorial Park in King City.

Township staff became aware of the actions of a woman in Memorial Park and on Patton Street. The woman has been observed dropping a trail of food along her walk. The food included what appeared to be nuts, raisins and bread-crumbs. The food has been sent to be tested for toxins.

There have been reports by residents of dogs becoming ill after eating unknown foodstuffs in the area, although these cases have yet to be confirmed. There have also been unconfirmed reports of dead wildlife in the area. Out of an abundance of caution King is warning pet owners to be extra vigilant when walking their dogs in the area.

On March 27, York Regional Police received a report from a concerned citizen that a woman had been leaving bread and dog food or treats on the ground at King City Memorial Park. He believed the food had been poisoned as he reported that he was aware of at least two dogs that had eaten something at the park and became ill.

On April 1, YRP received an additional report from King bylaw officers who have been investigating the incidents as well. They provided information on two possible suspects.

The suspects were identified and empty bags and containers in their possession were seized. Officers also located pieces of bread that appeared to be freshly left in the park. The bread has been sent to the Center of Forensic Sciences for expert examination. No charges have been laid.

Township staff placed warning signs at Memorial Park advising people of the issue.

“Our most important priority is keeping animals safe,” said Chris Fasciano, director of Parks, Recreation and Culture. “We’re advising people to keep their dogs on a leash and don’t let them walk alone outside of their view. It only takes a second for a dog to eat something on the ground.” Under King’s animal control bylaw, dogs must be leashed and not allowed to run at large at all times.

The speed at which toxic substances take effect varies depending on the type and quantity ingested by the animal, but the symptoms of poisoning are relatively easy to recognize:

- Neurological concerns (change in behaviour, lethargy/weakness, tremors, loss of coordination, difficulty walking, seizures, coma).
- Gastrointestinal concerns (loss of appetite, excessive thirst, drooling, excessive urination, diarrhea, vomiting).
- Cardio-respiratory concerns (rapid breathing/panting, rapid heart rate, vocalizing).

If you suspect your dog has eaten something harmful, take them to your veterinarian or emergency clinic immediately.

If you see suspicious activity in or around the park, please contact York Regional Police at 1-866-876-5423.

King Township will provide updates on its website, Twitter and Facebook as the investigation progresses.

Anyone with information is asked to contact the York Regional Police #1 District Criminal Investigations Bureau at 1-866-876-5423, ext. 7141, Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-tips, or leave an anonymous tip online at www.1800222tips.com.

Allowing demolition is ‘embarrassing’

Several generations in each of these homes have dedicated their time and effort to preserving their properties, thus ensuring significant historic architecture at its best.

With a rich architectural history, the core of Kettleby village is truly unique in having many houses which were built by our early pioneers and settlers in the mid- to late-1800s. This is not a collection of pioneer homes on show to the public. It is a real pioneer village, where many people care about their homes and their local environment.

To allow the destruction of any one of these homes is more than embarrassing, it represents an insult to our forefathers, and to anyone with any sense of value for our community history.

From 150 years ago to 150 years from now, Canadians will look back and wonder what was in the minds of those who allowed the original houses to be replaced with pretentious houses. No matter what new home tries to replicate an older one, it can never hold any true historic value, no matter how old. It is simply not original.

In terms of setting a precedent, as soon as one of these homes is demolished, others will likely follow, if the same councilors are of the same mind in future. This would mean that ultimately, there would be no more heritage village, which is a true rarity in Canada.

When will the value of heritage architecture be realized by those making such decisions? When will community be valued, and those who live in this community, who have a deep admiration for the special place in which they live, instead of the irresponsible wishes of selfish individuals?

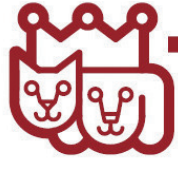

I would propose that individuals should not have the right to do “anything they want,” when it includes ruining the unique heritage which this village provides. One just has to look at many new residential developments – cookie-cutter replicas almost everywhere, with few exceptions – most are pretentious homes of little substance.

Bringing in heritage experts who deflected and eradicated the issue of heritage to this structure is only relevant to those people. They don’t live in our village and clearly have no vision for the future of the village. There are so many options to rejuvenate the interior of the house in question. Many modifications to better suit the needs of the current occupants are feasible options without destroying the historic structure.

I would sincerely request that the current mayor and councilors, and indeed future mayors and councilors, do not allow homes of more than 100 years old, in our cherished village, (and indeed in King) be allowed to be demolished, unless their condition is so far gone that rejuvenation is impossible, which is not the situation in this case.

When it comes to original historic structures compared to rebuilt facsimiles of those houses, true historic value lasts forever. Values of fake, pretentious homes become insignificant, very quickly.

Keeping King green makes us happy, healthy

By Maria Guglielmin

Finland is the happiest country in the world for the second year in a row, according to the UN happiness report. Finland has long, dark, and cold winters; it's not the richest country in the world, and there are high rates of suicide. What makes the Finnish people so happy?

"Our secret is in our nature, very literally. When others go to therapy, Finns put on a pair of rubber boots and head to the woods." This quote comes from a release from Visit Finland. While I am sure there is more to their happiness than that, there is truth in this.

My mom is Finnish and I was recently in Kuopio, Finland for research (I am studying a health policy approach known as Health in All Policies). While I was there interviewing government employees and speaking with locals, I repeatedly heard people speak of their love for nature.

"We are nature people," one woman told me. Even the city planners and decision makers recognized the importance of having and preserving forests and greenspaces.

There was a large forest containing many walking trails in the area I was staying. After work, I would go for a walk on these trails, and would see many other people there. It was November, so it was very dark (I didn't see the sun at all during my 10-day visit), and it rained every day. Nevertheless, the trails were busy. We could walk when it was dark because there were lamps on the trail. I saw people walking alone or with a buddy. People were generally quiet, seemingly in their thoughts and enjoying themselves. In the 10 days I walked the trails, I saw only one person on his phone.

Research shows that visiting forests increases physical and mental health, and evidence suggests that living near major highways may increase the risk of negative health outcomes (including asthma in children). Living near major roads increases noise and air pollution for nearby residents.

When I was in Kuopio, the locals showed me a new subdivision that had just been built. This subdivision was near two major roads, but instead of homes being built right beside the highway, there was space between the homes and the road, and even a wall to block the noise. They even painted the wall with beautiful art! I was taken aback at how thoughtfully this subdivision had been built. Clearly, the health and wellbeing of residents were considered during the planning.

This made me think of the new townhomes being built in Vaughan near Canada's Wonderland adjacent to Highway 400. The homes look as if they literally cannot be any closer to the highway. Were the health and wellbeing of citizens considered when planning and approving this development?

Kuopio and Vaughan are very different cities, particularly in their land availability and population size. Nevertheless, I don't see why greenspaces cannot be protected and homes cannot be built a safe distance from highways and major roads.

King is a nice place to live and has many forests and greenspaces. However, many other cities started off like King, and ended up with congested developments and parsimonious parks and forests (think of some areas in Brampton). And unfortunately, it's often the neighbourhoods with less expensive homes that end up with even less greenspaces, parks, and trees (and are more likely to be situated beside major roads).

Michelle Obama says in her book "Becoming" that as a child she could tell the rich from the poor neighbourhoods by the amount of trees that were on the streets: "The poorer neighbourhoods often had no trees at all."

Although King is in a good place when it comes to greenspaces, city decision-makers must continue to advocate for protected forests and greenspaces, for all residents. Health, happiness, and wellbeing should be considered in city planning and development. We should all have the luxury of putting on our boots and heading to the woods.

King-Vaughan MPP Stephen Lecce, celebrated the end of Ontario's costly, time consuming, and outdated Drive Clean program at Maple Honda in Vaughan.

MPP touts savings as Drive Clean ends

King-Vaughan MPP Stephen Lecce headed out into the community, to celebrate the government's plan to reduce the burden on vehicle owners, save time, and put more than $40 million back in the pockets of taxpayers each year by cancelling the Drive Clean Program.

Lecce made the announcement during a tour of Maple Honda in Vaughan recently.

"Our government is committed to putting more money back in your pockets. That is why we have cancelled Ontario's costly, time consuming, and outdated Drive Clean program that has outlasted its effectiveness and no longer provides value for taxpayers. The provincial government's Made-In-Ontario Environment Plan will focus on heavy polluters, so that Ontario can continue to lead in reducing smog-causing pollutants, without raising taxes or costs on families, seniors, and small businesses," Lecce said.

When it was first introduced by the Progressive Conservative government in 1999, Drive Clean was effective in delivering results. More than 16% of passenger vehicles were flagged for repair annually. But as the years expired, so did the program's usefulness and Drive Clean no longer did the job it was intended to do.

According to the Auditor General, on-road emissions declined steeply, so much so that they are no longer the biggest contributor to smog. 75% of these reductions came through stricter manufacturing standards, requirements for cleaner fuels, and the natural retirement of older vehicles – not as a result of Drive Clean.

This program established almost 20 years ago, no longer makes sense. Premier Doug Ford and Minister of the Environment Rod Phillips announced the cancellation of this outdated program.

The Made-in-Ontario Environment Plan targets heavy emitters and promises strong enforcement to crack down on the biggest polluters.

"We recognize that Ontario must continue to do our share to combat climate change. That's why our plan commits to reduce our Greenhouse Gas emissions 30% by 2030, a target that aligns us with the federal government's commitments," according to a statement from Queen's Park.

CHATS Walk For Wellness is here

It's spring and it is time for Walk For Wellness, the annual fundraising event for CHATS (Community and Home Assistance To Seniors). CHATS is a not-for-profit charitable organization which enables seniors to live at home by offering a range of home care services and community programs. There are two categories of beneficiaries: the seniors themselves and their family members and/or friends who can consider CHATS as their back-up when they need a break.

CHATS is very active in King. During the last 10 months there were 556 visits to assist with routine home upkeep and chores; 1,682 meals were delivered; 92 former hospital patients were assisted with their transition to being at home again. Other high-use programs include transportation, respite and day programs.

"Once again I am participating in the Walk on April 13. I have a fund raising goal of $1,000," said Councillor Debbie Schaefer.

You can support CHATS by participating in the walk OR by supporting me. To support Seniors living independently at home visit www.chats.on.ca/walk2019.

CDS qualifies three debaters for Worlds

For the 12th consecutive year, The Country Day School has qualified a debater for the World Championships, held this year from April 11-17 at Branksome Hall in Toronto. There will be 14 students representing Canada, and for the first time three students will be from CDS.

Maeve Tebbutt, 19 (from Midhurst), was the first to qualify last fall at the International Independent Schools' Public Speaking Competition (IISPS). She finished 3rd, thereby winning a coveted spot at the 31st World Individual Debating and Public Speaking Championships. This will be her third year competing at this level.

The three-person CDS Debating team, consisting of Maeve, Anaïs Leiva von Bovet, 19 (from Richmond Hill), and Anna Croxon, 20 (from Aurora), finished first overall – the best ever showing by a CDS team at the IISPS. In total, 167 students representing 47 teams from 7 countries participated.

Anaïs was the top speaker for the second year in a row, making it the 6th consecutive year for a CDS speaker to hold this honour. Although Anaïs could not qualify from the IISPS tournament again, as she qualified last year, she moved on to compete at the National Public speaking Championships in Winnipeg held in February for another chance to qualify for Worlds. Following very closely behind Maeve, Anna finished 4th overall at the IISPS and like Anaïs qualified to compete at Nationals.

At the Nationals, Anna finished 3rd overall, qualifying to compete in Worlds. Anaïs also excelled, securing a spot at Worlds for her second year. Students from independent schools in 16 countries will converge to compete within a global community in three out of four events: Impromptu Speaking, Parliamentary Debate, Interpretive Reading and either After Dinner or Persuasive Speaking.

"We are immensely proud of what all three girls were able to accomplish again this year at the IISPS and Nationals," said longtime debating coach Kerstin Wyndham-West. "We wish them well at the World Championships representing CDS on the world stage."

Teen receives life-saving award

By Mark Pavilons

Calm under extreme duress, an Aurora teen saved a man’s life.

Haley Hastings, 16, received the Life-Saving Certificate recently, at a ceremony hosted by St. John Ambulance and York Regional Police. Hastings was the only civilian to be honoured at the February event, where she received praise from EMS officials for her actions last fall.

It was Nov. 10, 2018 when Hastings was working the night shift at a fast food restaurant. That night, she was up front serving customers. She took a man’s order and waited for him to return from the bathroom. After more than 15 minutes went by, she became concerned. He came running to the front crying, saying his friend was on the floor of the bathroom in critical condition.

Hastings went to check, pushed her way into the bathroom and found a man in an awkward position under the stall doors. She made him comfortable and noted he was in bad shape so she began CPR while the manager called 911. Hastings noted he was frothing at the mouth and was covered in a white, powdery substance, denoting a drug overdose.

She maintained her composure and continued working on the man until EMS personnel arrived. He was a larger man and Hastings had to push hard with her compressions, working up a sweat in the process. EMS lauded Hastings for her actions and noted she helped maintain the man’s pulse and kept him alive in those crucial minutes.

She said she didn’t hesitate to jump in and do what she could.

When Haley’s mom Teri arrived on scene that night, she was shaken, but impressed at how calm and collected her daughter was.

Giving Haley a boost was her CPR training and experience at a specialized co-op placement at Southlake Regional Health Centre.

When she returned for her co-op placement Monday morning she asked about the patient, but it wasn’t until the following Wednesday that she found him in ICU and was assigned to his team of caregivers.

The man spent more than a week in hospital before he sadly passed away. He had no family and had been a resident at the Blue Door shelter in Newmarket. Hastings’s effort was bittersweet. But she took some consolation in knowing that six of the man’s organs were donated to help change the lives of other people.

Hastings admitted it felt odd receiving the award, given that the man passed away and didn’t even get a funeral.

Hastings is currently reviewing her post-secondary options, with a hope to get into trauma medicine. She had thought about following in the footsteps of her grandfather, Dr. former chief of orthopaedics at Wellesley Hospital and former team doctor for the Toronto Maple Leafs when they won the Stanley Cup back in 1967.

These days, our youth are more often criticized than they are praised. It’s good to know people like Haley Hastings don’t think twice about springing into action, and helping their fellow men and women.

Local delegate helps expand women's rights abroad

By Mark Pavilons

Promoting access to education for women and girls received some international attention recently, at the largest United Nations gathering on gender equality ever held.

Schomberg's Lynn Bird was a delegate, represented the Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW) at the United Nations Commission on Status of Women held March 11-22 in New York City.

An estimated 9,000 delegates from around the globe shared concerns, recommendations, concepts and plans to promote opportunities for women.

For Bird and the CFUW, it meant they had the opportunity to have their message heard by some of the delegates. Their particular delegation included some of the top national leadership of CFUW and "we were well prepared."

Ahead of the conference, they submitted a written statement called "Promoting Gender Equality through Quality Public Education Systems and Services." The statement, Bird said, focuses on tackling the systemic barriers in accessing education for women and girls and ensuring safe and non-discriminatory learning environment.

"We had the support from the Canadian Research Institute for the Advancement of Women, Graduate Women International, International Alliance of Women, the National Council of Women of Canada and YWCA Canada! The hope was that we would be selected to present this statement to the UN."

CFUW partnered with Graduate Women International to present a parallel event entitled "The Promise of Global Citizenship Education and the Power of Digital Literacy." The power of connectivity to the internet for educational advancement is well documented and one speaker streamed from Canada, making this an excellent example of using technology.

The CSW is the principal global intergovernmental body exclusively dedicated to the promotion of gender equality and the empowerment of women.

The discussion at this year's session focussed on social protection systems; women's empowerment, and the vital participation of NGOs.

As an NGO with "consultative status" with the United Nations, the CFUW delegation actively participated in the discussions. Bird was one of 20 CFUW delegates from across Canada chosen to attend the event.

This was the first time Bird attended the UN. She was filled with wonder prior to the conference, eager to learn more about advocacy issues. She also had an expectation to learn some of the best practices that would benefit women and girls in Tanzania.

"The benefits for me were the opportunity to meet many women in leadership roles throughout the world and hearing about what they are doing to address issues of concern to women. Issues of inheritance rights of widows in India; the elimination of child marriages in Yemen and female genital mutilation in Kenya. Closer to home was the issue of missing and murdered indigenous women. I learned a great deal from a presentation on the role of the family in giving girls the confidence to pursue a career in STEM. Girls are under represented in STEM careers compared to other developed countries.

"We were happy to have a face to face meeting with our own Minister of the Status of Women and International Development, Maryam Monsef, and presented a statement on the need for Canada to have a national child care program, one that is accessible and affordable. Canadian child care advocates have been requesting this for many years.

"One take-away from this event was the amount of interest by my fellow CFUW delegates in ABCD's program that supports a women's cooperative in Tanzania that is making personal care kits available for young women and girls to help with their menstrual health needs. Girls miss less school, stay healthier when they have easy access to water, toilets with doors and personal care kits.

Bird co-founded a Canadian NGO, ABCD: Art Building Children's Dreams, that works in Tanzania to support the educational needs of children and community development in the Kilimanjaro Region.

Bird hopes to release a report for CFUW this May. She will also be presenting some best practices on gender equality that could "apply to our work in Tanzania to our board of directors here in Canada and also to the Community Based Organization, ABCD Tanzania, that we work closely with in Tanzania."

CFUW is a non-partisan, voluntary, self-funded organization with over 100 CFUW clubs, located in every province across Canada. Since its founding in 1919, CFUW has been working to improve the status of women, and to promote human rights, public education, social justice, and peace. Bird is a member of the Aurora/Newmarket branch. For more, visit <http://www.cfuwauro-ranewmarket.com> or contact them at CFUW.info@gmail.com

Bird retired as a clinical laboratory manager at Southlake Regional Health Center in 2002. After retirement she returned to Southlake as a volunteer looking after the corporate art collection. For over 24 years, Lynn was a member of the Rotary Club of Newmarket and was fortunate to serve Rotary International at a club, district and international level. She was a trained monitor and evaluator of humanitarian projects with Canadian Rotary Collaboration for International Development.

Schomberg's Lynn Bird joined many other professionals from around the world, at a gender equality conference at the UN in New York recently.

King City Lions take bronze at OFSAA championship

By Jake Courtepatte

The revived King City Secondary School hockey program just keeps on rolling.

For the second year in a row, the Lions took home both the York Region title and an OFSAA medal, after earning a bronze medal finish at the provincial tournament in Kincardine recently.

Competing against 15 of the top regional champions from across Ontario, the Lions jumped out to a perfect 3-0 record in the round-robin component, besting the likes of R.S McLaughlin of Oshawa, St. Charles College of Sudbury, and Niagara Falls' St. Michael's High School to finish first in their group A standings.

The quarter-final match-up against St. Joseph's CHS of Renfrew saw the Lions' explode offensively, posting five goals in the first period alone in a 9-3 cakewalk to the semifinal. Carter Dice-man led the way with a hat trick, while Lucas Ceccarelli posted a pair of his own.

A meeting with Iona CSS of Mississauga meant the first loss of the tournament for one of the sides. King City got off to a 2-1 lead after the first period thanks to goals from Diceman and Nicholas De Angelis, though four-straight Iona goals in the final period sent the Lions to the bronze medal match-up.

There they met Collingwood's Jean Vanier CHS, playing an evenly-matched game to a 2-2 tie through regulation thanks to a pair of goals from grade nine Lion Michael Critelli.

Stuart Barber played the overtime hero for the Lions, burying the game winner to earn a spot on the provincial

The King City Lions hockey team had an amazing season, wrapping up with a bronze at the provincial tournament in Kincardine recently.

King City Skating club holds ice show and presents awards

The King City Skating Club held its bi-annual Ice Show March 30.

King Mayor Steve Pellegrini and King-Vaughan MPP Stephen Lecce were on hand to make some presentations to the club's award-winners.

Inspector Kelvin Chantiam from York Regional Police made the presentation to Peter Borland.

Peter's placing at the 2017-18 Special Olympics Regional Championships in Level 2 Men's Free Skate, earned him a spot on the 2018-19 Special Olympic Provincial games competitive Team where he earned the bronze medal for Level 2 Men's Free Skate.

The club's dedicated program assistants received certificates of appreciation from MPP Lecce. The program assistants are most important to the success of the club's learn to skate program. Without them they would not be able to implement such a successful program.

Receiving certificates were Ethan Luk, Cindy Luk, Thea Farruggio, Madisen Rouzes, Madison Zannett, Sefania Iaboni, Peter Borland, Bailee Tanaka, Louise Tanaka, Lexie McRae, Megan Morse, Lotem Tomsinsky, Darcy Carlile, Erika Vahidi, Emily Mammoliti, Madelene Bryant, Matteo Stellino, Sarah Merilees, Maya Zebeljan, Cindy Ye, Melody Lian and Sarah Esposito.

The Stan Roots Volunteer Award went to the club's most dedicated volunteer. This young lady is a very dedicated program assistant. She logged in the most volunteer hours this year for the club. She comes every Tuesday and Thursday and works with our young skaters and coaches. She is always willing to learn and help others.

Thea Farruggio was chosen by several coaches when asked who they felt was a good program assistant.

Mayor Pellagrini presented awarded to four wonderful and dedicated skaters. These young skaters had to compete in several competitions and rank in the top 12 of Ontario, which earned them a spot on the All Ontario Competitive Team. These skaters went on to represent the King City Skating club at the All Ontario Provincial Championships held in Mississauga, Ontario.

The standings at the Provincial games for all of Ontario was the following:

Julia Ferreira, Gold Triathlon, 6th in all of Ontario.

Shaan Tahir, STAR 8 Men's (Long), 6th and STAR 8 Men's (Short) 2nd in all of Ontario.

Charlie Rose and Ethan Luk, STAR 4-5 Pattern Dance, 6th in all of Ontario.

Julia Ferreira and Shaan Tahir, Diamond Dance, 1st in all of Ontario

Takes a lot of hard work and dedication to make this competitive team and the club is very proud of these skaters.

podium.

Head coach Brad Matwijec and his team would like to thank the graduating grade twelve players on what has been a meteoric rise to the top of the high school hockey ranks for the young KCSS program, including Stuart Barber, Anthony Arnone, Pearce Baker, Chris Siarkas, Owen Farmer, Matt Plasa, and Cam Kokelj, who spent all four years with the team while attending KCSS.

"Each of these young men contributed to growth and development of our program," said Matwijec. "They will be greatly missed."

Echoes are all that's left as curlers close season

By Shellee Morning

King's Sunday Social League has now completed their 2018-19 season with captivating playoff curling.

The second half team of Andre Zupanic, Bill Kelly, Karen Letwinka and Bill Barron seemed to struggle for the win in regular season play, but once the word "playoffs" were announced, the Zupanic squad were a team of force. Team McKinley, who was also seated in the middle of the pack after regular season play, persevered collecting playoff points each week.

Winning their way into the championship game came with a load of confidence as McKinley and Zupanic went broom for broom for the title. Skip Pam McKinley, Charles Levine, Karen Melow and David Hymers came with their A-game making Zupanic earn their every point. Zupanic also came with their A-game matching hit for hit and draw for draw. It all came down in traditional fashion to the last end and the last rock with team Zupanic collecting the winning point and the title for Sunday

Steve Broad, Karl Davis, Jason Peelar and Gary Boose win the Men's League Championship Title.

Karen Letwinka, Bill Barron, Bill Kelly and Andrea Zupanic are the 2018-19 Sunday Social League Champions.

League Champions.

The Monday Night Men's League championship game between teams Brown and Davis was highly anticipated as being one of the best final games in the club's 8-year history. Defending 2018 league champion Doug Brown included Sylvain Pelland, Trevor Battershell and Anthony Strickland while Team Karl Davis, Steve Broad, Jason Peelar and Gary Boose with (a record) 5 time league championship belts of their own, were the main attraction. These heavy hitters have played competitively all season long in their 18-team roster, weaving through each game as if it were the Brier Final.

Davis with hammer laid down a solid 3 points in the opening frame and continued to apply pressure in the 2nd, pushing Brown further behind. Brown eventually got on the board but succumbed early with handshakes as Team Davis overpowered the defending champions.

Skip Doug Brown commented: "I have huge respect for Karl Davis and his team; they played well all season and in the final."

As King curlers are left with the echoes of the "Hurry Hards" and the thrashing sounds of granite, the memories of amazing shots, the contagious smiles of the kids and the laughter that was heard amongst the walls are all but what's left of the 2018-19 season.

A sense of grieving has taken place as the stories continue and the strategies will forever be discussed and analyzed, as we hang our brooms and begin the countdown for our return. For those not returning to the club, we wish you well in your new paths of direction and adventure. For the members returning, we await your camaraderie and look forward to the new teams and challenges that bring us all together.

In curling, we may encounter many defeats, but we are never defeated because we always come back for more.

See you next year for another great season of curling.

Annual Kevin Lord Memorial Spring Classic

This year's Kevin Lord Memorial Classic tournament is being held on Saturday, May 25 at Bear Creek Golf Club (www.bearcreekgolfing.com).

The event features a 12 p.m. shotgun start. The golf tournament has been held as a fundraiser in memory of Kevin Lord, a past New Tecumseth resident and aspiring Jr. A hockey and ball hockey player, who passed away in 2006 at the young age of 20 after a year-long battle with brain cancer.

Over the past 12 years the Foundation has raised in excess of $125,000, supporting major organizations such as The Brain Tumour Foundation of Canada, Royal Victoria Hospital Cancer Centre, Matthews House Hospice to name a few, as well as other worthy organizations, special charities and local families in need.

The tournament is open the first 144 registered golfers. Entry fee is $150 per golfer or $600 per team, which includes 18 holes of golf, lunch, steak dinner, a prize and also entry in the challenge hole contest. Also, a company or personal hole sponsorship is always appreciated at a cost of $100 for a sign with your company logo or personal lettering. Any teams or individuals interested in entering this year should plan to register early by May 1 in order to secure a spot. To register or sponsor a hole for further details, contact Al Lord at al.lord@sympatico.ca or 416-576-6128.

Tough curling shoes to fill as veterans depart

By Shellee Morning

The King Curling Club has been in sole possession of a trailblazer, front-runner, manager, mentor, and superior “take charge” of a leader.

Julie Oakley is the true definition of “volunteer.” Her endless and true dedicated amount of precious time spent here at the club with the Youth Program cannot go undetected. Every Wednesday for the past 8 years, the Little Rock kids have arrived to the welcoming smile and energetic face of coach Julie. To some, she’s thought of as a second mom, to others their coach, but to all their friend.

There were days when the kids would be highly active and less focused but Julie with her leadership skills could expertly manoeuvre the atmosphere into a calm and “let’s settle down” attitude, without the kids even knowing what just happened.

The Youth Program was a challenge from the start as is with any new club, to establish strong roots and a healthy membership, but Julie took hold of the reins, and has put King on the Curl Ontario map. Our club has been well represented at the Hit, Draw and Tap event for kids curling for the past few years and with very impressive results that include some proudly earned trophies.

Julie was also one of masterminds in re-building the Gordon Fogg Memorial Shamrock Spiel for Little Rocks 12 years of age and younger as well as the U18 youth curlers. This successful event for the past 6 years has taken place during March Break and has quickly become the event of the year. Clubs from all over register to be a part of this event and year after year, the comments continue on how well it was organized and to the beautiful facility we have to offer.

Julie’s interest in the club’s youth program also led her into helping with the Junior/Bantam age group as well. She introduced her students into the Youth Curling Inter-Club league which is a part of the Toronto Curling Association circuit. The inter-club league allowed teams the opportunity to play against other clubs gaining experience for game play and club exposure. A true key, in helping to grow the interest of youth curling, as well as our new club.

Julie has honed her coaching ability to a Certified Club coach and is continuing in training as Competitive Coach. She has applied these skills not only towards the clubs future stars but to her colleagues as well. Her contagious and generous attitude for volunteering has marvelled in the eyes of many.

Husband Ben Oakley has also been instrumental offering many hours of volunteering with the Youth Program and anywhere else the club needs an extra hand. His welcoming and warm smile with truly be missed both on and off the ice.

The Oakleys are moving this coming summer and will not be returning to King.

As they say “those will be tough shoes to fill” and a vacancy that will not be easy to replace with their dedicated volunteerism and more importantly, their friendship. As the club mourns their decision to move on, they wish them both all the best in their future and in their new home and community. A community that is not only gaining in population but is lucky to have such a legend in offering her heart and soul into everything she believes in. You both will truly be missed within the curling club and the community. King Curling and all of its members will cherish the memories and look forward to your visits back to Schomberg.

Horticultural Society

Our first meeting of the year in March drew a huge audience as we learned a lot about cannabis. This month we hope to see many of our members and guests again as we enjoy a presentation from Sean James, the renowned gardener, landscaper and excellent speaker on the topic "Fusion Gardening®", which will certainly be informative and inspirational.

Join us at the Schomberg Community Hall, 325 Main Street, at 7:30 on Tuesday, April 23. It is our annual Guest Night so everyone is welcome free of charge instead of the usual $3. You might even want to take out a yearly membership for $20 or $25 for a family (best deal in town). The Schomberg Horticultural Society is in its 83rd year and we are a lovely group of people who meet on the 4th Tuesday of the month in March, April, May, June, September and October. We are renowned for our speakers and our competition flower shows where everyone can display the best of their gardens.

Spring 'Cream Team'

Enjoy a traditional British Tea, served in bone china cups and saucers, as in the 19th century. This all happens at the Spring Cream Tea at Kettleby Christ Church, 292 Kettleby Road, Kettleby on Saturday, May 4 from 1 to 4 p.m.

You can shop for books, treasures (old and new), baked goods and plants, including heritage varieties.

Join the Great Tea Debate. Is it cream or jam first on your scone? Milk first or last in your cup? Is it a serviette or a napkin? Cornish Cream, Devon Cream or Whipped Cream? How should you stir the sugar in your cup? Do you really use a pinky? Do you pick up the cup or the cup and saucer?

You can enjoy all of this for a paltry $7 per person!

For further information please call the church at 905-939-2314 or visit www.anglicanparishoflloydtown.com

St. Paul's Church

Coming this Sunday, St. Paul's is excited to be hosting an Easter Event for Families - "Rise Up with Jesus." Join us for an uplifting family adventure learning that Jesus is alive today! Take home your crafts and a family photo. Arrive anytime between 6 and 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 14 and stay for about an hour. If you can make it, and we hope you can, just contact the church office at 905-859-4083 or e-mail: secretary@stpaulsnobleton.ca

Do you or someone you know have questions concerning faith, such as "Isn't the Bible a Myth?, How can you say there is only one way to God?, Why are there so many rules?, Why does God allow suffering?, Why is the Church responsible for so much injustice?" or "How can God be full of love and wrath at the same time?" Then you'll want to attend, and bring a friend, to a 6-week DVD/discussion series titled The Reason for God - Conversations on Life and Faith. Tim Keller of Redeemer Presbyterian Church in New York addresses these questions in a dialogue with a group of skeptics. The fourth DVD will be shown and discussed this evening at 7:30 p.m. and the remainder DVDs will continue on Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. You're invited to participate in those discussions and deepen your faith.

We have several LifeConnect Groups that meet throughout the week. LifeConnect Groups are small gatherings for friendship, study and prayer. Please feel free to contact the church office and we can give you further details.

The Community Youth Group meets every second week at 7 p.m. with extra events organized throughout the year. Come join in the fun. Follow our Instagram account, "4.12.youth.group," to stay up to date on current events. Check this space for details, or contact our church office at 905-859-0843. A2J, our program for kids in Grades 3 to 6, will continue to meet the second and fourth Friday of the month at 7 p.m.

It is said that what goes into a mind comes out in a life. What you read, watch and listen to really matters! You are welcome to borrow from our church library, which contains many Christian DVDs, books and CDs to help stretch and grow and encourage you.

The first and third Tuesday of the month we have a group of people that get together at 1 p.m. to do Quilting. The second and fourth Tuesday of the month, the focus is on knitting. Last year alone we were able to donate 28 quilts for refugees, plus many knitted items. All handcrafted items are donated to various mission projects. Consider joining us.

This Sunday, Jeff will lead us in worship at 10 a.m. His message, "Why The Crowds?" will be based on John 12. We offer ministry to children aged 0 to 11 during worship. Following the service we always enjoy some delicious refreshments. Come and join us. You will be glad you did!

Jeff's messages are posted at www.passionatelyhis.com each week. They are also on Facebook Live and are available on the church's Facebook page (@stpaulsnobleton) and YouTube page (search St. Paul's Church, Nobleton), or stpaulsnobleton.ca for viewing. For more information about ANY of our activities or events, please contact the church office or visit our new and improved website at www.stpaulsnobleton.ca.

Nobleton United Church By Nancy Hopkinson

This Sunday, April 14 is Palm Sunday and Easter Egg Hunt. There will be palm branches to wave! The shortened Family Friendly Service will be followed by an outdoor Easter Egg Hunt. This hunt will take place rain or shine. Each child will be given an empty egg carton and instructed to look for plastic eggs which will contain wrapped chocolate eggs. There will be a "Grand Prize" given out to the child who finds the "Golden Egg." If you are interested in attending, please let us know by contacting the church at nobletonunit-edchurch@bell.net or by phone at 905-859-3976.

Messy Church is on Tuesday, April 16, from 5 to 7 p.m. The crafts and activities will all be Easter based. At 6 pm, there is story time and at 6:15 pm, dinner. New families are welcome. Please let Nancy know (905-859-0761) if you intend to come, as we want to have enough crafts and food for all. This event is free.

The Joyful Spirits are practicing on Wednesdays at 7 p.m.

King Bible Church

Please join us on Sunday, April 14 as Pastor Mark continues our series "Encountering God Through Baptism."

"There is no greater place to regularly experience not only spiritual growth but also the presence of God, then participating in the spiritual practices laid out for us in God's Word. So why is it that many of our experiences with spiritual practices are of frustration and guilt rather than joy? There could be lots of reasons, but I wonder if at the heart is we don't have a clear picture of how God uses these disciplines to create something of beauty out of the mess. Let me invite you to join us over the next number of weeks as we look at 12 spiritual practices and how God uses them to mold us into the likeness of his Son."

Please take advantage of our excellent children's ministry. Our Sunday morning "Celebration Zone" provides age-appropriate programs for children aged 4 to Grade 8. Our children's program is staffed by screened volunteers who care about your kids! The children in Grades 1-8 will join their parents for the beginning of the service until they are invited to go downstairs. The children in kindergarten can go directly to their class at the start of the service.

If you have children aged 0-3 then we invite you to bring them to our beautiful and safe nursery facilities which are located on the lower level. Caregivers will meet you there.

"Legacy" nights are our family Bible Study nights.

We will provide nursery care for children 0-3. Our children (JK-Grade 5) & Junior High (Grade 6-8) classes will meet downstairs. Our adults will meet upstairs. We meet every Tuesday from 6:45-8 p.m.

Good Friday service is April 19 at 10:30 a.m.

This year we again have the pleasure of joining with Sovereign Grace Church for our Good Friday Service. Pastor Josh Tong of Sovereign Grace will be preaching. We will have a program for kids in Grade 5 and younger.

In remembrance of Christ's sacrifice we will be celebrating Communion.

Easter Sunday service is April 21 at 10:30 a.m.

We will be joining with Sovereign Grace for Easter Sunday service as well! We will have a program for kids in Grade 5 and younger.

Pastor Mark will be speaking.

You can find us at King Bible Church, 1555 King Rd. King City (at King Rd. & Dufferin), 905-833-5104, www.kingbiblechurch.com, info@kingbiblechurch.com

St. Andrew's By Kathy Patterson

St. Andrew's shares the love of Jesus in the community and beyond!

Come and worship with us! All are welcome at 10 a.m. for our Palm Sunday service as Lynn Vissers leads us in worship. Sunday School for school-aged children up to 12 years old runs concurrently. The HanWool Presbyterian Church, King City is holding their service at St. Andrew's during this Lenten season at 11:30 a.m.

Last Sunday, Lynn's sermon was based on the scripture from Mark 5:1-20 where Jesus healed a man who was severely troubled, void of dignity, self-control, and peace. This miracle was on the heels of Jesus commanding the wind and the waves to be still, also providing peace and security. Are we trusting this same Jesus with our storms of life? Is He our Peace?

Soup and Conversation continues this Wednesday at 6 p.m. in the office. Lynn will be showing more of her slides of her recent trip to the Holy Land.

All Saints Anglican Church By Patrick Gossage

Palm Sunday At All Saints - Our 10:30 a.m. service next Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. We commemorate Jesus's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, an event chronicled in each of the four Gospels. It will be celebrated by the distribution of palm crosses representing the palm branches the crowd scattered in front of Christ as he rode into Jerusalem and by hearing the passion story.

Our young people perform the Good Samaritan - Grace Martin's church school performed the whole story of the Good Samaritan last Sunday at the front of the church. Narrated from the pulpit, young people took all the roles, the lawyer and Christ who used the parable to explain who is our neighbor, the poor man who was beaten and left, the passersby who ignored him, and the Samaritan who bound his wounds and put him up at an Inn. Our young people agreed that acting it out brought the story to life for them.

Maundy Thursday - Next Thursday, April 18, 7 p.m. - a special service with foot washing. Maundy Thursday is the day when Jesus celebrated his final Passover with His disciples. Most notably, at that Passover meal Jesus washed the feet of His disciples in an extraordinary display of humility. He then commanded them to do the same for each other. Maundy is a short for of the Latin word for commandment. Jesus's new commandment to his disciples was to "love one another as I have loved you."

Our Diocesan Bishop visits All Saints - Bishop Andrew Asbil was warmly welcomed to our church last Sunday - he officiated at the service and delivered an inspiring sermon on the Gospel story in John 12 of Mary anointed Jesus's feet with expensive perfume and wiping them with her hair. He said that we all have a ministry and called us to give generously of our gifts.

Our relationship with God is always moving, sometimes he is out of sight and seeks us out. "I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert," he quoted from Isaiah when the Jewish people were separated from God. "Sometimes you have to be far from home to know who you are. Then God reveals himself, and knows who you are. He says 'I see you,' I will do a new thing and the whole creation will change. Old words will be fresh again."

Mary knew that grief was coming to Jesus. He reminded us that Mary's immense gratitude involved anointing Jesus with perfume worth a whole year's wages. He told the story of an event when he was a curate raising money for his church and he had to ask a parishioner, Jim, for a donation. To his enormous surprise, he promised $100,000 saying "it's a joy to give." In the Gospel Jesus says the poor will always be with us. He urged us to be open-handed with them and with our parish. In so doing we will receive new life and be transformed.
