A packed crowd of supporters congratulated King-Vaughan MP-elect Deb Schulte after Monday night's victory. Schulte noted the new minority government will present some challenges, and she praised everyone on her team for their unbelievable dedication.

Deb Schulte, Scot Davidson are newly elected MPs

By Mark Pavilons

The newly elected MPs representing King have their work cut out for them.

Local results were a reflection of the country's divisive vote Monday night which saw the Liberals returned to power, this time in a minority government. King will have both a Liberal and Conservative MP in Ottawa.

Incumbent Liberal Deb Schulte was re-elected in King-Vaughan with a slim, 1,000-vote margin over Conservative candidate Anna Roberts. Schulte garnered 28,365 votes, or 44.9% of the vote. Roberts was very close behind at 43.3% and 27,454 votes.

NDP candidate Emilio Bernardo-Ciddio was third with 4,195 votes (6.6%), followed by Green Party candidate Ann Raney who garnered 2,460 votes (3.9%).

People's Party candidate Anton Strgac managed 725 votes (1.1%).

Conservative Scot Davidson handily defeated Liberal Cynthia Wesley-Esquimaux by more than 10,000 votes in York-Simcoe. He won 24,796 to 14,252 and Davidson drew 46.5% of the vote, compared to the Liberals' 26.7%.

NDP candidate Jessa McLean earned 7,481 votes (14%), finishing third. Green candidate Jonathan Arnold followed in fourth with 4,615 votes (8.7%).

Pulling up the rear were Libertarian Keith Komar (1,292 votes) and PPC candidate Michael Lotter (867 votes).

Schulte, the self-proclaimed "proven fighter for King-Vaughan" addressed an overjoyed group of party faithful, who packed the venue in Maple Monday night.

The MP, she said, is only as good as the team in the office, who are the front-line workers with the public. She praised her incredible team of volunteers and staff.

The campaign was not easy, she admitted, but her supporters made the campaign seamless, despite some personal challenges.

The message from voters was clear. The Liberals, she said, are not hitting the mark for all Canadians. Her job, over the coming years, is to reach out to those they missed and those who felt angry.

The Liberals, she said, have a great platform and "we will be delivering many things."

There is "serious work to do" and Schulte hopes to build some bridges with the public in the coming term.

The challenge for the minority government means all Canadians have to be engaged.

"Don't think it's over," she said.

Tough loss for King-Vaughan's Conservative candidate Roberts

By Brittany Grenici

Tensions were high at the King Township Municipal office as the 2019 federal election results rolled in Monday night. King-Vaughan's Conservative candidate, Anna Roberts, lost to her Liberal competitor, Deb Schulte as Canada ushered in a minority government. Roberts fell less than 1,000 votes shy of Schulte, garnering 27,454 votes – 43.3% of the vote.

Surrounded by family, friends and supporters, Anna delivered a heartfelt speech, thanking all who volunteered their time and efforts in support of her campaign.

Roberts quoted Walter Mondale saying “tonight we rejoice in our democracy, we rejoice in the freedom of a wonderful people and we accept their verdict.”

Roberts has over 30 years of volunteerism under her belt and has spent the majority of her adult life giving back to the community. She brought to her candidacy decades of experience with fiscal responsibility and accountability, having spent over 30 years in the banking and financial industry.

“We had a tough race, we did our best, but it's ok, we're going to move on,” said Roberts, before exiting the stage.

Conservative candidate in King-Vaughan Anna Roberts praised her staff, following Monday night's election loss to Liberal incumbent Deb Schulte.

King applauds Metrolinx for changing direction on proposed rail facility

King Township Mayor Steve Pellegrini publicly thanked Metrolinx for changing course on a proposed layover facility, that was to be located south of the 15th Sideroad between Dufferin and Bathurst streets.

“We're excited about the expansion of GO rail service in King which will greatly benefit our residents,” said Pellegrini. “However, the location for the layover site was in a rural area next to a school. It's also part of the lands being considered for a provincial park. It wasn't the right spot.”

Metrolinx is currently undertaking GO Expansion, a program that will transform GO Rail into a rapid rail system that will provide faster and more frequent service across the GO Rail network. As part of GO Expansion, a need for a layover site on the Barrie corridor was identified. Train layover facilities are used to store, service, inspect and maintain trains when they are not in service.

Mayor Pellegrini and Country Day School wrote to Metrolinx expressing concerns about the location.

Phil Verster, President and Chief Executive Officer of Metrolinx, said the proposed location is off the table.

“We acknowledge your concerns and feedback on the proposed location of the King Layover Facility. The layover site in the Township of King is no longer under consideration, and we are now assessing alternative sites,” he wrote in a letter. “Therefore, the initial field studies and property acquisition process for the King site are now canceled.”

Mayor Pellegrini also thanked King-Vaughan MPP Stephen Lecce for his support in the matter.

Editorial, Letters & Opinion

"A newspaper is the center of a community, it's one of the tent poles of the community, and that's not going to be replaced by websites and blogs."

- Michael Connelly

Weight gain is a curse of our modern times

"Eating insects is good for the environment and balanced diets."

- Kofi Annan

I don't know if I'd go that far, but there's a lot of truth in that statement.

Being a husky boy, I've always had to pay attention to my weight. Those who've gone through the roller coaster ride of diets over the years know it comes back faster and harder than it ever did to take it off.

I envy those with metabolisms like hyper-active jack rabbits. They simply burn calories just by standing there.

There are so many stressors in our lives, and weight shouldn't be the dominating force. Yet it is for so, so many. We're all conscious of it.

Most of us who have trouble with weight think it's just us. But listen folks, there's some important information to absorb. It's not just us - the toxins and high levels of sugars, carbs and junk we're ingesting - those are the real culprits.

A study published recently in the journal Obesity Research & Clinical Practice found that it's harder for adults today to maintain the same weight as those 20 to 30 years ago did, even at the same levels of food intake and exercise.

The authors examined the dietary data of 36,400 Americans between 1971 and 2008 and the physical activity data of 14,419 people between 1988 and 2006. They grouped the data sets together by the amount of food and activity, age, and body mass index (BMI).

They found a very surprising correlation: Any given person, in 2006, eating the same amount of calories, taking in the same quantities of macronutrients like protein and fat, and exercising the same amount as a person of the same age did in 1988 would have a BMI that was about 2.3 points higher. In other words, people today are roughly 10 per cent heavier than people were in the 1980s.

"Our study results suggest that if you are 25, you'd have to eat even less and exercise more than those older, to prevent gaining weight," Jennifer Kuk, a professor of kinesiology and health science at Toronto's York University, said in a statement. "However, it also indicates there may be other specific changes contributing to the rise in obesity beyond just diet and exercise."

Kuk offered three different factors that might be making harder for adults today to stay thin.

First, people are exposed to more chemicals that might be weight-gain inducing. Pesticides, flame retardants, and the substances in food packaging might all be altering our hormonal processes and tweaking the way our bodies put on and maintain weight.

Second, the use of prescription drugs has risen dramatically since the '70s and '80s. Antidepressants are now one of the most commonly prescribed drugs in North America, and many of them have been linked to weight gain.

The experts also believe the microbiomes (microorganisms living in or on the human body) of people might have somehow changed between the 1980s and now. It's well known that some types of gut bacteria make a person more prone to weight gain and obesity. Americans are eating more meat than they were a few decades ago, and many animal products are treated with hormones and antibiotics in order to promote growth. We also don't really know the long-term effects of artificial sweeteners.

Wow, it seems you just can't win.

I tend to drink a lot of diet pop, and my wife keeps telling me it will be my undoing. Go figure, we try to curb our sugar intake, only to suffer a Splenda overdose. Well maybe my corpse will be well preserved!

So, we should consider that body weights of people today are impacted by factors beyond our control. We eat on the run, often late at night. We suffer more indigestion and reflux than ever before. Also, once you hit 40, it's harder and harder to retain that youthful, chiselled shape no matter what you do.

Let's take a look at exercise. Gym memberships can be quite expensive today, and things like elliptical trainers are well over $1,000. These are out of reach for average income earners. And those very same citizens simply can't afford to eat right - fruits, vegetables and the like are at their peak in terms of price. Eating healthy, and organic, costs a fortune.

I wouldn't say we're in this huge, societal catch-22, but there are factors working against us.

We're continually bombarded by fast-food advertising, and while more and more places are offering healthy alternatives, the sales of caloric behemoths are still the poison of choice. Let's be honest, we don't go to McDonald's for a salad.

Our family has been on the keto lifestyle for a while, but we took a break around the Labour Day long weekend. We went off the rails, or down the slippery slope as I call it, but we're picking ourselves up, dusting off and getting back into the no-carb, no-sugar game.

It's not always easy, and choices are limited, but it does work. If you just read some labels, you'd be shocked at the amount of carbs and sugar in everyday foodstuffs. No wonder our society is ballooning.

I believe a healthy weight is attainable with some changes and commitment.

I'd suggest that we try, but don't stress over the day-to-day results. Eat better, and enjoy life!

Editorial

Voters put confidence in new MPs

The results from Monday night's federal election were up to us - average Canadian voters.

In King-Vaughan voters placed their confidence in incumbent Liberal Deb Schulte and in York-Simcoe, electors put Scot Davidson in office.

These two representatives will represent King residents' voices in Ottawa but perhaps their tenure may be cut short, given the minority government.

We had some great, competent and intelligent candidates in all the parties. They all deserve credit, not only for tossing their hats in the ring, but for providing voters, and those who attended the local all-candidates' meetings, plenty of food for thought.

All were insightful, succinct and informative.

We all have our personal preferences, and what matters most is that taxpayers took the time to cast a ballot with confidence and optimism. We are all in this together and now that we've spoken, we should rally around our local MPs.

Those elected on Oct. 21 will take our voices, our concerns, to Parliament Hill on our behalf. Casting our vote was only the first step. We need to be informed and engaged. We need to be dogged in our approach to move things in the right direction. We need to care.

Our job, and theirs, has just begun. Fingers crossed.

- Our goal is a slower, safer King.
- King is seeking community input on traffic calming throughout the township
- The focus of this program is on school zones and residential streets at locations where excessive speeding is prevalent, particularly in neighbourhoods with high numbers of cyclists and/or pedestrians share the road. It is not about reducing congestion, reducing trucks or eliminating cut-through traffic.
- Traffic calming is creating a safer roadside environment by reducing speeds and encouraging responsible driver behavior.

KING FIRE & EMERGENCY SERVICES

WANTED: Volunteer Fire Service Personnel for King Fire & Emergency Services

We currently have openings at all three of our Firehouses:
King City, Schomberg, and Nobleton

We are looking for enthusiastic, community oriented individuals to join King Fire & Emergency Services.

If you are self-employed, work from home, semi-retired, work shift work, or a stay at home parent, King Fire & Emergency Services is interested in hearing from you. No previous firefighting experience is required!

As a volunteer fire fighter serving the Township of King you will be required to respond to a variety of emergency situations: fires, medical emergencies and specialized rescues. Other responsibilities and duties include, yet not limited to, the routine maintenance of firefighting apparatus and equipment, maintaining fire department facilities, attending regular scheduled training sessions, and participating in local public education events. Those applying must be capable of functioning collectively as part of a team and under adverse conditions.

Please go to www.king.ca and search 'volunteer firefighter' for more information.

For more information, or to pick up an application, please contact our Fire Department Administrative team @ 905-833-2800.

Applications are available at Headquarters in King City (2045 King Road) 0830 hrs - 1630 hrs Monday to Friday (excluding statutory holidays).

Applications will be accepted in person at Headquarters in King City until Friday, October 25th, 2019 at 1630 hrs.

Toys for Tickets

King invites every person that receives a parking ticket (with the exception of accessible parking violations and parking in a fire route) between November 1st and November 14th to pay the fine amount with a donation.

The toy donation must be:

- new and in its original packaging with proof of purchase (receipt)

Province is at the table to keep students in class

By Mark Pavilons

The Province is adamant about keeping children in the classroom, in light of ongoing negotiations with educators.

The province has upped the ante, according to Education Minister and King-Vaughan MPP Stephen Lecce.

Today, Stephen Lecce, Minister of Education, issued the following statement in response to on-going labour negotiations with education partners:

"I have instructed my negotiating team to enhance our offerings – to continue to be reasonable – and to demonstrate we want to reach a deal. But the deal needs to support kids in the classroom, and not enhancements for union members. For example, OS-STF is asking for a 2% increase in compensation, which would, across the sector, cost the taxpayer $1.5 billion.

"I have been clear and consistent since the beginning, and as demonstrated by the tentative deal struck with CUPE, the government will continue to be a constructive and reasonable force at the negotiating table, focusing on keeping kids in class.

"Like all parents, our government knows strike action by unions would lead to disruption and uncertainty for students, parents, and educators. Further, strike action would disproportionately hurt our most vulnerable students.

"My message to parents, students, and our education partners is that my team continues to be ready – 24/7 – to bargain, in good faith, to avoid labour disruption. I will remain focused on reaching a deal that keeps Ontario's students in the classroom."

Council sets fees, charges for new year

By Mark Pavilons

King is increasing its user fees and charges, to reflect the rising cost of doing business.

Councillors approved staff recommendations calling on 2.5% increases to fees in the new year.

The fee hikes are designed to ensure that the cost of providing municipal services is fully or partially recovered, while minimizing the cost to all tax and water rates.

Municipalities are constantly facing increasing costs to deliver a host of essential services to taxpayers. Fees and charges help the Township recover some of the cost and easing the impacts on taxes and water rates.

"Although full cost recovery is not always achievable, all budgeted user fee revenue is applied against the total cost for the service area, prior to the calculation of property tax or water and wastewater user rates," staff said.

Staff was directed to review all fees and charges and have recommended an increase of 2.5% over the current 2019 rates.

Deal between province and Toronto benefits commuters

By Mark Pavilons

Queen's Park and the City of Toronto have brokered a new partnership, that will see benefits for GTA commuters.

Last April, Premier Ford unveiled Ontario's $28.5 billion New Subway Transit Plan for the Greater Toronto and Hamilton Area (GTHA), including four priority subway projects. The government's original proposal was to deliver subway expansion by transferring ownership of the existing network.

The Province subsequently determined they can deliver these four projects quickly and efficiently by working with the City.

Caroline Mulroney, Minister of Transportation and York-Simcoe MPP noted that under Ontario's proposal to Toronto, the existing subway system would remain the responsibility of the City. Our four new expansion projects will be the responsibility of the Province.

In order to guarantee the four projects are delivered rapidly and to ensure the new subway lines are integrated with the existing TTC system, the Province is committed to working with the City to establish the best approach to manage key points of intersection between the existing and future lines, including with respect to the level of access and control required.

"I know Mayor Tory, and City Council, are committed to getting past delays and building transit faster. As Minister of Transportation, I will work with the City of Toronto to find ways to accelerate and expedite the delivery of subways," Mulroney said.

"Building much-needed transit to reduce gridlock is an urgent priority, and we are aggressively pursuing the implementation of our four priority subway projects to achieving the timelines we communicated to commuters.

"This proposal will deliver both a major expansion of Toronto's subway network, and much-needed improvements to the existing transit network."

The City of Toronto and the Province of Ontario are on the cusp of pursuing one single unified plan for subway expansion in Toronto.

The provincial commitment of $28.5 billion is earmarked for the Yonge North Subway Extension, the Eglinton West Crosstown Extension, an improved three-stop Scarborough Subway Extension, and the all-new Ontario Line.

"Our plan will get people moving and promote economic growth," said Premier Ford. "The Ontario Line is a critical project for the City of Toronto and GTHA. It will dramatically reduce critical congestion issues on the Yonge Subway Line as well as across the entire region.

"I look forward to continuing our productive discussions with the City of Toronto to finalize an arrangement that will help us build more transit faster and provide a seamless and improved transit experience for riders throughout the GTHA. I want to thank Mayor Tory, Ministers Mulroney and Surma, and provincial and City of Toronto staff for all their hard work to move these projects forward and build world-class transit for the people we all serve."

Government stands with parents, students

By Stephen Lecce
Minister of Education
King-Vaughan MPP

Since the beginning of collective bargaining with our education union partners and the trustees' associations, I have remained committed to getting deals that provide certainty and predictability for students, parents, and educators alike.

Our recent tentative agreement with CUPE shows that we are willing to be reasonable and flexible at the bargaining table in order to secure a deal which protects our students' futures, invests in their potential and ensures they remain in the classroom. I know that this was welcome news for families, students and workers alike, as schools remained open across our province.

However, I know that significant pressure and uncertainty is placed on parents and students when every few years there is increased rhetoric and threats of strikes as part of the bargaining process. I believe this needless pressure on families is counterproductive to the shared mission of the Government and parents to keeping students in a safe and positive learning environment.

Along with our initial success, there are still more steps to come. There are eight more unions yet to sign a deal. During these negotiations the government stands with parents who want to keep their kids in the classroom and shares their concerns about the pressure and uncertainty placed on their families. That is why we are working hard to keep our bargaining partners at the table.

As we have demonstrated through our tentative deal with CUPE, we will continue to be a productive force at the bargaining table. That is why I have told my negotiators to enhance our offer, to give them more flexibility, so we can get a deal as soon as possible.

Our investments in public education ensures students have the tools and resources they need to succeed, including the largest investment ever in public education in Ontario's history, doubling investment in mental health supports for students in the classroom, an emphasis on STEM and the skilled trades – and encouraging girls to enter these professions, and a focus on the basics, with a revised math curriculum

I will continue to fight for Ontario's students at the bargaining table, to keep them in the classroom.

Our children deserve no less.

King Township shines the spotlight on local businesses

In addition to sharing highlights from its new official Plan, King Township unveiled the four businesses being recognized this year for the roles they play in making King Township a great place to live and work.

The event took place during the Mayor's Annual Business Breakfast, and was held at the Kingbridge Conference Centre. Roughly 120 members of the business community were in attendance.

Mayor Steve Pellegrini personally congratulated each of the business owners, provided them with a commemorative plaque, and unveiled a video profiling their business.

"These businesses are excellent examples of how our businesses make King such a fantastic place to live and work," said Mayor Pellegrini. "Businesses like these will play a crucial role in achieving the goals set out in King's new Official Plan."

King artist Brett Davis pays homage to Phil Panelas

By Mark Pavilons

A renowned King artist has created another legacy piece.

Bronze sculptor Brett Davis recently finished a life-size piece of Canadian philanthropist Phil Panelas.

Phil left his home town of Astiki, Lemnos, in the Greek Islands and immigrated to Canada on his own at the age of 18, where he made a wooden suit case and traveled with $25 in his pocket. With the Germans occupying Greece during the Second World War, and conditions at their worst, he never forgot what it was like to be poor. Phil was a family man, and businessman in the Trenton community. With the success of his construction business, he later became a philanthropist, donating a great deal of money over time to the Trenton Memorial Hospital.

He was a very generous man whose heart went out to the unfortunate people. Once Phil retired, he donated a huge part of his time to volunteering at the hospital, whether it be planting and caring for all the flowers in the courtyard each day, to supplying and cooking at the annual BBQ fundraising event. He passed away on Feb. 1st, 2018 at the age of 86.

The statue is now in that garden that Phil loved so much.

Davis, owner of Age of Bronze, has been celebrating the human form by making public and commission-based bronze sculptures for more than three decades.

The life-size pieces involve a long, complex process. Davis is fascinated with the bronze casting process, particularly that of the ancient Greeks and Romans. Davis said his knowledge of art history and experience working in foundries, arm him with the techniques he needs to create life from lifelessness. Unlike a stone sculptor who unleashes the art from within, Davis has to start from scratch.

He works from photos or sketches and creates a maquette (small-scale model) out of wax and styrofoam. He then enlarges the piece to life-size proportions; makes molds and sends the pieces out for pouring. When they return, he welds them together and fine-tunes his piece. The finishing touches include polishing and applying the appropriate patina.

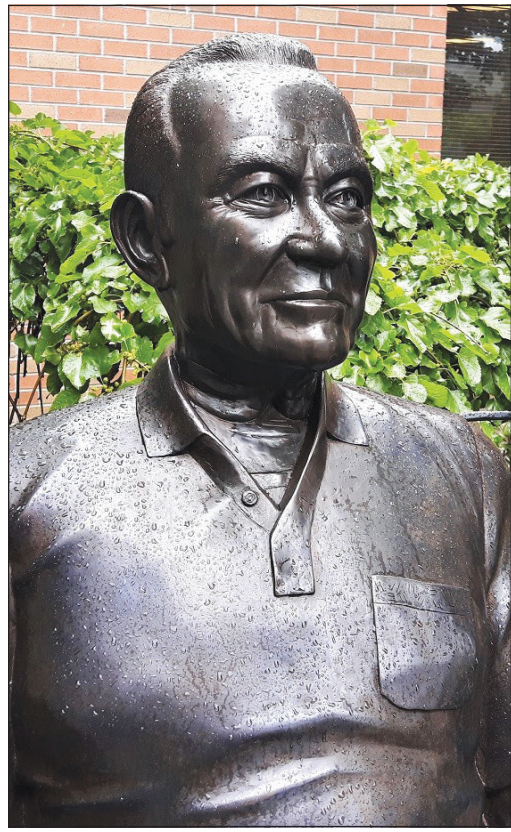

Davis said it takes upwards of nine months from conception to finished product.

He specializes in the design, manufacturing, installation and maintenance of custom and commissioned bronze works designed specifically for interior and exterior environments.

Brett has worked with many prominent landscaping firms integrating bronze sculptures and fountains into their unique designs and has won many public art competitions in Ontario.

Zander Sod opens doors to its expanded facility

By Jake Courtepatte

Over 60 years in the making, Zander Sod has expanded its already booming business.

The second generation family business officially unveiled its newest facilities on the Jane Street property last Thursday, complete with a grilled lunch and a ribbon-cutting with King Mayor Steve Pellegrini.

"Today we are celebrating the addition of our new shop, parts room, and showroom, as well as the renovation of our original building," said owner Claus Zander. "I just want to thank all the contractors, suppliers, and staff that helped to get this completed within the last year."

The sod certainly runs in the family: Claus's father Fred started the business in 1957. Though now retired, Claus admits his father still "helps where he can."

Claus's brother Mike, runs the specialty grass division growing the Extreme Fescue, Low Mow Bluegrass and bent grasses.

"We settled in King in 1974 and have been expanding and improving for 45 years at this location," said Claus. "The original Highway 9 ran under our front lawn. And then in 2001 the highway expanded to 5 lanes and I believe it was at that time it was renamed Davis Drive. We chose King as being a central location between our farms and having easy access to the 400 and our market in the GTA."

"We love King for its landscape here in the Moraine, its central location, its great people and supportive community."

Over the years the projects have grown with the business, completing projects like BMO Field in Toronto, and the new track at Woodbine Racetrack.

Find out more about the longtime business by emailing info@zandersod.com, or calling 877-727-2100. The facility is open to the public during growing season on Monday-Thursday from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Fridays from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

King Mayor Steve Pellegrini and Councillor Avia Eek were on hand to help founder Fred Zander, current owner and son Claus, and the rest of the Zander team to open the expanded facility at Zander Sod last week.

Life-giving water blessed at Seneca ceremony

By Kinjal Dagli Shah

Water – it provides us with life. Roughly 75 children, along with educators, parents and students, took to the Seneca College campus recently to participate in a water blessing ceremony. Initiated by First Peoples@Seneca. The ceremony takes place on the third Tuesday in September each year as a way to honour the water that provides us with life.

The ceremony was simple but meaningful. Children ranging in age from two to five collected water from the Seneca Lake and did a tobacco offering. Everyone was given a pinch of tobacco on a birch bark plate and asked to give thanks to the water. The elders then left the offering at the centre of the lake. The kids then tottered on the path to a forested area on campus that is home to a Grandmother Tree and a Grandfather Tree. They sat in a circle and joined in to sing an Indigenous song honoring water. They then carried water in little copper bowls to pour on the trees as a way to honour and care for them before heading to the Medicine Garden for a gathering and watering of the plants.

Peggy Pitawanakwat, a member of the Anishinaabe Confederacy, who coordinates the First Peoples@Seneca office, was on site to guide the children and other attendees.

“We have been holding this ceremony every year since 2012 but this is the first time we’ve had so many people participate. At the beginning of time, trees had to pick their leader and they picked the maple tree. We pick a male and a female tree that are over 200 years old and are located fairly close to each other. That’s what makes them a Grandmother and a Grandfather tree,” explained Pitawanakwat. “The intent is to incorporate these trees in the teachings to the children. Just as grandparents are guardians to the younger generations, the trees in nature play a similar role to the newer trees.”

The ceremony is open to the Seneca community as well as to the Indigenous and non-Indigenous people. With water being a focus in the ceremony that also included a water walk, the group acknowledged that we all have a contribution to make.

“People participating in meaningful social events and activities like this one leads to a greater understanding of Indigenous people and traditions. Everybody wants to be an individual who supports environmental healing and wellness,” Pitawanakwat pointed out.

Fran DeFillipis, an RECE and manager at the King Observation Lab Teaching School (KOLTS), thought of the idea when she felt something missing in a Forest and Nature school program they started five years ago.

“I reached out to First Peoples@Seneca for support and with their continued guidance, the program invites children to learn with and in nature on a regular basis. This repeated exposure supports the building of environmental stewardship that has become a major concern with the recent exposure of global warming,” she said.

Along with environmental awareness, a commitment to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission was also at the heart of the ceremony.

“We want to learn about and be open to other cultures as this can help our understanding. We value Indigenous knowledge and how they can edify our understanding of living well within the community and the importance of honoring the land. Participating in these experiences strengthens our relationships with our community but it also helps children continue a relationship with the natural world,” said Tanya Farzaneh, manager at the ECE Lab School.

Mejdah Merati, a parent who attended with her two-year-old son Doniyar, thought it was a great idea.

“The connections they were trying to foster between the children and nature was a great idea. The native song with different beats, water walking in the forest and watering the trees – we all learned to appreciate water for being the most important part of our life.”

KCELG plans given green light by council

By Mark Pavilons

Several plans of subdivision were given the go-ahead at the last King council meeting.

The draft plans from King City East Landowners Group (KCELG), representing seven development applications, were approved.

The lands are in the King City North East Functional Servicing/Development Area Study (FSDAS), which sets the foundation for the integration of the large-scale development of this new community area.

A landowners group came together to complete the FSDAS and the KCELG consists of various participating property owners in this area.

The plans include 55 detached homes by Acorn Corp.; 521 homes and 84 townhomes by Remcor and Bracor; 6 homes by Supco Ltd.; 42 homes by King Green Developments; 70 homes and 77 condo/townhouses by King Rocks and 98 homes by Scouli Developments.

The applications were submitted individually, but they are being considered jointly through the review process. Many are interconnected and planners are taking a more holistic approach in planning this area.

This northeast quadrant of King City consists of roughly 239 hectares, the majority of which is controlled by KCELG members.

The FSDAS and applications have all been circulated for comments by various agencies. Township staff, TRCA and York Region staff confirmed the FSDAS submission is satisfactory and any other outstanding matters will be conditions of draft plan approval. Staff and commenting agencies have provided detailed conditions of draft approval.

The subject lands conform to OPA 89, which allows for a range of housing types, including detached homes and townhouses.

This new large-scale "community" will result in a total of 1,071 housing units and a population of roughly 3,191 people.

The entire development will also include one community park and two smaller neighbourhood parks. The parkland requirement as a whole is being considered and placed in centralized locations, rather than several smaller blocks in each plan. The parkland agreement with KCELG also calls for a cash-in-lieu payment of $1.5 million.

Land has been set aside for a future elementary school. A network of open space and environmentally protected lands will remain and these include wetlands and heritage features. There are also plans for a network of pedestrian and cycling paths.

What's more, the KCELG has entered into a Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) with the Township to secure a financial contribution to recreation facilities.

The individual plans will move forward in a phased-in manner. Staff said the plan is to stage the new development to ensure that the growth occurs in a comprehensive and orderly manner. The phasing must address servicing capacity, the road network and infrastructure connections.

Farm hosts workshop

The Schomberg Community Farm had a sauerkraut making workshop Oct. 19 led by Oleg Leontovych, events manager, gardener and passionate advocate for growing your own food. Oleg showed participants how to create sauerkraut in the traditional way with simply cabbage, salt, and carrots if desired. Chop the cabbage, put into a large pot, toss with salt, add the carrots and weigh it down with a plate or something heavy like a rock. Then it needs to sit for at least one week, preferably two, then put into jars.

NOTICE TO LOCAL RESIDENTS (FALL/WINTER 2019)

York Region Forestry is planning a controlled (prescribed) burn at the Nobleton Tract located at 5345 15th Sideroad in the Township of King

The Regional Municipality of York is planning a controlled burn of a tallgrass prairie located in the Nobleton Tract of the York Regional Forest. This follows the successful burn of the tallgrass prairie at the Bendor and Graves Tract of the York Regional Forest in March 2018.

The red shaded areas on the map (Blocks 1-5 totalling 8 hectares) indicate the areas to be burned. The burn is scheduled to occur between November 1, 2019 - January 31, 2020 and/or March 1, 2020 - April 30, 2020, and should take between two to four hours to complete. Weather and site conditions are being monitored by Regional staff to determine the ideal window of time for the burn to be conducted.

Controlled burns are carefully set and managed fires that are an important restoration tool to help maintain and protect tallgrass prairie habitat. The fire burns relatively quickly to consume dried grasses and leaves but does not harm larger trees.

Under ideal weather conditions, smoke from the controlled burn will rise without impacting surrounding properties. Changing weather conditions could lead to smoke temporarily reaching nearby residences. It is recommended that residents close windows, doors and fire dampers as a precaution and anyone with sensitivity to smoke is encouraged to stay indoors at the time of the burn.

York Region worked with Tallgrass Ontario to establish this tallgrass prairie, a form of rare grassland habitat. Grasslands are endangered in Ontario and globally at risk. This rare and unique habitat is home to many species of insects and animals, particularly migratory birds and pollinators. Prairies are a part of Ontario's natural and cultural heritage.

Mete pots first NHL goal in record-breaking fashion

By Jake Courtepatte

It was a record he never wanted to own.

King City product Victor Mete, in his 126th game as a member of the Montreal Canadiens of the NHL, finally found the back of the net for the first time last Thursday.

Montreal forward Nick Cousins scooped up a loose puck behind the Minnesota net, sending a blind backhand pass out front to a streaking Mete, who sent a one-timer over the shoulder of goaltender Alex Stalock to send the Habs faithful into a frenzy.

It was the NHL's longest standing goal drought.

"It was definitely special," said Mete at the post-game press conference. "I was able to kind of jump in, and scored. It feels good."

Only adding to the already electric moment was the Bell Centre crowd, with Mete able to finally break the spell, one that was well known to Canadiens fans.

"It was pretty nuts. It was kind of ear-piercing."

The defenceman, who spent two seasons with the OHL's London Knights, played for King City's Country Day School Cyclones from Grade 5 right until 2013, when his outside commitments as one of the game's elite players became too demanding.

A student of the King City independent school since Grade 2, Mete is an offensive-minded defenceman and a product of both the York Region and Toronto Jr. Canadiens AAA programs.

He was taken in the first round of the 2014 OHL Draft by the Owen Sound Attack after posting almost a point-per-game pace, and was sent to the Knights before playing a game.

Winning the Memorial Cup with the Knights in his first season, he racked up 105 points in 179 OHL games.

His point production is only half the story, as his defensive game has significantly improved since reaching the OHL level.

Though standing at just 5'10", 181 pounds, Mete is often matched up against elite level forwards of a much larger size.

Drafted in the fourth round of the 2016 NHL Entry Draft by the Canadiens, as the 100th overall pick, Mete surprised and impressed enough in camp to make the opening night roster. Since then, he has often been paired on the blue line with all-star veteran Shea Weber, who was the first to reach Mete on the ice for the celebratory first-goal hug.

Victor Mete (middle) is swarmed by teammates Shea Weber (left) and Joel Armia after his first career NHL goal on Thursday against the Minnesota Wild.

Mete admitted Weber, who along with the rest of his Montreal teammates call him 'Meat' in a play on his last name, has sent some ribbing his way through his historic drought to start his professional career. Yet, he was able to keep it to the back of his mind.

"It was coming. You knew it was coming," said Canadiens assistant captain Brendan Gallagher. "He had too many chances to not (score). I couldn't be happier for the kid. He's handled this very well, this whole thing, and now that he's seen one go in the net, I wouldn't be surprised if you see a couple more follow."

Mete has also added one assist in nine games so far this season, helping the Canadiens to a 4-3-2 start.

York9's Manuel Aparicio (left) battles with Valour FC's Ali Musse in a 4-0 win in the penultimate game of the CPL season.

'We've made history' says Brennan after first season

By Jake Courtepatte

It was not the way that Jim Brennan wanted his squad to go out: yet the head coach and his squad of York9 FC players are holding their heads high after a successful inaugural season.

When all was said and done on Saturday at York Lions Stadium, the season finale for the Canadian Premier League, the scoreboard read 2-0 for the Halifax Wanderers.

On the ladder, however, the York representatives rode a productive fall season right to third place, just one spot shy of reaching this coming week's championship match-up.

"It was satisfying for all of us," said Brennan, speaking after sharing a moment with Halifax coach Stephen Hart after the match, who he at one time played under. "We spoke to the other coaches as well: we've made history. The first season out of the way, it was a lot of work, but those are the moments you cherish in life. You're putting your neck on the line to build something, and grow something in this country."

"I'm playing a small role in a bigger picture here. We all are."

The match itself was simply for bragging rights for both sides: the Wanderers were still in search of their first away win of 2019, riding a pair of goals in the first half on their way to breaking the spell.

York9 had all but sealed their fate in a mid-week game three days prior against Valour FC, riding a second straight 4-0 clean sheet, after besting the rival Forge FC by a similar score.

It proved to be the third win in four games for York, who had found their legs in the home stretch of the fall schedule. They finished with a record of 7-9-2, well back of Forge and Cavalry FC, who will compete in the championship match this week, yet three points ahead of Vancouver's Pacific FC for the third place position.

Brennan, who has been critical at times this season about his team's inability to click, seems to have changed his tone during the successful final stretch of the season.

"I spoke to the guys at the beginning of the game, and I said 'I'm proud of what you've become as a team, as individuals, as young men,'" said Brennan. "They've grown an awful lot since that first game of the season to where they are now."

With the inaugural season in the books, Brennan said he and his staff have already started their plans for the sophomore year.

"We want this game to grow, and we want to develop players in this country. We want to have a successful domestic league, and we want to have a successful national team ... and as they grow, we have to grow as well, our job is to keep developing players and giving these Canadians an opportunity to play at the highest level. So we're all playing a role here, and I can only see it getting stronger and stronger."

"I'm looking forward to next season, and adding even more to this team."

Cougars continue to beat up on Flyers

By Jake Courtepatte

It can be taken as fact that the Schomberg Cougars have the Midland Flyers' number.

Just over one month after putting up a six spot on the Flyers in the Provincial Junior Hockey League season's first road match, the Cougars once again beat up on the Flyers with an onslaught of offence in an 8-5 win on Thursday.

The Trisan Centre was the venue for the second meeting of the year between the two, where Matthew Wadge paced all players with a hat trick. He opened the scoring at the two minute mark of the first period to give Schomberg a lead they would never relinquish, with 11 different Cougars players getting their name onto the scoresheet.

Spencer Ripley was named the second star of the game in posting a trio of points, taking the team lead, while Cameron Kokelj posted a pair of goals and an assist. Owen Heilemann and Connor Childerhose also found the back of the net for the Cougars, while Nico Fekete was the winning goaltender, his third of the year to bring his record above the .500 level.

The momentum was all in Schomberg's favour postgame, heading into a matchup with the Huntsville Otters the next evening riding a five-game unbeaten streak.

Yet it was Huntsville who came out with the two points at the final buzzer to snap the run, taking a tight 3-2 lead into the final minute of play at Canada Summit Centre before adding an empty net goal.

Ripley found the back of the net to bring his point streak to three games, as did Harris Goan, who potted his third goal of the campaign.

Nicolas Porretta was back in the cage for the loss, snapping a two-game winning streak of his own in stopping 20 of the 23 shots he faced.

Despite the loss, it has been quite a productive first month of the PJHL season for the Cougars, who find themselves just one point out of first place in the Carruthers division with a record of 6-5-1-0.

The top of the food chain is jammed with teams in what has been an early season full of parity, with the Penetang Kings, Stayner Siskins, and Orillia Terriers all tied at the top with records of 7-4-0-0.

Arthritis: New Approach Delivers Remarkable Results

If you suffer from Arthritis you need to be aware of effective advancements that can eliminate years of pain, suffering, immobility and frustration.

You may have told your doctor you suffer with one or more of the following: sore, stiff knees, painful achy hips, low back pain, mid back pain, neck stiffness or pain, hand stiffness, shoulder pain or elbow pain.

You may find that your pain or stiffness affects your work, housekeeping, leisure activities, exercise, sports or other activities. You go to the drug store or to your doctor and get pills to help relieve your pain. But you find the pain keeps returning. Alternatively, the doctor may refer you to a specialist who may tell you that surgery is needed or is an option for you.

However, many people are hesitant to have surgery given its invasive nature. It is important to know that although surgery is sometimes necessary, it is considered a last resort in most cases.

Also, you may have heard that there are serious health risks associated with chronic use (or overuse) of pain pills or anti-inflammatory drugs that include damage to the liver, kidneys and gut.

There is a new, natural, safe and highly effective approach that has helped many sufferers improve their lives dramatically: Laser therapy uses light to favor and accelerate the body's natural healing processes. The innovative Multiwave Locked System (MLS) Laser produces a safe, efficient and simultaneous effect on pain, inflammation, swelling and water retention, exceeding the limits of traditional LLLT (Low power) and concerns of HP (High power) laser therapy.

What does this mean for you?

Our patients have reported a 90-95% relief of their symptoms, more mobility, increased flexibility and vastly improved function!

It is the very latest in medical technology, with years of clinical studies supporting its safety and efficacy and we are very proud to offer our patients effective solutions to their recent or chronic conditions.

Sweeping to 'social' victory

Jane Clement and Ray Martin celebrate the 4 point draw by Skip Clay Jackson while the opposition looks on during Wednesday night curling.

By Shellee Morning

The Social curling at King is at an all-time "sweepers' high." Three evenings per week, 2 daytime leagues and 2 recreational "tag" team leagues.

Socially energetic with a splash of determination graces the rink with its members who all sweep for the same thing. To have fun, win a game, but mostly enjoy the fellowship with friends. Wednesday Social league is traditionally known for its social flavour housing 16 teams to this season's roster.

Now, with a couple of games into the first half of their season, both draws display a parity from top to bottom with a 4-point difference in draw 1 and a 6-point difference on draw 2. The top 2 teams in draw 1 are Teams Wasyliki and Wright while the top 2 in the second draw are held by teams Gerrits and Pringle.

This week's competition displayed efforts on the rise by all brooms in hand. The feature game of the early draw this week was between Teams Wasyliki and Jackson. Skip Peter Wasyliki and his rink of Tom Allen as Vice, Terry Fraser as 2nd, and Susan Cumming as Lead, quickly jumped onto the scoreboard 3-0 after 2. Skip Clay Jackson and his team of Vice Ray Martin, 2nd Margaret Martin and Jane Clement as Lead, scored a single in both the 3rd and 4th ends to bring the game within 1.

Team Wasyliki controlled the house in the 5th earning a big 2 points regaining the 3 point lead once again. Things got interesting in the 6th when Team Jackson quietly found themselves with 3 rocks in counting position and a chance for 4 after Wasyliki's final rock of a guard came up short. Skip Clay saw the chance for a draw and if he ever needed to find the perfect weight, now was the time. Sweepers Margaret Martin and Jane Clement stayed close broom ready while Ray Martin called the line. Mid-way down the ice the sweepers were needed to guide Jackson's stone just long enough to get by a guard then allowing it to come to its resting spot for the count of 4.

For the first time of the game Jackson had the lead, but Wasyliki had the hammer for the last end. Strategically played keeping the house free of too many cluttered stones, Wasyliki had 2 rocks in the rings leaving Jackson a tough draw to steal. Jackson's rock crashed onto a yellow solidifying the 2-point win for Wasyliki. A great game that came down to the last end to determine a winner, and that not only demonstrated team work by all, but great sportsmanship as well.

Other Wednesday night winners included Teams Wright, Sinclair and Gianfrancesco on the early draw while teams Robinson, Clark, Pringle and Gerrits were tops in the late draw.

York Pines United Church

York Pines United Church is having a Roast Beef Supper, Wednesday Oct. 30 from 5 to 7 p.m. Ticket prices are adult $17, children ages 6 to 12 $5, children under age 5 dine free. Email office. ypuc@rogers.com or call the church office 905-727-8118 to reserve your tickets. Invite your friends, family and neighbours to join us for a delicious home cooked meal. The church is located at 3150 Lloydtown Aurora Road, Kettleby.

Schomberg Skating Club

Fall skating programs started the first week of October and we still have spaces available in all programs. We offer PreCan Skate, CanSkate, Star Skate and Power programs at the Trisan Centre. Visit our website for more details: www.schombergskatingclub.ca

Schomberg United Church By Nancy Hopkinson

The Sunday service is at 9:30 a.m. at St. Mary Magdalene Church.

Nobleton United invites Schomberg United to its Craft and Bake Sale on Saturday, Oct. 26, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Read Nobleton Notes for the details.

Nobleton United's anniversary is November 3 at 11:15 a.m. Schomberg United will be joining Nobleton for Nobleton's musical celebration, and will not have a service in Schomberg. The Joyful Spirits, with Dennis Kowal on keyboard and Barry Simpson on guitar, will sing "I'll Stand by You" by the Pretenders and "You are Mine" by David Haas. Stefani Harris and Kara Winter, both moms with young families, will both sing solos. Davina and Aubrey Winter will also sing. Andrea Bridges will play some pieces on her guitar.

Schomberg United Church's annual Bake and Craft Sale with Tea Room is Saturday, Nov. 23, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., in the basement of St. Mary Magdalene Anglican Church. For easy access use the rear entrance to avoid the front doorsteps. Watch for more information to come. The funds made from this event goes toward supporting the Youth and Senior Outreach programs.

Schomberg United meets at St. Mary Magdalene, 116 Church St., at 9:30 a.m. most Sundays, but at the Kitchen Bredon Manor usually on the first Sunday of the month. For more info, visit nobletonunitedchurch.com and click on the Schomberg United link, or call 905-859-3976. Messages are picked up regularly.

Anglican Parish By John Arnott

Christ Church, Kettleby is holding an event not to be missed, its famous Fall Bazaar, from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 2 in the hall adjacent to the historic fieldstone Anglican church on Kettleby Rd. mid-way between Jane and Keele Sts.

Once again it will feature a table loaded with home baking, a book nook with books old and new, a white elephant table with treasures galore and a pottery corner. For a small price enjoy a cup of tea or coffee and a slice of delicious cake - homemade of course with cheese and grapes.

This Sunday morning October 27, there will be a combined parish Holy Communion service in Christ Church starting at 10:30 a.m. A tea/coffee hour follows for those wishing to stay.

ASK holds AGM

Arts Society King (ASK) will hold its annual meeting Wednesday, Nov. 6, from 5 to 6:30 p.m. It will be held at Laskay Hall at the King Heritage and Cultural Centre, 2920 King Road, King City.

Supporters, donors, sponsors, partners, and friends are invited to join in at this annual gathering where the board of directors are elected, information regarding ASK past, present and future plans are presented and discussed, and we will provide information on previous and future activities. Welcome are questions regarding the direction the organization will take in the future and how YOU can get involved. Come celebrate with us!

Please mark your calendar and join Arts Society King on November 6.

St. Paul's Church

This Sunday, Oct. 27 we welcome Adelle Lauchlan, who continues to lead us in worship for the months of October and November while Jeff is on a long-planned sabbatical. Adelle's series will be sure to encourage and challenge you. This week, her 4th message in the series, is entitled, "Stand Firm," based on Ephesians 6.10-18. Don't hesitate to bring your kids; we're geared for younger ones, with opportunities for children aged 0 to 11 during worship (everybody else can enjoy the service!). Come and join us. You will be glad you did!

The Community Youth Group meets Friday evenings at 7 p.m. at the church for youth in Grades 7 to 12. This program is aimed at providing a safe and caring environment where teens can have fun and know God. Our focus is on fun and developing a sense of camaraderie and care for each member of the group, while at the same time devoting some time each week to a Bible lesson or Bible life application.

We like to switch up our content! Some weeks we will participate in sports nights and others will be focused on volunteering in the community. Regardless of the activity you are sure to find a welcoming community focused on living out our relationship with Jesus. Bring your friends along. Follow our Instagram account, "4:12.youth.group," to stay up to date on current events.

A2J (All to Jesus), our program for kids in Grades 3 to 6, meet the second and fourth Friday of the month at 7 to 9 p.m. If you have a child in this age group, come on and bring them out to hear the Bible stories, join in with songs, games, crafts and have lots of fun! Our 4:12 (from 2 Timothy 4:12) community youth group (for Grades 7-12 youth) begins meeting the same night and time. New participants are always welcome!

We have LifeConnect Groups, which are smaller groups meeting to encourage and deepen our faith in each one's life journey. A Men's LifeConnect Group meets on Thursday morning at 10 a.m. at the church in Room 3. If you are available on a Thursday morning, why not consider joining our study? We will be covering a wide variety of topics. Keep an eye on this page for more information on LifeConnect Groups that will be starting.

The first and third Tuesday of the month we have a group of men and women that get together at 1 p.m. to do quilting. The second and fourth Tuesday of the month, the focus is on knitting. All handcrafted items are donated to various mission projects. Please join in if you enjoy handcrafts, or even would like to learn how!

We are blessed at St. Paul's to have diligent librarians that have worked for years on creating an amazing library, one that keeps expanding with new books, both fiction and non-fiction, as well as DVDs based on true life stories, and more. It is said that what goes into a mind comes out in a life. What you read, watch and listen to really matters! Please feel free to borrow from our church library which will certainly help stretch, grow and encourage you.

Jeff's messages are posted at www.passionatelyhis.com each week. They are also available for viewing on Facebook Live, on the church's Facebook page (@stpaulsnobleton) and its YouTube page (search St. Paul's Church, Nobleton), and our website, stpaulsnobleton.ca.

For more information about ANY of our activities or events, please contact the church office (905-859-0843) or visit stpaulsnobleton.ca.

Nobleton United Church By Nancy Hopkinson

The Craft and Bake Sale is on Sat. Oct. 26, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. There is a tearoom for a soup lunch or for tea and cookies. In the main downstairs hall, there are beef, chicken and turkey pies (already frozen), baking tables, preserves, quilts and craft items. There are also beautiful handsewn baby quilts and knitted items.

The Quilting group meets on Wednesday mornings to create pre-made and custom order quilts. One queen-sized quilt is donated to the raffle. The other prizes are a Wood Craft or a Gift Basket. You can purchase your ticket ($2 or 3 for $5) for the draw at the Craft and Bake Sale, if you missed the ladies selling outside Pharmasave. The ticket is drawn at the close of the sale at 1 p.m. All proceeds support the Nobleton Church and their outreach programs.

King's Corners

King City United
By Sheryl Sinka

Date correction! The Dinner, a night of entertainment accompanied by a delicious roast beef dinner, is Friday, Nov. 22 and Saturday, Nov. 23 at 7 p.m. Tickets are $30. I apologize for the error in last week's column, which had the dates the following week.

In Rev. Bruce's message entitled, "God said, 'I'm Here for You!'" passages were taken from our United Church of Canada Creed. "We are not alone, we live in God's world."

"In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God."

The words encourage us to trust in God and hopefully will help to ease our moments of loneliness and feelings of isolation. For the full sermon visit the website at kcuc.net.

The women's prayer group meets at the Residences of Springhill at 80 Burns Blvd. on Tuesday mornings. The condo community is on the south side of King Road and meetings are in the small dining room on the main floor. Departure time is optional but please try to arrive just before 9 so as to be let in. Prayer is powerful and whether it is illness, anxiety or life situations for yourself or someone else, consider adding your voice to this ministry. For more information contact Deana 905-833-5375.

Tea and talk meets on Friday mornings at the Sunset Grill (1700 King Rd.) at 10 a.m. All are welcome to come out and join in a cup of coffee or tea and some conversation. If you have any questions please contact the church office at 905-833-5181.

Sunday worship is at 10 a.m.

King Bible Church

We invite you to join us on Sunday, Oct. 27 at 10:30 a.m. as Kevin Van Dyken will be our special speaker. He will be continuing our series "Follow Me" with The Samaritan Woman (John 4:1-42)

Please take advantage of our excellent children's ministry. Our Sunday morning Celebration Zone provides age-appropriate programs for children aged 4 to Grade 8. Our children's program is staffed by screened volunteers who care about your kids! The children in Grades 1-8 will join their parents for the beginning of the service until they are invited to go downstairs. The children in kindergarten can go directly to their class at the start of the service.

If you have children aged 0-3 then we invite you to bring them to our beautiful and safe nursery facilities which are located on the lower level.

Caregivers will meet you there. Our "Legacy" nights are our family Bible study nights. We will provide Nursery care for children 0-3.

Our children (JK-Grade 5), Junior High (Grades 6-8) & Senior High (Grades 9-12) classes will meet downstairs.

Our adults will meet upstairs. Our program runs from 6:45 to 8 p.m.

You can find us at 1555 King Rd. King City (at King Rd. & Dufferin), 905-833-5104, visit www.kingbiblechurch.com or email info@kingbiblechurch.com

St. Andrew's
By Kathy Patterson

St. Andrew's shares the love of Jesus in the Community and beyond. Our Sunday worship service is at 10:30 a.m. with Sunday School for school-aged children up to age 12.

It was such a blessing to have the Rev. Chris Carter and his wife Miriam with us last Sunday for our Anniversary Sunday. Chris was our former minister for 12 years and is presently at St. Andrew's, Parry Sound. He extends a warm welcome to visit his church while up that way vacationing!

Alison Agnew is leading us on a "40 days of prayer program - Create, Renew, Restore," based on Psalm 51:10-12 which leads up to Advent. We also look forward to having Alison back with us this Sunday and invite you to worship with us.

Messy Church is this Sunday, Oct. 27 from 5-7 p.m. This intergenerational, family time, led by Lynn Vissers is creative, fun, informative and ends with a communal meal at 6:00 p.m. Join us!

Tuesday mornings from 9 to 10 a.m., the Women's Prayer Circle continues to meet at 80 Burns Blvd. What a wonderful way to start your day! (Philippians 4: 6 & 7). Need more information? Contact Kathy Patterson at 905-833-0391.

The Rev. Konnie Vissers will be back Sunday, Nov. 3 to continue looking at the Acts of the Apostles. Want to explore this part of God's Word more? How does the Bible relate to us? Join us again this Thursday from 10 to 11:15 a.m. at the Pattersons. Contact Kathy.

Sunday evenings Niyazi Bilgen, a pastor with The Greater Grace Fellowship leads a Bible Study starting at 5 p.m. in the lounge. Refreshments follow and all are welcome. Call 416-878-8499.

All Saints Anglican Church
By Patrick Gossage

Poinsettias, wreaths and Christmas arrangements in support of refugees – All Saints will again participate in our annual Poinsettia fundraising campaign! Terra Greenhouses (just south of All Saints on Keele Street) provides us with their best-selling Christmas poinsettias, decorative arrangements, and outdoor planters and wreaths. These come in a number of sizes, co-

Food Bank's Sip & Savour is off to Rio!

This year is looking like a sellout crowd for the Cocktail Party of the Year on Thursday, Oct. 24 from 6-9 p.m. at Nobleton Lakes Golf Club. These are the last few days to purchase tickets, either on line through kffb.ca or at Humber Valet Cleaners, Nobleton Pharmasave, Grackle Coffee Shop and Dorio's Italian Kettleby Bakery. Be prepared for bright sights, a surprise menu of bites and wonderful entertainment.

lours, and price ranges, making it easy to take orders from family, friends, neighbours, co-workers, and anyone else who would normally buy arrangements at this time of year. You can even buy Terra gift cards with $5 for a $50 card going to the church. All proceeds go to supporting our third refugee family which is presently in the works for a year from now. Orders must be received by Nov. 6 for pick up at the church Nov. 23. Forms are available on our website <http://www.allsaints-kingcity.com>.

Words to live by – The Gospel from Luke 18 last Sunday was the parable of the persistent widow who pesters the judge to “give me justice.” Rev. Dr. Elizabeth made persistence her theme in her sermon.

“We must be persistent with God in our prayers, our faith and our relationship with God,” she said. “How often we forgive, but don't forget. God requires us to do both.”

Sunday's passage from Jeremiah speaks of a new covenant in which God will forgive his people's iniquities and remember their sins no more. “God sees that forgiving accepts sincere regret, but forgetting releases harbored anger and hurt ... forgetting is an act of love. What needs to be forgotten today? Let us be persistent in our prayers to God about that.”

The Epistle from 2 Timothy was all about the need to study scripture. Rev. Dr. Elizabeth said that as we internalize the Bible, we are outmatched by God's love and grace. “How does scripture tell your story?” she asked. “Let's be the flesh in which God's word is heard and told. We make his word come to life. We must be persistent in love and grace and extend it to everyone. Forgiving, forgetting, love and grace is the justice of God we are freely given.”
